ORR AND JEFFERSON.

The Gazette informs us, that, at the Mass Meeting of the Democratic party in Concord, Hon. James L. Orr, of South Carolina, briefly related the history of the slavery agitation in this country and defended the compromise measures of 1850 as essential to the preservation of the Union, which he said could only be perpetuated by the maintainance of harmony and good will between the sovereign States. He also discussed the principles of the Nebraska bill, maintaining that they were such as no Democrat could fail to sustain and to approve.

He defended the South from the charge so often made against her, that she is constantly aggressing upon the rights of the North, and maintained that it was the North which was constantly infringing upon the constitutional rights of the South. All the South asked was her rights, abd to be left to manage her own institutions in her own way.

Mr Orr, who talks herein like a sectionalist, misstates the case, and falsifies the record. The true issue is not between the North and the South,—but between Freedom and Slavery! Has freedom encroached on slavery? Why should it not? Our fathers fought for liberty; not for slavery, for of this they had enough before, and more than enough. Their Declaration of Independence pleads for liberty,—not for slavery! And the Federal Constitution, which Messrs. Orr and Cobb considered synonymous with our glorious Union, professes, as its crowning purpose, to secure the blessings of liberty—but it does not so much as name slavery.

We have no controversy with the South, and cherish neither envy nor jealousy toward our brethren who live there: we rejoice in their prosperity, and wish it a thousand times greater. But with slavery we have a controversy,—as the enemy of that freedom we so highly prize ourselves,—as one of the grand evils which eats like a canker into the vitals of the community where it exists—we must speak against it, and oppose all its aggressions on freedom.

It is a contradiction in terms to speak of the rights of slavery, when slavery itself is a wrong. Mr Cobb very wisely avoided all discussion of the moral question. He wished us to stick to a bargain, which, as he made it out, secures the power to hold slaves.

Our controversy is against slavery and its abettors, north or south, black or white.—Messrs. Orr and Cobb, with all the more moderate slavery advocates, seem to consider slavery equal with freedom. It may be so, if every man could choose for himself. But let me choose freedom for myself, and choose to make Messrs. Cobb and Orr dig my garden, saw my wood and wheel my wheelbarrow, as my slaves, and there might be a rebellion somewhere.

Some other slavites, whose remarks we have lately copied, deem all free schools, free laborers, and free presses, great abominations—and slavery itself a blessed affair.

All their lordly airs may be accounted for, and their pleas set aside, by the following extract from Thomas Jefferson, the third President of the United States, and the leader of the old Republican party. It shows the real root of agitation,—the fever of oppression.

"The whole commerce between master and slave is a perpetual exercise of the most boisterous passions, the most unremitting despotism on the one part, and degrading submission on the other. Our children see this, and learn to imitate it; for man is an imitative animal. This quality is the germ of all education in him. From his cradle to his grave he is learning to do what he sees others do. If a parent could find no motive either in his philanthropy or his self-love, for restraining the intemperance of passion towards his slave, it should always be a sufficient one that his child is present. But generally it is not sufficient. The parent storms, the child looks on, catches the lineaments of wrath, puts on the same airs in the circle of smaller slaves, gives a loose to his worst passions, and thus nursed, educated, and daily exercised in tyranny, cannot but be stamped by it with odious peculiarities. The man must be a prodigy who can retain his manners and morals undepraved by such circumstances. And with what execration should the statesman be loaded, who, permitting one half the citizens thus to trample on the rights of the other, transforms those into despots, and these into enemies; destroys the morals of the one part, and the love of country of the other. For if a slave can have a country in this world, it must be any other in preference to that in which he is born to live and labor for another: in which he must lock up the faculties of his nature, contribute as far as depends on his individual endeavors to the evanishment of the human race, or entail his own miserable condition on the endless generations proceeding from him."

BOSTON & MAINE RAILROAD.—There is a panic in this stock from various co-operating causes. The board of directors, report says, divide 5 to 4 on most subjects, and their discussions are fierce in the extreme.

So says the Boston Gazette of Saturday.—On that day 38 shares were sold for $76 each.

GEN. CASS AND KANSAS.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, says that Col. Delahay, of Leavenworth, states "that he holds a letter from Mr Cass, promising him to vote and speak for the admission of Kansas into the Union, under the Topeka Constitution.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

LETTER FROM KANSAS.

SOUTH BERWICK, Feb. 9.

Dear Chronicle—I send you the following extract of a letter which I recently received from Kansas. It will tell its own story,

Yours, W. A. F.

LEAVENWORTH CITY, Jan. 23rd.

Again our community has been thrown into a state of intense excitement, by a most shocking and heart rending murder of a man named Brown, by a party of men called "Kickapoo Rangers"—from a town 6 miles above here on the river.

Mr Brown was returning from an election that had been held 15 miles west of this place, in company with 8 other men from here.—When about half way home they were surrounded and taken prisoners by the Rangers—On asking what they were going to do with them, the answer was given—"Hang every d—d one of you!" "What for?" they asked. "Because you are Abolitionists!" They were then taken to a grocery, disarmed and put under guard. Brown was the only one known to them, and on him they determined to concentrate their vengeance. Twice his life was attempted by a drunken ruffian, and saved by the interposition of the officers, who were disposed to release him, but feared to do so openly, as the men were drinking and would have killed Brown instantly if he had attempted to escape.

After dark the prisoners, except Brown, were quietly conducted out and told to run, by some of the more sober among the gang, who told them to scatter and avoid the road, as they would be pursued. They came directly to Leavenworth and reported the facts. The supposition was that Brown was hung. A warrant was issued by the Judge for the arrest of Brown, with a view to get him out of the hands of the Rangers. No officer could be found to serve it however, and it was then 10 o'clock P. M. At about half past 11 messengers came in for a doctor to go to Brown's house, and stating that B. had been brought home dangerously wounded. He died at 2 o'clock. Upon examination several wounds were found upon his head, one of which undoubtedly caused his death. It was cut with a hatchet across the temple. Subsequently we learned from members of their own gang, who were present, how he was killed.

He was taken out into a ring, and a man armed with a hatchet put in with him, Brown having no weapon of any kind. He was then told to fight, and if he could kill his man he should go—he asked for equal weapons with his adversary, but was refused.

About the fight not much is said, but Brown was knocked down and struck in the head—and while in this position the spectators asked him if he "had enough." B. said, "I am killed." "Why in h—l don't you holler enough then." B. then said "enough."

He was then placed in a wagon by some one of the crowd and carried home. One of the men who came with him said it was with the greatest difficulty the men could be prevented from jumping into the wagon and chopping him to pieces as he lay there insensible.

B. leaves a wife and two children in indigent circumstances.

It is hard to believe that in this enlightened age, men could be guilty of such unheard of cruelty. The wild savage would have more mercy to one completely in their power. And yet the law takes no notice of this. The murderers are still at large, and ready to commit other atrocities at any time. How long shall these things be?

☞ The weather has been unprecedently cold for the past month. The 26th of December being the coldest day, the mercury sank to 22° below zero. This morning at 7 o'clock it stood at 16° below. The oldest inhabitant says this is the coldest winter he has ever known in these parts. Eastern people who came here last summer with the idea of there being no winter, and built unplastered houses, are now suffering extremely. There are more cases of frozen feet, hands and ears, than I ever heard of in any other section of country. It is caused by the suddenness of the changes here, one day being warm enough to go in summer clothing, and the next all the overcoats and blankets we can raise will not protect from frost. I suppose you have heard of the destruction of our press here by a mob from Kickapoo. So I have no local paper to send you. C. F. W

PROPHECY.—Slavery will never go to Kansas.

FULFILMENT.—The Squatter Sovereign newspaper says:

Gen. Atchison, with a company of two hundred of his neighbors, have made their arrangements to remove to this territory early in the spring. He will locate in the neighborhood of Atchison, where himself and friends will meet with a cordial welcome from the squatters in this section of the territory. It is the intention of General Atchison to engage in farming, and for that purpose he will bring with him a number of slaves. Many of his companions who will accompany him are capitalists and large slaveholders, and their settlement in this section of the territory is a consummation devoutly to be wished for.

LOCAL.

LADIES FAIR.—The ladies of the Pleasant Street Society are to hold Social Levees at Jefferson Hall, on Tueseay, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, this week. It will be seen that they offer an attractive bill of entertainments, including many fine Tableaux, music, refreshments, &c. Besides a good assortment of articles useful and ornamental, which will be offered, as usual on such occasions—much fun is anticipated from the exchange of Valentines through the branch post office there. A complete assortment of these missives or missiles will be found on the tables.

The Fair commences this evening. Among the Tableaux to be presented to-night, are three scenes from the life of Columbus—his departure from Spain, Arrival in America, and Reception on returning to Spain. Seats to accommodate a hundred persons, have been arranged at the western end of the hall—from which a fine view of the tableaux will be afforded.

Tickets may be had at the store of Mr Samuel W. Moses, opposite the hall.

☞ The February Term of the Supreme Judicial Court for Rockingham County, commences at Exeter, on Tuesday morning, Feb. 12th, at 10 o'clock.

For the accommodation of persons attending Court, a passenger-car will be attached to the ice-train, which leaves the Portsmouth & Concord railroad station in Portsmouth, for Raymond, at seven o'clock on Tuesday and Thursday mornings of this week.

☞ Rev D. P. Pike's Lecture, on Sunday evening, before the Young Men's Christian Association, was on Completeness of Character, from the text, "What lack I yet?" The lack, he maintained, was of the Christian Spirit, of sacrifice or self-denial.

☞ Yankee Addams and his theatrical company, are performing nightly at the Comeneum, to good houses, and give general satisfaction.

☞ The temperance meeting at the Temple on Monday evening, was opened with prayer by Rev. Mr Holman, and addressed by Rev. Messrs. Fernald, Peabody and Holman.

☞ Satan's kingdom's tumbling down again. We state this on the authority of the Daily (Concord) Patriot of the 8th, where we read:

We have every reason to believe that "Satan's kingdom is tumbliug down"—and that the deluded victims of know nothingism are repenting of its great wickedness.

Per Contra, the Winniepisaukie Gazette of the 9th, says:

The fact is, the American party of New Hampshire is stronger by thousands than it was one year ago to-day, and we are just as sure of conquering our opponents as the sun is to rise on the morning of the second Tuesday of March next. This gathering of the People has settled the matter. We have got the voters, and all they have got to do is to go to the polls and cast their ballots.

The reader will balance the probabilities between the two statements in his own mind.

RESIGNATION.—We regret to learn (says the Newburyport Herald), that Rev. D. M. Reed has resigned his charge of the Universalist Society in this city. It will be with extreme difficulty that his place will be made good. Able, eloquent, faithful, he has been beloved by his immediate parishoners, and respected by the people who have called him several times to local public services, and twice elected him to represent the city in the Legislature, which duties he has performed honorably to them and himself. Several times in the four years of his pastorate, he has had calls to more wealthy societies, paying much larger salaries, and declined them. He does not now retire to answer any immediate call elsewhere, and may next settle far away from this.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Feb. 11.

HOUSE.—The House re-adopted the resolution to proceed to the election of a printer, when a vote was taken with the following result: Follett 68, Wendell 66, Farnham 16, Nathan Sargent 9, scattering 14; necessary to a choice, 87.

On motion of Mr Fish, the Secretary of War was requested to report whether any, and if so, what fortifications are necessary for the defence of the harbor of New York and Brooklyn Navy Yard.

Mr Cullom, Clerk of the House, retains Messrs. Barclay, Buck, and Harris, as Clerks. He has removed twenty others, and filled the vacancies. The standing committees of the House will not be announced to-day.

The Charleston Evening News understands that the elephant which was lost overboard from a vessel bound to that port, made its way safely into Mount Pleasant harbor!—The vessel was thirty miles out at sea, and a heavy gale was blowing when the elephant went overboard. Its feat of riding out the storm is, we suppose, the most remarkable instance of animal strength and endurance on record.

Adam Jack, Esq., a leading citizen of St. John, while riding last Saturday in the funeral procession of the lady of the Mayor, complained of feeling unwell, and before assistance could reach him, he was dead.

The contribution of the people, in the time of David, towards the building of the sanctuary, was not far from £30,000,000, while David is said to have collected nearly £36,000,000. The gold with which Solomon overlaid the "Most Holy Place," a room only thirty feet square, amounted to more than thirty-eight millions sterling.

In Pittsburg, Pa., last week, a gentleman of misanthropic turn, lay down upon the railway track, said his prayers, and waited for the coming train to finish him. A watchman having livelier views of life, carried him to the station house.

Samuel B. Emery, of Sanford, has been appointed Sheriff of York County, in place of Thomas K. Lane, who declined the appointment.

The office of sheriff of New Orleans, was proved in the recent contest, to be worth $100,000 per annum.

MOBILE, Feb. 1, eve.—Cotton—The Arabia's news this morning created quite an excitement, and with an active demand, sales reached the large amount of 9000 bales; an advance of ¼ a ⅛c per lb realized; mid firm at 8⅞ a 9⅛c. Sales of the week 29,000 bales. Freights—An Am and two or three Br laid on for Liverpool at 17-32d; two schrs for New York at 11-16c; and a bark for Boston at ⅜c.—Adv.

AFFAIRS OF HAYTI.—Extract of a letter, dated Cape Haytien, Jan. 4:

Everything is in confusion here, and all business of any consequence at a stand. The Haytiens have had two engagements with the Dominicans on the frontiers. In the division which accompanied the Emperor, all the troops of the South refused to fight, and left him, in consequence of which he had to abandon his march. He was on his way hither; but the latest intelligence is, that the army has advanced again to Ounaminthe, add that all the troops are being collected to continue the invasion. Those who deserted, or refused to fight, have been shot, some twenty miles from here. A number of officers, (all who have been taken) and many of the common soldiers, have been executed. The most vigorous measures are in force here for the collection of troops. The people are caught up in every direction, and put in prison until they are ready to be sent off.

The schooner Isaac W. Hughes, at New York, from Port au Prince, brings advices from that port to Jan. 6. A number of vessels were in the port waiting to discharge, but in consequence of the Emperor having pressed all the male inhabitants into his service against the Dominicans, there was a great scarcity of men to unload the vessels. Capt. Fields confirms the statement of the war against the Dominicans and the execution of some of the nobles of Hayti by the Emperor

ALBANY, Feb. 9.—Appeal from Kanzas.—Gov. Clark sent in the following communication to-day to the Assembly;—

Lawrence City, Kanzas Territory. Jan. 21st, 1855.

To His Excellency Governor Clark:

Sir,—We have authentic information that an overwhelming force of the citizens of Missouri are organizing upon our border, amply supplied with artillery, for the avowed purpose of invading our territory, demolishing our towns, and butchering our free state citizens. We hope to be able to hold out until assistance can reach us. We respectively request on behalf of the citizens of Kanzas that such steps may be taken by the people of the states as humanity dictates to prevent the successful carrying out of so inhuman an outrage.

Signed, J. H. LANE, Chairman of the Executive Com. of Kanzas Territory.
C. ROBINSON, Gov. elect of Kanzas.

The reading of this document created much excitement in the House. Mr Pendergast made a motion to refer the communication to a special committee. Mr Scott asked who Gov. Robinson was? he thought quite a different person was Governor of the territory. Mr Duganne favored reference to a special committee.

LATER FROM THE WEST INDIES AND VENEZUELA.—The Missing Barque Amelia.—The steamship Tennessee, Capt. Johson, from Laguayra 27th ult., and St. Thomas 1st inst., arrived this forenoon.

The cholera had entirely disappeared from the Provinces of Carracas, and Cara Bobo (Venezuela), but it is unfortunately committing awful savages in those of Barius and Barquisimate.

At St. Thomas there was no sickness when the Tennessee left.

The reports of the cholera in Porto Rico are really heart-rending. From Nov. 11th to Jan 21st last there had been 12,323 cases, of which 5,205 had proved fatal.

The barque Amelia, Capt. Warden, of New York, arrived at St. Thomas, 1st inst., leaking badly.

This is undoubtedly the bark Amelia that government is about sending a vessel in search of.—New York Express.

FROM WASHINGTON.—NEW YORK, Feb. 11.—The inspector of the Courier and Enquirer telegraphed last evening from Washington:—There is no possibility of a collision on the Central American question.

Mr Douglas has arrived and will oppose the administration in its policy upon Central America.

The following clerks in the Land Office are appointed by Gen. Cullom under the resolution of May, 1848: Amasa R. Parker of N. Y., draftsman, re-appointed; Wm. Bailey of Pa., J. C. Greenlease of Md., Wm. D. Washburn of Wis., Joseph M. Gordon, Md., Rufus Prentice, Mich., Cathbert P. Wallace, D. C., John J. Burnett, Ala., Chas. F. Halbert, N. Y.

FIRE.—The Worcester Transcript states that at the Methodist Church at Cherry Valley, about four miles from that city, was destroyed by fire on Sunday. The fire broke out during the morning service, and owing to the high wind blowing at the time, nothing could be done to check the flames, and the church was wholly consumed.

The Northampton Gazette states that the suit of Susan B. Cummings, against Ansel and George F. Wright, deputy sheriffs, for $10,000 damages for causing the death of her husband in August last, on the occasion of the seizure of some liquor, and its being set fire to and exploded, in Northampton, has been settled by the payment of a small sum by the defendants, who are expected to apply for reimbursement to the State.

While Mr Archibald K. Gaines, of Boone county, Ky., was in Cincinnati trying to recover the fugitive slaves who lately escaped from his patriarchal care, four more of his slaves took leave of absence, and, says the Cincinnati Commercial, are now beyond reach of capture.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—Mr Crampton.—The impression exists here that Mr Crampton will shortly retire voluntarily, and not in consequence of any demand on the part of his government for his recall.

Senor Almonte has left Washington for Mexico, at the urgent solicitation of his friends, the Constitution of that country now being remodeled, and his presence deemed necessary for present and future contingencies.

At Preston, Canada, an infant four months old, son of James Atkinson, fell from its mother's knee while she was intoxicated and asleep, and was suffocated in a dish of dough, which she had prepared and placed on the floor for making bread.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLDS VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just addcd to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGE AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the Public and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

NEW CLEAR AND MESS PORK—for sale by A. A. PAYNE. jy22

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the circulars and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had this singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Empredeo de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. D. W. Inman, Sale Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, composing nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

"ALSO," SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIMS LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; for they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients; is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from persons who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine. let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

AN OLD SERVANT.

The Dover Gazette contains the following singular obituary notice:

In New Durham, Jan. 28, REMUS, a man of color, aged 70 years, 7 months, 20 days. He was born at Cape Ann, Mass., June 8th, 1785, and was brought by his mother Hagar, to New Durham, at the age of 3 years, and given to Mr Samuel Willey, Senior of that town, and after the death of his first master, he went in the family of his master's son Samuel Willey, Esq., and after the death of Samuel Willey, Esq., he went into the family of Samuel B. Willey, son of said Esq. Willey and after Samuel Downing, Jr. Esq., moved into New Durham who married a daughter of Samuel Willey, Esq. Remus went into his family which was about 19 years ago, where he remained until death; he was a faithful servant and was kindly treated in every family where he lived; in his last sickness which was protracted and distressing he was tenderly cared for until death closed up the scene. On the 29th he was buried in a Christianlike manner, a number of people collected at the house of his late master, Samuel Downing, Jr., Esq., and listened with becoming attention to a discourse delivered by the writer founded on Job 3—19, "the small and the great are there and the servant is free from his master." He was then decently buried in the family burying ground near by his Senior Master.

"Where bones without distinction lie,
Among the heaps of meaner bones."

N. B.—Remus's Masters were all full blooded Democrats of the old Jeffersonian stamp. J. BOODEY.

New Durham, Jan. 30, 1856.

This man of color we suppose was one of those who have figured in the Census returns off and on, sometimes as a slave and sometimes as a freeman—though slavery has never had a legal existence in the state of New Hampshire, unless it now has by Judge Kane's new ruling. We are very glad to read that so faithful a servant was kindly treated in life, and so decently buried when dead. It would have been sad indeed to have such a life rewarded by a neglected death bed and a scurvy burial. The Nota Bene (N. B.) at the end of the tale, is particularly interesting and valuable, giving an artistic finish to the biography.

THE SPEAKER AND COMMITTEES.—The Washington correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer, after alluding to the different names which were voted for for Speaker in the late canvas observes:—

Mr Banks will of course take care to place the control of the House in the hands of his own friends, the Republicans, but will assign to all positions suited to their influence and ability. It is supposed that Mr Pennington will be Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means; Mr Campbell of the Committee on Elections; Mr Giddings of the Committee on Territories, or of the District of Columbia; Mr Mace of the Committee on the Territories or Post Office; Mr Bennett of New-York of the Commitee on Public Lands; Mr Washburn of Maine of that on Commerce; Mr Tappan of New Hampshire of that on the Judiciary. In the event of this arrangement being carried out, Mr Pennington will be the leader of the House on the floor. The Committee on Foreign Affairs will be of great importance, and the Chairmanship of it may be tendered to Mr Campbell of Ohio, or to Mr Dunn of Indiana.—The claims of such members as Haven, Howell Cobb, Orr, Boyce, Aiken, George W. Jones and Etheridge, to positions of influence and distinction, will, of course, not be overlooked, but they cannot expect to be placed, as heretofore, at the head of any of the prominent committees.

THE CODFISHERY AT PROVINCETOWN.—The Barnstable Patriot says that the number of vessels employed last year at Provincetown, in the codfishery, was 84, with an aggregate tunnage of 7605 tuns, manned by about 800 seamen, and possessing an aggregate value—including outfits— of $375,000. This return when compared with the previous year, exhibits a diminution of 3 vessels, with the same amount of tunnage employed. Since 1852 the average value of the vessels employed has constantly increased, by annually substituting larger and more costly vessels for those of an inferior size. The importations of 1855 consist as follows: Of Cape Cod Fish 70,914 quintals, and of Cod Oil 806 barrels, which fall short of 1854 about one-eighth.—The value of the fish was $249,617 28, and of the oil $17,276 08—total, $266,893 36. The amount of bounty received by the fishermen was $27,363 90.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1856.

PROCLAMATION ON KANSAS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 11.—The President to-day issued a proclamation, which will appear in the Union to-morrow, setting forth that indications exist that public tranquility and suppression of the laws in Kansas is endangered by the reprehensible acts and purposes of persons, both within and without the territory, who propose to direct and control the first political organization by force; that combinations have been formed therein to resist the execution of the territorial laws, and thus in effect to subvert by violence all the present constitutional and legal authority; that persons residing without the territory, but near its borders, contemplate armed intervention in the affairs thereof; that other inhabitants of remote States are collecting money, engaging men, and providing arms for the same purpose; that combinations within the territory are endeavoring by the agency of emissaries and other men, to induce individual States of the Union to interfere in the affairs thereof, in violation of the Constitution of the United States.

☞Plans for the determination of the future institutions of the territory carried into execution from within the same will constitute the fact of an insurrection,* and if from without, that of an invasive aggression, and will in either case justify and require the forcible interposition of the whole power of the general government, as well as to maintain the laws of the territory as those of the Union. He commands all persons engaged in unlawful combinations against the constituted authority of the territory of Kansas to disperse and retire peacably to their respective abodes, and warns all such persons, that any attempted insurrection of the territory or aggressive intrusion into the same will be resisted, not only by employment of the loyal militia, but also by that of any available force of the United States troops, to the end of assuming immunity to violence, and full protection to persons and property, and the civil right of all peaceable and law-abiding inhabitants of that territory. If in any part of the Union the fury of faction or fanaticism inflamed into a disregard of the general principles of popular sovereignty, which under the Constitution are fundamental in the whole structure of our institutions, bring on the country such dire calamity as requires the arbitrament of arms in that territory, it shall be between lawless violence on one side, and conservative force on the other—wielded by the legal authority of the general government.

The President calls on both of the adjoining and distant States to abstain from unauthorized intermeddling in the local concerns of that territory, admonishing them that its organic law is to be executed with impartial justice, and that all individual acts of illegal interference will incur condign punishment, and any endeavor to interfere will be firmly withstood. He invokes all good citizens to promote order by rendering obedience to the law, to discountenance and repulse the counsels of instigators and disorganizers, and to testify their attachment to their country, their pride in its greatness, their appreciation of the blessings they enjoy, and their determination that republican institutions shall not fail in in their hands by co-operating to uphold the majesty of the laws and to vindicate the sanctity of the Constitution.

*This does not agree with Mr Cobb's doctrine of squatter rights at all—but is point blank against it. Mr Cobb told us that our emigrants, going from New Hampshire into Kansas, had the same rights as when here—but the President calls the exercise of one of them, insurrection.

Congress will soon be discussing this subject. And the rights may soon be tested.

PEACE PROSPECTS.—The New York Courier's Washington correspondent says:

The despatches from Mr Buchanan by the last steamer, contain nothing of interest save the expression of his opinion that the negotiations for peace will succeed. It is stated in private correspondence that American clippers and other shipping, to the extent of 50,000 tons, had returned to Marseilles laden with arms, munitions, and stores that had been sent to Sebastopol. This fact is considered strongly indicative of confidence on the part of the British and French governments that peace is at hand.

The same correspondent says of Douglas:

Mr Douglas has arrived, and will oppose the administration in its policy upon Central America. He advises an alliance offensive and defensive with General Walker, as preliminary to the war with Great Britain which is about to take place upon the recommendation of the President, and with the concurrence of Messrs. Seward, Foote and Wilson. Mr Douglas has not yet perfectly recovered the use of his voice, his great weapon, but he will find the means to swell the war cry against Great Britain. Though dissatisfied with the course of the President upon Kansas affairs, he acquiesces in it, because to do otherwise would be to injure his own prospects for a Presidential nomination.

On the whole, it was a sad day for President Pierce, when he put his foot into that Nebraska trap which Douglas set for him, on purpose to lame him so that he could not run again for the presidency.

It does not seem very probable, however, that Douglas will be president, and not quite certain that war will break out between us and Great Britain. We think the South will have a word to say about that.

"OUT AGAIN."—The Daily American, printed in Manchester, and which was one of the papers destroyed by the recent fire, is "out again," in new type, and filled as usual with interesting matter. We hope the proprietors of the American will receive a cordial and hearty support from the people of Manchester and its vicinity.

AN OLD SERVANT.

The Dover Gazette contains the following singular obituary notice:

In New Durham, Jan. 28, REMUS, a man of color, aged 70 years, 7 months, 20 days. He was born at Cape Ann, Mass., June 8th, 1785, and was brought by his mother Hagar, to New Durham, at the age of 3 years, and given to Mr Samuel Willey, Senior of that town, and after the death of his first master, he went to the family of his master's son Samuel Willey, Esq., and after the death of Samuel Willey, Esq., he went into the family of Samuel B. Willey, son of said Esq. Willey and after Samuel Downing, Jr. Esq., moved into New Durham who married a daughter of Samuel Willey, Esq. Remus went into his family which was about 19 years ago, where he remained until death; he was a faithful servant and was kindly treated in every family where he lived; in his last sickness which was protracted and distressing he was tenderly cared for until death closed up the scene. On the 29th he was buried in a Christianlike manner, a number of people collected at the house of his late master, Samuel Downing, Jr., Esq., and listened with becoming attention to a discourse delivered by the writer founded on Job 3—19, "the small and the great are there and the servant is free from his master." He was then decently buried in the family burying ground near by his Senior Master.

"Where bones without distinction lie,
Among the heaps of meaner bones."

N. B.—Remus's Masters were all full blooded Democrats of the old Jeffersonian stamp. J. BOODEY.

New Durham, Jan. 30, 1856.

This man of color we suppose was one of those who have figured in the Census returns off and on, sometimes as a slave and sometimes as a freeman—though slavery has never had a legal existence in the state of New Hampshire, unless it now has by Judge Kane's new ruling. We are very glad to read that so faithful a servant was kindly treated in life, and so decently buried when dead. It would have been sad indeed to have such a life rewarded by a neglected death bed and a scurvy burial. The Nota Bene (N. B.) at the end of the tale, is particularly interesting and valuable, giving an artistic finish to the biography.

A STATEMENT.—In the N. H. Daily Patriot of the 9th, "A Friend of Temperance" writes:

What true friend of temperance, what man who does not think more of his politics than of morality, more of the elevation of his party than the cause of temperance, can but view with dismay and regret the present attitude of the cause, transferred into the hands of mercenary, ruthless and black hearted politicians, who would "steal the livery of heaven to serve the devil in"—men who will prate about temperance and morality, whilst they are strangers to both? This is throwing into the hands of the politicians a cause which is worthy alone of the care of the purest and men in society.

We will add another statement, which may throw some light on this, viz. that we have had temperance meetings four successive Monday evenings, in which the only speakers have been seven of our city pastors, and which have been fully attended.

This does not look like leaving the cause in doubtful hands. It does not look like throwing it into the hands of those who think more of the elevation of a party than the cause of temperance.

The cause, (as the above extract truly asserts) "is worthy of the purest and best men in society." Where can we hope to find men purer or better, than those selected by the people of seven distinct religious societies, to be their teachers of morality and religion? We have seen on the same platform the pastors of the Othordox and Unitarian, Baptist, Free-will Baptist and Christian, Methodist and Universalist Churches—all speaking the same language—all counselling obedience to the law,—all uniting in the moral and christian pleas for temperance.

This is the present attitude of the cause here.

There is to be a similar meeting next Monday evening.

A SOUTH SIDE VIEW.—The correspondence of the N. Y. Evening Post says:

The North has obtained, in the election of Banks, a victory which is principally valuable as the key and precursor to a perpetual supremacy over the national government. It is not one victory, but a thousand victories which it has thus gained. Such was the confession of a member from South Carolina in the remark, "I don't care so much about Banks being elected merely, but the North has learned that it can beat us, and now it will keep on beating us."

Ay, ay,—Now we understand what Mr Orr meant, when he said the North were encroaching upon the rights of the South. It was, that we encroach on their right to govern the country, so as to make everything subservient to slavery. And he invites New Hampshire men to help do this great work.

But we protest against this sectional view.—We wish for no victory over the South, by the North. We wish for the triumph of Liberty and its defence by Law, everywhere, as soon as possible.

So far as that election is a triumph of principle, we rejoice at it—but for the triumph of a section or a party, we fire no gun, we raise no cheer.

THE STREETS.—About $20,000 have been expended in making the streets in Boston passable since the snow has been on the ground.

LOCAL.

ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday afternoon, an Irishman while engaged in clearing out a spout on the two story building in State street, occupied by R. K. Oxford, was, with the ladder on which he was standing, thrown into the street, by the sliding of the ice on the roof.—When first picked up he was senseless, and somewhat bruised on his legs, caused by the ladder, which fell on him, but no bones were broken. When he recovered his senses he complained that his back pained him. It was a narrow escape from death.

THE PLEASANT STREET SOCIETY FAIR, commenced at Jefferson Hall, on Tuesday evening. A large company were present, and appeared to enjoy themselves highly. There were entertainments for the eye, the ear, and the palate, not to mention the enjoyment which some persons find in voluble exercises. The tableaux were finely designed and well presented—the scenes from Much Ado about Nothing, the life of Columbus, and Romeo and Juliet, being among the best.

This evening a new programme of tableaux will be presented, including the Witch of Endor Raising Samuel at the demand of Saul, Queen Elizabeth knighting Drake, a Country the True Spirit of '76 or the Young Volunteers, Wedding, &c. The new arrangement of seats at the western end of the hall, enables many more to have a good view of the tableaux.

The Portsmouth Serenade Band kindly lent their aid on the occasion, and discoursed excellent and appropriate music. These young men did themselves much credit, and very much increased the interest of the entertainment.

To-morrow being St. Valentine's Day, a full assortment of his missives will be found on the tables to-night.

Vocal music will also be introduced this evening. Doors open at half-past 6; Tableaux commence at an early hour.

☞ The lecture before the Mercantile Library Association, on Tuesday evening, was by Rev Mr Bodwell, of Framingham, on England and the English—some of their manners, customs and peculiarities. It was an ingenious performance, instructive and amusing. The audience were highly pleased with it.

Prelude on the Grand Piano by Mr Pearson and a young lady pupil.

GAS COMPANY.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Portsmouth Gas Light Company, held Feb. 12, James W. Emery, John Knowlton, Benj. Cheever, Thos. L. Tullock, and M. C. Burleigh, were elected Directors. David Kimball, Treasurer and Proprietor's Clerk.

Voted—An annual dividend of 3 per cent. payable April 10th.

WHIG CAUCUS.—We learn that the Whigs of this city held a caucus Monday evening, and appointed the following delegates to the State Convention, to be holden at Concord to-morrow, with power to fill vacancies:

WARD 1.—Samuel Sheafe, C. S. Toppan, J. M. Tredick, John S. Harvey.

WARD 2.—Ichabod Goodwin, W. H. Y Hackett, Samuel Adams, Wm. Tucker, Samuel Storer, John Sise.

WARD 3.—Wm. A. Vaughan, Wm. Goodrich, Thatcher Emery.

BELL RINGERS.—The Alexander family of Bell Ringers and Vocalists, are to give two concerts in this city on Friday and Saturday evening next. Part of the family are mere children. The company have been listened to by crowded houses, in various parts of New England, and have given great satisfaction. The State Capital Reporter says:

The Concert of the Alexander Family at Phœnix Hall on Monday last, was one of the finest that we have ever attended. The performances on the bells, as well as the singing, were both of a character that could not but please all present. We wish that we may hear them again.

☞ Mr Ezra R. Tibbets, of Lynn, aged 50, was killed in Boston on Tuesday, by a body of ice falling from the eaves of a store.

Ice from the roof of the Catholic Church in Franklin street, smashed the windows of a house and store adjoining.

☞ The stock market in New York on Tuesday, was active and excited. $40,000 in stocks were sold, and $200,000 in bonds.

OHIO NEWS.

The following letter to the Boston Transcript, will interest every reader:

CINCINNATI, Feb. 5th, 1856.

Dear Transcript:—Ere this date the telegraph has conveyed to you some account of the recent slave tragedy in this city. The excitement consequent upon this terrible affair still continues, and the sympathy of our citizens has been deeply excited in behalf of the family of fugitive slaves now under arrest. The intensely cold weather which has prevailed in this region has frozen over the Ohio river to an extent before unknown, the ice averaging in thickness over 14 inches, and while the citizens of Ohio and Kentucky are enjoying the facilities for pleasure in the way of skating, coasting, &c., where this immense extent of ice affords, the slaves in Kentucky who are fully aware that the laws of the State make it a penal offence for the tollman to allow them passage over any bridge within the limits of the State, and probably supposing that the proprietor of the great natural bridge now existing between Ohio and Kentucky is under no particular obligation to the slave-holding interests, have seized upon the occasion for a grand stampede.

It is estimated that nearly 200 slaves have escaped from bondage by crossing the Ohio river, during the past month. Through the activity and vigilance of the directors of the "underground railroad" they have, with an unfortunate exception, all been "put through." One family, composed of five persons, husband, wife, wife's mother, and two small children, came safely over the river, but were immediately pursued by their master to the place of secretion. The family defended themselves by the use of fire-arms, but when resistance appeared hopeless, rather than allow her children to be carried back into the "—— of American slavery," the mother deliberately murdered one, and attempted the destruction of the other, as the following testimony will show:

The following is the testimony of Mary Garner, mother-in law of the murderess:

On yesterday about 12 1-2 o'clock, as near as I can recollect, at a house near Milcreek bridge, Margaret Garner said to me—"Mother, before my children shall be taken back to Kentucky, I will kill every one of them." She ran to her child, a little girl about three years old, with a butcher knife, and cut its throat. She said—"Mother, help me to kill them." I said, "I can't help you to kill them;" and went out of the room and got under a bed in another room, and staid there until I was hauled out by some men. I did not see her do any thing to the other children; when this happened there was none of the colored people in the room but Margaret, myself and the children. A good many white men were rushing in; some of them were pulling my husband into the back room, and some were pulling Margaret's husband out of the front door. The child's throat was cut when the white men were rushing into the room.

What a significant commentary does this tragedy afford on the assertion so often made of the strong affection of the slaves for their masters.

The case has become exceedingly complicated, and very great interest is felt, both in Kentucky and on this side of the river, as to the result. The general impression seems to be that Messrs. Marshal and Gaines have a very slim chance of ever getting any of the negroes back into slavery. When the murder trial, habeas corpus trial, United States Commissioner's trial, resistance to officers' trial, false imprisonment trial, affidavits from Oregon, and other matters, are gone through, there is such a general unwillingness to carry out the fugitive slave law, even if Messrs. M. and G. fully make out their case, that the result will still be doubtful. Should the infants be sent back, and the mother be held to answer for the crime of murder, it will cause tremendous excitement.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Feb. 11.

SENATE.—On motion of Mr Thompson of Kentucky, a resolution was adopted instructing the committee on military affairs to inquire into the expediency of abolishing the committee on military asylum at Harrodsburg, Ky. Mr. Thompson said the old soldiers were not satisfied to be so far from salt water, where they could not get "Scheidam Schnapps" and Irish whiskey.

On motion of Mr Fiske, the Secretary of War was requested to report whether any, and if so, what fortifications are necessary for the defence of the harbor of New York and Brooklyn Navy Yard.

On motion of Mr. Sumner, the Post-office committee were directed to consider whether the charges on letters carried on ocean steamers are not unnecessarily large and burdensome, and whether something may be done, and if so, what, to secure the benefits of cheap ocean postage.

On motion of Mr Sumner, the judiciary committee was instructed to consider the expediency of the appointment of a Commissioner to revise the public statutes, and reduce them to one connected text, and render the language plain to all. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House re-adopted the resolution to proceed to the election of a printer, when a vote was taken with the following result: Follett 68, Wendell 66, Farnham 16, Nathan Sargent 9, scattering 14; necessary to a choice, 87.

Two more votes were taken for Printer, the last resulting as follows: Follett 65, Wendell 71, Farnham 9, Sargent 16. Necessary for a choice 84.

Mr Underwood made an ineffectual motion to elect a printer by plurality.

Adjourned.

TUESDAY, Feb. 12.

SENATE.—Mr Douglas, in presenting the petition, of the naval officer, complaining of the action of the Retiring Board, proposed the passage of a law to grant trial by court martial where charges were made, to test their truth.

Mr Hale introduced a bill to repeal act to promote the efficiency of the navy. Referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

HOUSE.—The House proceeded to vote for Printer—resulting as follows: Follett 65, Wendell 69, Farnham 9, Sargent 6, scattering 15. Necessary for a choice 83.

THE SPEAKER AND COMMITTEES.—The Washington correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer, after alluding to the different names which were voted for for Speaker in the late canvas observes:—

Mr Banks will of course take care to place the control of the House in the hands of his own friends, the Republicans, but will assign to all positions suited to their influence and ability. It is supposed that Mr Pennington will be Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means; Mr Campbell of the Committee on Elections; Mr Giddings of the Committee on Territories, or of the District of Columbia; Mr Mace of the Committee on the Territories or Post Office; Mr Bennett of New York of the Committee on Public Lands; Mr Washburn of Maine of that on Commerce; Mr Tappan of New Hampshire of that on the Judiciary. In the event of this arrangement being carried out, Mr Pennington will be the leader of the House on the floor. The Committee on Foreign Affairs will be of great importance, and the Chairmanship of it may be tendered to Mr Campbell of Ohio, or to Mr Dunn of Indiana.—The claims of such members as Haven, Howell Cobb, Orr, Boyce, Aiken, George W. Jones and Etheridge, to positions of influence and distinction, will, of course, not be overlooked, but they cannot expect to be placed, as heretofore, at the head of any of the prominent committees.

2 WEEKS LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 9.—The steamship Prometheus arrived here to day from San Juan, left on the 5th inst., and brings San Francisco dates of the 21st. The steamer Northern Light left San Suan on the 5th for New York, with $350,000 in dust.

The California agricultural accounts were better, and the news from the mines continue encouraging.

The Legislature were having trouble in electing a U. S. Senator. Several prominent candidates had withdrawn in order to harmonize the American party.

The barque Isabellita Hyne, was wrecked on the 8th, and the captain and mate lost; the vessel and cargo are a total loss.

More fighting had taken place between the volunteers and the Indians of Walla Walla: twenty three of the troops were killed and wounded.

Markets unchanged.

Affairs at Nicaragua were quiet. The Government had suspended its relations with Col. Wheeler, the U. S. Minister.

FROM WASHINGTON.—A despatch from Washington says that Mr Rust, the member from Arkansas, has been cited to answer to a criminal charge of assault upon Horace Greeley. The complaint was made by a third person, Mr Greeley having declined to prosecute.

FATAL RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—On Thursday evening, at half-past 5 o'clock, as Mr Lot Smith of South Reading, was walking upon the track of the Newburyport Railroad in that town, he was struck by the locomotive of a passing train and instantly killed. A train for Salem starts from the junction at the same time with this train, and the two run on nearly parallel tracks for a short distance. Mr Smith's attention was attracted by the Salem train, and he immediately walked out of that into the way of the train which struck him.—He was a worthy young man, son of the late Dea David Smith, and he leaves a wife and one child.—Newburyport Herald.

The "Free Love" club rooms, in Broadway, New York, have been given up,—the Association having dwindled down to almost nothing. Only five persons attended the last meeting. So ends another "peculiar institution."

LIGHT HOUSE CARRIED AWAY.—Norfolk, Feb. 11.—The Pungatoague Light House was swept away on Saturday night the 2d inst., with three men who were stationed there; nothing has been heard from it since.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.
The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine possesses.
They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.
These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.
They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that
Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.
The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.
They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.
Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.
These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

FLAGG'S WRAPPING PAPER—f at Manufacturers' price, by jy25 JOHN S. HARVEY & SON.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836,) continued to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonial below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

"AUGUST 17, 1850.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels wonderfully free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT;—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to this invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion, that no family should be without this Medicine; let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stones Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and it has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Enrenendo de Lara, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIMS—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and bearing the name A. Swaim stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been formed for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. (In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

A. SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally.

BY R. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed without MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free in a sealed envelope by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m*

INCIDENTS IN WHITE MOUNTAIN HISTORY,

CONTAINING facts relative to the discovery and settlement of the Mountains, Indian History and Tradition, an authentic account of the destruction of the Willey Family; Geology and Temperature of the Mountains, together with many interesting anecdotes illustrating Life in Backwoods. By Rev. Benjamin G. Willey. 12 mo 307 pp. Illustrated. Price $1 00.
Having sold every copy of the first edition of one thousand, I have published another, which is now ready. Please read the following
NOTICES OF THE PRESS.
The Evening Traveller says: "From long and familiar acquaintance with the locality, the author describes at greater length than any previous topographer the various objects of interest in the district, and relates to us thrilling tales of wild adventure on its mountains, in its forests and caves of contests with the catamounts, wolves, bears, add the scarcely less savage aborigines. The theme is fruitful of wonder, and the book may be read with great interest even by those who have never visited the locality, wandered up the Notch, or pic-nicked upon Mt. Washington."
The Boston Herald says: "The story of the destruction of the Willey Family, contained in the work, is worth more than the price of the book. The narrative of this single and terrible calamity is given in a simple but impressive style. We are sure the book will attain a wide circulation."
The Congregationalist says: "The book may be purchased with great certainty of a good investment of the money it will require."
Zion's Herald says: "Whoever intends to visit the White Hills should first read this book. It will add a hundred fold to the interest of a White Mountain tour."
The Bellows Falls Argus says: "This is one of the most interesting works it has ever been our good fortune to read. There are few romances of more thrilling interest, and this is the more valuable because it is all fact. It should be in the hands of every family in New England."
The Watchman and Reflector says: "We have seen no work comparable to this for comprehensive thoroughness of information and interesting detail. Its pages will be found entertaining and instructive, not only to travellers to our northern Alps, but by others likewise."
☞ An Agent will offer the book for sale in this place soon.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1856.

CHRISTIAN DEMOCRACY.

Right glad are we to introduce to our younger readers, our old friend and fellow townsman, Estwick Evans, who is writing a series of letters on Democracy, christian democracy, religious politics, and political morality.

We do this, assuring them that he is no fanatic, but that he was a Republican long before the Democratic party was formed, and has been one of the latter party ever since it had a being.

What he may say, therefore, will not be met by the sneers sometimes bestowed on those who "talk piously, of temperance, the higher law, and the divine institutions."

He publishes his letters in the Daily Evening Gazette, whence we take the following extract:

I will first say what is not Democracy. Every abuse of freedom of action is not Democracy. I do not now speak of the form of a Democratic government, but of its vital principle—of its life; and without which Democracy is a rotten carcass, offensive to God and man.

This is admirable. Mr Evans does not believe that the form of a government, the name of a party, or the extravagance of liberty, is true Democracy. Neither do we. If you baptise oppression, injustice, excess and prof. ligacy, by this good name, the rotten carcass, as he calls it, smells as badly as if it bore any other name.

But hear him further, speak of what true Democracy is. Democracy, as we all know, or ought to know, means a government by the whole. He maintains that a wicked acting power is no government—does not deserve the name — and that a wicked, oppressive, corrupt people, are no Democracy, no government—but a corrupt and wicked rabble.

I speak of the spirit of Democracy—of political rectitude—of sincerity of benevolence—of that true and living grandeur of soul which distinguishes a good from a bad man. I speak too, of a true patriotism, which whilst it is devoted to one's own country, has a philanthropic regard and sympathy for all other nations or portions of the great brotherhood of mankind. But yet more; I speak of a Christian. A true Christian. Heaven forbid that any one in the shape of man, should any longer be other.

Surely this is talking piously and sensibly too. There is, in this writer's mind, no interminable gulf between religion, politics and morals,—but he blends them all together in his beau ideal of a true Democrat, in spirit and in life.

What he says here, agrees remarkably well with our platform, which we published Feb. 4. Neither of us could derive the ideas from the other—but we both think the true democrat should do all he can for liberty! and for the welfare of the whole race. We both think the name should never be perverted to promote wickedness.

I repeat, I speak of the spirit of Democracy—of the subject (subjection?) of the animal economy to moral order. What, I ask, is government? It is a rule of action. What action? Why, certainly, right action, and this right action is order, and order is a law in heaven as well as on earth! which circumstance shows that government, whether in this world or another, is a moral subject.

All true: and all good. Therefore moral men, religious men, thinking men, have and ought to have, some interest and agency in our Democratic and Republican government and politics.

There would be no propriety, in leaving all such things to go, by default, into the hands of men without principle or character.

Crime, in every shape and every degree, is contrary to this order, and consequently contrary to the spirit of true government—of true Democracy. Every bad quality of the heart is hostile to true government—to true Democracy. And what is very important to have stated, because it is one of the miseries of life—one of the most noble enemies of truth and goodness—is the misapplication of noble and good qualities of the mind. Ambition, for example is a noble quality; even pride may exercise a salutary influence on the moral being of man. But let it be the ambition of merit, and the pride of virtue. To be ambitious of success and praise merely, without merit, which seems to satisfy so many, and to possess the pride of passion and false glory, instead of real elevation of character, is none other than a splendid curse, that, with funeral pomp, leads republics to the grave.

To counteract the tendency to crime, and unhallowed ambition, he says:

Let us unite the Christian with the patriot and philanthropist in our individual and national character; and then the choicest fruits of civil liberty will adorn and refresh our land and its brightness and beauty be seen, and admired, and loved, and hailed, and cheered by all the nations that desire to be free.

He then recurs to first principles.

Government is a moral rule; and true morality and Religion are one and inseparable; for where Religion begins first, morality is and always will be, its fruit. This rule, when applied to an individual, is called self government; and when applied to communities, civil government. But this, also, is a Democracy, is self government in a more general sense; because it is the government of an aggregate moral being, made up of individuals. In the former case, the individual lays down rules for the government of himself, and in the latter, the people lay down rules for the government of themselves. These rules may be good or bad.

Government, he says, is a moral rule,—and the people, in laying down rules, may get them good or bad! The good are laws, the bad are not laws.

We always made this distinction.—A statute, which is made to aid and promote any wickedness, oppression and injustice, is not a law.—But a statute made to repress vice and diminish evil, is a law, and ought to be obeyed.

It bad, the government is bad; and if good, the government is good. And so, too, the rules may be good, and the action under them be bad, which would be a perversion of good government. But what would be good rules? One thing is certain as to this. They should all be based upon our religious, moral, and intellectual being, as well as have reference to our animal economy.

We never wrote a more thorough recognition of the Higher Law, than this.

This, no one will doubt, should be the case with individuals, and it assuredly follows that it should be the case with a community, because a community is made up of individuals. A people who are not a moral and religious people can never be capable of self government, either individually or collectively; for in the absence of such qualities, the religious and moral natures of man are not instructed and chastened; whist at the same time the physical being of man is doubly tempted and left without restraint, to go the down-hill course of wrongs, of outrage and of depredation. We may talk of greatness. We may talk of Greece and of Rome. We may talk of heroes and of statesmen, who have filled the wide world with their fame. But I will point to our Washington; his statue shall stand amidst the Cæsars and Alexanders throughout the long track of the world's history; and then you will see the difference between the man who is only great, and the man who is both good and great.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY.—In Boston, the 124th anniversary of the birth-day of the "Father of his Country" will be celebrated, on the 22d inst., by the Mercantile Library Association, in a manner befitting the memory of the great and good man. The exercises will take place in the evening, at the Music Hall. The great feature of the occasion will be the oration of the Hon. Edward Everett, upon the "character of George Washington." Another attractive feature will be an ode written by Dr. O. W. Holmes, which has been set to music by Charles C. Perkins, and will be sung by a four-part chorus of male voices. This will be a decided novelty. The Rev. George W. Blagden, D. D., will officiate as chaplain. The celebration will be looked forward to with much interest.

In Charlestown, great preparation is being made for the inauguration of the new holiday, viz, the 22d of February, the birth-day of George Washington. All the members of the Fire Department have made the necessary arrangements for passing the night of the 22d in a social and agreeable manner. The alarm bells upon the engine houses will be rung at morning, noon and sunset; the American flag will be suspended from all the engine houses, and other prominent places. The Americans will commemorate the anniversary of Washington's Birth Day by a grand ball at Washington Hall.

The Mayor of Roxbury has been instructed to request the committee of the public schools to close them on the 22d of February. Mayor Rice, of Boston, will doubtless follow the example of Mayor Sleeper.

HAMPTON FALLS.—Our readers may remember that we doubted the assertion, made by an anonymous writer, that the agents in Hampton Falls and North Hampton sold largely and freely to topers in Hampton.

We wrote to both places: the agent of Hampton Falls, Mr E. J. Tilton, sends us the following letter:

HAMPTON FALLS, Feb. 12, '56.

Dear Sirs:—I send you the account of the sales made by the agent in this this town to date. The sales commenced Oct. 30th.

Gallons sold	11
Amount of sales	$14 78
Number of sales	66
" out of town	7

Respectfully, ENOCH J. TILTON, Agent.

The reader will consider that these sales were for three months and 12 days—and that in these 104 days, only 7 sales were made to persons out of town—and then he can make up his mind how much the Hampton Falls Agency can have done to increase drinking in Hampton!

If the whole 11 gallons had been sold to two topers in Hampton or elsewhere, it would not give them quite half a pint each per day.

Facts make the best arguments, for those who advocate truth and purity.

DEPARTURE OF RACHEL.—The great tragedienne left our shores on Saturday in the steamer Fulton, which sailed from New York. The made her first appearance in New York on the 3d of September last, and her visit to Havana was merely a visit, as she did not play there. Her movements have been very singular, and we hear from New York a report which if true is explanatory. A friend writes that "it is reported here that Rachel is about to add to her already interesting family."

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 12.—The Salt Lake mail arrived at Independence, Saturday. The snow on the plains is reported to be fifteen feet deep, and in consequence, the outward bound Salt Lake mail was obliged to put back.

☞ The Whig State Convention assembled at Concord on Wednesday. A correspondent of the Evening Gazette writing in the morning, says, it "Will be attended by upwards of one hundred delegates. Keene, Hanover, Haverhill, Dover, Portsmouth, Exeter, as well as other large towns are well represented. Sawyer and Esty are here from Dover, Storer and Charles Ladd from Portsmouth, Pinkerton from Derry, Chamberlain from Keene, Hughes from Nashua, with other prominent men of the Whig Party.

A straight out whig will be nominated for Governor, and another as Railroad Commissioner, and delegates will be appointed to the Whig National Convention, at Louisville.—The true whigs say with one accord, that their party is to go down with colors flying, and with their faces to the foe.

No other paper but yours will probably have any notice of this Convention."

We learn by Wednesday evening's train from Concord, that the Whig Convention was harmonious, but not very numerous. A spectator who looked in at the convention estimated the number of delegates between 20 and 30. Messrs March, Ladd and Storer represented the Whig party of this city. The Convention nominated Ichabod Goodwin, Esq. of this city, as the candidate for Governor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Alabama State Convention.—At the recent Alabama State Convention, resolutions were passed denying the right of Congress to legislate on the subject of slavery, except to protect it where it legally exists, claiming for territorial residents the right to decide for themselves on this subject, repudiating and condemning squatter sovereignty, denying that either Congress or a Territorial Legislature has the right to give unnaturalized foreigners the right to vote, and approving the course of the Alabama American Representatives in Congress.

Flour Inspection.—After Change to-day there was a meeting of flour dealers, to consider the subject of flour inspection, and to devise measures to relieve the New York Inspection of universal distrust. The chair was taken by Mr Wolfe, President of the Corn Exchange, and a Committee was appointed, who will report at a future meeting.

Naval.—The United States sloops-of-war Germantown and Levant were at Rio about January 1st.

BUFFALO, Feb. 12.—Aid for Irish Emigrants.—The Convention called to take measures for the assistance of Irish emigrants desirous to settle in Canada West, convened in Dudley Hall, in this city, to-day, and organized temporarily by the appointment of Rev. Dr. McDowall, of Kingston, Canada, President pro tem; after which an adjournment was carried till to-morrow morning. Some seventy delegates were present. Members of the Press were denied the privilege of reporting the proceedings of the Convention, in pursuance of a resolution excluding them from the Hall.

AID FOR KANSAS.—The Worcester Spy says:—"From one of the small towns adjacent to Worcester, a hundred dollars was received on Friday last, by the agents of the Emigrant Aid Society, to be added to their funds for the relief of the settlers in that territory, and we hear of many other towns in which liberal contributions are being collected by the voluntary exertions of those who feel it incumbent upon them, at this time, to manifest their love for the cause of liberty, by deeds as well as words. We also learn from authentic sources that the emigration from the New England States, the coming spring, will be very much larger than any previous year. Several towns in Connecticut are organizing a company of two hundred emigrants, which will leave at the earliest practical moment. Worcester county will send again its scores and its hundreds, and other parts of the State will send their due proportion of the pioneers of freedom. In the town of Salem, New York, a company of twenty-five is already organized, which will be increased to fifty by the first of March, and every man will, in addition to other necessaries that will come in play in a new settlement, be provided with a Sharp's rifle."

For the Chronicle.

FAREWELL,

To MAGGIE E. ROLLINS, of Great Falls, who departed to the better land the 1st month, 1856.

BY W. A. F.

Farewell, a sweet farewell,
Thou of the gentle heart;
'Tis He who lovest thee the best,
Who bids thee hence depart.

Thy absence we must mourn,
Thy memory we shall keep.
And drop the tear of love upon
The grave where thou dost sleep.

Earth's strife for thee is o'er;
Go to the better land,
Thy soul, too pure for earth, will deck
The shining angel band!

We miss thy merry laugh,
We miss thy fount of love,
And tread in loneliness the paths
Where thou wast wont to rove.

But still we will not weep,
For we full well do know
Thou treadest peaceful golden paths
Fairer than those below.

Go, then, in all thy loveliness,
We would not bid thee stay.
While angels wait thee 'mid their bowers,
And God calls thee away.

SOUTH BERWICK, 9th day, 2d month, 1856.

☞ The train from Portland for Boston, on Wednesday morning, which should have passed through this city at 11 1-4 A.M. went through about 1 P.M. and at Seabrook was disabled by breaking both axles of the locomotive driving wheels. The track was thus encumbered, so that the mails and passengers in the down train which should arrive here at 5 P.M. did not arrive till 8, and then by shifting from one train to another.

LOCAL.

THE FAIR by the ladies of the Pleasant Street Society, was thronged last evening again, by a lively and liberal multitude.—Good vocal and instrumental music was added to the attractions of the Tableaux; and considerable interest was manifested in preparing for the exchange of Valentines, on the morrow.

The Tableaux were well received by the audience. The "Spirit of '76" was admirably presented—so natural and life-like.—Among the characters was a baby only a little more than a year old—who won "all the honor" by "acting well his part," which was to lay still in his mother's arms. The scenes from Romeo and Juliet were finely represented. The "Chowder Party Down River" was a good hit. The "Witch of Endor and Saul" was well done, as also the pieces generally.

The Fair, we believe, is to close with this evening. A fine programme is to be offered, of tableaux, music, &c. Some of the best pieces will be repeated, including the Columbus scenes; and among other new pictures, will be a representation of St. Valentine, as today is his anniversary.

ANCIENT HARMONY.—By their advertisement, it will be seen that the Old Folks' Choir in this city, are to give a Concert at the Temple, on Wednesday evening next, the 20th inst.,—for the benefit of the poor.

They have a rehearsal this evening, at Exchange Hall.

☞ The Old Folks' Concert at Hampton, by a union choir from all the neighboring towns, will probably take place on Thursday evening next, Feb. 21st. If stormy, it will be postponed to the first fair evening, Sunday excepted. Programme as before announced in bills.

CAMENEUM.—Yankee Addams appears tonight at the Cameneum with an increased company of talented actors, among whom is a celebrated Dansense. Addams understands how to please the crowd who nightly throng to witness his representations of all sorts of difficult characters. He is deserving of good success. *

SINGING.—Mr Pearson advertises a new Term of his Juvenile School, to commence at Exchange Hall, on Saturday afternoon, Feb. 16th. He has a large and well-fitted room, and every facility and accommodation for "teaching the young idea how to" sing; and uses the excellent little book gotten up by Prof. B. F. Baker. Mr Pearson is a patient and faithful teacher—and as popular with the juveniles as the older scholars. By the way we wonder where he supposes "the boys" are to acquire a musical education, if they can't go to school with the misses—or do they 'only' need such instruction.

Messrs. Editors:—Please to inform the public, that this day, Wednesday Feb. 13, is the 30th anniversary of the formation of the First Total Abstinence Society in the United States. Y.

SUPREME COURT.—The February Trial Term of the Supreme Court of Judicature, met at Exeter on Tuesday, Judge Perley presiding. The Grand Jury were sent out and the Court adjourned to this, Thursday, morning.

SUDDEN CHANGE.—On Tuesday forenoon the thermometer stood at 46 above 0, and the thaw appeared likely to continue. At noon, the same day we were favored with a snow-squall, and on Wednesday morning the glass stood at 4 below 0—making a change of 50° in 20 hours.

☞ The remains of the late Maj. Samuel S. Stacy, from Washington, arrived in this city, and were committed to the tomb on Tuesday afternoon.

☞ We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in another column of Messrs. Stewart & Beck who are selling many articles at less than cost of importation. Give them a call as they remain but a few days. *

☞ A Ladies' Levee was held on Tuesday evening, in the Town Hall, Epping, and the proceeds, which were handsome, presented to Rev Wm. Hadley. The hall was beautifully decorated, and every thing passed off to the entire satisfaction of those present, and reflected great credit on the ladies engaged.—Late in the evening the articles contributed, and which helped fill an elegant "Christmas Tree," were disposed of at auction by Capt. Geo. W. Towle, of this city, who was present with his lady. The music, by a popular Glee Club, added charms to the entertainment. *

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Feb. 12.

SENATE.—The Chair laid before the Senate the annual report of the Commissioner of Patents.

The consideration of the Central American question was then resumed.

Mr Wilson said that, notwithstanding the declaration of the President, which had been reiterated by distinguished Senators and repeated by the public press throughout the country, that our relations with England, growing out of the Central American question, were in a complicated state, the people of the United States, whose instincts are safer than the deductions of statesmen, give little heed to these apprehensions. Far-seeing merchants continue to send their vessels on distant ventures, freighted with full cargoes, in confident anticipation that there will be no rupture of our friendly relations with England. There was not the slightest alarm in the public mind on that score. People are not so diverted from what is passing the other side of the Mississippi by rumors of war with Great Britain. It is not very probable that the Executive desires a war which would extend the boundaries of this country to the shores of that Polar sea gazed on by Dr. Kane. There is no such desire for the addition to the free soil of this Republic on the part of the Administration.

The only result attained by the Clayton and Bulwer treaty has been a prolific correspondence and an interminable discussion, which has settled no point in dispute, and carries to no result. The treaty had not accomplished what the people of this country expected. He thought this Government had been overreached in negotiation. The treaty was one not fit to be made. He thought the United States should at once declare it null and void, and stand then just as we stood before it was made.

The course of Great Britain justifies us in abrogating the treaty altogether. We need not fear her in Central America. Let her send as many Anglo-Saxons there as she pleases. No doubt they would make good citizens of this country, when we hereafter come into possession there.

Mr Mason thought that the discussion of the subject rather embarrassed than aided the solution of the difficulties surrounding it. He hoped the question would now be taken on the reference.

Mr Butler did not look on this question as likely to issue in a war with Great Britain. He concurred in the American interpretation of the treaty, but hoped the matter would be referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, instead of being further discussed in the Senate.

Mr Foote said Mr Clayton wished to be heard, but was detained by indisposition. He moved a postponement of the subject to Monday, which was agreed to. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—(Continued.)—The House had two more trials to elect Printer. The last vote stood—Follett 65, Wendell 69, scattering 30. Adjourned.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st. opps. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby his fees on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection of claims.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringements of patents. All necessity of journeying to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Try it! Try it! Try it!

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all bodily pains, such as RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, THE DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT—it needs but a trial to convince the most incredulous. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. A young suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass, are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cure, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, an i has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eonrenco de Lux, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, Minister to Spain.

J. Chipman, Member Royal Col Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax that is spread on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co. the bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuat le Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

COCK-EYE DAVISON.

The following account of a singular character, is from the Worcester Palladium:

We notice in the Boston papers the announciation of the death of Andrew C. Davison, Esq., at the age of 66, formerly a teacher of one of the public schools in that city. If we mistake not, he is the same gentleman who, towards twenty years ago, was for a while an inmate of the State lunatic hospital in this city. We remember to have stepped into the court house one day, when he was brought in from the hospital on a writ of habeas corpus, to try the cause of his confinement. Dr. Woodward, at that time superintendent of the hospital, suggested to the court the expediency of permitting Mr. Davison to argue his own case. He assured Judge Shaw that Mr. Davison was competent to conduct his own case according to the rules of the court; and that the court in that way could best determine the propriety of his confinement. The insane man presented his own case, and made his own argument. His insanity was what is called false hearing.

It appeared that the false hearing came upon him in consequence of ill health, or misfortune. Among other property he owned a house in Boston, one of the chambers in which was let to a young lady as a school room for very young scholars. The mistress taught her young pupils to sing some simple airs; and he became afflicted with the whim that she taught them to sing nothing but "Cock-eye Davis on," in allusion to a defect in his eyes. He remonstrated to her upon the impropriety of such conduct. She assured him that he was in error; that she had no occasion to treat him with the slightest disrespect; and that her sole and single purpose was to teach them the rudiments of learning and some simple pieces of music. But no sooner was his back turned, than the old familiar tune fell upon his ear; and to such an extent that, he heard nothing else, but the little boys and girls, in that school, singing, from morning to night, "Cock-eye Davison," And wherever he went, in or around Boston, he heard the same tune and words proceeding from the school room. Approaching the house one day, and hearing the old familiar sound, and unable to restrain himself further, he rushed in, run up stairs, burst into the school room, and would have seriously injured the school mistress, had she not fled into a close t, flung up a window, and screamed for help. He was arrested, examined, and sent to the hospital in this city.

In his plea before the court for release from confinement, he maintained that his sense of hearing was infinitely quicker and more reliable than that of any other person; that although the school mistress denied the charge he made against her, and other persons stated that they were in the immediate vicinity, and never heard the children sing the offensive epithet, yet he had evidence of its truth which they had not—the evidence of his own senses—He maintained also that after his removal from Boston to this city, he could hear the children singing in Boston with the same ease as when at the door of the house. He told the court that he could hear them singing while he was in the court house; and also that he could hear his friends in Boston talking about him in no very complimentary terms. He wished to go, he said, and remonstrate with them upon the impropriety of their conduct, and especially to put an end to such treatment of himself.

Judge Shaw told him, in the kindest manner, that he was the victim of a delusion; and that the power which he claimed to possess, and which enabled him to hear singing and talking from forty to fifty miles, was inconsistent with all the established facts and principles of philosophy. "I grant," said he, "that it is inconsistent with all your ideas and experience, and of that of other men. But I am gifted with a power which no other man has; a power to hear forty or fifty miles with the same ease as other men can hear talking or singing in their immediate presence. And since I have this wonderful power, you do me wrong in treating me as though I had it not."

His argument was able and ingenious; and he subsequently wrote it out, and gave us a copy of it. Although he failed to convince the court of the existence of his wonderful gift of hearing, he satisfied the judges, and other persons who had inclined to believe him sane, that on one point he was as decided a lunatic as any one in the hospital. He was afterwards discharged from the hospital as cured, and returned to his friends. We relate the case as a remarkable one in itself, and as showing how easily many persons in the community are misled in their judgment upon insanity by their sympathy for the sufferer.—There were many who believed, from his own representations, that he was the victim of oppression; and yet it was apparent that while laboring under the delusion produced by false hearing, he might have done to his friends an irreparable injury, if he had been left without restraint.

A telegraphic despatch dated Independence, Mo., Feb. 4, to W. N. P. Magraw, mail contractor, on the Plains, now here, states that the thermometer at that place indicates twenty-two degrees below zero. The snow there is two or three feet deep on the level of the plains. The mails for Santa Fe and Salt Lake, which started on the first instant, have returned. All the men and animals on the Salt Lake route are supposed to have frozen on the plains.

A small dog recently arrived at the Post office at Watertown, N. Y., from the west, in a bag sent by mail. The "postage" was duly prepaid, according to law. The little fellow was in good health.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1856.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The wheels of Congress are in motion.—On Wednesday, the House of Representatives re-elected Mr. Wendell for Printer. He was the administration candidate.

The Speaker announced his Committees, and the heads are:—Campbell of Ohio, Ways and Means; Washburn of Maine, Elections; Giddings, Claims; Washburn of Illinois, Commerce; Mace, Post-Office; Simmons of New York, Judiciary; Clark of Connecticut, Manufactures; Quitman of Mississipi, Military Affairs; Benson of Maine, Foreign Affairs; Pennington of New Jersey, Territories. The Committee on Foreign Affairs is conservative, and that on Territories is essentially Northern.

Pennington, Aiken and Fuller, are on the Committee on Foreign Affairs.

Tappan, of New Hampshire, is on the Judiciary; Crugin on Revolutionary Claims, and expenditures of the War Department; and Pike on Enrolled Bills and Invalid Pensions.

The Boston Advertiser's Washington Dispatch says:

The constitution of the standing committees gives general satisfaction. The Pennsylvanians are especially pleased because the Committee on Ways and Means is composed of gentlemen in whose hands the coal and iron interests will not suffer. It is a moderate protectionist committee.

Another dispatch says:

The Speaker has framed those in charge of financial matters with a view to exact rigid economy from the administration and prevent wasteful appropriations by the House. The administration is acceptably represented on them. The appointment of Mr. Winslow on the Naval Committee was in compliment to the Secretary of the Navy.

It is said that Mr Aiken declined the chairmanship of an important committee, preferring a membership on that on Foreign Affairs.

It is claimed by the friends of Mr. Banks that every section and leading interest is fairly represented by leading men of all parties.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The United States Supreme Court will affirm the judgment of the District Court for this district in the case of Wells, who was sentenced to death in 1850. It will be recollected that his sentence was commuted by President Fillmore to imprisonment for life. This decision will settle the question that the President has the power to commute as well as pardon. The minority of the court dissent.

The above is an exact contradiction of a dispatch two or three days ago.

We presume the present one is right.

B. C. CLARK'S LECTURE.—Some time ago there was a little growling because of the anti-slavery character of Mr B. C. Clark's lecture on Hayti, before our Mercantile Library Association in this city. In Boston, since that growling, he has lectured in place of Mr Hilliard of Alabama, and given general satisfaction.

The Boston Post says:

Dr Stone then informed the audience that at one hour's notice, B. C. Clark, Esq., had consented to appear before them, and he submitte it to their vote if he should be heard. The response was a hearty one, and Mr Clark took the desk, with his interesting lecture on Hayti—delivered several times in Boston and vicinity—with which his auditors were much pleased. On commencing, Mr Clark expressed his own disappointment, in sympathy with that of his auditory, at not hearing Mr Hilliard. They had all come up, he said, to see a formidable man-of-war in the sea of politics, while the one who presumed to stand in his place was only a little New England pilot boat, with but one gun, and (laying his hand on his heart) that amidships. The report from that gun made as pleasant music to Boston ears as would the more formidable artillery of the gentleman from Alabama.

The Atlas says:

B. C. Clark, Esq., of Boston, was then introduced, and delivered an admirable lecture on Hayti, which we regret to be unable to sketch, on account of the crowded state of our columns. We presume to say that the audience lost nothing by the exchange of lecturers.

The Post calls it "interesting,"—the Atlas "admirable."

They are not quite so thin-skinned as some of our people—and besides they regard Mr Clark as a very conservative and respectable gentleman, with no fanaticism about him.

A DISCUSSION.—We mentioned, on Monday, that Rev. Mr. Greenwood, of the Universalist church in Dover, was to have exchanged pulpits on the previous Sunday, with an Orthodox minister in Lee. We now understand that he did so, and at the latter place, Lee, a novel scene occurred, described by a correspondent, as follows:

Messrs. Editors:—I noticed your article in last Monday's Chronicle on "Novel Exchanges;" and as there was an "after piece" which was not in the bills, I send you this, that you may inform your readers that before the services were concluded, and at the close of the afternoon sermon, the Rev. Mr Greenwood was replied to by a professor of the Evangelical order. This at once op ned the door for discussion, which became general, and was kept up with much animation some longer than the usual services. It was truly a novel exchange, and whether a profitable one, your correspondent cannot say.

DANIEL SAFFORD.—Deacon Safford, who lately died in Boston, was deacon of the Mount Vernon Church, a first rate blacksmith, (retired from business,) an earnest christian, and a noble man. His age was 52. His minister, Rev. Mr. Kirk, preached his funeral sermon last Sunday.

Perhaps two facts mentioned by the preacher will best illustrate the character of the deceased for benevolence. The first year that he came to Boston, when poor and working hard, he heard that an old lady was in a suffering condition, living in a garret. He sought her out, found she needed fuel, bought her some wood, hired a sawyer, and with his own hands carried it up and piled it in her own room. And the last day that he spent in the streets of Boston was passed in soliciting money for a poor mulatto woman, to enable her to purchase her children from bondage.

"I RECKON NOT."—The most eloquent phrase ever uttered by uninspired lips, (says the Philadelphia Bulletin,) was that of old Zack Taylor at the battle of Chepultepec. At one period, when matters looked smoky, an officer exclaimed—"General, all is lost!"—Drawing up his lips and letting down his eyebrows, as if not quite of the same opinion, and yet polite, withal, old Zack responded, "I reckon not!"

Somebody aptly adds to the above—"The only drawback we know of to the accuracy of this story, is the doubt whether General Taylor was at the battle of Chepultepec. He may have been there, but we 'reckon not.'"

EARLY LOVE AND LATE MARRIAGE.—The Cincinnati Columbian relates the following:

"A couple, each of whom was over seventy years of age, were a night or two ago united in the bonds of wedlock, at one of our principal hotels. They had been lovers in the spring time of life—but circumstances parted them. Each married, raised a family, lost a mate, and then remarried, and finally lost a second mate, and met their first love; they concluded to "travel down the hill of life together and sleep together at its foot." They were both frail, tottering and whiteheaded—but the fire of love still burnt brightly in their hearts."

SNOW AT THE SOUTH.—In our day, certainly, we have known no such superabundance of snow in this region. As heavy falls may have been known, but they rarely remained upon the ground longer than three or four days. This has been upon us now more than two weeks, has been twice augmented and promises before it is done to attain the dignity of a Scandinavian Winter. To be precise for future reference. On Saturday, the 5th inst., snow fell here to the depth of twelve inches, and extended from North Carolina below the Blue Ridge to as far north as we have heard from at varying and increased depths. Saturday following, the 12inst., there was another fall of snow of some four inches. On Saturday, the 19th, the weather was delightful, and the snow was rapidly disappearing in the exposed parts of the streets. But the day only proved a "weather breeder"—and the next morning, Sunday, the 20th, we awoke to another avalanche—and the process of snowing continued with slight intermissions throughout that day, and was resumed and continued for the early portion of yesterday. The precise depth of new snow we have not ascertained, but presume it ranges from eight to twelve inches. A gentleman who has kept a thermometer and watched its bearing for forty years in Richmond, tells us that the mercury fell lower on Wednesday night, the 9th, than he had ever known during that period; it descended to nine degrees below zero.—Richmond, Va. Whig.

AWFUL COLLISION ON THE SOUTHERN MICHIGAN RAILROAD.—A citizen of this place, just returned from the West, gives us full particulars of the Southern Michigan Railroad accident, near Hillsdale, Mich., a meagre account of which came to us by telegraph.

The snow and cold have served to distract the running arrangements of all railways, East and West, and trains are all pretty much "wild," running off time and "feeling the road." The two trains,—one Eastern and one Western bound,—which came into collision near Hillsdale, were both off time, but, as appears, were not equally well conducted. The through mail train going East was running at the rate of about thirty miles per hour, and had out no head light, and this notwithstanding it was midnight, and a heavy snow falling, and the train much behind time. The train bound West was going very slow, had out lights, &c., and in entering upon a curve west of Hillsdale was run into by the through mail train. The collision was dreadful, completely demolishing engines, tenders and baggage cars. Three men, fireman, baggage master and track-master, were killed outright, and three others so badly injured that recovery is deemed impossible.

The mail car containing the great Eastern-bound mail and through baggage was immediately set on fire, and its contents completely consumed, and, horrible to relate, the bodies of the track-master and baggage-master were burned up almost entirely. Only their mangled remains were rescued.

The loss is very great. The mail being the great Western, the bags bound East must have contained much valuable matter in money, drafts, &c. The baggage was all burned, except one trunk. The locomotives, tenders and baggage cars are all a perfect wreck, and passenger cars are more or less injured.

The engineer of the mail train is among the injured, and expresses a wish to die, as our informant learned, because he blames himself in the matter. It is an awful record, but it is only one which goes to make up the calendar of death all chargeable to the carelessness of the railway employees.—Sandusky (O.) Register, Feb. 8.

W. H. Sandford, proprietor of a pork packing establishment in New York, died on Sunday from the bite of a dog.

LOCAL.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—Thursday evening, Mr Addams applied for a continuance of his license for a theatre—leave to withdraw.

A demand was made for compensation for injury to a horse, which sprained a leg in a "cradle hole." This defect in the highway was caused by the breaking of a jug of spirit in the road.

Asa Ham applied for payment for damage to carriage, caused by defect in highway.

Both these claims were referred.

The Fair, at Jefferson Hall on Thursday evening, was numerously attended—the Hall being crowded, till a late hour, by a genteel and appreciative audience. All things passed off finely. The tableaux were given according to programme, with several pieces by special request. Vocal music it was found almost impossible to give, owing to the dense crowd; but the Portsmouth Serenade Band discoursed good music throughout the entertainment.

Landing of Columbus in Ameriba, which the Band accompanied with Hail Columbia, was well received; the Vase of flowers, composed of thirteen young ladies, was a beautiful representation.

By our advertising columns it will be seen that the managers offer a novel entertainment for this evening—which cannot fail to meet much favor. Have your tickets early, as the number is limited. Tableaux, music, hot supper, gift enterprise, &c.

BEAUTIFUL BLUNDERS.—Some errors are distressing: others only ludicrous. Of this latter class are some in the Morning Chronicle of Wednesday. The Gazette's special reporter of the Whig Convention made them to say:

"The true Whigs say with one accord, that if their party is to go down, it shall go down with colors flying, and with their faces to the foe."

We copied the extract by cutting out the whole sentence—but the compositor inadvertently made an out, leaving the Whigs bent on martyrdom whether or no, in this fashion:

"The true Whigs say with one accord, that their party is to go down with colors flying, and with their faces to the foe."

Then again, as the Gazette was to have the exclusive Report of the Convention, we, as outsiders, picked up what we could by casual inquiry, and in this way gave the Convention one delegate that did not belong to it, viz. Mr March. Mr Charles W. March, the gentleman referred to, in a card states that he was not a delegate, and is not a Whig. We correct the errors promptly and cheerfully.

WHIG CONVENTION, AT CONCORD.—The Whig State Convention organized by the selection of Mr Sawyer of Dover, as President. Ichabod Goodwin, Esq. was nominated unanimously as candidate for Governor, receiving 101 votes—the whole number cast,—and Liscomb, of Lebanon, Railroad Commissioner. The resolutions declared unabated hostility to the "leading features" of the present National Administration—inflexible opposition to the extension of slavery, and an emphatic determination to proscribe no man or sect on account of nativity or religious belief.—Correspondence of Gazette.

At the People's Convention at Concord on Tuesday, Judge Blaisdell, of Lebanon, Moses Clark, Esq., of Landaff, and Joshua George, Esq., of Warner, last year prominent Democrats, were present and took an active part.—Manchester Democrat.

If we had been asked, three or six months ago, to what party Judge Blaisdell belonged, we should have answered that he was against the Democracy. He has been so understood, by our friends here, for a number of years.—Daily Patriot.

OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORIES.—Governor Johnson was inaugurated on the 4th.

The Indians were defeated at Walla Walla after a conflict which lasted three days. Sixty Indians were killed, and about the same number wounded. Gen. Stevens of Washington territory had arrived at the camp with the Oregon volunteers, and avowed his determination to continue the war until every hostile Indian was subdued.

The capitol building at Salem has been entirely destroyed; supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The territorial library was entirely consumed; value probably about $6000 or $8000. The total loss of the building and library will not fall much short of $40,000. The papers and journals of the present session were destroyed, principally, and will occasion great inconvenience to the Assembly in its further duties.

A GREAT REMEDY FOR CONSUMPTION.—Those who have suffered from Night-sweats, a constant Cough, Spitting of Blood, and complete prostration, can appreciate the value of a medicine that will permanently cure these alarming symptoms. To all who would find a remedy, we say, try Dr. Rogers' Syrup of Liverwort, Tar, and Canchalagua, which has received the strongest Testimonials ever given in favor of any expectorant medicine. To be had at any Drug Store.

THE STABBING CASE AT THE ST. NICHOLAS.—The bail of Capt. Wright, who figured so conspicuously in the affray which took place at the St. Nicholas Hotel, in New York, in September last, has been declared forfeited. S. A. Suydam, now under indictment for keeping a gambling saloon, was the surety.

☞ Benjamin Seaver, Esq. late Mayor of Boston, died at Roxbury, on Thursday.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 13.

SENATE.—Mr Mason offered a resolution, which was passed, filling the vacancies in the Board of Regents of the Smithsonian Institution with George C. Badger of North Carolina and Professor Cornelius C. Felton of Massachusetts.

Many petitions were presented from officers, complaining of the action of the Naval Board, which were referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

Mr Sumner presented resolutions of the Massachusetts Legislature, complaining of the unconstitutionality of the fugitive slave law, and calling on the President to take effectual measures to protect the sovereign people against outrage in Kansas. Laid on the table and ordered to be printed.

Mr Sumner moved that the Committee on Post offices be instructed to consider the expediency of providing for the transmission abroad of small sums of money for public convenience and security, and that, if expedient, such transmissions may be by means of orders or drafts issued from the Post office Department on foreign Post offices with which it is in correspondence, so as to constitute a system of international Post office exchanges. Adopted.

Mr Sumner moved that the Committee on Commerce be directed to consider the expediency of abolishing the Hospital tax exacted from seamen of the commercial marine and boatmen on western waters, in order that they may have the benefit of hospital privileges without tax.

The Senate then discussed the resolution calling for the record of the Naval Retiring Board. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr Harlan nominated Joseph J. Coombs of Ohio as candidate for Printer. The House then voted as follows: Wendell 73, Follett 36, Defrees 12, Coombs 9, Farnham 8, Sargent 8, J. Watson Webb 5, scattering 9. Wendell lacked 8—81 being necessary to a choice.

Mr Stanton made an ineffectual effort to have the House printing executed under the superintendence of the printing committee of the House until December 1.

The House then voted again for Printer—Follett 26, Wendell 91, Farnham 3, Sargent 8, Defrees 15, Coombs 2, Webb 7, Prentiss and Knapp one each. Mr Wendell was declared elected.

Mr Washburn of Maine offered a resolution for the election of Chaplain. Mr Bowdell proposed as a substitute, that all the ministers of Washington be invited alternately to perform the duties of Chaplain. Lost.

Mr Jones of Tennessee opposed the question, thinking it a burlesque on the question of religion having such a wild hant after the Chaplaincy.

Mr Washburn's resolution was adopted, after which the Standing Committees were announced.

LATER FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE NORTHERN LIGHT.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.

Steamship Northern Light arrived this forenoon, with California dates to Jan. 31st. She brings about 300 passengers and $248,000 in treasure.

U. S. steamer Massachusetts arrived at San Francisco 19th ult. from San Juan.

U. S. frigate Independence sailed on the 18th for San Juan.

The bark Isabella was on her passage from China to San Francisco when wrecked. She went ashore on the 9th ult., thirty miles south of San Francisco Heads. Her cargo was valued at 160,000; the vessel belonged to Macondray's Company, and was valued at $25,000. Both are a total loss; insured in New York.

The Legislature assembled on the 7th inst., and on the 8th both Houses were permanently organized by electing to the various offices the caucus nominations of the American party.

On the 10th, the executors of the estate of the late J. L. Folsom commenced the sale of his immense landed estate in San Francisco, and on the 10th and 11th the total amount of property sold amounted to $605.000. The property has all brought very satisfactory prices, and nearly enough has been received to remove all incumbrances on the estate.—A very large amount yet remains unsold.

At the last accounts from the American Legislative Caucus, Mr. Foot's nomination to the U. S. Senatorship is highly probable.

THE KENTUCKY SLAVES. — Cincinnati, Feb. 6.—The Grand Jury this morning found a bill for murder against Peggy, as principal, and the rest of the adult slaves as accessories, to the murder of the child. The writ was placed in the hands of the Sheriff, who, when the fugitives were brought to the jail by the Marshal for safe keeping, turned the key upon them, and they are now in his possession. The case grows more and more complicated.

The New Orleans True Delta says there is now on exhibition in that city a horse twenty-one hands high, and weighing two thousand and sixty pounds!

Return emigrants without means, are getting to be a nuisance at Havre, France. The French government has notified ours that it will prevent the landing of such indigent returning emigrants, that they may not become chargeable to the public.

A young man calling himself a Hungarian refugee, and pretending to be a teacher of Mathematics and the German language, has been imposing upon several citizens of Providence, from whom he has obtained money by false representations.

The trains on the Southwestern (Eng.) Railway are to be furnished with an air pump and a gutta percha tube, extending the whole length, by which the guard can communicate with the engineer.

In New York, on Friday night, Mr W. H. Sandford died from the effects of a bite by a dog. About six weeks since, the dog had been fighting with another, and on being separated took shelter in the store. In attempting to drive him out, Mr Sandford was bitten upon the hand. The wound was quite painful until Wednesday last, when he was seized with spasms, and died on Friday night.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY!

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

CHARADE.

From Britain, mistress of the seas,
My First to Yankees yields,
In raising wheat, corn, beans, or peas,
In garden, patch or field.
Our merchants, full of enterprise,
They tread from pole to polo;
Their wives make squash and pumpkin pies,
Their ships freight wood and coal.
Their sons and daughters from my Next
A rich abundance take;
They always give a good present
And tell you what they'll make.
They build railroads and cotton mills,
Their eye surveys the moon;
They gather pearls from distant rills,
And sometimes tree a coon.
My Whole is found in southern clime,
Will you to me its name divine?

Great American and Foreign Office
For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agents for business with US Patent Office, Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
No. 76 State st. oppo. Kilby st. Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundantly demonstrated, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of decisions and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY.

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Try it! Try it! Try it!
G. W. STONE'S
LIQUID CATHARTIC,
—AND—
Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which are the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages when given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels: Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

NEW CLEAR AND MESS PORK—for sale by A. A. PAYNE. jy22

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, as it has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eoureuo de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and a screen on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottle and label; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

JOB AND CARD PRINTING promptly executed

THE NEW YORK GAMBLERS.—Twenty gamblers were arraigned before the Court of Sessions, New York, on Monday, for violation of the law against gambling. Senator Sickles, in addressing the Court, in the case of Hearne, brought forward, it is stated by the Times, the whole pith of the course which the indicted gamblers intend to pursue. He said, in effect, that Hearne had decided to put in a plea of guilty—a course which was not so much prompted by an inability to make a good defence, as a consciousness of having violated the law of 1851, passed to prevent gambling. He confessed that he had violated the law, and that he was amenable to its penalties. It could no longer be disguised (said Mr. Sickles) that public sentiment demands the enforcement of that law. To persist, therefore, in keeping a gambling house in this State or city would be to outrage public opinion. His client had determined not to do so. Mr. Hearne solemnly declared, through him, (Mr. Sickles) his counsel, that he would never hereafter be connected with any establishment that was carried on, either in this city or State. It was a resolution not hastily formed. He had previously made arrangements that, on the expiration of his lease on the first of May next, he would no longer be connected with a gaming house. It was his purpose, long ago, to abandon such a profession, never a very lucrative one, but one in which the losses and annoyances always outweighed the fancied gains so often attributed to it.

Here then, it seems, was a law, five years old, which had rarely been enforced;—and was, perhaps, when passed, a little in advance of public opinion. But public opinion has come up with it, and now sustains it.

AMERICAN FLOUR IN FRANCE.—By the Persia, advices have been received of the arrival of flour in France, purchased in New York as "premier qualite," at the price of common State flour. The New York Express says:—

"The result of these shipments has been, what all well informed people in the flour trade anticipated, disastrous in a money point of view, and calculated to depreciate in the French markets, the good flour which we are ready to sell at its value. The English market has been so long supplied with American flour, that purchasers there are not deceiv d by the pains our inspectors take to brand sour and rotten flour as extra and superfine. The trick is as well understood in Liverpool as in Broad street, and is harmless, compared with its effect on the French market. There 'premier qualit' means flour that will make good bread, and the merchant who, for a commission, fill a discretionary order with flour from grown wheat, will saddle his French correspondent with an article for which there is no sale. Under the present system, the brands of the inspector are no security to a purchaser, and have ceased to be regarded by judges of flour. The purchaser is obliged to take care of himself, and has not an easy time of it, unless he is fully informed as to the quality of flour, and the market for which it is intended."

IMPORTANT, IN TRUE.—An American resident in France, writing to his friends in Washington, says:

I have obtained an extraordinary piece of intelligence, which, I think, indicates a much closer and better understanding between Napoleon and England on the United States and the Central American question, than is generally thought in the United States. Mr. Pereire, the Napoleon of railroads and new operations in France, a man of immense fortune, has with the Credit Mobilier, made a contract to build a railroad in Honduras to the Pacific, twenty or more of the best engineers have already sailed to survey the bays, harbors, coasts, and route, and if their report confirms the representations that have been made, the Emperor has said the Government will guaranty an interest of four per cent. on the investment, which would very promptly secure any amount of capital that might be required for the purpose.

HE ACCOUNTS FOR IT.—An exchange says that large quantities of sausages are made of horse flesh. A cotemporary says he believes it, as he invariably has the nightmare when he has eaten them for supper.

We learn from the Washington Organ that the late thaw has had a very injurious effect upon a portion of the north wing of the Capitol. The rust from one of the iron pipes inserted in the wall, has seriously disfigured the face of the marble from the top of the wall to the ground.

SINGULAR FACT.—No citizen of the United States was ever convicted of treason. It is quite probable that this is the only government in the world in which the same thing can be truly said. Our people make the government, and they will do no act that will tend to destroy their own work. Treason can only be meditated when there is no political liberty.

An urchin, "feeling his way"—said, Pap, does Uncle Sam now cast dimes with a Goddess of Liberty on them?" Of course he does, sonny; but why do you ask that stupid question?" "Cause it's been a long time since I saw one.

On Thursday, Mr. Robert Walker, conductor on the Nashua and Wilton Railroad, was accidentallly knocked off a train of cars near Nashua, and instantly killed. Mr. Walker resided in Nashua, where he has left a wife and two children.

MORAL DEMOCRACY.

Mr Evans in his third Essay on Democracy, in the Evening Gazette, says:

But this government of the people—either directly, in and by themselves, which is called a simple democracy—or through their representatives, which is an indirect democracy or republic, as is now the case in this country;—this government of the people, I have to remark, is the best government, as well as the most reasonable government in itself, only upon two conditions or with two limitations—one of which is that the people be virtuous and wise; and the other, that they attend to and perform their duties as citizens. Without these accompaniments, self-government in communities is impracticable; it becomes a curse; it becomes disorder, and crime, and chaos; so that that other curse, an usurper and tyrant, is, comparatively, a blessing, for he will restore order, and, for his own sake, take some care of the people, as a man will do of his slaves or his cattle.

That is it, exactly;—an impure, vicious, besotted people, always find a master or masters. A people too lowly sunk in vice to obey good and wholesome laws, may be easily wheedled and oppressed by an Emperor or an Oligarchy. But a community of virtuous men will regard good laws, and successfully disregard or oppose the evil.

I have said that self-government is founded in reason. Then, fellow citizens, follow out this principle! Things that are based upon reason and rectitude should, in all their parts and relations, be of one character; or, in more familiar parlance, they should be of a piece.

* * * *

Look around you, see to your duty, your whole duty as a people. I speak of no particular time or place. I speak not of parties. I speak not of elections. I write for the whole country, as in one indissoluble bond of union, and citizenship, and friendship.

Mr Evans's Democracy, which he here describes, is exactly the same which we described a few days ago, viz. the great mass of well meaning men, composing the bulk of all parties, who ought to be friends, and would be so, but for designing demagogues who have axes of their own to grind.

I would talk to you of religion and virtue; let them have your first care.

He talks piously, and wisely.

I would talk to you of education; let it be universal.

He speaks for free schools—not having the fear of isms before his eyes. But he was born and trained in New Hampshire—not in Virginia nor Georgia.

I would speak to you of elevation of character in its truest and sublimest moral sense. I would appeal to the national mind, the national soul, as a community of moral beings. Let there be a standard of public sentiment pure and deep.

Amen:—and let no crafty demagogue lower or debase the standard, that he may walk over it into power or place.

Let us see the heaven of a Moral, Virtuous, Religious Democracy!

Commenting on some strictures of the N. Y. Herald on the appropriation of $500 to buy gold headed canes by the City Council of Chicago, the Journal, of that place, takes off the City Fathers in the following style:—"Our contemporary does the City Fathers wrong. They did not vote themselves canes worth the petty sum of forty dollars. Fifty dollars a cane, Mr. Herald, if you please.—Our Aldermen walk with forty dollar canes, forsooth! We would have our New York contemporary know, that they are above any such weakness."

If we had the above Aldermen here,—our Democracy would soon make them "walk Spanish!"

Passages Across the Atlantic.—The ship A Z, arrived at New York on Monday last, sailed from Liverpool on the 23th of Nov. 1855, with seventeen passengers and a general cargo of merchandize, and has therefore occupied seventy-five days on the passage. The A Z reached latitude 50, longitude 45 in thirteen days from Liverpool, but on the 11th of December she was struck by a severe N. W. gale, and experienced a constant succession of similar gales, accompanied by hail, snow, and water spouts. She remained in the vicinity of Bermuda, owing to the gales, for six weeks. The ship Star of the West, which sailed from Liverpool, Dec. 18th, arrived at New York Thursday morning. She reports having been for twenty-seven days West of the Banks with heavy weather.

Assault on Shipboard.—On Wednesday a disturbance took place on board the ship George Raynes, outward bound, now at Boston. The mate, Mr. Merrill, gave an order to the men, which they refused to obey, and after an altercation made a rush upon him and wounded and injured him in a serious manner. His right eye was badly hurt, appearing to be cut with a knife, and he was bruised in other parts of his head and body. The following name l persons were subsequently arrested: Robert Jeffers, John Cotton, Jesse Donovon, Michael Cosgrove, and Joseph Smith. They were held for trial.—Boston Chron.

On Tuesday of last week a train on the Milwaukie and Chicago Railroad stuck fast in a drift seven miles from the latter place, with 300 passengers on board. The conductor went to Chicago in a sleigh, and brought out provisions, and all the locomotives that could be employed were used to break down the drift, which was accomplished in thirty-eight hours—the passengers remaining on the train during the whole time.

Poor Whites of the South.—The almost incredible state of ignorance and heathenism into which slavery forces the poor whites of the South, is well illustrated by the following extract from the note book of a colporteur laboring in South Carolina.

"Visited sixty families, numbering two hundred and twenty-one souls over ten years of age; only twenty-three could read, and seventeen write. Average of their going to church, once in seven years. Several between thirty and forty-five years old, had heard but one or two sermons in their lives. Some grown up youths had never heard a sermon or prayer until my visit, and did not know of such a being as the Savior: and boys and girls, from ten to fifteen years old, did not know who made them. All of one family rushed away, when I knelt to pray, to a neighbor's, begging them to tell what I meant by it. Other families fell on their faces, instead of kneeling."

This too, is the condition in which some slaveholders wish the poorer classes to exist, contending—as does a late Chancellor of South Carolina, in the following extract from an address to its Society of Learning—that those who labor should be treated like horses and oxen!—

"Would you do a benefit to the horse or the ox, by giving him a cultivated understanding, or fine feelings? So far as the mere laborer has the pride, the knowledge or the aspirations of a free man, he is unfitted for his situation, and must doubly feel its inferiority. If there are sordid, servile and laborious offices to be performed, is it not better that there should be sordid, servile and laborious beings to perform them?"

It is this system of society that some are endeavoring to force upon Kansas by mobs and murders.

For the Chronicle.

TO ——,

Thou art to me as life's warm stream
Which animates this mortal clay.
For thee I court the waking dream
And deck with smiles the future day;
And thus beguile the present pain,
With hopes that we shall meet again.

Yet will it be, as in the past
We've met as friends with joy and thought,
And o'er our minds one mantle cast
Of kindest friendship finely wrought?
Ah, yes! our hopes will still remain,
For such we hope to meet again.

May he who claims thy tender heart
Deserve its love as none have done;
For kind and gentle as thou art,
If so my friend, thou 'st fairly won.
Bright may thy sacred torch remain,
And cheer thee till we meet again.

Central American News.—The Bulletin (official) published at San Jose, censures Col. Walker and his expedition very severely. The order said to reign in Granada, says the Journal, is nothing more than the ruin of its commerce and the inauguration of a reign of terror. The prisoners serving as hostages are given up, it is true, but a contribution of a $100,000 has been levied on the richest inhabitants, and some thousands of dollars have been extorted besides from each of the rich houses in Granada. As to the losses which have been sustained in European commerce, some idea may be formed by the following figures:—London and Jamaica are creditors of Rivas and Granada to the tune of three millions of francs. The rest of Nicaragua owes London, at least, as much—in all about seven millions in favor of England. The debt owing to France is at least 1,500,000 francs; that to Piedmont 1,200,000, besides 100,000 francs worth of merchandise lately furnished to Granada by their former houses at Greytown. The militia of Costa Rica, to the number of 5000 men, has been ordered out in consequence of the alarm produced by Walker's operations in Central America. The republics of Honduras, Guatamala and Salvador are all in a warlike attitude, and have come to the conclusion that it is their duty to resist these foreign invaders of their territory.

Matters were quiet at Nicaragua. Gen. Walker's force now numbers 1000 men.

President Rivas has issued a decree suspending all official communication with the United States Minister, and recalling Parker H. French.

Sch. Oukahye arrived at San Juan 31st, from Bluefields, bringing the Mosquito King. Hon. G. H. Campbell, formerly of New Hampshire, died in Granada, Nicaragua, 14th inst.

From Cape Haytien.—Advices from Cape Haytien to Jan. 12th have been received by the arrivel of the brig R. W. Packer at this port Monday night. The Emperor Soulouque had actually marched on his second xpedition against the Dominicans, but his army having been pressed into the service was not expected to act with much efficiency. In some cases, merchants at the Cape had been pressed and placed in jail to await their march to the frontier, but were afterwards released. When the Packer sailed, the officers were still engaged in pressing men, and many had hidden themselves. At one time it was rumored that the Emperor would visit the Cape and his officers made preparations to receive him, but for some reason he did not come. The party opposed to the Emperor had greatly increased in consequence of his defeat. The probability is, if he should be killed or assassinated, the people would restore a republican government. The captain of the Packer states that the old General ordered to be shot by the Emperor was the one who gave up his horse to him after the Emperor's had been shot down in battle.—Boston Chronicle.

A Dog of Business.—A youthful member of the canine fraternity went into the Chief of Police's office yesterday afternoon, bearing between his incisors a note, enclosing $2 for a license fee for the year. The note expressed great respect for the Chief of Police, and was signed "Watchy K." The juvenile animal is the property of Mr. S. Kneeland, Hanover street.—Boston Chron.

LOCAL.

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT.

Exeter, Feb. 14, 1856.

This morning the Grand Jury came in with nineteen indictments, as follows:

One against John M. Stevens of Raymond, for adultery.

One against Henry Huntress, a transient person, for breaking and entering a shoemaker's shop in East Kingston and stealing.

One against Greenleaf Willey, Hazen Willey and George Willey, for a riot at Epping; and one against the same persons for malicious mischief.

One against Hiram W. Stevens, John F. Stevens, John M. Stevens, all of Raymond, for assaulting and resisting a constable.

Three against John F. Stevens for selling liquor in Raymond.

Two against John H. Wells, for selling liquor in Portsmouth.

Two against Andrew Goodrich, for selling liquor in Portsmouth.

Three against Edward Goodrich, for selling liquor in Portsmouth.

One against Ellen Goodrich, for the same offence.

One against the town of Hampton, for not building a new highway.

One against the town of Kensington, for not repairing a highway.

And one other which has not yet been divulged.

Henry Huntress was put upon trial, and acquitted by reason of insanity. His case raises the interesting question, whether the Court have power to send the defendant to the Insane Asylum, it appearing that when at liberty he is is dangerous to the property but not to the persons of the inhabitants of the State. Huntress wat tried at Exeter one year ago for a similar offence, and acquitted on the same plea of insanity.

Alanson Higley, of Candia, who was bound to keep the peace till this Court, was ordered to recognize further for his good behavior till the next term.—Gazette.

The trial term of the Supreme Judicial Court at Exeter having disposed of all the business before it, adjourned sine die on Friday afternoon. The Willeys, indicted for riot, pleaded nol. con. and were ordered to be imprisoned for 5 days. Marston for Defts.

The only jury trials were, State vs Henry D. Huntress, for stealing $14 worth of ladies' gaiter boots—verdict not guilty by reason of insanity. Hatch for State. Hackett for deft.—and State vs Ellen Goodrich, wife of Andrew Goodrich, for selling two glasses of brandy to Joseph Gordon on the 19th of December last. Verdict not guilty. Hatch for State. Hackett for deft.

The indictments against John H. Wells of this city were continued in consequence of the principal witness for the prosecution being missing.

DOUBLE ENTERTAINMENTS.

Nobody need to stay at home now, on an evening, for want of a place to go to.

To say nothing of religious meetings, which are holden almost every evening in some chapel or vestry, and which are supposed to aim at religious and moral improvement,—the evening amusements and entertainments of other kinds are abundant, perhaps superabundant.

This evening, at the Temple, the American Bell Ringers give out their music, of which the New York Tribune, Dec. 12, 1855, gives the following notice:

The American Troupe of Juvenile Bell Ringers, whose astonishing execution is drawing crowded houses nightly, as Bell Ringers are without a parallel; while as Vocalists they are second to no company of their age.

This evening, also, at the Cameneum, Messrs. Foss and Howland will ring changes on the Liberty Bell, or by contrast, toll the knell of slavery.

On Sunday evening, the same men propose ringing the same bell, in the Temple.

On Monday evening, the fifth temperance meeting, of the ministers' series, takes place.

On Tuesday evening, at the Temple, the Mechanics' Lyceum, Rev. T. Starr King gives the lecture. And on the same evening in Jefferson Hall, Messrs. Mace of Indiana, and Galloway of Ohio, will address the Republican Democracy on political subjects.—On the same evening also, the Fair and Levee of the Freewill Baptist Society commences in Hanover Street Chapel.

On Wednesday evening the Fair continues at the Chapel—and the Old Folks' Concert comes off at the Temple.

On Friday evening the Fair at the Hanover Street Chapel continues, and probably closes.

Besides these things, there is to be a Ladies' Fair at the Navy Yard Village in Kittery, on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings,—and the Old Folks' Concert at Hampton on Thursday evening. Some persons from this city will attend both of these.

☞ The Alexander Family, seven in number, gave a concert at the Temple on Friday evening, in which they performed songs, duetts, &c., and exhibited their powers as a troupe of bell ringers.

In the latter accomplishment they excel, handling their bells with great dexterity and precision, producing some of the most beautiful musical effects. The softest passages were as distinct and exact as could well be imagined; while the brisk and spirited were in good character, and performed with all the promptness and decision of a well trained band.

They perform again this evening.

☞ The Temperance meeting at the Temple, on Monday evening next, will be addressed by Rev. Messrs. Lamson and Whiting.

☞ The Old Folk's Concert in this city is to be on Wednesday evening—rehearsal on Sunday evening. See advertisement.

Failure of Barnum.—The New Haven papers report that at the meeting of the creditors of the Jerome Company, with which Barnum is so deeply involved, it was voted that the concern should go into bankruptcy, as there was apparently an ability to bring all the credito s into the proposed arrangement. The New Haven Journal says: "By this result the creditors will hardly be the gainers, though we have hopes that the extensive business of the concern will be preserved to our city." It also reports that "P. T. Barnum has been put into bankruptcy here, and Frederick Crowell, Esq., has been appointed Trustee of his estate."

Ship Parliament.—A telegraphic despatch received from Provincetown, says that the ship anchored off that port, proves to be the packet ship Parliament, Capt. Pollard, which sailed from Liverpool sixty-five days since for Boston, with 250 passengers, and for whose safety some fears have been expressed. Shortly after leaving Liverpool, she encountered very heavy weather, which has continued throughout the passage. A few days out, she lost two men overboard, and soon afterwards was struck by lightning, which started the poop deck and did other damage. The crew are disabled and frost-bitten, only four on board being fully able to do duty.

The Parliament is at anchor inside.

2000 OLD PAPERS for sale at this Office.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, Feb. 14.

SENATE.—The annual report of the Superintendent of the United States Coast Survey was laid before the Senate.

Mr Weller introduced a bill providing for an overland mail from some point on the Mississippi river to San Francisco.

The Senate resumed the consideration of Mr Wilson's resolution, calling on the President for all the information in his possession respecting the disturbances in Kansas, affecting the freedom of elections.

Mr Weller said as the President had sent a special messenger to Congress on that subject, he saw no necessity for the resolution. He took it for granted that the Senate has already all the facts in possession of the Executive.

Mr Fessenden replied that there were points of inquiry in the resolution, relating to which they had no information. It was proper that Congress should have authentic information instead of depending upon mere newspaper reports, especially as regards this subject, on which the public mind is so much agitated.

Mr Geyer denounced the Emigrant Aid Societies which sent men to Kansas to control, extraordinary unprecedented organizations; he was willing to have inquiry into the matter, if the action of these societies is to be included in the investigation.

Mr Toucey hoped the Senate would adopt the resolution, in proper form, calling on the Executive for full information relative to Kansas affairs. He approved in the fullest manner the President's proclamation, and the course therein suggested. Further discussion was postponed. The debate relative to the proceedings of the Naval Board was resumed.

Mr Butler considered the board as the most odious tribunal ever instituted in this or any other country. The debate involved, in effect, the repeal of the law under which the board acted. Adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—John Letcher was appointed a member of the Committee of Ways and Means, in place of Mr Jones of Tennessee, excused.

Mr Florence presented a memorial from A. H. Reeder, contesting the seat of J. S. Whitefield as delegate from Kansas. Mr Florence said he had arrived at no conclusion relative to its declarations, but should make up his mind from the evidence which may be presented. The memorial was read.

It states that the pretended election of Mr Whitefield in October last is absolutely void, being without valid law or well qualified voters to support it, and that he was elected by non-resident and other illegal votes.

The memorial, together with others contesting the seats of Messrs. Allen of Illinois, Gallego of New Mexico, and Eustis of Louisiana, were referred to the committee on elections.

The President's special message in regard to Kansas was taken up.

Mr Houston moved to refer it to the Committee of the Whole.

Mr Giddings appealed to the friends of humanity to send it to the Committee of Territories, as it was necessary to legislate at the earliest possible moment, in order to avert the dangers threatening the people of the Territory, and to prevent their being butchered by the Federal troops.

Mr Dunn thought the Judiciary Committee the proper reference. He protested against the bayonet being presented against his brethren in Kansas.

Messrs. Orr and others contended as to the various recommendations contained in the message, that the House could determine, after discussion, the proper reference of them.

Mr Houston's motion prevailed by three majority. Adjourned to Monday.

AUSTRALIA AND THE PACIFIC.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Ship Flying Arrow from Melbourne, for Batavia, which sailed on the 4th of November, was dismasted, and disabled in a gale soon after leaving port, and finally brought to anchor off King's Island. Capt. Treadwell, with his family and crew got ashore at the Island, from whence they were rescued by a steamer sent to their relief from Melbourne, and carried to the latter port. The damage to the Flying Arrow is estimated from 5 to 6000 pounds sterling.

The steamship St Louis from Aspinwall 5th inst., arrived this evening, bringing California mails of the 21st January. She has 500 passengers, and one million twenty-three thousand dollars in specie.

The St. Louis connected with the John L. Stephens, which spoke north of Cape St Louis, bound to San Fransisco, on the 3rd of February, whaleship Hillman, of New Bedford, with 1600 barrels of oil—all well.

United States ship John Adams, from Fejee Islands via Valparaiso, arrived at Panama the 3rd.

Isthmus news unimportant. Valparaiso dates to the 1st, and Callao 11th, had reached Panama. About a dozen houses were burnt in Valparaiso on Christmas day, and six foreign seamen and citizens perished in the flames as they were endeavoring to subdue them.

A treaty of commerce, amity and friendship between the United States and Chili is said to have been formed. The United States sloop-of-war St. Marys was at Valparaiso.

Melbourne, Australia, dates are to the 25th of November. Nothing important. Gold had declined to £3 14s 6d. Flour selling for 49 a £50 per ton.

HEAVY DAMAGES FOR SLANDER.—A suit brought by Miss Mary Doherty against John L. Brown, in which she claimed $5000 damages for alleged gross defamation of her character and reputation, and which has been on trial in the Superior Court for two days past, was decided Wednesday morning. The jury found a verdict for the plaintiff, for $3666 66. The defendant has long been known as keeper of a billiard saloon, is reputed to be wealthy, and has been married to two of the plaintiff's sisters. The counsel in the case were Tolman Willey, Esq., for plaintiff, and S. D. Parker, Esq., for defendant.—Boston Journal.

SEAMEN.—The total number of American seamen registered in the United States from October 1, 1854, to October 1, 1855, is 9686, of whom 9386 were native born, 300 naturalized. Massachusetts furnished the largest number viz, 4501; Maine furnished 1303.—The next in order is New York—the number of men from that state being 885.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

RECENT DEATHS.—The Vermont papers report the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Symmes, aged 91, relict of William Symmes, Esq., of Boston and the last surviving sister of the Hon. Benjamin Russell, formerly editor of the Columbian Sentinel. She resided in Boston at the time of the Revolution, and though young she retained a vivid remembrance of many of the existing scenes both before and after that event, which in subsequent years she was wont to relate.

THE PRESIDENT'S PARDONING POWER.—Wm. Wells, who was several years since sentenced to death in the District of Columbia for murder, had his sentence commuted by President Fillmore to imprisonment for life. This case was brought before the U. S. Supreme Court last week on the ground that the President had no right to commute, and could only grant an unconditional pardon.—The Court on Friday decided for the prisoner and he was set at liberty.

While the Vermont resolutions were before the Georgia Legislature, several funny resolutions were offered, and among others, one requesting the Governor to order a ditch to be dug around the Green Mountains and to float the whole into the Atlantic.

The Worcester spy states that Mr. Paine Aldrich of that city, was obliged on Thursday, to shoot a vicious bull. The animal was less than five years old, and cost about $500. The bull received the first premium at the State Cattle Snow at Springfield, Ohio, in 1853.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber late Assistant of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is now nearly the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats. Specifications. Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or management of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries through Agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there was none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound extract of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the Public and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowel perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

FOR THE CURE OF

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. University. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Bourwede Gaut, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIMS—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name of the Swaim stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Morning Chronicle.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. Dow of Concord, aged about 60 years, took the cars on the Concord and Claremont Railroad to go to Horse-hill, about six miles. She wanted to stop at this end of the bridge on which the road there crosses the Contoocook, but the train passed on through the bridge and left her on the other side. She then started to walk back through the bridge, and was met by an engine passing up, which knocked her off the bridge down to the ice, from 15 to 20 feet, probably killing her instantly.—Concord Patriot.

INCIDENT AT SEA.—Capt. Herbert, of the ship John Fraser, which arrived at Charleston on the 5th inst., from Liverpool, reports having fallen in with on January 2d, latitude 54 North, longitude 22 West, the wreck of the abandoned bark Montrijo, being the same vessel that the John Fraser took the crew off from on a previous voyage from Liverpool for Charleston. She had been stripped of nearly everything moveable, but appeared otherwise in good condition. It was just four months from the time she was fallen in with, and she had drifted during that time 1078 miles E. N. E.

The Richmond Examiner, in an article upon the Presidency, gives the cold shoulder to Pierce, considers Douglass the most worthy on the ground of "efficient service" to the South, Daniel S. Dickinson on the ground of "personal heroism of character," and Buchanan on the ground of "availability."—Douglas is evidently the Examiner's favorite, and it expresses the opinion that "if he were entrusted with the Democratic banner he would receive a vote at the North that would be as astonishing as it would be gratifying to the South.

SUICIDE.—A melancholy case of self-destruction occurred in this town on Saturday last. Mrs Lucinda Alden, wife of Mr Samuel Alden, residing at Cary Hill, was discovered at about noon of that day hanging by the neck, and life extinct. It is said that she was heard to express a fear that she should become insane. Mrs Alden was a daughter of Isaac Eames, Esq., and was about twenty-five years old. The return made to the town clerk certifies that Mrs Alden's death was "caused by erysipelas in the head."—North Bridgewater Gazette.

"LET THE PEOPLE PLANT CORN.—This famous sentiment was uttered by Gen. Sam Houston after the decisive battle of San Jacinto, when the Mexican authority was routed from Texas. We observe with pleasure that prints in different parts of New England announce that more attention is to be paid to farming this year than formerly, and that fruits, cereals, grain and corn, are to receive the attention which their product demands.

FORGED BEGGING CERTIFICATES.—The Sardinian Vice Consul at Boston gives notice that certain begging idlers in that city are in the habit of backing up their appeals for charity by the presentation of certificates of character, &c, purporting to emanate from that Consulate. He state that no such certificates have been issued.

A woman was found dead in an old wreck of a house near the Narrows, some three miles from Fall River, on Tuesday morning of last week. The body was frozen stiff, and it is supposed she starved to death. The husband was found to be partially intoxicated.—They had two children, and led a most miserable life—being poor and intemperate.

On the third, died at Constantinople a certain imperial mussahib (imperial buffoon) named Said Effendi, at the age of 120 years and 7 months. He had served four Sultans as jester.

SEIZURE OF BREAD.—On Wednesday last the police of Montreal seized two hundred and ninety loaves of bread at the different bakeries on account of their being of light weight, and distributed them among the charitable institutions of that city.

At Milwaukie, Wis., 57,000 feet of lumber, 16,000 000 shingles, and 16,000,000 feet of lath, were received by the lake last year.—Nearly 3,000,000 bushels of wheat, and 6,500,000 brick, were exported.

The Buffalo Courier says the Erie Railroad has been, for some time, at a daily expense of $2000 for fodder for cattle, on trains detained by the snow storm.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 18, 1856.

A GREAT SNOW STORM.

We copy the following from the Oswego Palladium of Feb. 7, less as a matter of news than one which should be recorded for comparison in the future:—

UNPRECEDENTED SNOW STORM. — We have just passed through the most tremendous snow storm ever known in this section of the country. Our oldest citizens, who have resided here for fifty years, have never experienced any thing that approximated to it in severity, duration, or in the quantity of snow that has fallen. The depth of snow on a level in the woods, previous to its commencement, was some three feet. On Friday last the wind commenced blowing a gale from the north west. About midnight, snow commenced falling with great rapidity, and the wind blowing with tremendous violence. By Saturday morning, a large body of new snow was on the ground, and immense drifts had formed, so that the railroad train which left here at nine o'clock was unable, after struggling nearly all day, to get more than a mile or so from the city, and finally gave up the effort, as the snow filled in faster than it could be cleared away by the locomotive and men.

The train from Syracuse came down as far as Fulton, and there remained, unable to get through the drifts. The gale continued with unabated fury, and the air was darkened almost by the tremendous volume of snow that was falling and driving before the blast, and which heaped up in huge drifts and overwhelmed everything. All Saturday night, all Monday and Monday night, all Tuesday until after midnight, towards Wednesday morning, the avalanche of snow from the darkened heavens, careering before the dismal, bellowing winds, continued to fall upon us, filling up the streets, choking up every avenue, blockading the stores, houses, and covering the river to a great extent. All business was entirely suspended throughout the city, and the stores did not even open their shutters. Hardly a man, and not even a vehicle of any sort, was to be seen in the streets for nearly four days, the angry elements without holding complete and undisputed dominion. It was a spectacle that filled the mind with solemn and sublime reflections. Although we had received no mail from any source since Friday, we struck off our paper on Monday morning, but it was impossible to procure its delivery to subscribers in the city, with the exception of some fifty copies near the office—we could not of course send any by mail—and the edition remained in the office. The Times did not issue a paper at all. On Tuesday and Wednesday we entirely suspended our paper, as did the Times.

During Tuesday night the storm subsided, and Wednesday morning came out calm and bright. But the scene presented was one wortny the pencil of a graphic painter. Our city rivalled the winter scenes of the Arctic regions, and such a storm could only be equalled there. The streets in many parts of the city were impassable, the snow ranging from four to ten and twenty feet in depth, and in some places the drifts are thirty feet deep. Many of the residences were banked up with snow to the second story. Water street is totally impassible. The river is almost entirely closed up to the lower bridge, an extraordinary occurrence, and wild ducks took refuge in the little open water near the bridge during the storm, from the raging elements on the Lake. Of course the roads in the interior are impassable, and it is impossible to say how soon we shall get a communication with the country. The snow now lies to a depth on a level from six to eight feet in the woods. Efforts were commenced in good earnest yesterday morning to clear the railroad track, and get through to Syracuse. The drifts are tremendous and very dense; the deep cut near the city, some twenty feet, was filled full. There has doubtless been more or less suffering among the poor of the city during the storm. Instructions were left by the Poormaster among families about the city to supply wood and food to the destitute, if they should hear of any. Yesterday the citizens held a meeting, and sent out committees around the city to hunt out the suffering poor, and afford relief.

MORTAL SINS.—The Roman Catholic Bishop of Toronto has issued a very remarkable political pastoral, in which he specifies several "mortal" sins, against which the faithful should guard with peculiar vigilance, such as going to a Protestant church, and sending Catholic children to common schools. The Bishop says:

"Catholic electors in this country, who do not use their electoral power in behalf of Separate Schools, are also guilty of mortal sin. Likewise parents not making the sacrifices necessary to secure such schools, or sending their children to mixed schools. Moreover, the Confessor who would give absolution to such parents, electors, or legislators, as support mixed schools to the prejudice of separate schools, would be guilty of a mortal sin."

NEGRO MINSTRELSY ILLEGAL.—A novel decision was rendered in the New York Supreme Court, Saturday. The Court affirmed the decision of the County Court, which in its turn had affirmed the decision of the Justice of the Peace, inflicting a fine of $25 upon one Sharp, who, with his troupe, had given a performance of what is generally termed "negro minstrelsy," in the Court House at Delhi. In the language of the Court, "they appeared disguised and dressed as negroes, and one of them as a wench dressed in Bloomer costume. They sang negro songs, performed dances in grotesque manner, gave mock psychological lectures, and mesmerised each other, and performed feats with chairs on their heads."—The Court was of the opinion that such performances came under the head of mountebankry.

A corespondent of the Boston Transcript says: "It may probably surprise the reader to learn that we are thus within 3 4 of 1 per cent. of the point that brought the banks to a suspension of specie payments in 1837."

WHIG STATE CONVENTION.—The candidates nominated were, Ichabod Goodwin, Governor; Elisha P. Liscomb, Railroad Commissioner.

The following gentlemen were unanimously elected delegates to the Whig National Convention to be held at Louisville, Ky., some time in May or June next:

Delegates at Large—Aaron P. Hughes, Nashua; Samuel Storer, Portsmouth. Substitutes—William H. Bartlett, Concord; Geo. W. Pinkerton, Derry.

District No. 1.—George W. Matthewson, Dover; Willis H. Esty, Dozer, Substitute.

District No. 2.—Geo. M. Flanders, Manchester; E. S. Cutter, Peterborough, Substitute.

District No 3.—P. C. Freeman, Claremont; J. F. White, Keene, Substitute.

Ass McFarland, Geo. W. Converse, Geo. Matthewson, Charles W. Brewster, A. P. Hughes, Albert G. Fulsom, E. P. Liscomb and John B. Fiske, were appointed as the Whig State Committee.

The following resolutions were adopted without a division:

Resolved, That the whigs of New Hampshire stand to-day where they have always stood, and that the often declared principles of the party are hereby fully endorsed and reaffirmed.

Resolved, That the whigs of New Hampshire are firmly opposed to the present national administration and the leading features of its public policy.

Resolved, That the whig party of New Hampshire is, as it always has been, "unalterably opposed" to the extension of slavery, and regrets the repeal of the Missouri Compromise as a gross breach of faith.

Resolved, That the whigs of New Hampshire will stand faithfully and firmly by the Constitution and the Union, as the whig party has ever done.

Resolved, That we believe it to have been the design of the founders of this government to make America the asylum of the oppressed, but never to the subversion of its distinctive character; that it should be the refuge alike from religious and political oppression; and that within its boundaries civil privileges should be unabridged by religious opinion.

THE BRIDE'S DEPARTURE.

Brother, speak in whispers light,
'Tis my last—my last good night;
Never more our steps will stray,
Through the garden's scented way;
By the homestead of the bees
'Neath the shady chestnut trees;
By the meadow's winding stream,
Glittering in the sunset beam;
Gentle brother! smile and bless—
'Tis my last—my last caress.

Sister, with thine eyes of blue,
Hither come and weep "adieu"
Let thy arm around me twine,
Let thy cheek repose on mine.
While I gaze into thy face,
Circled in this dear embrace
Thou hast ever proved to me
All that love could wish to be,
Yet I leave thy heart alone,
Brother—Sister, bless your own.

Mother, thou hast rocked my head
Softly on its cradled bed;
When the storn was raging high,
Sweetly sung love's lullaby—
Yes I part—I part from thee
Who henceforth will sing to me?
When my forehead aches with pain
I shall miss that early strain.
Mother, with thy accents mild
Bless, O bless thy parting child.

Mr Benjamin Mayo, of Orleans, Mass., aged about seventy years, was drowned in the south part of Orleans while gunning. He went out on Thursday, and his body was found on Saturday.

LOCAL.

CHANGE OF PLACE.

We learn that Rev. T. Starr King, who was to lecture before the Mechanic's Lyceum next Tuesday evening, will not be here at that time, but will lecture on some future evening.

And we learn also, that Messrs. Mace of Indiana, and Galloway of Ohio, who were to speak in Jefferson Hall that evening, will speak in the Temple.

☞ The Temperance meeting at the Temple, (this,) Monday evening, will be addressed by Rev. Messrs. Lamson and Whiting.

FEW SUITS.—At the Trial Term of the S. J. Court, which adjourned without day, on Friday last, no civil action was tried, and but few entered. The Grand Jury found several bills of indictment; but three criminal cases only were tried.

GROUND OF ACQUITTAL.—A member of the bar gives us the following item, showing the ground of acquittal, by which Mrs. Goodrich went "unwhipt of justice" in a liquor case, tried in the S. J. Court at Exeter.

The action was State vs. Ellen Goodrich, wife of Andrew Goodrich of Portsmouth, for selling, on the 19th of December last, two glasses of brandy to Joseph Gordon, for himself and another minor, which he testified he bought and paid her ten cents. The only material point suggested to the Court for the defence, was that she sold ardent spirits by the direction of her husband. The counsel for the State and the defendant submitted the cause without argument to the jury, who, after being out two hours, returned a verdict of not guilty.

APPOINTMENT.—The Washington Union contains an official announcement of the appointment by the President, of Capt. Sampson B. Lord of this city as Naval Officer for the district of Portsmouth, vice John McClintock, deceased.

HAMPTON AND NORTH HAMPTON.—We have just received from Nath. Batchelder Esq., the following account of sales in the liquor agency there. Taken in connection with the account from Hampton Falls, it shows that the anonymous statement of drinking in Hampton, and purchase from these agencies, was quite erroneous. Let us have facts.

NORTH HAMPTON, Feb. 16, 1856.

Gentlemen: I send you the account of the sales made by the agent in this town to date. The sales commenced Sept. 18th, almost five months.

Gallons sold	50
Amount of sales	$48.54
Number of sales	218
Out of town	10

Four of the ten sold to Hampton people.

Respectfully yours,

NATH. BATCHELDER.

UNCONSTITUTIONAL.—Everything that facilitatus the escape of slaves has been pronounced, we believe, unconstitutional. In this view of the case, we allege the freezing over of the Ohio River as decidedly unconstitutional, and we would call the atteution of Congress to this matter. It breaks down one of the middle walls of partition between slavery and the Gentile land of freedom, and slaves are availing themselves of this unconstitutional freak of the weather and river, and making their escape without any compuntions of conscience.

We hear rumors of numerous escapes, and so insecure is slave property regarded that many masters near the river are sending their slaves into the interior for safe keeping The moral character of Jack Frost, and the tendency his actions, need investigation. The lynchers of Brady should examine into this matter as it is doing more against the peculiar institution than he ever did. Where is Shawshawsheserem nd the rest of the Pottowatomies?—Cincinnati Gazette.

Is the fact known to the Humane Society, that on the whole length of Plum Island not a boat of any kind can be had for the relief of the distressed. When the other day several fishermen were in danger of perishing in sight of their friends on the beach, who wished to lend assistance, and could have done it if the means of reaching them had been at hand, not a boat could be found. If the keeper of the Lights has no boat of his own, and is not furnished one by the government, our citizens should make a contribution of a few dollars that such a deficiency shall not again be experienced.—Newburyport Herald.

CLAMMING on the flats of our river, has been constantly improving for several years past—giving a paying business in winter and summer, to any who will attend to it. We have been surprised to hear well men complain of poverty and nothing to do, when with sled, basket and digger, they can make their dollar in a single tide. One would think that a hundred Irishmen would be seen on the flats every day; but while the hundred are at the corners of the streets and in the market watching for four-penny jobs, we doubt whether in the whole year—last included—there are ten of them that dig from the sands or draw from the waters a single fish.—Newburyport Herald.

DEATH OF A CANARY BIRD BY FRIGHT.—A canary bird was singing in a cage which was hanging inside of a window, at the residence of Ebenezer Rogers, Esq., of Beverly, last week, when a sparrow-hawk pounced at him from without, striking the glass with great force, but without breaking it. The bird was so frightened that it fluttered two or three times around the cage and dropped dead.—Boston Traveller.

Much excitement prevails in North Danvers, on account of the sudden disappearance of Alfred W. Putnam, a shoe manufacturer of that town. He suffered an injury to his head some time since, and has, it is thought, wandered off in a state of derangement.

UNION OF CONCORD & MANCHESTER AND LAWRENCE RAILROADS.

IN SENATE, Friday, July 6, 1855. Upon the consideration of the bill entitled "An act to unite the Manchester and Lawrence and Concord Railroads,"—

Resolved, That the further consideration of said bill be postponed to the next session of the Legislature, and that it be published in all the papers of this State authorized to publish the laws thereof; said publication to be at least three months before said session.

A true copy attest,

GEORGE S. BARTON,
Clerk of the Senate.

AN ACT to unite the Manchester and Lawrence and Concord Railroads.

SEC. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened: That the Manchester and Lawrence Railroad Corporation, and the Concord Railroad Corporation, are hereby authorized, at such time, and on such terms, as may be mutually agreed upon and approved by the votes of the stockholders of each of said Corporations, at meetings regularly warned for the purpose, to unite and form one corporation, to be called the Concord, Manchester and Lawrence Railroad.

SEC. II. The corporation formed as aforesaid, shall have, hold, possess and enjoy all the powers, privileges, rights, franchises, property and estates, which, at the time of said union, may be held and enjoyed by both of the existing corporations, and be subject to all duties, restrictions, obligations and liabilities to which at the time of union, they are lawfully subject in severalty; and all suits at law or in equity, and all proceedings before any lawful tribunal which may be pending, to which either corporation shall be a party, may be prosecuted and defended by the Company hereby authorized in like manner, and with like effect as might have been done had such union not have been formed. Provided, the same number of passenger trains shall be run each way daily, over each road when united; and provided further, that the local rates of fare and freight of said roads shall not be increased from what they now are.

SEC. III. Any road now entitled by its charter to enter upon the Concord Railroad, or the Manchester and Lawrence Railroad, and to the use thereof, shall have the same rights in respect to the united corporation, provided that motive power shall be furnished by the united corporation, and if said roads are unable to agree on prices to be paid for transportation of passengers and freight, the same shall be determined from time to time by the legislature, or in such manner as they shall prescribe.

SEC. IV. The first meeting of the corporation hereby authorized, shall be called by the presidents of the two corporations, comprising its parts, or by any person or persons duly authorized for that purpose by the directors of said roads, for the choice of a board of seven directors and for establishing such rules and by-laws as may be necessary for said road, and ten days notice of the time and place of said meeting, and the object thereof shall be given by publication in one or more newspapers in the cities of Concord, Manchester and Boston, and the directors thus chosen, and who may have hereafter be chosen from time to time to supply their places, shall have the same power and authority in the care and management of said corporation as has been heretofore vested in the several boards of Directors of said roads.

SEC. V. This act shall take effect from and after its passage.

A true copy attest,

GEORGE S. BARTON.
Clerk of the Senate.

FROM WASHINGTON.—The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce telegraphs:—Gen. Quitman, it is said, declares he will never report a bill for sending troops to Kansas, to butcher American citizens, whether on one side or the other of the question at issue.

The correspondent of the Herald telegraphs: Gov. Shannon had quite a protracted interview with the President to-day, with reference to the policy to be pursued by him on the Kansas imbroglio. He leaves to-morrow for Kansas, clothed with full power to execute and carry out all the laws of the territory. He also carries with him instructions to Col. Sumner, who has charge of 800 troops stationed at Fort Leavenworth, to hold himself in readiness for any emergency that may arise.

The Governor's instructions are mild and conciliating; but should it become necessary in order to quell and put down an insurrection in the territory to use every power which the General Government can bring to bear, he is authorized to do so. Letters received by Gov. Shannon this evening, direct from Kansas, state that the free state men are making extensive preparations for a desperate fight. Munitions of war and men are constantly arriving from the free states. He anticipates a civil war. The letters also say, they are fortifying themselves at every point. Large sums of money have been contributed within the last few days by Southern men to raise and equip companies in the South to send to Kansas.

A Tribune correspondent telegraphs:

"Notwithstanding the last favorable decision of the Supreme Court, and the understood inclination of the Secretary of the Interior, when the Commissioner of the Land Office came to issue the patent of Col. Fremont, two conditions were inserted, which virtually destroyed its whole value. One was a reservation in favor of the rights of third parties, and the other a reservation of the gold mines to the government. These points cover the practical value of the patent.

Col. Fremont declined to receive the patent with these limitations, which had no sanction of law, and as the Commissioner of the Land Office refused to comply in the proper form, the whole matter was carried before the President directly. He decided this morning that the patent should issue according to the regular usage, and divested of the unauthorized restrictions. Unless some final obstacle be started, the case may be considered closed."

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—From Mexico.—The steamer Texas from Vera Cruz brings dates to the 11th. The revolutionists under Tamirez had captured Puebla, and were fortifying it. Comonfort had despatched a force of government troops against him. Tamirez, it was reported, lacks money, and was committing many excesses at Puebla. The soldiers of the insurgent Gen. Uraga had been defeated by the government troops.

SUSPENSION ON THE BUFFALO AND DUNKIRK RAILROAD.—A large number of passengers have congregated at Dunkirk, on their way to Buffalo, and not less than six hundred are now making day and night hideous with their imprecations bestowed upon the officers of the Buffalo Railroad. Since the 1st inst. no trains have passed over the road, and the whole motive power, consisting of ten locomotives, is blocked up by the snow drifts and frozen up pipes pumps and pistons, on the track between Dunkirk and Buffalo. Great exertions have been made by the superintendent; but the weather, unprecedented in severity, prevents the speedy clearing out of the enormous drifts, and the announcement was made that the company had at last thrown itself upon Providence and the chances of a February thaw.—N. Y. Tribune.

DEATH OF W. D. M. HOWARD.—The San Francisco correspondent of the Journal of Commerce, in announcing the death of Mr. Howard, which occurred the 19th of January last, says he leaves an immense estate, unincumbered, and was probably the richest man ever deceased in California. Capt. Howard arrived at California as early as 1839, as supercargo of a ship from Boston. He was only 36 years of age, and leaves a wife (daughter of Dr. Poet,) and two young children.

THE SUPPLY OF CALIFORNIA GOLD EXHAUSTLESS.—A merchant of San Francisco, who has pretty thoroughly explored the mining districts of that State, says that not one acre in a thousand throughout the mining region has, as yet, ever been prospected, and that thousands of years must elapse before the mines will give out, for the reason that there will never be water sufficient to enable us to exhaust them.

The Judge Campbell, whose death at Granada was announced in the last California dispatches, was a native of Montville, Waldo County, in Maine. In his early years he was connected with the Boston press as a reporter. He went to California in 1849, made a fortune, (which he afterwards lost) practised law, and was elected judge. He tired of peaceful life and joined Walker's expedition. He was much esteemed in private life.

DAMAGE TO THE PROVINCETOWN BRIDGE.—The new bridge recently built over East Harbor Meadow, between Provincetown and Truro, has been injured by the ice, about 300 feet over the deepest part of the channel being carried away. The bridge is about 1500 feet in length.

A MILE OF TRIMMING.—A writer in a New York paper speaks of a lady who wears upon one dress a mile of fringe trimming!—Another young lady in New York has adorned a single dress with seven hundred and fifty yards of ribbon! Truly, this is carrying extravagance in dress to great lengths!

CONSUMPTION.—Dr. Marshall Hall, an eminent physician says:

"If I were seriously ill of consumption, I would live out doors day and night, except in rainy weather or mid-winter; then I would sleep in an unplastered log house." He says that consumptives want air, not physic—pure air, not medicated air—plenty of meat and bread. 'Physic has no nutriment, gaspings for air cannot cure you; monkey capers in a gymnasium cannot cure you, and stimulants cannot cure you.'"

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a slip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 70 State st. oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for procuring patents more moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were many persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most faithful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

Aug. 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Try it! Try it! Try it!

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhoea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

NEW CLEAR AND MESS PORK—for sale by A. A. PAYNE. jy22

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Lna, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, Late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA."

and having the name Jas. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and a written or printed label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines mape in imstation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand.

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhœa or Loss of Seed, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally.

BY B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free in a sealed envelope by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to DR. B. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m*

TIN WEDDINGS.—The editor of the Observer has been to a "tin wedding." If our readers will be quiet, in three minutes they shall know what a "tin wedding" is. Now a golden wedding is the commemoration of the fiftieth return of a couple's marriage: these are scarce. The "Silver Bridal" is the friendly celebration of the twenty-fifth return of the happy day; these are less seldom. A tin wedding is a novelty, but it should not be, for whoever reach the fifth anniversary of their marriage are at liberty to celebrate it. The Observer says on this occasion:

"The bride and groom were presented, by relatives and friends in turn, with various articles of tin ware, such as are eminently useful in house hold economy, making together a complete set of culinary apparatus which would do honor even to a king's kitchen.—These separate ceremonies were concluded by a more formal presentation of an ornamental service of tin, prepared after the most approved form and fashion of silver, during which an address was delivered and a response given, both performances being marked with as much solemnity as the occasion could impart. At the supper, the table was covered with plates and dishes only of tin; hamsandwiches were laid out against a tin background; homely cake was served in baskets of tin; sweet cider was poured from a tin pail, with a tin ladle, into tin cups; and familiar odes were performed on trumpets of tin. In fact, there could not have been more tin in any other place, except in a tinner's warehouse, or in the mines of England.

"We were never before so thoroughly convinced of the genuine value of plain tin, of the numerous useful appliances to which it may be put, and of the respectable appearance which it presents when handsomely scoured; and we shall henceforth regard it, especially when associated with a "Tin Wedding," as one of the precious metals."

The United States steamer Granada, Griffith, at New York from New Orleans via Havana, on the 7th inst., 10 A. M., had a narrow escape from a huge water spout, which was broken by a pistol shot when two yards distant. She also observed that the lantern on Cape Florida Light was gone; men were at work on the top of the tower.

Rev Mr Shrigley, formerly of Newburyport, now a resident of Easton, Pa., recently had his house robbed while the family were absent, of valuables, mostly presents, to the amount of $400. Among the articles lost, were two gold watches, rings, breast pins, pencil cases, silver spoons, and a silver pitcher which was presented to him by the ladies of the Universalist Society in Newburyport.

AN EXTENSIVE DAM.—Mr Merriam, the weather man, who writes a great deal about almost everything, says that he has seen in Upper Canada, near the Ottowa, a beaver dam 310 feet long, 7 feet high, and 8 feet wide, upon which trees as large as any in that forest, were growing. It flooded an immense surface, and was constructed with as much science, to appearance, as if it had been the work of human hands.

The New York and Albany banks have presented $225 to John Upton, express messenger, who guarded vigilantly a million of dollars which he had under his care at the time of the accident on the Hudson River Railroad. He remained at his post seven hours during the inclement night, although his leg was broken.

UNNATURAL DIET.—A lady of Northampton County, N. C., Mrs. John Hawkins, died a few days since, from the effects of eating snow.

The ice in the Merrimac river opposite Salisbury Point, is frozen to the thickness of twenty-six inches.—Villager.

DISCOVERIES IN ART.—A letter from Paris to the N. Y. Picayune, says that a lady has discovered a process for liquifying ivory and casting it in moulds.

A POWERFUL DOG.—The Chicago (Ill.) Journal of the 28th ult., says: "Mr Price, of the firm of Price & Fisher, of this city, arrived to-day from Green Bay, in a novel turnout. He drove the entire distance in a light sleigh drawn by a single dog, averaging thirty miles a day."

At the Island of St. Helena there has been established by the British government an excellent hospital for sick seamen of all nations, to which they are admitted free of charge; and also a Time Ball Office for rating and correcting ships' chronometers, at which the ball drops twice daily for the benefit of the shipping.

There are now lying below Baltimore, bound to that city, a fleet of fifty vessels, fast in the ice, waiting for a change in the weather to reach their destination. Some have been detained there between two and three weeks.

MORAL MEANS vs. FALSEHOOD.

Many are the assertions, in a certain class of papers, that the friends of Temperance in Massachusetts, having laid aside moral suasion for law, have tried the latter for years, and are now leaving law for gospel again.

Mr. Wells, who is stumping in this State against the law, represents the "Ministers of Massachusetts," (whom he confounds with the State Temperance Committee,) as coming to "the determination to adopt moral suasion in future in conjunction with some form of law, which would punish the abuse and not the moderate use of liquors."

Both these statements we have before shown to be incorrect, by stating facts within our own knowledge. Mr. Wells, and the writers in those papers are not well posted up in facts, on temperance or intemperance.

Now, a member of the Massachusetts State Committee publishes the following article in the Boston Telegraph, which shows clearly how the matter stands:

It is a fact that the new movement—that is, the recent moral suasion movement in the temperance cause, originated with the State Committee, and has their cordial approval.—But it is not true that they have abandoned the anti-liquor law or any part of it, either in principle or action. The movement is in strict accordance with the most rigid enforcement of the law, and, as the committee believe, is calculated to establish the law.

We make this statement to disabuse any of our friends who have been led astray on the subject. Our opponents have been trying to make it appear that we have changed our position. They will excuse us if we say this is not the case. We go for the law with more confidence than ever before. We go for it JUST AS IT IS. We do not want a single paragraph or even letter of it altered. When officers will regard their oath and do their duty honestly and truly, it is just the instrument we need to put a stop to intemperance. We say then, let the law stand JUST AS IT IS, until it shall have been declared unconstitutional by the proper authorities. We shall resist any amendment whatever. We believe it to be one of the most salutary laws on our statute book, and that it cannot be altered without damage to the public weal.

Our chief hope in the moral movement is to save the youth of the State from being overcome by the temptations of the law breakers We confess that we have little expectation of reforming by moral means men who are debased enough to sell intoxicating liquors as a beverage under existing circumstances.—Nothing short of a stringent Maine law can reach such cases. But we may reform the drunkard by moral means, especially if by the use of the law we can keep intoxicating liquor out of his way. At all events, we can pledge the youth not to drink, and establish a public moral sentiment that shall give the law the permanency and popularity it deserves.

Let no one then suppose that temperance men are changing front. No, no. It is not true. We go for all right means, and expect to succeed. If an occasional speaker in our meetings expresses more confidence in moral means than in legal measures, we must not be alarmed. This is just how some friends of temperance feel on the subject. Others, and we think the great mass of temperance men, go for both moral and legal measures and they have no thought of abandoning either. They consider it perfectly consistent and proper for them to prosecute the rum seller and send him to the House of Correction, while they are trying to pledge the community to total abstinence, and establish a healthier public sentiment.

☞ The Prisoner's Friend for February, 1856, is received from the editor and publisher, Charles Spear, Boston. Its contents are:

Imprisonment of Eminent Men; Poetry—Ingratitude; Legal Obligations of Railroad Operatives; The Old Village Church; Poetry—The Dying Year; Labors of the Editor; Cost of keeping up a City Church; Poetry—The Two Statues; Albany Penitentiary; Uttering a Forged Bill of Exchange by a Clergyman; British Prison-ships; Poetry—The Merry Sleigh; Letter from a Discharged Convict; Visiting Prisons; Soliciting Donations; Reform School for Girls.

Under the head of Albany Penitentiary, there is an extract from the Warden's (Mr Pilsbury's) Report, in which he expresses the opinion that the short sentence, (10 days only,) for drunkenness, imposed by the new law of New York, is not so good for the criminal, as the old and longer terms of imprisonment, 2 or 3 months, which used to be imposed on the same men, by the former law, for various crimes and misdemeanors.

☞ The Londonderry, N. H., Scotch Irish settlers, whose descendants are among our best citizens, are by no means to be confounded with the Celtic Irish Catholics. The Scotch Presbyterians conquered the North of Ireland long ago,—and their descendants, the Scotch Irish, are a distinct people from the other Irish, in religion, politics, feeling, and greatly so in language.

Among the many good things in the variegated memoirs of the Rev. Sydney Smith, is the following:

"When you meet with neglect, let it arouse you to exertion, instead of mortifying your pride. Set about lessening those defects which expose you to neglect, and improve those excellencies which command attention and respect." This is excellent advice.

VERBAL POLISHING.—We take the following from a report of G. S. Hillard's recent lecture in Boston:

In illustration of the tendency of some minds to polish and ornament homely matters, the lecturer related an incident within his own knowledge. A gentleman ordered a rocking chair, which was received by his wife, a lady very precise in her speech, when sent to his residence. Upon making trial of the chair, the gentleman expressed his great satisfaction with it, when his wife remarked, "The man said its equilibrium was very accurately adjusted." "Did he really say that—those very words?" inquired the husband. "Why no, not exactly," replied the lady; "he said it joggled just right."

We hear of numerous cases of suffering among the poor of our foreign population, who have no resort for aid. One day this week, when the cold sunk the mercury several degrees below zero, a family, while the husband and father was at sea, consisting of a woman and several small children, were saved from starving and freezing, when they had eaten their last morsel and were burning their last piece of wood. They had nothing to sustain life for several days before, but what the children had begged in the streets; and this is but one of many instances. In past years when all needed relief could be had by application to the city authorities, street begging was generally discountenanced as an unnecessary and vicious practice; but now when the city does not aid, and when the State support comes only in the workhouse that the foreigners cannot separate from their idea of the old country workhouse where the poor are placed to be murdered, the public will do well before refusing alms to inquire into the circumstances of the case. There is no doubt more real suffering in Newburyport this winter, than ever before.—Newburyport Herald.

Nevertheless, the State Almshouses apparently work well.

THE PERSONAL LIBERTY BILL.—The Committee on this subject in the Legislature of Massachusetts, have agreed, by a considerable majority, to report a bill making some alterations in the law of last year. There will probably be a minority report in favor of repeal.

KANSAS VIEWS OF KANSAS AFFAIRS.—We have received the Kansas Herald of Freedom, published at Lawrence, to Jan. 26th. It is full of articles suggested by the peculiar state of affairs in that Territory.

The leading article is on Governor Shannon's Resignation. It is exceedingly severe on the Governor, though it professes to regret his determination to resign. After enumerating all his "mistakes," such as his speech at Westport, endorsing the Mob Legislature; his participation in the "Law and Order" convention at Leavenworth, in which he was used as a cat's paw, by more knowing ones; his invitation to the Border Ruffians to come to Kansas and help subjugate the real settlers; and his denial of this act over his own signature; &c., &c.—the article proceeds to say, that after all, Governor Shannon's greatest fault is excessive credulity. "Believing all men to be truthful but himself, he readily adopted whatever falsehoods were told him in regard to Free State Men, and it was not until after his own observation taught him to the contrary, that he was willing to believe them not true."

Of the Governor's intelligence, the article speaks most contemptuously:—"Those who are disposed to censure Providence with his ways," it says, "may call Gov. Shannon a fool, an old dotard, &c., but in doing so they reflect upon the wisdom of that Being 'who doeth all things well,' and the assertion should never be made by Christians." It concludes by saying that "Governor Shannon has many noble traits of character, and not the least among them was his great love of champaign. We presume champagne is intended. Under its mellowing influence he could be brought to feel that justice demanded something else than the subjugation of a great people—something besides their extermination."

The Crisis Approaching.—The Herald assures its readers in the East that another crisis is approaching. It tells them that they may be prepared at any time to hear that the blow has been struck; and appeals to them to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's notice to the rescue. It says that messengers are daily arriving from different points in Missouri, bringing intelligence of organization of military companies along the border, the collection of military stores, and the general preparation for a sudden attack on the Territory, as soon as the weather becomes favorable. Precautionary measures have been adopted by Generals Robinson and Lane. A regiment has been organized, the forts are garrisoned and guarded night and day to prevent surprise, and munitions of war are being collected. Preparations for defence had also been made at Topeka.

Gen. Atchison.—The Squatter Sovereign announces that Gen. Atchison with a company of two hundred of his neighbors has made arrangements to move into the Territory in the spring. He will take his slaves with him, as will a number of his companions.

The Affray at Easton, K. T.—The Herald corrects the story sent from Weston, Mo., by telegraph, respecting the affray at Easton, in which Brown was killed by the pro-slavery men. It says that the first attack was made, the first firing done, and all the violence committed by the pro slavery men; and that the battle was finally fought by fifteen Free State men against over thirty pro-slavery men; and that these freemen were not Northern "abolitionists" as the telegraphic despatch represented, but immigrants from Missouri, who had become disgusted with the outrages of the people of that State. Brown was taken for the editor of the Herald of Freedom, whose name is Brown, and was literally hacked to pieces, with a hatchet and bowie knife, in cold blood.—Traveller.

Rev. Dr. Chickering stated at the late meeting of the Cumberland Congregational Conference that while it had been estimated that Infant Baptism should be in the proportion of 1 to 12 church members, there were in Maine only 1 to 63; in New Hampshire 1 to 70; and in Vermont 1 to 143:

LOCAL.

WINTER NEVER ROTS IN THE SKY, says an old proverb, current in New England as we suppose, almost ever since the Pilgrims of the May Flower spent their first winter at Plymouth. Whatever may be said by way of exception in some seasons, this winter, 1855–6, will be set down in the tablet of memory, as unquestionably sound and substantial. No rottenness or softness about it. From Christmas to Ash Wednesday, one solid freeze without a thaw, and immense piles of snow. Then with only a single day of thaw and rain, to settle the snow a little, we find the cold pressing in on every side,—and on Sunday, Feb. 17, we have a gentle snow of 4 or 5 inches in the morning, and a blustering snow from the N. W. in the evening, of some inches more. Then the wind blew a good stiff topsail breeze from the N. W. all night and all the next day. The railroads are buried, the cars stay put, and the mails don't come. The ladies don't go a shopping, the salesman sits on his counter, and the cash in the till does not increase very fast. Well; a holiday now and then, of rest from news, can do no harm. There's more room in the papers for little miscellanies.

The train which left this city on Monday forenoon for Portland, reached South Berwick Junction in two hours—and as neither the Boston & Maine, nor the Portland Train had arrived there,—in due time it passed on, but had not arrived in Saco at 8 P.M.

The morning Train from Portland arrived at South Berwick Junction, about 7 P. M.—But the train from Boston over the Boston & Maine road had not arrived at 8.

The morning train from this city for Boston, had not reached Newburyport at 8 P. M.—and no train from Boston had arrived there at that time.

The train from this city for Concord, started at noon; had not been heard of at sunset, and was not much expected to get back the same night.

☞ The Fair at the Hanover street Chapel, under the direction of the Ladies of the F W. Baptist Society, commences this evening. The beautiful Chapel has been tastefully decorated; the tables will be well supplied with articles to tickle the palate and attact the eye and everything possible will be done to make the occasion pleasant to all who may favor them with their patronage.

☞ The Pleasant street Society's Fair closed on Thursday evening last, according to announcement. The receipts were considerable, though we do not know the amount. On Friday evening, some gentlemen connected with the Fair, got up a hot Turkey Supper—to which about 150 guests sat down. The feast was excellent and abundant; but owing to the time consumed by the tableaux and the declaration of the gift enterprise, the tables were not spread so early as was intended, nor the arrangements for attendance, &c. so complete as they would otherwise have been.

The Hall was crowded on both evenings, and interest kept up to the last.

"P. B."—Messrs. Editors:—Permit me to enquire of your poetical correspondent, "P. B.," if a poem which appeared in the Chronicle of Monday, entitled "The Bride's Departure," and signed with the above initials, was an original production! *

☞ Hon. Daniel Mace of Indiana, and Hon. Samuel Galloway of Ohio, will address the citizens of Portsmouth this evening at the Temple, commencing at 7 1-2 o'clock.

WHO ARE THE DISUNIONISTS?—The recent meeting of the Southern Convention was attended by a number of office holders under the General Government. Among them was J. L. B. DeBow, of the Census Department, who took occasion to announce that Louisiana, the State he represented, "loved the South better than she did the Union:" a similar statement in the mouth of a northern office holder, would ensure his prompt dismissal, but in this case,

Following Mr DeBow, came a Col. Green, from Texas, who avowed himself a fillibuster in principle and gave the following toast, which was received with applause:

"The Southern Republic—bounded on the north by Mason and Dixon's line, on the south by Patagonia—embracing the valley o. the Amazon, with all the Africans in it."

In this connection it is not out of place to remind our readers that one of the very first acts of President Pierce was to appoint Mr Campbell, of Mobile, the President of the famous Disunion Convention, held at Nashville in 1850, the Judge of the Supreme Court of the United States.—New Haven Courier.

GONE—NOBODY KNOWS WHERE.—Some days ago an aeronaut left Winchester, N. Y., and went up, but whether he has come down or not is as yet unknown. No tidings have been heard of him, and no traces of his balloon have been discovered since he passed beyond the vision of the citizens of that town. Mr. Wise, a brother aeronaut, entertains hopes that the missing man may yet be safe. He thinks if he had come down in one of the lakes, his balloon would have been found.—He relates that, two years ago, the French aeronaut, M. Arban, made an ascent from Barcelona, Spain, and was not again heard from till the other day, when he made his appearance once more. His balloon had gone to Africa; he had been seized and made a slave, and but recently effected his escape.

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADA.

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

The Cunard steamship Canada, from Liverpool for Boston, arrived at Halifax at 9 o'clock Sunday evening. She brings no tidings of the steamer Pacific, now 28 days out, and respecting whose safety strong fears are entertained.

The progress of the peace negotiations is favorable. Russia's unconditional acceptance of the Austrian propositions is confirmed, and a Congress for arranging the details of a treaty will immediately assemble at Paris, and peace probably be concluded by the last of February.

The London Advertiser announces that an angry discussion had occurred between the American Minister, Mr Buchanan, and Lord Clarendon, during a personal interview at the War Office, relative to Central American Affairs.

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Feb. 15.—Execution.—Jacob Armbruster, convicted of the murder of his wife, was hung at this place to day, within the walls of the jail. He made some remarks on the scaffold, denying that he was guilty of the crime for which he was to suffer, and declaring that the trial was conducted by prejudiced counsel and perjured witnesses. He continued to protest his innocence to the last. His dying words were—"I want no judge but God."

NORFOLK OYSTER TRADE.—About 1800 gallons of oysters were shipped at Norfolk for New York last week, to be repacked for transportation to the Western towns. It is estimated, says the Argus, that three millions of dollars are expended each season for oysters from the waters of the James, the Elizabeth, and other rivers of Virginia alone. From five to seven hundred vessels are said to be engaged in loading and transporting them to other markets.

THE PRESIDENT AND SENATOR HALE.—The New York Times says: "Some days since we made a few remarks in relation to an act of rudeness on the part of the President towards Senator Hale, of New Hampshire, on the occasion of that gentleman visiting the White House with his wife and daughter.—The information, which came to us from a quarter that we could not question, we now learn was incorrect, and that no indignity was offered to Mr Hale."

COAL is rising in price in Boston and New York. In the former city, the price has increased two dollars on the ton. This is caused by the shutting up of the river Delaware, whereby the shipments to Boston and New York have been suspended. The yards in the Eastern cities are becoming bare of the article. The same cause which makes it scarce in Boston and New York makes it plenty in Philadelphia, though the quanity weekly sent down from the coal region is considerably diminished, being intended only to maintain the supply of this city.—Philadelphia Ledger.

THE UNJUST JUDGE.—A bill is before the Legislature of Pennsylvania, to change the venue of the civil suit brought by Passmore Williamson against Judge Kane for false imprisonment, from Delaware Co. to Philadelphia. The object of it is thought to be, a fear that the public sentiment of Delaware Co. will be less favorable to the Judge than in Philadelphia. Well may this unjust Judge feel the just vengeance of outraged law. He will probably succeed in changing from Delaware County to Philadelphia, but where will he change to when his case is brought before the bar of God?—Lowell Christian Era.

PERSONAL.—Miss Louisa Pyne, Mr Harrison and the other artistes composing the Pyne and Harrison opera troupe, declined singing on Sunday evening at the St. Charles Theatre, in New Orleans, where they are now successfully performing, on the score of a conscientious regard for the Sabbbth—relinquishing on each of such occasions nearly ten thousand dollars.—Boston Courier.

EXTRAORDINARY LONGEVITY.—The Baltimore Patriot says—"A female named Sarah Johnson died in that city on Monday at the advanced age of one hundred and twenty years! She must certainly have been the 'oldest inhabitant,' not only of the city, but of the State, and was, of course, quite advanced in years at the time the Declaration of American Independence was made."

CAUSE FOR MOURNING.—A correspondent of one of the papers, writing from Washington, says:

A slave on his way from Washington to Alexandria, was overcome by the cold, and perished by the roadside, within a few rods of his own cabin. This death excited more than ordinary regret, as his master had, a few days previous, refused an offer of one thousand dollars for him.

NUNNERIES IN MARYLAND.—A petition now in circulation among the citizens of Maryland advances some strong arguments in favor of the suppression of the nunneries which at present exist in that State.

BOATS LAID UP AT NEW ORLEANS.—There are thirty-six steamboats belonging to the trade of the Mississippi and its tributaries, laid up at New Orleans, on account of the ice, which blocks the river.

Rev. James Rand, of Lebanon, Maine, has received and accepted a call to become the Pastor of the F. W. Baptist Church in Amesbury village. He will commence his pastoral labors March 23d.

Miss Andrews, an angel of mercy to the sufferers in Norfolk last summer, is about to be married to a wealthy gentleman in that city.

The steamer Island Home succeded, on Tuesday, in effecting a passage from Hyannis to Nantucket, after an absence from the latter place of ten days.

The Cincinnati water pipes, though laid two or three feet under ground, are frozen so that the supply of water is cut off throughout the city.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Vegetable Medicines.

THE way to save your Money and preserve your Health, is to use the Vegetable Medicines prepared by S. GILBERT. By keeping a supply of these Family Medicines on hand, and using them when required, by the directions, you will preserve your health; consequently save your Doctor's bills, preserve your constitution from the deleterious effects of the mineral poisons which are so commonly administered; and get your medicine, if you choose, free from Alcohol. A good supply of Pure Vegetable Medicines, Herbs, Roots, &c., pure and fresh, may always be found at the Vegetable Medicine Store, 14 Pleasant street. f1

FROST IN RAILROAD CAR WHEELS.—The Albany Journal says that during the last three weeks, upon the eastern end of the Albany and Utica division of the Central road, six large six inch axles in driving wheels were snapped off. Last week the spokes of one of the five foot driving wheels of an engine were all jerked off the hub at a crack, and the rim of the wheel was thrown up on to the cab.—The fracture of the axles takes place in all cases close to the wheel. The break is vertical, and with a comparatively plain face where the iron is inferior, and jagged and stringy where it is excellent.

The fracture of wheels and axles takes place mostly in the early morning, about sunrise. The day succeeding one of intense cold is more fatal to iron under strain, it is said, than the cold day itself. Straining is deemed a severer test than percussion.

MOUNT VERNON.—A communication from Gov. Wise was read before the Virginia Legislature on Monday, containing a proposition from Mr. Lewis W. Washington to present, in perpetuity, to the State of Virginia, the sites of the birthplace of George Washington, and of the home and the graves of his progenitors in America, provided the State shall cause these places to be permanently enclosed, and shall mark the same by suitable tablets to commemorate these notable spots. The communication was referred to a select committee. The fresh proofs of unbounded reverence for this most illustrious man which are being exhibited in the States, by setting apart his natal day, and making it still more commemorative, should give an impulse to the noble work of hallowing the spot which is so nearly associated with Washington.—Boston Courier.

BEEF vs. VENISON.—Venison is cheaper than beef in New York city. Steaks and saddle cuts sell at 12 1-2 to 14 cents, and poorer beef at 14 to 17 cents. The local demand for New York city requires 1500 head of stock a day, one half in beef, and the other half equally divided in swine and sheep. The daily consumption in New York city alone is equal to 350,000 pounds of beef.

All purchasers in this line are requested to call, as above. n21

G. W. STONE'S
Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis
ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine; let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,
FOR THE CURE OF
INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, an i has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. University. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain.

Chapman, Member Roy al Col Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia (in the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

On Manhood and its Premature Decline.
Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand.

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Seminal Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally.

BY B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free in a sealed envelope by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&wem*

From the Boston Traveller.

I AM ON THE OTHER SIDE.

BY DR. CHARLES ROBBINS.

"I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

Blow angry winds, from Greenland's frozen height,
With mounts of frost, play wildly in your night!
Come fiery dust, in vengeful whirlwinds rise,
With lurid lightnings gleaming through the skies!
Rise, earth convulsed, in elemental fray,
'Mid chaos come, you proudest pillars sway!
Rise, upheaved ocean, lift thy angry foam,
In frenzied surges, with dark waters roam!
Come, dark malarias, charged with woe and blight,
Within thy folds, there's one long dismal night!
Come pent-up fires! Come seething floods, now ride;
I heed you not,—I'm on the other side!

Your vine-clad hills, your star-lit gems of earth,
Wither, decay, while starting into birth!
Life's golden sands, like dew-drops pass away;
Joys, harvests, pleasures, bear the stamp "decay!"
Thus splendors fade—thus coronets and crowns,
Thus pass earth's triumphs, tinged with smiles and frowns.
It's nought to me, I see far brighter suns,—
Harvests and joys in endless cycles run;
No ills intrude, no sorrow sheds a gloom,—
But worlds of sunshine and immortal bloom;
Graces advancing fill the enraptured mind,
And wandering thoughts shoot fleeter than the wind.
I'm anchored here—I here in safety ride,
My life, my home, is on the other side.

Charlestown, February, 1856.

An Older Yet.—Mr. Stanwood, who died at Newburyport the other day, aged 93, was not, it now appears, the oldest person there. A writer in the Herald says:

Mrs. Anna Harris, of Belleville, will be 95 the 1st day of May next, a noble relics of the olden times, and much smarter than many not half so old. She is cheerful and active, enjoys good health, rises early in the morning, and takes an interest in all that transpires.—The Herald has few more constant readers.—She has a clear remembrance of the past history of Newburyport, from a period anterior to the Revolution, and tell anecdotes of the many prominent individuals who have resided here. She speaks of the Revolution, and tells of the excitement caused, when Mr. John Tracy rode up and down High street on horseback, crying out that the British were at Parker river, coming into town. She spends much time knitting, and I saw to-day a piece of open-worked stockings, knit by her so perfectly that I venture to say, few young girls in the city would be willing to compete with her in this accomplishment, as it used to be regarded. She thinks girls are not half so smart (physically) as formerly, in which it is to be feared she is too near the truth, and says the fashions now were many of them in vague when she was a girl, in particular wide sleeves, with this improvement, they had weights then to keep them out of the way.

At a family meeting of the Tappans (her maiden name) in 1846, at the old family residence in Tappan Lane, she was the oldest person present, and in a piece of poetry sung on the occasion, was the following reference to her:

"There Edward's daughter Anna sits,
The matron of the scene,
A station which she more befits
Than would proud England's queen.
Three cheers for good aunt Harris then,
Long may she live; the last,
The sole surviving link, that binds
The present to the past."

Spanish Suspicion.—Sea captains going out to Cuba often avail themselves of our old exchanges, either for their own reading during the voyage or for the benefit of Americans in Havana. Of course many of the papers are badly "scissored." But we were much amused yesterday to learn that these mutilated sheets are regarded with great suspicion by the Spanish officials and sometimes quietly taken care of, on the ground that the vacancies have once contained reflections on her Christian Majesty, which were prudently cut out before they could come to the eyes of her watchful servants!—Portland Advertiser.

Value of Church Property.—A pew in the centre aisle of Rev. Dr. Putnam's church, Roxbury, sold, a few days since, for $900 and taxes, in all nearly $1000.

A poor Irishman who applied for a license to sell ardent spirits, being questioned by the Board of Excise as to his moral fitness for the trust: "Ah, sure it is not much character a man needs to sell rum."

This answers for the old-fashioned view of the matter—but when certain rum-sellers become, according to Gov. Wells, "heads of families," it may be different. They ought to have a surplus of character to stand the wear and tear of such a perplexing situation. —Portland Advertiser.

The Pipe of Burns.—At the recent anniversary festival of the Burns Association, in Cincinnati, Mr Kennedy, of Oxford, Ohio, presented to the Society a shepherd's pipe once owned by Burns, and upon which the poet had often played to his "sweet Highland Mary."

The total funded debt of Philadelphia amounts to $16,781,470. Last year the receipts into the Treasury were $113,753 less than the expenditure.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1856.

"EGOTISTICAL TWATTLE."

BY UNCLE TOBY.

Some time before the gale of wind which stopped the trains, a scribbler who rejoiced in the second hand title of "Truth," but who has quite mistaken the name, poured out a small vial of wrath and bitterness against Uncle Toby—but the old man being busy in reading the papers and cutting out scraps, laid the attack aside to attend to it if it ever seemed worth while,—or, if not, to let it slide, as they do the Union.

Since the blow, there has been quite a fishing time in the drawers of scraps and clippings, and among the other old affairs, up comes the scribbler's attack, and with it the following item.

The Duke of Argyle once made a speech against Lord Derby, to which the latter did not reply—thereupon the Duke claimed victory, and crowed lustily, until Lord Derby extinguished him thus:—

"My Lords," said the Earl of Derby, "a short time since there was one of those persons called 'navvies,' who was in the habit of allowing his wife to beat him. He was a very large man, and she was only a small woman. The neighbors asked him why he permitted her. 'Oh, never mind,' said he, 'it amuses her and don't hurt me.'" Shouts of laughter greeted this allusion.

Now if this bitter scribbler is either amused or relieved, by pouring out his wrath on Uncle Toby's devoted head,—so be it—not a hair of the old man's wig will curl a jot the more or the less in consequence. Forty years of writing for the papers, have made him acquainted with a number of poor writers, who mistake impudence for wit, and assumption for proof. This late and unknown scribbler is one of them. He says:

The egotistical twattle in aid of the opponents of the Democratic party daily ground out by the profound statesman, jurist and divine of the Chronicle, who rejoices in the second hand title of "Uncle Toby," is worthy of notice only, so far as he perverts truth to advance his political aims, which is a very frequent occurrence.

Here, says the old man, as he wipes his glasses and takes a dip of ink, are three or four distinct charges, to be taken up and disposed of, seriatim.

The charges are, 1, that he is an egotist; 2, that he twattles; 3, that his twattle aids the opponents of the Democratic party; 4, that his twattle is almost unworthy of notice; but 5thly, that he perverts the truth very often, i. e. he lies; and 6thly that this is done to advance his political aims.

Now, let us consider, 1, that the egotist talks of himself, or praises himself, or magnifies himself or his deeds; and 2, that twattle is idle talk, mere gabble—and therefore Uncle T.'s egotistical twattle must be idle or silly talk about himself. But then, 3dly,—it puzzles the old man not a little to see how his idle talk about himself can damage the democratic party, or how it can possibly aid any party, or the opponents of any! He had never supposed the Democratic party to be so soft as that an old man's egotistical twattle would beat a hole in it; he don't believe a word of it now.

The remainder of the article plainly shows that Uncle Toby's egotism herein referred to, must be on the subject of temperance; for the scribbler specifies that, and mentions no other.

And truly, if any efforts to advance the cause of temperance, in this region, for the last thirty years, are to be mentioned and described, Uncle Toby's name, either new or "second hand," can hardly fail to come in, especially when he writes about it. For all of these efforts "he saw, and part of them he was."

When the Portsmouth Temperance Society was formed, near 30 years ago, he was present at its formation, and his name, subscribed to the anti-distilled-spirits pledge, stands side by side with that of a respected clergyman, now the eldest pastor in this city. The Total Abstinence Society followed in a few years—and he entered that. And the Washingtonians, when they came up, established a temperance paper, unanimously elected him one of its editors, and by successive reelections retained him at that post as long as the paper existed.

He is, at this present writing, President of the Portsmouth Washington Total Abstinence Society—and he happened to be president of the Rockingham County Temperance Convention, before the passage of the late law.

Moreover, he has delivered some hundreds of lectures on temperance, in Maine, New Hampshire and Massachusetts, (always on the ground of moral suasion,) and has, by collecting facts and making observations, made temperance a study for all these years. The Gazette said, some time ago, "it is his hobby"—we expect him to say what he pleases on this subject.

For these reasons he supposes 4th, that the scribbler affects to think what he says is hardly worthy of notice—but really he knows the people rely on our statements, and for some base reasons he fears their effects.

But 5thly, does he lie? Let us see how the scribbler makes it out.

He copies from the Morning Chronicle of Jan. 31, parts of an article in which we commented on the Concord Patriot thus:

The amount of these three kindred items is, that by the consent and connivance of the friends of the law, it is to be violated till after election, in order to effect that election—and that this is not so merely in a solitary case, or in a few cases, but is so general that the Patriot says "the supporters of the law do not try to enforce it—do not intend to enforce it—but intend to wink at it until after election—and that it is so understood by those interested in the liquor trade!"

We then added—

"The answer to this is, that the whole people in this city know it is not true as applied here. The liquor interest in this city, one and all, have no such understanding. On the contrary, they know that prosecutions have commenced in several cases which have been stove off or defeated in various ways; that one of their number now lies in jail, and two or more are under bonds to go to court for trial."

The unknown scribbler replies:

Now this denial, so far as it contradicts for this city the Patriot's statement that the liquor law is not enforced, is an unqualified perversion of truth.

If the reader will look back over the Patriot's assertions, as we summed them up, he will see them dwelling, not on the mere fact of failure to enforce, but chiefly on the alleged consent of the friends of the law, to its violation—to the contrivance and connivance at its violation, to get votes at the election.

This we said was not true here. We say so now. If any body chooses to disbelieve us, and believe a scribbler who signs a feigned name, let them do so. It cannot harm us. He only deceives himself; that's all.

Lastly, as to the old man's political aims. These are very moderate. He does not wish to be one of the Aldermen or Common Council—does not envy the Mayor nor the Police Justice, nor the Postmaster, nor the Judges of the Court. But one word as to the scribbler's aims. He winds up thus:

For one I think there is very little room to doubt that the Patriot's article is correct in all its statements and conclusions, that the liquor law is not only to be winked at by the powers that be until after the election, but that the liquor agents and other know nothing officials are expected to let rum run freely for the purpose of influencing the result in favor of know nothingism.

We have published the official reports of two of the neighboring agencies. One of them sold 50 gallons in 5 months; the other 11 gallons in 3 months and 12 days. The Gazette has published an amiable growl because our City Agency has sold so little, and costs so much!

Uncle T.'s reliance on law and lawgivers, courts and juries, for moral purposes, is and has ever been, as moderate as have been his political aims. Nevertheless, he is thankful for the smallest favors, and therefore he is very glad to see the new law obeyed by our best citizens,—and sorry to see it violated or opposed by any.

THE RIGHT DOCTRINE.—What the Irishman does in Ireland, what the Englishman does in England, what the Frenchman does in France, what every native recipient of power does in the land of his birth, the American does, and does rightly, in America. When the upright foreigner has resided in America twenty one years; when he has carefully studied for that length of time our form of government, and the practical workings of our Democratic institutions; when he has thus witnessed the operations of our laws: learned to prize, as its true worth, our system of universal education and entire toleration in religion; when he has washed away, at this free fountain opened in the wilderness, every alien prejudice, every extraneous alliance, every vestige of devotion to kingly rule and papal supremacy—then, but not till then is he qualified to assume the position of an American elector.—Gloucester Telegraph.

One of the most intelligent citizens of this place, who was born without the limits of the United States, and who deceased a few years ago, always maintained that our policy of naturalization and foreign voting was wrong. He held that the new comer might be allowed to hold property, educate his children, and perhaps vote in town affairs,—but should never vote for state or federal officers.

His idea was, that the great body of new comers would not understand our systems of government short of a life time.

We are sorry to see the Zion's Advocate inclined to meddle with politics. It had better let them alone.—Eastern Argus, Jan. 21.

The Advocate is a Baptist paper in Maine. The editor makes a keen reply, closing thus;

We know not what can have excited the apprehensions of the Argus on our behalf, but can assure it that its fears are entirely groundless, and its advice, granting that it is not impertinent, is entirely superfluous.

Political matters, state and national, the acts of public men, of the Legislature and of Congress, are, in our opinion, proper subjects of record and of comment, in a paper like ours. And we apprehend no danger in speaking of these when we think proper, and as we may deem just. If the Argus objects to what we may advance, it has of course, a perfect right to express its objections, and we will endeavor to give them due consideration, but we hope it will not for a moment entertain the absurd idea that it is in any sense, its province to dictate to us what subjects we may or may not notice, or in what manner we shall treat of them.

LOCAL.

CORDAGE MANUFACTORY.

In the midst of a snow storm, when the snow was deep and soft, we were all called up early one morning last winter, to see the South Ropewalk burn down. We call it the South, because there used to be, many years ago, two ropewalks at the North End, and one on Middle Road; but all have been gone for years, except the South, in which Mr Jeremiah Johnson kept on making the best of cordage; and latterly, the same skilful mechanic has pursued the same business with enlarged facilities, in company with John N. Handy, Esq. Their gangs of rigging have been among the very best—absolutely A number 1.

And now, happening to pass that way, we remember that we have never mentioned before, that their Cordage Works have been rebuilt. They have, however, been rebuilt on the old site, in a substantial manner, 800 feet long, and about half way two stories high. They have been in operation several months, and now, in the dead of winter, they employ about 30 hands, men and boys. They are now furnished with every modern fixture for convenience and safety; and form an important link in the chain of our domestic industry and prosperity.

☞ We have positive intelligence from the Portsmouth Train, which started hence on Monday morning, for Boston. Mr Akerman of Jackson & Co.'s Express, and Mr Laws, walked home on Tuesday P. M. with the news that the train and four engines were safe at North Hampton, where they had been all night, and so far through the day, with little prospect of getting beyond Hampton, even if they reached that point.

The train from Boston on Monday morning, left Salem on Tuesday morning, and had not arrived at Wenham at 2 P. M.

The train from Portland on Monday morning, had not arrived at South Berwick on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

The train from this city on Monday morning, for Portland, had not proceeded far beyond South Berwick, and came back to the Junction, where it would probably remain through Tuesday night.

☞ Owing to the impassable state of the roads, the Old Folk's Concert at Hampton is of necessity postponed till further notice.

☞ The speakers, Messrs. Mace and Galloway, who were to have been in this city on Tuesday evening, telegraphed on Tuesday that they could not be here, as no train would leave Boston. They are to be at Concord this evening, if possible. If they can come this way, afterwards, the fact will be duly announced.

☞ Mr Pearson's Juvenile Singing School commences this afternoon at 2 1-2 o'clock, at Exchange Hall.

HIGH SCHOOLS.—The Annual public examination of the High Schools in this city, take place this week—the Boys' on Thursday morning, and the Girls' on Friday morning.

Messrs. Editors:—I have noticed, for the past three or four weeks, several men hard at work clearing the middle of our streets.—Will you, through your columns, inform them that the sidewalks in Gates street need their speedy attention, and that there is a capital chance for the Commissioner to enforce the famous Snow Law in that street, in front of unoccupied house No. 8, and several other houses. It is now one of the most dangerous streets to walk in in the city. G. S.

In Philadelphia, on Thursday, a man named Michael Donegan deliberately threw himself in front of the locomotive attached to a train of cars. The engine struck the man and knocked him down upon the track and the train passed over him without inflicting an injury other than a slight bruise! Donegan avowed that it was his intention to have committed suicide.

Among the slain in the engagement at Mohoumdpore (Oude) was found the body of a woman, dressed in a garment dyed black; she was armed like the rest of her tribe, with a pair of pistols and a sword, and must have been killed by a grape shot. It is said she was a very religious woman, and was much venerated in consequence of having made a pilgrimage to Mecca.

OCTOGENARIANS.—The Rev. Caleb Bradley, in a recent visit to our office, related the following unusual incident. On Saturday, Feb. 2, he went into a barber's shop in the city, for the purpose of being shaved, and while there, two other gentlemen, one 92 and the other 89 years of age, came in and placed themselves also under the barber's hand. Mr B. is himself 84 years old, so that the united years of the three were 265. It is an evidence of their hale old age, that they were able, on one of the cold days of this severe winter, to go to the barber's shop rather than call him to their houses.—Portland Mirror.

In Philadelphia there is an establishment for the manufacture of paper bags for druggists, grocers, bakers, confectioners, and other dealers, with machinery driven by steam. It produces 60,000 bags of various sizes per day, and consumes nearly one ton and a half of paper per week.

SUDDEN DEATH OF A BOSTONIAN.—A gentleman from Boston, named N. Baylies, stopped at the Massasoit House, in this city, last Thursday evening, while on his way home from New York. He retired to bed complaining of illness, and being quite unwell on the following day, his wife was sent for and arrived in the evening. She assiduously attended to his wants, and early on the following Monday morning, noticing that her husband was enjoying the first sweet sleep since his illness, sought for herself a little repose, awaking a few hours later to find that her husband had just expired. The corpse, accompanied by the bereaved widow and the attending physician, Dr. Lambert of this city, was conveyed to Boston, Monday morning.—Springfield Republican, 6th.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Feb. 18.

SENATE.—Gen. Wilson introduced a resolution calling for official correspondence relative to Kansas difficulties, to which the President promptly responded. The instructions of the Secretary of War direct Col. Sumner, commanding Fort Leavenworth, to hold troops in readiness to march to the scene of disturbance, provided the civil authorities are unable to suppress any insurrection or repel invasion, and counsel him to act with prudence and forbearance.

Mr Toucey of Connecticut expressed a warm approval of the course pursued by the executive, and hoped he would be sustained by all law-abiding citizens.

Mr Wilson denounced correspondents as misrepresenting Kansas affairs, and contended that they were controlled by border ruffians.

HOUSE.—Gen. Lane introduced a bill allowing Oregon Territory to form a State government and adopt a Constitution.

Mr Dunn introduced a bill establishing the boundaries of Kansas and prohibiting slavery therein, and in Nebraska.—Tel. to Gazette.

PREPARING FOR WAR.—The recent idle rumors, set afloat by the Washington correspondent of the New York papers of a suspension of friendly intercourse between the United States and Great Britain, have alarmed the good people of Canada, and they are making preparation of war. We are informed by a gentleman direct from Toronto that fourteen loads of ammunition are now on the road from Kingston to Toronto. Each load is drawn by four horses; Mink, the stage proprietor, is to receive $1200 for the transportation service. This looks warlike, as if the people of the Province were alarmed. The transportation of ammunition by land such a long distance is unusual, and must cause some excitement among the people along the frontier.—Rochester Union, Feb. 1.

From Morewood's history of inebriating liquors, it appears that within the previous century—principally within the last half of the century—the consumption of whiskey in Ireland had increased ninety-fold, while the increase of population was but four fold. We were running headlong to ruin when the temperance reform stepped in and stayed our downward course. Within five years the consumption of whiskey was reduced one half, at which point it remained several years; but the demon has again taken possession of us, and we are running our downward course once more. The brewer, distiller, and the licensed victualler are once more rejoicing at the magnitude of their trade. Their unholy traffic is once more sowing seeds of misery and despair broadcast over the land.—James Houghton, Esq., of Dublin.

WHEN REBELLION IS BETTER THAN OBEDIENCE.—I hear much of obedience, how that and the kindred virtues are prescribed and exemplified by Jesuitism; the truth of which and the merits of which far be it from me to deny. Obedience, a virtue universally forgotten in these days, will have to become universally known again. Obedience is good and indispensable; but if it be obedience to what is wrong and false—good heaven, there is no name for such a depth of human cowardice and calumny; spurned everlastingly by the gods. Loyalty? Will you be loyal to Beelzebub? Will you make a covenant with Death and Hell? I will not be loyal to Beelzebub; I will become a nomadic Chouan rather, a barricading Sansculotte, a Conciliation-hall repealer; anything and everything is venial to that.—Carlyle.

ANTIOCH COLLEGE.—The New York Times says: "It is reliably stated that Antioch College has been freed from the load of debt under which it has labored. Eighty-five thousand dollars are pledged in three districts, comprising, 1st, Western Ohio; 2d, New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, and 3d, the New England States, and this liberal contribution will suffice to place the Institution again upon a good footing. Horace Mann still continues its President. The friends of the college, alarmed at the dreary prospect before them, have put forth very strenuous efforts for the relief of the Institution, and are understood to be greatly rejoiced at the success which has attended them. The regulations, it is well known, permit the reception of both male and female pupils, and the course of study pursued is eminently practical.

A GROWING EVIL.—The Springfield Republican says there is a woman in the house of correction in that city, who has in prison with herself an infant child some fourteen months old. This youthful prisoner has occasioned much trouble of late, on account of its unceasing cries; and when the jailor inquired, the other day, if anything could be done to remedy the evil, the mother heartlessly replied that she didn't think anything could, unless it be rum, which she said the infant had always been accustomed to using, and the absence of which she thought caused the trouble. It proved that the mother had been in the habit of stupifying the child with rum, in order to leave it for the performance of a day's work abroad. The future of that youngster is inseparably connected with drunkenness, crime and punishment.

WEARING FLANNEL.—Put it on once; winter or summer, nothing better can be worn next the skin than a loose, red woolen flannel shirt; "loose," for it has room to move on the skin, thus causing a titillation, draws the blood to the surface and keeps it there, and when that is the case, no one can take a cold; "red," for red flannel fulls up, mats together, and becomes tight, stiff, heavy and impervious. Cotton merely absorbs the moisture from the surface, while woolen flannel conveys it from the skin and deposits it in drops on the outside of the shirt, from which the ordinary cotton shirt absorbs it, and by the near exterior air, is soon dried without injury to the body. Having these properties, red woolen flannel is worn by sailors even in the midsummer of the hottest climate. Wear a thinner material in summer.—Hall's Journal of Health.

Expression alone can invest beauty with supreme and lasting command over the eye.—Fuseli

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to take them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

AMUSING ANECDOTE.—In a letter from Rev. A. C. Thomas to the Christian Repository, the writer relates the following pleasing anecdote:

In a late conversation with Dr. Furness, he related an anecdote which pleased me. A poor woman who had been very attentive to him in his extremity of need, now visited him, accompanied by her little daughter.—Nor did she go empty-handed, but carried a present of calf's foot jelly, which she thought would minister to his comfort. The little girl, after a few minutes of silent observation, pulled the sleeve of her mother, and whispered softly respecting the patient:

"God did not make him handsome."

When the plate of jelly was handed to him he partook of it with unmistakable signs that he greatly relished the luxury; and soon after the visitors left the house, the little girl said:

"Mother, do you think the jelly tasted good to him?"

"Certainly," replied the mother; "could you not see that he relished it?"

"But I mean," persisted the querist, "do you think it tasted good to him as it does to you and me, and other folks?"

"Why certainly. What are you dreaming about my daughter?"

After a moment's musing, the little girl answered, as though a new thought had been born within her:

"Well, God did not make him handsome, but I suppose we are all the same inside."

The editor of the Gospel Banner riding to an appointment one Sunday morning, saw a man in the distance chopping wood with only one hand. He was, at first, shocked at this disregard of the day. Then the thought of the poor fellow's one-armed condition, suggested several excuses, some of which theology refuted, but finally, charity allowed that he might be without sin. As the editor reached this good conclusion, he also reached the man, and discovered, to use his own words, that "the lazy varlet was at work with one hand in his pocket!"

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

NEW CLEAR AND MESS PORK—for sale by A. A. PAYNE. jy22

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, as I has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Navy, Admiral, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been taken for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA AND SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

DEATH OF A CHILD.—The following touching memorial of a lovely child was written by Mr W. B. Bradbury, the well known composer, and will find a response in every parent's heart. It is an elegiac poem in prose, full of feeling, and portraying a child of extraordinary promise:—

DIED, Nov. 17 h, KITTIE LIZZIE, daughter of William B. and Adra E. Bradbury, aged five years and seventeen days.

Kittie is gone. Where? To heaven. An angel came, and took her away. She was a lovely child—gentle as a little lamb; the pet of the whole family; the youngest of them all. But she could not stay with us any longer. She had an angel sister in heaven who was waiting for her. The angel-sister was with us only a few months, but she has been in heaven many years, and she must have loved Kittie, for every body loved her. The loveliest flowers are often soonest plucked. If a little voice sweeter and more musical than others was heard, I knew that Kittie was near. If my study door opened so gently and slyly that no sound could be heard, I knew Kittie was coming. If after an hour's quiet play, a little shadow passed me, and the door opened and shut as no one else could open and shut it, "so as not to disturb papa," I knew Kittie was going. When, in the midst of my composing, I heard a gentle voic saying, "Papa, may I stay with you a little while? I will be very still,', I did not need to look off my work, to assure me that it was my little lamb.

You staid with me too long, Kittie dear, to leave me so suddenly; and you are too still now. You became my little assistant—my home-angel—my youngest and sweetest singing-bird, and I miss the little voice that I have heard in an adjoining room, catching up and echoing little snatches of melody as they were being composed. I miss those soft and sweet kisses. I miss the little hand that was always the first to be placed upon my forehead, to "drive away the pain." I miss the little knock at my bedroom door in the morning, and the triple good night kiss in the evening. I miss the sweet smiles from the sunniest of faces. I miss—oh! how I miss the foremost in the little group who came out to meet me at the gate for the first kiss. I miss you at the table, and at family worship. I miss your voice in "I want to be an angel," for nobody could sing it like you. I miss you in my rides and walks. I miss you in the garden. I miss you everywhere; but I will try not to miss you in heaven.—"Papa, if we are good, will an angel truly come and take us to heaven when we die?" When the question was asked, how little did I think the angel was so near! But he did "truly" come, and the sweet flower is translated to a more geniae clime. "I do wish papa would come home." Wait a little while Kittie, and papa will come. The journey is not long. He will soon be "home." FATHER

SALE OF PEWS IN ALL SOULS CHURH.—The sale of pews in the Unitarian church of Dr. Bellows, corner of Fourth avenue and Twentieth street, took place last evening. The church cost $165,000, including parsonage, interest, insurance, &c. The sum in the hands of the trustees to defray these expenses was $110,650, arising from the sale of the church of the Divine Unity, subscriptions and mortgages, leaving the sum of $54,800 to raise. As the estimated price of the church was $90,000, the trustees determined to assess the pews at that valuation, and for choice of seats a premium should be paid.

At first the bidding was quite animated, but it soon fell off and premiums ran down to a low figure. There were twelve pews in the church valued at $1000 each and upwards—none, however, above $1200. These twelve pews sold at an aggregate premium of $1745, the highest premium being $350, and the lowest $20. The whole number of pews sold was sixty-three, and they braught in the aggregate something over $39,000, of which more than $4500 was in premiums. Moses H. Grinnell, Esq., was one of the larggest purchasers.—N. Y. Evening Post.

VOTE FOR GOVERNOR.

The Concord Daily Patriot, speaking of the late Whig Convention, says:

Some large stories were told by delegates as to the number of votes which this ticket would receive in their several places, and in the aggregate. For instance, it was said that Manchester would give 500, Dover 300, Portsmouth 200, and other towns in proportion.—It was confidently stated that the ticket will get at least 10,000 votes in the State. We do not believe that it will get half of that number; but we are willing to hazard this prediction, that, whatever may be the result of the election in other respects, this convention has settled the fact that Ralph Metcalf cannot be re elected Governor of New Hampshire by the people; and we will say further that we do not believe that he will receive so many votes on the 11th of March next as Baker received last year. And we have a strong and abiding confidence that, in spite of the diversion which this whig movement it expected to make from us, we shall triumphantly elect John S. Wells by the people.

The Portsmouth Journal says, of the same meeting:

At present no more is hoped or expected than that the "old line whigs" should stand firm to their principles.

The whole number of votes for Governor of New Hampshire in March, 1855, was 64,699. Necessary to a choice, 32,346. Ralph Metcalf had 32,769, only 423 majority. Baker had 27,055; Bell, whig, 3,436; (not 13,436 as the Register for 1856 says;) Asa Fowler, free soil, 1,237; and 193 were scattering.

With the Patriot, we do not see where the 10,000 votes are to come from; but they may come, nevertheless. So also, it would not be a surprising thing, if Gov. Metcalf should lose 424 votes, and so not be elected by the people as he was last year; and on the other hand it would not be very surprising if he should happen to gain 1000 or 1200 of those who voted for Fowler last year.

To offset this last consideration, the Old Guard, of 2 or 3000 should be mentioned.—If any portion of them should vote for an independent candidate, their votes would swell the scattering. If any portion of them should vote for Wells, they would swell his vote so much. But it seems probable that a larger portion will vote for Gov. Metcalf's re-election.

Whether Mr. Wells will gain 6000 votes, prove a more popular candidate than Gov. Baker,—and so get elected, is a question yet to be settled.

SHOOTING AND WIFE BEATING.—Yesterday forenoon, says the Boston Chronicle, quite a tumult was raised under the immediate nose, almost, of our peaceful sanctum. At No. 11 Devonshire street, in the shop of Lewis F. Smith, a colored barber, an affray occurred between Smith and Payton Stewart, Jr., proprietor of a Gymnasium in Boylston street, during which Stewart was shot at with a pistol in the hands of Smith, the ball entering the palm of the hand and lodging in the wrist. The same parties had an affray the afternoon before, during which Stewart knocked down Smith with a club. The cause of the trouble is said to be that Smith accused Stewart of cruelly abusing his wife, who is Smith's sister, and that the woman left her husband's house on Sunday last, and went to the house of her brother.

In the Police Court, Smith was afterwards arraigned, charged with assaulting Stewart with a pistol loaded with powder and ball, with intent to kill, and waiving an examination was held in $1000 for trial at the Municipal Court. Stewart was also arraigned upon a complaint comprising two counts, one charging him with assault upon Smith with a club on Tuesday afternoon, and the other with beating his wife, Mary Stewart. He waived an examination, and was held in $500 for trial.

BRIDAL PRESENTS.—A correspondent of the Charleston Courier, writing from New York, says:—

An aggregate of $26,000 is said to have been trinketed in to the daughter of Ex Mayor Lawrence. I saw only this morning, at Ball, Black & Co.'s an $8,500 diamond necklace just mounted as a bride's present; also a broach, at Tiffany & Co.'s costing $3,000, intended as a present to another bride. This is about up to the Babytonian mark.

The Baltimore American, in an article upon the Presidency, expresses the opinion that Senator Seward will secure the Republican nomination without a struggle.

Perhaps so; but it is one thing to be nominated, and quite another thing to be elected.

POTATOES.—The Brattleboro' Phœnix says the quantity of potatoes now stored in the cellars of the farmers in that region is uncommonly large. The weather and the increased tariff of railroad freights have prevented their movement for a market. The Bellows Falls Argus learns that over 300 bushels were sold in Wilmington, last week, in lots to suit purchasers, at 16 to 17 1-2 cents per bushel.

The New Bedford Mercury says between 8000 and 9000 barrels of whale oil have just been sold in that city, a large part on Euro-

THINGS IN WASHINGTON.

A writer in the Boston Traveller, from Washington, gives the following sketches of two or three officers of Congress.

First, the new Clerk, Mr Cullom.

The election of Gen. Wm. Cullom, an ex-member of the House, to the office of Clerk of the House of Representatives, shows that the party in power is not a sectional party, and that Southern as well as Northern men, if they hold correct sentiments, will have their support. Everybody seems satisfied with the result. Gen. Cullom is a "clever fellow," to commence with. He is a slaveholder in Tennessee. In '52 he supported the Whig candidate with all his might, in Congress and out, and thereby gained for himself the name of being the best "stump" speaker in the United States. Up to that time his antecedents were wholly Whig. When the American movement commenced, the General entered with his usual heartiness into it; and as he had opposed with voice, pen and vote, the passage of the Nebraska bill, his American proclivities completed the measure of his iniquities, and he was defeated by an administration man in the last election. It is rumored that fraud was used in the defeat. However, you see by the way he was used in the House and the heavy majority by which he was elected on the first vote, how he was regarded in the House by all parties. When Mr Speaker Banks was called upon to administer to the General the necessary oaths of office, before doing so he congratulated him upon his election.

Second, of Banks, the new Speaker. We had seen before, the statement that he held a taut rein. Now we see what this means:

The choice of seats by members of the House was ordered by resolution, which requested the Speaker to cause all the seats to be vacated, and to be kept empty until chosen by the members in accordance with the resolution. The Speaker was notified by one of them, that if he did have every seat vacated and kept vacant until properly chosen, he would do more than was ever done before. After requesting the members to vacate their seats and withdraw outside of the bar, the Speaker waited for their action. Some did withdraw, but a great proportion paid no attention to the order. The way in which the choice was made was this: The name of each member was written on a separate slip of paper and placed in a box. One of the "pages," with his face averted, took from the box one slip and handed it to the reading clerk, who read the name written on the slip, and the member whose name was thus announced came inside the bar and chose the seat he preferred, with no traminels except that of sitting on that side of the House upon which his party sat. Upon the drawing of the first name the Speaker ordered it to be returned to the box, and told the clerks to delay the drawing, until the members had complied with the terms of the resolution and had vacated every seat. Upon this, many more passed outside the bar, but a few still retained their seats, apparently considering that they were exempt from this rule. But the drawing was again checked until "all the gentlemen had obeyed the tenor of the resolution." This, with the peals of laughter it called out from many of the members who were waiting for the drawing to commence, caused the vacation of the last seat. Still, one of the Administration candidates for the Speakership piled his hat and coat, and ordered the pages to see that no one touched them. It did not effect much, however, for a gentleman on choosing that seat, removed them very carefully to the floor. The choice occupied one hour and a half, and was said by one of the old members to be the fairest drawing he had ever seen. It showed the capabilities of Mr Banks as a presiding officer at least.

Third, Mr Glossbrenner, Sergeant-at-Arms.

A. J. Glossbrenner has just been re-elected, by a majority of five, as the Sergeant-at-Arms for the ensuing year. The candidate whom he defeated was the Rev. French S. Evans of this city, who is a thorough American in every sense of the word. It cannot be said that the Banks party was defeated in this election, for it was by the votes of some of that party that Mr G. was elected over Mr French. The Sergeant-at-Arms has duties to perform that his mere name does not imply. Among other duties, he unites the offices of sheriff and financial officer of the House. He pays off all the members and employees, and has charge of all the monies. And, according to all reports, it is an office that requires the highest business qualifications.

These requisites seem united in the character of Mr Glossbrenner. During the past two months, he has shown his spirit of accommodation by raising on his own credit about $100,000, which he has paid over to the members as they needed it, taking their notes for the same. To this spirit of accommodation he doubtless owes his re-election. Attempts will be made to show that money has been paid out by him which was repaid by the votes cast to-day, as it seems so strange that any of the opposition should vote for an officer of the last Congress. We will wait the expositions; but it is my opinion that nothing of the kind can be proved, or that anything beyond the mere rumor will be heard.

There has been a cowhiding scrape at Columbus. The daughters of several prominent citizens of that place have recently, while on their way to and from school, been insulted in a most villianous style by a couple of filthy scoundrels. One of the young ladies told her parents the facts, and the dirty dogs who had been guilty of the infamy mentioned were watched. On Saturday one of them took his dinner at the United States Hotel, and was pointed out to Col. Simonton, the landlord, who provided himself with a heavy whip, and when dinner was over tapped the young man on the shoulder and asked him to step in the office, and there, in the presence of thirty or forty gentlemen, told the story of his blackguardism, and lashed him terribly, the fellow yelling like a wild beast during the operation.

After a long controversy, Col. Fremont's Mariposa, California, claim has been settled by the complete recognition of his title by the United States. The claim covers nearly forty-five thousand acres of land, the real value of which is not known, but is estimated by mil-

☞ The train from this city on the road to Concord, cleared the track as far as Greenland on Wednesday, and reconnoitered as far as New Market Junction.

In sight of the latter place lay a clearing train of the Boston & Maine Railroad, with the snow-plow turned backward on the first engine, and the second jammed fast into the first, making the whole a helpless heap of machinery.

TURKEY AND PERSIA.

In a very able article in the Boston Chronicle, (which by the way is now a valuable paper,) the editor says:

If we can judge from appearances the war that has waged so fiercely in Southern Russia and in Asiatic Turkey is about to be extended further East, and Russia is to have a Mahometan ally, a circumstance that will be sure to shock these excellent people who have seen in her the champion of the Cross, and in the Allies the upholders of the Crescent. Persia is apparently on the eve of becoming the open and armed enemy of England, and so of Turkey also, with which power she has waged so many contests, and with such various fortune. As a Mussulman country, it would seem that Persia should sympathize with Turkey, particularly as against Russia, which empire has borne as hard at times upon those who reign at Teheranu as upon those who reign at Constantinople. But there are various reasons why she should, though only in accordance with the dictates of a short sighted policy, see the humiliation of Turkey with pleasure.—The Persians are Sheahs, or followers of Ali, and as such are regarded with aversion by the Turks, who are Soonees, or orthodox Mussulmans. This hatred is returned, with full interest, by the Persians. Theological hate, or religious hate, is the bitterest of all feelings, and it has existed for centuries between these two peoples, and is prominent among the causes of their decline. The hatred felt by Catholics and Protestants for one another, when they were contending for supremacy or existence in many European countries, may be regarded as a mild sentiment when compared with the virulent animosity that burned in the bosoms of Turks and Persians at about the same time that the Reformation was breaking up old arrangements and causing new wars in Europe. Nor did this animosity ever experience any such falling away as came to pass in Europe, among Christians. The Turks and Persians hate one another as bitterly now as they did in the days of Shah Ismael and Sultan Selim. * * * *

Counting from the times of Shah Ismael and Sultan Selim, who began them, the wars between the two principal Mussulman nations lasted for almost two centuries and a half.—Such contests, embittered as they were by the hatred that springs from religious differences, do not fail to leave a sting behind them; so that we need not much wonder that Persia should be the friend rather of Russia than of Turkey in the present war.

A SINGULAR CASE.—The Boston Post relates that a woman with a child in her arms went into a manufactory in Chelsea a few days since and asked for charity. A number of females were employed in the shop, to all of whom the poor woman appealed in vain, they waiting for the proprietor to lead off in the charity. But he was a hard hearted man and wouldn't come down with a cent, and she went away with her arms full of baby and heart full of sorrow, but scarcely more sorrowful than the really kindhearted ones who had refused to give. All night long they thought of their coldness and her destitution, and resolved that whoever might ask again they would give, if they had not one cent left thereafter. The next day one of those unfortunate sons of Italy who have been blown up by volcanoes and ruined by earthquakes, and who are desirous of getting their eleven children over to this country, came in the shop with a greasy looking paper, signed by Captain John Smith, testifying to the worthiness of the bearer, and held out his hand for alms, signifying by motions that he could not say one word. True to their promise, their purses were produced, and a generous outflow of dimes fell to the lot of the signor, who bowed at every donation. One young lady had no money but a quarter, the whole of which she could not afford to give, and turned to her associates requesting some of them to change it for her. They could not do it, having invested their means in charity. The signor saw the dilemma. Approaching the young lady with his money in his hand, he said, in perfect English and in a business-like tone—"I guess I can change it for you, Miss." The effect was electrical. Charity fell as flat as Central Railroad bonds, and the quarter went into the purse again unchanged.—Lowell Citizen.

BRUTAL OUTRAGE.—On Sunday evening week Edward Downes of West Rutland, Vt., was knocked down, kicked and beaten until senseless, by seven or eight Irishmen, and dragged by the heels to a marble pit, into which he was thrown. After rolling down a steep declivity of nearly fifty feet, and over a precipice of fifteen feet, he was fortunately for his life, received at the bottom by a deep bank of snow. He was subsequently found and

A FAST PARISIENNE.—We have had a trial this week which lets the light upon a portion of Paris life, which is not the least curious of its mysteries. A beautiful, aristocratic woman, not twenty-three years old, was charged with having cheated tavern-keepers, milliners, jewellers, &c., of $40,000 in two years! Her greatest dupe was one Fruli, a hotel-keeper of the Place Vendome, who lost $15,000 money lent! She was one of the peaches of the demi-monde—one of those mercenary beauties who live young like princesses, and die old, of hunger, thirst and cold. The trial showed what harpies preyed upon these poor creatures. It is no wonder they grow vampires. Think of charging mustard $6 a pot, [it costs 20 cents,] champagne $4 a bottle, [it costs 40 cents,] and claret $2, [it costs 18 cents,] a bottle, a bill of $2000 for meals for a month's time. Another of the dramatis personæ was an agent d' affaires who got her out of Clichy by paying 7000f. and lent her 9000f. and paid several of her pressing debts. He lost $6,200 by her; judge what his profits are, [for these fellows grow rich rapidly,] when the demi-monde pays as it generally does. It appeared in the course of the trial that a German banker, his name was not given, allows her annually $2500. This was not enough for her; she had other purses at her service, from which she drew liberally, and spent $20,000 a year besides!—Paris Correspondence of the N. Y. Picayune.

BAD MISTAKE.—One night last week, Geo. Saunders and Homer Robinson, of Springfield, Vt., attempted to get some liquor in an illegitimate way, and got instead a quantity of bed-bug poison, which came very near proving the death of both of them. They went to a place where they knew liquors had been, and stealthily drank a dose of the above poison. Physicians were soon called, and hopes are now entertained that they may recover, after a pretty severe fright.—Claremont Eagle.

CONGRESS.

On Tuesday, in the Senate, Mr Douglass was excused from serving on the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Senator Wilson made a speech on the affairs of Kansas—of which it is said over 10,000 copies were subscribed for by members of Congress, before he had finished speaking.

The nomination of Wilson Shannon as Governor of Kansas was confirmed.

In the House, Mr Stevens of Georgia moved to recommit to the Committee on Elections, their request for authority to send to Kansas for persons and papers in the contested election case.

On this motion the vote stood, ayes 68, noes 67, The Speaker voted no, making a tie, and thereby defeating the motion.

Propositions were offered—by Mr Mace, to repeal the Act to Promote the efficiency of the Navy;

By Mr Cobb, of Ala. to extend the time for paying duties on imported railroadiron;

By Mr Mace, to prevent the extension of slavery in the territories of the United States, north of 36 30.

Mr Mace moved its reference to the Committee on Territories.

The House resumed the consideration of the request from the Committee on Elections, for power to send for persons and papers on the Kansas contested election case.

It was moved to lay it on the table, but the motion was negatived by a majority of three.

THE AMERICAN CONVENTION at Philadelphia, is likely to split sectionally—as the majority have voted to admit the Free Soil members from Pennsylvania, against the Twelfth Section delegates, who were also chosen from that State.

A most melancholy case of accidental poisoning occurred at Richmond, in this county, last Thursday. It seems that Dr. S. Jennings of that town, having had occasion to administer strychnine to a patient, on his return home left his medecine case containing the powders which were unpacked, in his study, a room which the family are not allowed to enter. At the time, the only daughter of Dr Jennings, a beautiful child of nine years, was ill with some slight disorder, for which Dover's powder's had been prescribed. Her little brother, thinking to play doctor, ventured into the proscribed room, took out the fatal powders, and offered them to his sister, who refused them. One of them, however, dropped on the floor by the table, and Mrs Jennings supposing it to be one of the Dover's powders, picked it up placed it with them, and afterwards gave it to her daughter. The result was, of course, her death in a very short time, and before the physicians who had been summoned could arrive. The terrible calamity has overwhelmed the parents of the child in inconsolable grief, in which they have the deep sympathy of their friends. It will be seen that the accident occurred through a singular series of chances, which could not have been foreseen, and which hardly any physician would have thought to guard against.—Pittsfield Eagle.

INDUSTRY AND ENERGY.—The present Speaker of the House of Representatives is an example to young men of what can be accomplished by skill and industry. Fourteen years ago he was at work in a machine shop at Waltham, Mass., and at the close of his daily labor was found with a book in his hand diligently acquiring that information which has since contributed to his success. So earnest were his efforts in the pursuit of knowledge that he used to visit Boston every Saturday afternoon, to obtain books from one of the public Libraries in that city. He was also connected with a Debating Society in that town, where he exhibited a remarkable tact at debate. His acquaintance, too, with parliamentary usages always secured his election as President of many of the public meetings in the town, and at an early age he used his influence among the citizens of his adopted town, to make some effort to suppress the evils of intemperance. In this he was actuated by a desire to save those who were dear to him by the tenderest ties of life, and his last public address is said to have been before a meeting of the friends of temperance.

At the age of thirty he relinquished his trade, and commenced the study of law, and was elected a member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives previous to his admission at the bar. In 1851 he was re-elected to the House and was chosen Speaker of that body, which station he filled for two years. In 1853 he presided over the deliberations of the largest and ablest deliberative body assembled in Massachusetts since 1820, being the Constitutional Convention of that year. And in 1856, after long and protracted ballotings, during which he was subjected to the most severe criticisms from his opponents, he is elected as the Speaker of the United States

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine produces.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

GOVERNOR LIVINGSTON'S CREED.—I believe the scriptures of the Old and New Testaments without any comments or human explanations but my own; for which I should doubtless be honored with martyrdom did I not live under a government which restrains that zeal which would reduce a man's body to ashes for the illumination of his understanding.

I believe that the word orthodox is a hard, equivocal priestly term, that has caused the effusion of more blood than all the Roman emperors put together.

I believe that to defend the Christian religion is one thing, to knock a man on the head for being of a different opinion is another thing.

I believe he who worketh righteousness, will be accepted of him, though he refuses to worship any man or any order of men into the bargain.

I believe that a man may be a good Christian, though he be of no sect in Christendom.

I believe that our faith, like our stomachs, may be overcharged, especially if we are prohibited to chew what we are commanded to swallow.

I believe that the virulence of some of the clergy against my speculation proceeds, not from their affection for Christianity—which is founded on too firm a basis to be shaken by the freest inquiry, and the divinity of which I sincerely believe, without receiving a farthing for saying so—but from an apprehension of bringing into contempt ridiculous claims, and unreasonable pretensions, which might justly tremble at the slightest scrutiny.—Old Paper.

A GRAIN OF THE "ASSEMBLED WISDOM."—When the subject of the Pages' salary came up before the House the other day, it was proposed to fix the same at a certain sum per diem, whereupon a Member from the interior arose, and asked to "have the matter fully explained before going any further. There had been a heap of talk about retrenchin' and reform, and he desired to know whether so much per them meant by the week, or the month, or for the term?"—California paper.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to this invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the diseases of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal. It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and it has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD., Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD., Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turnec for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the dige-tive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imstation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally.

BY B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed without MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERMANENTLY, at least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free in a sealed envelope by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&wêm*

SALEM CITY MISSION.

Our old friend, Mr Ball, the City Missionary of Salem, has as usual sent us his Annual Report, which he made to the Salem Provident Association, in December 1855.

We make from it a few extracts, which though meant for Salem, are mostly as fit for Portsmouth.

I could give more instances of the extreme poverty witnessed last winter were it necessary. The arrangements for the purpose of ascertaining cases of suffering, enable me if any exist to hear of them very soon, and by affording prompt assistance and interesting friends in them, they are speedily relieved. In many instances the calls for aid are from our worthy poor, whom it is true pleasure to assist, but there are too many demands made by those who waste their earnings for liquor, caring nothing for the morrow, regardless of their children's comfort, and given to begging clothing only to sell it for rum. Unless the applicants for charity at our doors are well known, it is far better not to bestow money or clothing upon them.

Some persons have the mistaken idea that the larger portion of the poor among us are foreigners, who receive more aid than others; an idea that results probably from seeing a few foreigners constantly soliciting aid. In the disbursements of this Association the Irish receive less than one third of the sum. I account for this by the fact that foreigners are continually seeking to obtain work, and are willing to perform any kind of labor which enables them to support themselves in a great degree.

When new applications are made for assistance, I either visit the family first or, if prevented by other duties, request some friend to visit and report to me, that I may have accurate information.

More than a thousand visits were made during the year, about three hundred of which I made in January and February, during the severe cold and greatest poverty. By rendering assistance in that inclement season to various individuals and families, and, as spring advanced, sending some into the country and obtaining steady employ in the city for others, the association and community were relieved from contributions to support them. One man, thus aided through the cold season, has been employed at one dollar per day for several months past. Two with their children were, at their earnest request, returned to Ireland, and others sent east or west, as they desired, to friends; the amount paid for removal being far less than would have been required to support them here.

I have continued to send boys and girls into the country and have also visited them at their new homes as formerly. It is most gratifying to witness their improvement and to find them so strongly attached to their new homes and employment. Many of them give fair promise of becoming useful members of society. One boy who was earning one dollar a week in a store in this city boarding with his widowed mother, at length yielded to my oft-repeated request and went into the country. In three years he learned a good trade, by which he earned daily, one dollar and fifty cents, hired a house, and, removing his mother and sisters to the new home, has supported them the last two years. Another poor boy after learning his trade, worked on his own account, giving me money at various times for his mother. Being anxious to obtain a good education he saved a sum sufficient to pay for his tuition for a length of time, and I sent him to an Academy where he has already made rapid progress in his studies. Who will not wish success to such a boy? Another boy, who occasioned his mother a great deal of trouble from his unwillingness to attend school, was induced to go by my promise of a bright silver dollar at the end of the year, if he would not be absent one day. The promise had the desired effect, he formed steady habits by his punctual attendance at the Phillips School, claimed the dollar which was promptly given, afterwards learned a trade, and is now a smart young man, earning good wages, and has now the charge of more than twenty men. There are numbers who ought to be sent away from city influences before it is too late, but it is difficult to persuade parents that it will be for the future benefit of themselves and children. However, the time is approaching when the Salem Reform School will take many of the truants and idlers from the streets and save them from ruin. We need rejoice that a Reform School for Girls will be open early in the spring or summer, for it is greatly needed.

The Evening Free School, which has flourished so well in this city, passed into the hands of the School Committee last winter. Under their charge its prosperity continued and it is to be hoped the City Government will re-open it the coming season.

Every precaution is used and great care exercised in disbursements, that while none may be left to suffer, all who can obtain labor, shall aid themselves as far as possible. While so much suffering existed the past winter in Boston, Charlestown, New York, Providence, and elsewhere, rendering it necessary to establish Relief Societies, or Soup Societies, at great expense, in Salem, such societies were not needed, as by the co operation of the various charitable societies, and by the benevolent efforts of benevolent ladies and gentlemen with this Association, the poor were relieved at far less expenditure in proportion, than in any other city. In Boston, abounding in charitable societies, the expenditures of the Provident Association, amounted to nearly ten thousand dollars.

THE GRUMBUG CORRESPONDENCE.

NO. 1. ANTI-GRUMBUG'S LETTER.

Dear Uncle Toby:—

During the blockade of snow which the North-Wester imposed on all the papers from the outside barbarians, I have amused myself by reading over and over again, the little dailies manufactured in our midst, both morning and evening.

I have read the selections, old and new, which you have brought out from your storehouse of scraps, with observations on the same;—and think you have succeeded tolerably well in making brick with very little straw.

I have besides, read "all and singular" the communications which have appeared in all the city papers of the week, and some old ones that I had not seen before. But of all these, none have interested me like a communication on Entomology, purporting to be written and signed by one Anti-Humbug, which is a curious specimen of bug-ology.

Mark you well, good Uncle Toby, how this new bug pitches, like a great beetle, into your brethren of the clergy on account of their political sins in advocating temperance; and take you up the cudgels in defence of your cloth.

Mark you also, how another bug with a similar shell, labelled Truth, comes down upon yourself like a June Bug. You rather laugh at him in your chapter of "Egotistical Twattle,"—but he is a terrible venomous bug though—and you ought to use the Dead Shot, or Parson's Exterminator,—the latter I think, for both these awful bugs do their utmost to exterminate the parsons.

It seems strange that writers who profess to believe they are going to carry the State all hollow, should be so cross and bearish, growling and grumbling in a way that induces one to call these new bugs Grumblers. For beauty's sake I will call them Grumbugs—and on some future day, if I can, I will select a few choice growls for your further entertainment.

I remain, yours as ever,

ANTI-GRUMBUG.

NO 2.—UNCLE TOBY'S ANSWER.

Mr. Anti Grumbug:—My answer must be short. One of the grumblers does me the honor to call me "the profound statesman, jurist and divine of the Chronicle,"—so that I seem entitled to whatever benefit of clergy there may be left in this day of progress.—But I have no time to take up such cudgels to day, as Anti-Grumbug calls for. When he gives his choice extracts, I may add some notes; and in the mean time will only say, that seven of the pastors of churches in this city, standing up in favor of temperance, obeying a wholesome law, and counselling others to obey it, present a pleasant spectacle to the eye of every good man who looks on.

UNCLE TOBY.

DOCUMENTS ON KANSAS.

The large papers are publishing portions of a mass of documents on Kansas, which were transmitted by the President to the Senate on Monday.

The Nebraska bill, with its illadvised repeal of the Missouri compromise line, has never before appeared so serious a blunder as it does to-day.

The Boston Advertiser, in publishing some of the documents, takes occasion to remark:—

It is a great mistake to represent that the people of Lawrence with Messrs. Robinson and Lane at their head are in arms against the United States Goverment. This is not the case. They are arming themselves against invasion from Missouri; and they were authorized to do this by a special order addressed to Messrs. Robinson and Lane by name, and signed by Gov. Shannon, the President's own appointed Governor. There is not the shadow of evidence that Messrs Robinson and Lane have infringed upon the lawful authority of the United States—nor is there the slightest probability that they will infringe upon it. It is true that they stand in a delicate position; but they have shown themselves equal to meet every difficulty with judgment and discretion. Nobody understands better than they do the nature of their position; and we have confidence that while they maintain their rights they will avoid a collision with the authorities of the United States.

The orders from the war department to the Colonels commanding the U. S. troops in the Territory are drawn up with obvious caution, and plainly admit of a settlement of the difficulties without a collision between those troops and the people of Lawrence. The letters of Colonel Sumner prove him to be a careful and a sensible man, and one fit to be trusted with the authority conferred upon him.

The long official report of Governor Shannon respecting the negotiations of last November and December, when he found the people of Lawrence in the right, and consequently dismissed the disorderly troops which had gathered to act under his orders, is a favorable omen for the pacific solution of the present difficulties.

THE FRESHET.—We have no freshet as yet—but we have a plenty of snow to create a great rush of water, to fill the cellars, flood low houses, carry off bridges, and break down mill-dams. A word is season to those exposed.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTH DAY.—To-day being the 22nd of February, is commemorated as the anniversary of George Wahington's Birth Day.

It is to be celebrated in great style in Boston, and in several other places in Massachusetts. And it has just been made, by a special act of legislation in that State, a legal and financial holiday.—We hope the example may be followed elsewhere in due time.

The day should not be forgotten. The great events connected his life should always be kept fresh in the minds of all who enjoy the blessings of civil and moral freedom—blessings, to the attainment and preservation of which he devoted all his energies. It would be well if all who admire his greatness would imitate his virtues.

AMERICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

The Boston Journal of Feb. 22, says

There are pretty strong indications in the telegraphic accounts from Philadelphia of a disruption of the National Council. This time it will probably be the Southern delegates who will secede, for Northern sentiments appear to be in the ascendant. On Tuesday the anti-twelfth-section delegates from Pennsylvania were admitted by a vote of 84 yeas to 45 nays—a most decided majority. The result caused much excitement among the Southern members.

It is certainly a sign of progress that the Council has practically repudiated the religious test, having admitted the Catholic delegates from Louisiana by a vote of 66 yeas to 50 nays. Some of the Massachusetts delegates are reported to have voted for the admission.

A special dispatch from Philadelphia, Feb. 20, to the Bee says

The session of the National Council to-day has been a stormy one. The subject of Slavery has been the matter of discussion. Col. Brewster, of Massacecusetts, moved a resolution repealing the obnoxious twelfth section, and supported it in a strong and eloquent speech. The whole of the delegations from New England, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and most of the Northern States, are agreed on demanding the repeal. None of the Southern men have yet spoken. Several of the New York members have spoken. The Massachusetts members think that the repeal will be carried.

Mr Brewster's resolution reads thus.

Whereas the 12th section of the platform by the American Council in June, 1855, was neither proposed by the South nor sanctioned by the North, therefore said section is hereby stricken out.

A. B. Ely, of Mass., offered as an amendment, that after the words "stricken out," the following words should be added,—" that as regards the subject of slavery we abide by the principles and provisions of the Constitution of the United States, yielding no more and claiming no less."

PHILADELPHIA, 21st.—The debate on the rescinding resolution continues in the American Convention, but a more conciliatory feeling is apparent this morning. A new platform is proposed reestablishing the Missouri Compromise line.

MR. BURKE.

We have already published Hon. Edward Burke's Valedictory Address. The Claremont Eagle gives the following humorous account of it:

The last number of the Concord Reporter contains a curious article from the pen of Mr. Burke, withdrawing from the co-editorship of that paper and giving a few words of command to "The Old Guard," of which imaginary corps he is the imaginary captain. He says, in substance, that the connection of the Old Guard with the American party was only a temporary connection, but that it has nothing in common with that party, which is proscriptive, free soil, &c., and he directs his ghostly followers to throw away their votes for governor, elect all the Old Guard men they can to the Legislature, and, generally, to keep themselves pure, unsullied and uncontaminated from this present evil world. It is quite possible, he thinks, they may hold the balance of power in the next Legislature, but what they are to do in such case, he does not set forth. He gives the "corrupt and imbecile Pierce Administration" a parting shot, and retires triumphantly and gracefully, like an old General covered with glory and scars, for the present, into private life. Well done! Mr. Burke is a genius of the first water. The gravity of that valedictory is masterly, indeed brilliant.

Mr. Burke is now understood to be out and out for James Buchanan for President.

HYDROPHOBIA.—About seven weeks since, Peter Conafee of Pawtucket, Mass., was slightly bitten in on of his fingers by his own dog. The wound inflicted was so slight that he ceased to think of it until Thursday of last week—when he felt a pain and stiffness about the neck and throat. The other symptoms of hydrophobia followed rapidly, and the patient, after enduring all the horrible agonies of this most dreadful of diseases until Sunday evening last, was relieved by death of his sufferings. He was, during his illness, excessively nervous and irritable, and full of apprehension and suspicion of all about him. Some of his convulsions are described as having been truly awful. No water or liquid of any kind was swallowed by him after Thursday afternoon. He was visited by Drs. Kent, Miller, Rivers, Beckwith and Clapp, whose efforts to arrest the disease in its course were unavailing.

The wife of Mr. Conafee was bitten about the same time by the same dog, and she must of course be under the most painful apprehensions as to the result.—Pawtucket Gazette.

☞ Senator Bell seems to be lecturing in Boston, on Slavery. The Journal of Wednesday morning says:—

We understand that Hon. James Bell, U. S. Senator from New Hampshire, will speak this evening of "The deductions in relation to Emancipation which should be drawn from the history of the Abolition of Slavery and Villeinage in Europe;" an aspect in which the matter has not, to our knowledge, been presented before, and one that cannot fail to interest both by its novelty and importance.

LOCAL.

THE FIRST MAIL FROM PORTSMOUTH, N. H.—Jackson & Co.'s Express arrived here last evening with the Portsmouth mail. They came to Salem by horse, and took the cars for Boston. This is the first mail from Portsmouth since Saturday last. The road is very much blocked by drifts from Hampton to Portsmouth, and communication will hardly be opened till Friday.—Boston Journal, February 21.

The engines from Boston on Monday, arrived here about 6 A. M. on Thursday. And about half past 11, on Thursday, the regular morning train came in from Boston, with the mails. We are under obligations to Lawa's Express, for Boston and New York papers,—and—the blockade seems to be over.

☞ The Portsmouth and Concord Railroad track was cleared yesterday, an engine passing both ways between the cities; and to day the trains will travel as usual.

☞ A train each way passed over the P. S. & P. Railroad last evening—so that the communication is now open between this city and Portland.

☞ The Gazette states that seven mails from Boston and other places, arrived at our Post Office on Thursday morning at about half past 11 o'clock; and at about half past 1 o'clock, the whole mass of matter was sorted and distributed by our vigilant Postmaster and his clerks.

☞ Hon. Mr. Galloway, of Ohio, will address the people of this city, in Jefferson Hall, this evening at half past 7.

☞ Perham's popular Troupe of Minstrel Performers, will commence a course of two nights' entertainments at the Temple on this [Friday] evening, 22nd. They are reckoned at the head of their profession by the New York and Boston papers. They are drawing a class of society to their concerts, who seldom if ever attend the exhibitions of the minstrelsy.

A concert will also be given on Sotuday afternoon for the accommodation of ladies and children.

☞ The annual examination of the Girls' High School commences this morning at 9 o'clock. These examinations are attended by large numbers of ladies and gentlemen.

☞ The "Old Folks Choir" will meet for rehearsal on Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, at Exchange Hall.

The Committee recently appointed by a public meeting to take measures for procuring the erection of a United States Building in this city, met at the Athenenm this morning, and organized by the choice of Wm. P. Jones, Esq., as Chairman, Wm. H. Y. Hackett, Albert R. Hatch, and Edward N. Fuller, Esqrs., were appointed a sub-committee to draft a Memorial for presentation to the citizens for their signatures.—Gazette.

PLAGIARISM.—It is difficult for the intelligent and candid mind to conceive of a character more to be detested and pitied, than the literary plagiarist,—detested because of the want of honor evinced in the deliberate attempt to palm off upon the public the ideas of another as those of his own; and pitied because he publishes to the world his ignorance and dearth of common capacity.

I am led to these remarks, from the inquiries of a friend regarding the originality of a poem which appeared in the "Chronicle" of Monday last, and which was then made to appear as coming from the pen of another correspondent. S. W. C.

NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION.—The political excitement in New Hampshire, is increasing to fever-heat. From the last vote cast, and the exertions now being made by the party in power, no one would have reason to expect a change in the State administration; yet so important is it to the Democratic party to carry New Hampshire, that we are impressed with the belief that they will not only labor as a party never did before, to the last minute—but will succeed in their efforts. It is the first election of the Presidential year, and will give tone to others. If New Hampshire goes against the national administration, it will, more than anything, stand in the way of the re-nomination of President Pierce; as it would not be hoped, afterwards, that he could carry his own State, and if not New Hampshire possibly no northern State, or not enough to secure an election with the entire south in his favor. Virtually, the election there next month, will be upon the policy of running Gen. Pierce for a second term, and so obvious is its bearing upon the presidency, that state pride may have sufficient influence to turn it in his favor.—Newburyport Herald.

☞ The Newburyport Herald is informed by the keeper of the Light-houses on Plum Island, that a schooner of 150 tons or more, apparently a lumber vessel, was discovered on Tuesday morning, at anchor about four miles from the bar. From appearances, her deck-load had been thrown overboard; she is much iced, and her sails are laying upon the booms, as though too much frozen to be furled.

☞ Flour in New York, 21st.—State, $6 75 to 7 00; Ohio, $7 62 to 8 12; Genesee, $8 87 to 11 00. Corn 70 to 78c.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 20.

SENATE.—Mr Douglas, at his own request, was excused from serving on the Committee on Foreign Relations.

Mr Mason stated that the existing maps of Central America are nearly all of British origin; therefore, in view of conflicting opinions between this government and England, the committee on foreign relations consider it eminently important that a correct map be procured for diffusion throughout the Union.—On motion 10,000 copies of Central America, prepared by the U S coast survey, were ordered to be printed.

Mr Weller reported a bill for the relief of the officers and soldiers of the U S army who sustained losses by the disaster to the steamship San Francisco.

Mr Hamlin reported a bill to establish the collection districts of the U S designating the ports of entry and delivery.

After other miscellaneous business, a brief discussion on the Central American question ensued, Messrs. Butler, Crittenden and Mason taking part in it.

The Central American question was made the special order for Tuesday.

The resolution calling for a copy of the journal of the Naval Retiring Board was adopted.

HOUSE.—Introduction of Bills—By Mr Mace, to repeal the act to promote the efficiency of the Navy. By Mr Cobb of Alabama, to extend the time for the payment of duty on railroad iron. By Mr Mace, to prevent the extension of slavery in the Territories of the United States north of 36 deg. 30 min. Mr Mace moved its reference to the Committee on Territories.

Mr McMullen of Va.—Has the gentleman given previous notice of his intention to introduce this bill?

Mr Mace—If the gentleman will examine the Journal, he will ascertain.

Mr McMullen—I propounded a respectful question, and I think it entitled to a respectful answer.

The Speaker—The gentleman has given notice; his motion is in order.

Mr Smith of Va. appealed from the decision of the Chair, and was supported in this by Messrs. Houston, Jones of Tenn., and Craige of Mc., pending which the House resumed the consideration of the resolution from the Committee on Elections, asking power to send to Kansas for persons and papers in the contested election case.

The House refused by three majority to table it. The resolution was adopted by three majority.

A motion to reconsider was then adopted by nine majority, and on motion of Mr Orr, the request for power to send for persons and papers was referred back to the Committee, with instructions to report the grounds on which the request was made, and also to consider the proposition of Mr Dunn, to appoint Joseph H. Bradley and Sidney Baxter of Washington Commissioners to take depositions, and clothed with full power to procure information, with the view of eliciting the truth on all controverted matters suggested by Messrs. Reeder and Whitfield.

Mr Orr said that when the Committee report, the House can select either of the propositions.

The Committees on Elections and Military Affairs were each authorized to employ a clerk.

The election of Chaplain was indefinitely postponed, by six majority, with the understanding that all the ministers of the city be invited, meantime, to officiate alternately.—Adjourned.

THURSDAY, Feb. 21.

SENATE.—The Senate, this morning, passed a bill establishing the Young Men's Library in the District of Columbia.

HOUSE.—The House is engaged on the subject of the election of a Chaplain.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—The Contested Seats in the House of Representatives.—The House Committee has before it three cases of contested elections from Illinois, and one each from Louisiana, Maryland, Iowa, Kanzas and New Mexico. Those of Nebraska and Maine will soon be submitted.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—The Clayton and Bulwer Treaty.—A correspondent of the Evening Post writes from Washington: "The final stand which Great Britian has taken upon her construction of the Clayton and Bulwer treaty, has stimulated the Cabinet at Wasington to take into serious consideration the means by which it may uphold the construction which, through our Minister to Great Britian, they have heretofore put forth in vain.

I have reason to believe that two plans, neither of them necessarily leading to war, now occupy their attention. The first is to annul the treaty—the proposition offered in the Senate by Senator Wilson.

The second is to form an alliance, offensive and defensive, with Nicaragua, without abrogating the treaty of 1850."

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Retaliation upon the North.—The retaliation bill against the North which had been lost in the Georgia House of Representatives, has been reconsid-red by a large majority, and referred to the committee on the State of the Republic.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 20.—The Hog Trade.—The total number of Hogs packed during the past season was 405,600, an increase of 49,600. The increase in weight is equal to 7 1-2 per cent., and in the yield of lard three and a half pounds per hog, over last year.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Departure of the Persia.—The Cunard steamer Persia sailed to-day at 12 o'clock, on her first trip from the United States to Liverpool. She carries out 143 passengers, and about $703,000.

As the Persia was going out over the bar, this P. M., she grounded in Gedney's Channel, but got off without damage and proceeded to sea.

The Secretary of the Navy has ordered the steam frigate Merrimac to a cruise on the Banks of Newfoundland to relieve vessels on the coast which may be in distress. She will probably leave Boston on Saturday.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st. oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to compile a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the prosecution of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, or the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and those who employed him conferred it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

"AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and it has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Lua, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

MISERIES OF LONDON.—The following is a description of a single lane, called Church lane, in the city of London, within the limits of St. Giles, as described by a member of a committee appointed to examine its condition.

"The lane is three hundred feet long, and contains 32 houses. It is lighted by three gas lights, and water is supplied three times a week, but no tanks or tubes were to be found. I will simply describe two or three houses we visited, as a fair average of the whole. Many things are too disgusting to enter the columns of a newspaper, and therefore I shall give only leading facts. The first house that the Committee visited contained 45 persons, only 6 rooms and 12 beds!—windows broken—filth abundant. In the second there were 56 persons, and only 3 beds. In the third there were 61 persons, and 6 beds, averaging nearly seven to a bed. And these of all ages, sexes and conditions.

This is as horrible a state of things as ever one could imagine to exist, and as it is a stern fact and there is no virtue in shutting one's eyes to it. A majority of the windows were broken, and the cold night wind could not fail to sweep in, and inflict colds and consumption upon its inmates. The occupations of this miserable class are of great variety—some are fruit dealers, some sweeps, some knife grinders, some mendicants, some crossing sweepers, some street singers, and many thieves and prostitutes.

The committee say in their report:—"In these wretched dwellings, fathers and daughters, mothers and sons, grown up brothers and sisters, stranger adult males and females, and swarms of children—the sick, the dying, and the dead, are huddled together with a proximity and mutual pressure that brutes would resist; where it is physically impossible to preserve the ordinary decencies of life, where all sense of propriety and self respect must be lost." Such is the state of Church Lane! Would that it were alone in its notoriety! Alas! there are many others quite as bad. But how much these poverty stricken beings are to blame for their state, is a solemn question to answer.

BANK NOTES AT THE WEST.—There is a war of bank notes going on at the West between Eastern paper and Georgia currency. There is at Chicago, a man by the name of Smith, who has grown rich by making himself the instrument of circulating the notes of certain banks located in Georgia, throughout the State of Illinois. Smith shaves notes to a vast extent and pays out Georgia money to the borrowers. He redeems the money thus paid out, when presented at his office in Chicago, in drafts on New York at one per cent. premium. He sells three fourths of all the Eastern exchange required in Northern Illinois, amounting to forty or fifty millions annually, and clears a very large revenue by his twofold operation of paying out Georgia money at par for his shaves, and then taking it back at a heavy discount for his exchange. Georgia is a good ways off, and much more difficult and expensive to get at for the redemption of notes, than the Eastern States.

The other brokers and shavers in Chicago, however, finding that Smith was getting nearly all the cream and leaving the "skim-milk" to them, combined to pick up all the Georgia money they could find and send it home for redemption. Thus far, Smith has contrived to send on gold from New York to Georgia and redeem the paper on demand in coin.—Smith, in return, makes war upon the Eastern bank notes circulated at the West, and advertises that he will sell exchange on New York at a quarter per cent premium for New England bank notes, while he charges one per cent. if the payment is made in Georgia notes. In this way, being a man of considerable activity and some means, he manages to keep out the Georgia money in circulation, and to send home the Eastern currency for redemption—for those who want exchange will of course, with this difference in the rates, pay for it in New England bank notes, which as the necessary consequence, are immediately sent home to be redeemed in gold or New York funds.

THE WINTER IN NEBRASKA.—The New York Commercial publishes an extract from a letter written by Rev. William H. Goode, a missionary in Nebraska, dated Omaha City, Jan. 7, in which the writer gives the following cheerless account of the weather in Nebraska.

"Here, almost beyond the last range of timber, with no defense between us and the Rocky Mountains, the wintry blasts drive most furiously, gathering strength and chilliness in their passage over the vast fields of ice and snow till they strike the hut of the settler. All traces of roads are often obliterated by snow drifts, and woe be to the hapless traveler who loses his way and becomes bewildered upon these trackless plains. I have heard of some ten or twelve deaths occurring in this way, while many others are doubtless unreported. All nearly who have been exposed in traveling have had some members of their bodies frozen. I myself have not escaped, as a disfigured face and lame hands and feet sufficiently attest.

The Indians report an immense amount of snow upon the mountains. We learn also that the soldiers and others stationed at the newly established post of Fort Pierre, in the Sioux country, and employed in the erection of buildings, have been compelled to abandon their site upon the open plain, and seek a refuge among the brush and willows upon the banks of the Missouri, some miles distant, where they are now temporarily encamped."

ANOTHER CALCULATION.

We have already given the guess of the Concord Patriot that Wells will be chosen by the people; and that of the Newburyport Herald, which d ems it possible that State pride in New Hampshire will throw the government into the hands of the Democratic party, to prevent mortifying President Pierce.

Now we give the guesses of the Manchester Democrat, which does not believe any such thing. It says:—

At this time there are really but two political parties in our State. This every intelligent man well understands. There is no disposition to re-organize the whig party, and the Convention of a few whigs at Concord last week, had very little meaning to it. The whigs and free soil men outside of the "American" party, are really the best of Republicans, and are only awaiting the time when the present temporary organization shall give way to one of a more comprehensive and enduring character. There will be but few whig votes thrown for Governor on the 11th of March—say 2400, and the scattering gubernatorial vote will not exceed 3000.

It is difficult for political editors in the midst of a political contest, to give a correct estimate of the result. They hear chiefly the evidence on one side. Last year the Patriot and Union Democrat up to the day of election, declared the success of the Democratic party to be certain. We will give them the credit of having been sincere in their statements. When certain democrats called on the editor of the Union at four o'clock on election afternoon, he summarily announced that "the State had gone to h—," and his disturbed state of mind showed beyond a doubt that he had been sadly deceived and disappointed. The same editors now boast that the Pierce party are sure to triumph, though their statements are made with a greater degree of caution than last year. In truth, we state from personal knowledge, that very many of the more intelligent democrats of this part of the State, expect the total defeat of their party, and their only hope of success is founded on the apathy and listnessness of the anti-Nebraska voters.

The total vote this year will not vary 500 from that of last year—that is, it will not exceed 65,000, nor will it fall below 64,500. We are aware that large sums of money have been furnished the Pierce leaders in this State, for securing the purchasable vote. We are aware that a few voters who cast the American ticket last year, may be alienated by the enactment of the prohibitory liquor law. We are also aware that the canvassing of the Pierce party has been most thorough and efficient, the more so because it has been done secretly.

But with these facts before us, we have the utmost confidence in the complete triumph of the Anti-Nebraska party. No candid man believes that Mr. Wells can get 30,000 votes—yet with that number he will be defeated by 4000.

Manchester is good for 1,300 majority against Wells.

CONGRESS HAULED OVER THE COALS.—The Gazette of the 21st says:

In vain has the engineering Department for years represented to Congress the totally inadequate defences of the sea-board. The Representatives of the people have lent their whole attention to Wilmot Provisos, to Compromise Acts, and Squatter Sovereignty, to the culpable neglect of our vast commerce and flourishing cities. They have wasted time upon abstractions,—have exhausted their energies in criminations and recriminations,—perilled the interest, aye, the very existence of a common country, to subserve party strifes and sectional interests.

Is it possible that we read aright? Was the 33d Congress, chosen in the same year as President Pierce, and represented as being greatly Democratic in the majority, guilty of all these faults and crimes? Did they peril the existence of the Union?

If all this is true, where are the Union Savers to be found? And how much better are Democrats than Republicans?

If it is not true ————

Several days ago, the Gazette said:

Greeley's interference in the affairs of Congress, and his denunciation and brow-beating of the people's servants deserves a signal rebuke.

The reader will please to look back to the extract at the beginning of this article, and see whether it contains any denunciation of the people's servants.

If Greeley deserves a signal rebuke for his denunciation of a part—what does he deserve who denounces the whole?

☞ The Amesbury Villager is informed that the amount of property left by the old lady recently deceased in Newton, N. H., is appraised at $38,419,47. Not so much by one half as was expected. To show on what an extensive scale were some of her household arrangements, she had 182 sheets, 63 coverlids, 50 blankets, 27 beds, with 1200 lbs. of feathers, 54 table covers and 43 handkerchiefs, while the whole amount of her wearing apparel did not exceed ten dollars in value.

☞ In the Philadelphia American Convention, upon the Brewster substitute the Northern States voted "yea," and the Southern states "nay," with the District of Columbia, and the substitute was carried. Maine was not represented. The votes from New Hampshire were—Anthony Colby, James W. Emery—Yea.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, Feb. 21.

SENATE.—The Senate this morning passed a bill establishing the Young Men's Library in the District of Columbia.

The Senate resolution for filling vacncies in the board of the Smithsonian Institute, by the appointment of George E. Badger and Prof. Felton, was passed.

Internal improvement and other bills were then introduced, including one by Mr Denver for the construction of a railroad and telegraph line to the Pacific, which was referred to a select committee of 13.

A resolution was passed providing members with the usual number of newspapers.

Executive documents relative to Indian disturbances on the Pacific coast were then received, after which several bills of no importance were passed, and the Senate adjourned to Monday.

HOUSE.—The House took up the subject of the election of Chaplain, and considerable discussion took place upon it. The proceedings connected with it were designated as farcical, and the hunt after the office was severely condemned.

Several gentlemen wished to have continued the order inviting clergymen of all denominations to officiate alternately.

Mr Letcher of Virginia said this would answer admirably, as men were here of every shade of religion, and some of no religion at all. [Laughter.]

There were sixteen candidates for the chaplaincy, and on the second trial to elect one, Daniel Waldo, a New York revolutionary soldier, in the 94th year of his age, and a clergyman of the Congregational Church for more than 70 years, was chosen.

Mr Brooks voted for Justina R. Giddings, and Mr Skinner for Antoinette L. Brown.

PHILADELPHIA K. N. CONVENTION.—New York, Feb. 22.—The Herald's correspondent telegraphs—After the reading of the platform, which is substantially the same as that adopted by the Council of the Dist. of Columbia, some time time ago, Mr Danehaven of Ill. moved that it be adopted.

After various movements, the old platform was struck out, by a vote of 138 to 41, and the Dist. of Columbia platform, which ignores slavery and religion altogether, was adopted, yeas 108, nays 77; absentees 16.

The New Yorkers got the victory and saved the bolt. The National men are delighted.

The motion to adjourn sine die was defeated, and the convention finally adjourned to meet in New York in June.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION.—Pittsburg, Feb. 21.—The attendance of delegates to the Convention which meets tomorrow, is very full. An informal meeting was held this evening. Gen Bingham of Mich. acted as President; Mr Darcy of Va. Vice President.

Nobody is spoken of permanently as the Presidential candidate. Chase, of Ohio, is talked of. Efforts are being made to form a platform on which the Republicans and K.Ns. may act together in the presidential contest.

Delegates from twelve States, and the territories of Minnesota and Kansas are present. Maryland and Kentucky are the only slave States as yet represented, but a delegate from Missouri is expected.

Isaac H. Rand has been convicted at Concord, N. H., of stealing $1000 from the Savings Bank in that place in August last. His brother John W. Rand, who was concerned with him in the robbery, is non est inventus, having twice escaped from jail.

The Patriot states that on Thursday morning, Isaac Rand was sentenced to three years' hard labor in the State Prison, and was immediately committed.

NOT GUILTY.—In the Supreme Court, Boston, on Tuesday, Ellen Frances Tobin was put on trial for the murder of her child, on the 22d of July last. The evidence was quite defective. Verdict of Jury by direction of court, not guilty.

☞ The Concord Independent Democrat states that the young man (Mr Dow) who was murdered by the Missouri ruffians in Kansas, a few weeks since, was a native of Hopkinton, in this State, where his relatives still reside.

HON. CYRUS P. SMITH.—In sketches of the prominent men in the New York Senate, we find the following notice of Ex-Mayor Smith, of Brooklyn. It is nearly 40 years (says the Journal) since we saw him, when he spent his vacations at Dartmouth College in Portsmouth in giving instructions to singing schools. His old scholars would probably like to know how he now stands. The sketch says:—"In person he is the noblest looking man in the Senate, is about fifty eight years old,—[Not so old by 4 or 5 years.—Chron.] has a large head handsomely developed, great black eyes, a full, round, fat face, ruddy with health, a broad chest animated with a generous heart. He is a man of great wealth, and was first nominated by the straight out whigs prior to the Republican Convention. He is a leading man of business, a reliable temperate man, and a friend to humanity. He holds the balance of power in the Senate. He is the observed of all observers, but manifests no consciousness whatever of his consequence."

☞ The Hartford Courant says that Mr. Eli Chapman, of that city, owns a native cow, which gave 160 quarts of milk in the first eight days of this month, the average being 20 quarts per day. She was fed on beets and rowen hay.

SUICIDE.—James Taylor, Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Virginia I. O. O. F., committed suicide this morning in this city while in a temporary fit of insanity.

LOCAL.

☞ The examination of the Boys' High School took place on Thursday, and of the Girls' High School on Friday, under the direction of the High School Committe, Rev. Mr. Lamson, Chairman. The exercises showed a commendable improvement on the part of the scholars, and industry and faithfulness on the part of the teachers. In the afternoon of each day, a large number of interested spectators, were present.

At the close of the exercises, Mr. Lamson in his remarks to the school, took occasion to congratulate the teacher and scholars on the approaching completion of the new commodious and beautiful High School, which they were so soon to occupy—perhaps before the close of his present term of office.

☞ There was a large assemblage of citizens at Jefferson Hall, on Friday evening.—Hon Horton D. Walker presided, and introduced the speakers.

The audience were addressed first by Mr Smith of Kansas, who gave interesting statements relative to the critical condition of affairs in that battle ground between freedom and slavery.

He was followed by Hon Mr Galloway of Ohio, who gave an earnest and eloquent address on National Politics, applied to the present contest in the nation, and especially in the State of New Hampshire. He was listened to with fixed attention and interest.

Mr Galloway declared his opposition to every species of tyranny—civil, ecclesiastical and personal,—whether practiced by great popes, small demagogues, or soul drivers.—His speech abounded in hits, many of them very accurate, and it was received with frequent applause.

NARROW ESCAPE.—Two men and a woman going up the river, to Eliot, in a wherry, on Friday afternoon, narrowly escaped drowning. The river was rough and the boat somewhat leaky, and when in the trough of the sea it pitched under and capsised. The men were named A. J. Cole and S. J. Remick; the woman, Abby Towle. They were picked up by people from the shore. The accident took place about half a mile above the bridge.

☞ Perham's great Ethiopean Burlesque Operatic Troupe performed last evening at the Temple. Their music is no burlesque and no sham; but a beautiful and accurate performance, by twelve accomplished musicians of rare excellence as vocalists and players. They had a numerous and fashionable audience, notwithstanding a large assemblage at Jefferson Hall, at the same time. They give an entertainment this afternoon and again in the evening.

☞ On Friday, in this city, the Flag of our Union was hoisted throughout the day, and at noon the bells were rung—in honor of Washington's Birthday.

A salute for the memory of Washington, was fired at Kittery, Foreside, at sunset, by the American Republicans.

The salute usually fired at the Navy Yard on this occasion, was not fired on Friday, because the platform on which the saluting battery was mounted, was made unsafe by accumulated ice.

☞ We understadd that Rev Mr Holman will deliver a lecture to Young Ladies, at the Methodist Church, on Sunday evening, at 7 o'clock.

☞ The Temperance meeting, which was postponed from last Monday evening, by the weather, is to be held next Monday evening in the Temple. Speakers, Rev. Messrs. Lamson and Whiting.

Services commence at half past 7 o'clock.

The Executive Committee of the Washingtonian T. A. Society, will meet at the same place at 7 o'clock.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.—We have just received from the author, a pamphlet of 62 pages, with this title: A Centennial Discourse, delivered on the one hundredth Anniversary of the formation of the Baptist Church, Newton, N. H., October 18, 1855. By William Lamson, Pastor of Middle street Church, Portsmouth, N. H.

The sermon gives an interesting account of the rise and progress, the struggles and early sufferings, of the Baptists in New Hampshire. It is therefore valuable to all lovers of true history, and especially to those of the Baptist Church in New Hampshire. It is also perfectly fair towards other denominations, not excepting that by which the baptists were persecuted.

It is from the press of Messrs. C. W. Brewster & Son; and may be found at Mr. Foster's book-store.

Mr. B. P. Shillaber (Mrs. Partington,) read his poem on the Press, before the Newburyport Lyceum, on Friday evening last.—The praise bestowed upon this production, by the papers, is well observed, as every one can testify who had the pleasure of hearing it.—Herald.

In the Oldtown Parish, Newbury, Rev. Leonard Withington has been induced, by the earnest and harmonious feeling prevailing in the parish, to withdraw his declination.

The Liverpool market for Breadstuffs is considerably lower, the demand limited and prices irregular. Flour is quoted at a decline of 1s a 1s 6d. Wheat 3d a 6d, Corn 1s a 3s. The prices are called nominal. Provisions generally dull and lower.

Artificial Teeth,
ON
GUTTA PERCHA PLATES.

I have purchased of the inventor instructions in the manufacture and application of "COLORED GUTTA PERCHA" to the insertion of Artificial Teeth, and am now prepared to supply all who may desire, with this improvement. I have put up a few specimens of this kind of work, which may be examined by all interested, at the Drug Stores of Messrs. J. H. Thacher and William R. Preston, and at my Establishment, No. 60 Congress street. The absolute purity of the material employed, and the low price at which artificial teeth can be furnished upon this method, will doubtless bring it at once into very general use.

THE TROUBLES IN FLORIDA.—A letter from a gentleman in Florida gives the Boston Courier interesting intelligence of the new war which threatens there, together with some facts which hitherto have not been revealed. He says:—

"You have lately read accounts of Indian outrages hereabouts. The facts are substantially as stated. But you have nowhere read, probably, the fact that the first of these outrages, which began the war, was purely defensive, and was, I doubt not, purposely provoked by the agency or influence of the state government, which, having for years past used every means in its power to get the inoffensive red men out of their last hunting grounds — territory assigned to them and guaranteed by treaty—has at last craftily contrived to get up a condition of things which will oblige the federal government either to remove or exterminate them. The writers of those partial accounts, one and all, suppress the truth that should be known—namely that Lieut. Hartsupps party, when attacked, was forty miles south of our proper boundary, and really invading Indian territory, from which soldiers and surveyors had been more than once peremptorily warned off. I have no room for particulars, only this—that "Croaker" families, who have not forgotten the hazards and horrors of the last war, are quitting their plantations, and are crowding into the towns for protection against the yet distant but dreadful enemy."

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that
Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

G. W. STONE'S Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXIR a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others. A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold. As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st. oppo. Kilby st. Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render this office, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procurement of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, with the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who did it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent, more worthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

"AUGUST 17, 1856.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIMS—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving fac-simile of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia: in the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicine made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

On Manhood and its Premature Decline.

Just Published, Gratis, the 20th Thousand.

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Loss of Manhood, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally.

BY B. DE LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is, in this small tract clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free in a sealed envelope by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to DR. B. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m*

THE GREAT SHOWMAN.—The New York Tribune furnishes the following details respecting the financial affairs of Mr. P. T. Barnum:

The mortgage on Iranistan, which cost about $150,000, is $125,000, which is probably more than it is worth. The furniture has been removed and sold. The mortgage on the East Bridgeport property is $185,000.—The mortgages against Mr Barnum's real estate on record in New York, amount to $179,000. His confidential debts are about $100,000.—The collection of curiosities in the Museum, is in the possession of Messrs. Greenwood & Butler. The assets of the Jerome Clock Company, set down as worth about $500,000, would not sell for over $150,000, or $200,000.

Mr. Fred. Croswell has been appointed assignee of Mr. Barnum on petition of the New Haven County Bank, and Mr. Sanford on petition of the Farmers Bank of Bridgeport.—The collision between these assignees must be settled by the Courts. Claims must be presented in sixty days.

Mr. Chauncey B. Jerome, the founder of the clock company, who owned $175,000 of the stock, has also been forced into bankruptcy by the Stamford Bank. He is reported to have made a voluntary assignment the day of the meeting of the creditors in New Haven.

NEW ENGLAND PETTIFOGGERS IN 1765.—There is a herd of drones, troublesome to the gentlemen of the Bar, which are called pettifoggers. This is a race made up, for the most part, of the dregs of misfortune and misconduct, joined with a deal of low wit, and such a sip of learning as just intoxicates the brain, as Pope has it: who having suffered a course of law repeatedly in actions of debt, trespass, and perhaps criminal actions too, at last get the form of a declaration pretty perfectly by heart; run off to some different part of the continent, till up writs in the most trifling causes, exciting quarrels, thereby becoming downright barrators, the very pest of society.

This is an evil which—it seems strange to my shortsightedness—the Legislature of New England has not found a remedy for, seeing these animals might be employed for the good of the Commonwealth in subduing our stubborn soil, or in some other handy work.—Ames' Almanac, 1765.

JUDGMENT IN LIQUOR CASES.—At the term of the Court of Common Pleas, now in session in Salem, two liquor cases have been disposed of, which have traversed all the phases of the laws' delay, to the Supreme Court and back, and to final judgment. In one, as a common seller, the sentence was: fine $50 and costs, and four months at hard labor in the house of correction. In the other, for a single act of sale, fine $10 and costs, and twenty-five days at hard labor in the house of correction, to take effect from and after the expiration of the former sentence.—Salem Register.

FOREIGN PERSONAL.—Florence Nightingale was born at Florence in 1824, and received her Christian name in honor of the place.

Mr. Adam Black, the well known Edinburg publisher, has presented himself as a candidate for the seat in Parliament made vacant by the resignation of Mr. Macaulay.

A Western New York paper says, neither Cayuga nor Seneca Lake has yet surrendered to the ice, but remain with their dark blue waters open, like islands in an ocean of snow,—their colors the deeper from their fringes of white. Last winter Seneca Lake was frozen over so hard at the lower end, that horse races were had upon it. It is a remarkable sheet of water, and only freezes once in a century.

A monster snow plow has been constructed at the machine shops of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad, at Aurora, Ill. It is 30 feet long, 12 feet broad, 15 feet high, weighs over 26 tons, and cost from $1500 to $2000 to build it. It rests upon two sets of trucks, and is impelled by one or more locomotives from behind.

Francis Taft, son of Hon H. W. Taft of Sunderland, Mass., hung himself on Monday, Feb 11th. It is supposed that the recent deaths of his wife and brother, and a severe fever from which he was just recovering, influenced him to take his own life.

We read that one of the London tailors has taken out a patent for a waistcoat, which combines the two fold convenience of being a waistcoat and a pair of braces at the same time. One of the English papers says: "It is a very happy thought, and very well rendered into a comfortable, gentlemanly, and most convenient garment."

Five negroes from the lower end of Mason county, Kentucky, took a sleigh ride, a short time since, and crossed the Ohio river. Neither the sleigh, horses nor blacks have been heard of since.

A colored man, named Ridley, was burned to death in a lime kiln, in Trenton, N. J., on Thursday night. He was intoxicated and had laid down to sleep. One foot and arm was burned to a crisp.

It is said that the Collins steamers hereafter will not cross the Banks north of 43 degress, and thus avoid the dangers from ice. This route will be followed until after the first of August.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1856.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

Friday was kept as a holiday in various parts of the country, especially in Boston.—We were in error, however, when we stated that the legislature of Massachusetts had by a special act made it a legal and financial holiday. Such an act passed the House only, but stuck fast in the Senate, where the Judiciary Committee reported that it ought not to pass. Several other papers we perceive were led into the same error.

In Boston, the two branches of the Legislature met in convention in the House of Representatives at 12 o'clock. The Governor, his military aids, the Executive Council and the heads of the departments of state were in attendance, and after a prayer by the Rev. Daniel C. Eddy, the Hon. Elihu C. Baker read the Farewell Address of Washington.

In the evening, under the auspices of the Mercantile Library Association, the Hon. Edward Everett delivered an address on the character of Washington, at the Music Hall. An immense audience was present. Every seat and available standing place was occupied.—The hall itself was tastefully decorated in honor of the ocasion.

Rev. Dr. Blagden was the chaplain, and an Ode was sung, which was written by Dr. O. W. Holmes, containing the following lines:

See the Patriot's task completed:
Hear the Father's dying voice!

"By the name that you inherit,
By the sufferings you recall,
Cherish the fraternal spirit;
Love your country first of all!
Listen not to idle questions
If its bands may be untied;
Doubt the patriot whose suggestions
Whisper that its props may slide!"

COL. FREMONT.

It is beginning to be talked around that Col. Fremont may be a candidate for the Presidency. The San Francisco Journal, an administration print, remarks upon this head as follows:—

Col. John C. Fremont is likely to be the candidate of the opposition. He is known to possess the elements of popularity to a larger extent, perhaps, than any other American now living. His life of restless daring, of unselfish service in the cause of the country, in making known her vast resources, and in developing her great wealth, would render him stronger before the people, probably, than any man before the country. Aware of his inherent strength, some of the more sagacious of the Democratic party were desirous of making him their nominee. But he was found to be so inflexibly opposed to the whole Nebraska business, that he was dropped by them like a hot potato, and it is not unlikely that he will be the candidate on whom will centre the entire anti-Nebraska vote—enough to elect him, and have some hundreds of thousands to spare.

Fremont's policy, of course, would be to make the Pacific Railroad, through the central route, the great measure of his administration. This is what we want in California; a President that will make this great national work paramount to all others, and instead of frittering away his opportunities of doing good by throwing fire-brands among the people, and embittering the feelings of sectionalism, will use his position to bind together more strongly, the different parts of the Union with bands of iron.

Col. Fremont, a Southern man by birth, a new man among the politicians, and a man of freshness, energy and intelligence,—not particularly offensive to any party—with military reputation and a good title to the appellation of a national man—looks as if he might make an available candidate for somebody.

The Lowell News says that the bloody clothes found in the canal a day or two ago were taken by Mr. Amos Hull, the undertaker, from the body of a man who was killed on the railroad some weeks ago. Having no place to bury them, he threw them into the canal.

He could easily have burnt them,—and if they were worthless, as probably they were,—this would have been the proper course.

OUT AGAIN.—The Manchester Mirror is on legs again, looking better than before. Our readers are aware that the editor lost all his books, by the late fire. He requests that lists of the subscribers in the different towns may be sent as soon as possible, and adds:

"We hereby authorize all the Postmasters in the country to square all bills for the paper to date, according to the best evidence shown them, take out what they consider fair for their trouble, and forward the money and account with each one to us."

A SHARP DODGE.—Fyler, who murdered his wife some time since near Syracuse, N Y, is playing a sharp game upon the counsel who defended him. It appears that the agreement between them was, in case Fyler was saved from hanging, his counsel were to have $4000. Of this amount $1000 was paid in cash, and the remainder secured by a mortgage on his farm. The counsel put in a plea of insanity, and Fyler was sent to the Lunatic Asylum.—The mortgage is now about due, and the holders, on proposing to foreclose it, were met with the defence, that if the maker of it was insane when the murder was committed, could he have been sane at the time of giving the mortgage? This looks as though the lawyers were caught this time.—Boston Courier.

REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 22.—National Republican Convention.—The convention temporarily organized at 11 o'clock, a very large number being present.

Mr Greeley of New York said he had been in Washington for several weeks; friends there counselled extreme caution in their movements, but, being a cautious man himself, he thought they were bound to act in such a manner as to show the South that, although Republicans are the earnest opponents of slavery, they are not governed by feelings hostile to the South. It was for the real interest of Missouri that Kansas should be a free state, and he believed that the honest majority of the people of Missouri favor freedom. The Secretary of War is no friend to their cause—neither is the commander of the federal forces a friend; therefore let them be cautioned to keep within bounds. He believed that the Americans were against them, and declared that the main and only issue was that every territory should be free.

Mr Greeley was succeeded by Mr Giddings of Ohio, who congratulated the convention on having the son of his old friend, Rufus King, in the chair. Washington was the last place to look for redress. Mr Giddings introduced Rev. Mr Lovejoy of Illinois.

Mr Lovejoy made some exciting remarks. He said the places of those patriots who were about to be shot down would be supplied by other freemen. He was willing to go, either as captain or private. He would rather be there weltering in blood than to see a set of drunken ruffians take the government out of the hands of the people of Kansas.

Mr Gibson of Ohio followed, denouncing the Know Nothings. He had heard they would nominate George Law. Let us act independently, and organize a true American Republican party.

Mr Cording of Illinois followed.

The Committee on Permanent Organization reported for President, Francis P. Blair of Maryland. Received with great applause, and unanimously accepted.

Mr Blair, in accepting the office, said it was the first speech he was ever called upon to make. He felt highly complimented for the honor done him. He said the South misunderstood the object of the Republican party, believing it to be solely the abolition of slavery; but when they understand that it was to prevent nullification at the North, a different feeling would prevail.

The following Vice Presidents were announced:—Horatio G. Russ of New Hampshire, L. Brainard of Vermont, Geo. Bliss of Massachusetts, James W. Bunce of Connecticut, R. G. Hazard of Rhode Island, E. D. Morgan of New York, Wm. P Sherman of New Jersey, Joseph Fanley of Virginia, Gen. Marble of Pennsylvania, W. S. Bailey of Kentucky, W. L. Clarke of Iowa, R. W. Spaulding of Ohio, G. W. Julian of Indiana, John H. McMillen of Illinois, Gov. Bingham of Michigan, David Jones of Wisconsin, F. M. Nelson of Minnesota, Lewis Chapman of District of Columbia; with five Secretaries.

A resolution, appointing a committee of one from each State to draft an address and resolutions, was adopted.

A paper, submitted by Mr. Blair, containing the sentiments of Southern friends of Republican opinions, was read. It warns Southerners against endangering their property by taking it into the territories; considers that every issue should merge into the Missouri compromise; and recommends that all parties meet in Convention and nominate candidates for President and Vice President.

The address was received as the sentiments of Southern friends, and it was ordered to be printed.

During the afternoon session, the Committee on a plan of organization reported that the following despatch was received from Philadelphia: "American party no longer united. Raise the Republican banner. No farther extension of slavery. The Americans are with you." Tremendous applause followed the reading of this

Charles Kremlin of Ohio spoke in denunciation of the executive, and defended the republicans from the charge of sectionalism.

Passmore Williamson was called for, and was received with great applause; but he excused himself from speaking.

A lively sally ensued between the Michigan and Ohio delegates as to a lack of backbone in some members of Congress from the latter State.

After several speeches from Spaulding and Foote of Ohio, Bliss of Massachusetts, and others, all urging prudence in the formation of a platform, the meeting, at 5 o'clock, adjourned till 7 1-2 o'clock P. M.

KANSAS AFFAIRS.—New York, Feb. 23.—A correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs from Washington: Intelligence was received by the Government this morning containing assurances that the border companies of Missouri would acquiesce in the present state of things, and make no aggressive movement.

The President instructed Gov. Shannon to visit the companies personally, and say if an invasion was attempted, it would be resisted by all the power he could command. Also to say to the people of Kansas that the same authority would be exerted if any insurrectionary demonstration occurred.

If the Topeka Convention assembles, a civil process will be sued out against the Governor and other officers for assuming illegal functions. No military force will be employed unless the process is resisted. Republican instructions have been sent out by a special messenger to the members of the Topeka Convention, desiring them merely to organize and adjourn. With these precautions no collision is now apprehended.

MOB LAW IN ILLINOIS.—At Charlestown, Coles Co., Illinois, on the 8th inst., a mob broke into the prison and took out a criminal who was under sentence of death for the murder of his father in law, and carrying him half a mile out of town, hung him on the branch of a tree. The cause of this riotous proceeding was the fact that the man had been condemned to be hung on that day, but meanwhile his counsel obtained from the Governor a reprieve for ninety days. The large crowd which assembled to witness the execution were indignant at this disappointment, and so took the matter into their own hands.—Boston Journal.

LOCAL.

☞ Rev. Mr. Robie, of Greenland, delivered the sixth lecture of the course before the Young Men's Christian Association, at the Temple on Sunday evening. His subject, as we gathered it from his remarks, was, the necessity of religious culture, to a full development of the mind. The lecture was well written, and delivered in an agreeable manner. The attendance was good—the audience appreciating and attentive—the lecture just long enough.

Circumstances having prevented a rehearsal of the large choir who were to sing on this occasion—a dozen young ladies and gentlemen who were not afraid to risk their 'musical reputation' by singing without rehearsal, were invited from among the audience, and sang three good old tunes from the Carmina Sacra. Miss Ellen Hadley, a pupil of Mr. Clark, and a very proficient player for one so young,—kindly consented to preside at the piano; and accompanied the singing with promptness and accuracy.

☞ The Temperance meeting, which was postponed from last Monday evening, by the weather, is to be held, Deo volente, this evening in the Temple. Speakers, Rev. Messrs. Lamson and Whiting.

Services commence at half past 7 o'clock.

The Executive Committee of the Washingtonian T. A. Society, will meet at the same place at 7 o'clock.

ELOCUTIONARY.—It will be seen by an advertisement in another column that Mr Hawes will recite again at the Temple on Friday evening next. The following notice of his recitations, is from the pen of a gentleman in Newburyport to the editor of the Journal in this city.

NEWBURYPORT, Feb. 20.

Mr. Editor:—I understand that Mr Wm. Hawes is to repeat very soon his Elocutionary entertainment at Portsmouth, and I hope your citizens will avail themselves of this opportunity to hear him. This young man has extraordinary powers of personation; and he gives to a separate scene as much effect as can be possible, without the sustained interests of an entire play. He appeared before an intelligent audience here on Tuesday evening, and quite answered the expectations of those who heard him. The perfect stillness of the house testified to the thrilling effect of Mark Antony, Spartacus, &c. Those of your citizens who may listen to Mr Hawes will enjoy, not only the able and eloquent recitation of admirable selections, but the satisfaction of aiding by their encouragement, the noble enterprise of exerting talents to procure independently a liberal education. N. P.

☞ The Old Folks Choir of this city are intending to give a charitable Concert, on Thursday evening March 6th, at the Temple. Rehersal at that place, at 2 o'clock on the day of the concert.

The President of the Howard Benevolent Society acknowledges the receipt of Twenty five dollars on the 14th inst., from an unknown, but constant and consistent friend of the poor. Feb. 21, 1856.

AMERICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—The American Convention this morning thmporarily organized with Isaac Hazlehurst of Philadelphia in the chair. Much time will be spent examining credentials, the main difficulty being as to the admission of the rival delegates from Pennsylvania. The convention, after the appointment of a Committee on Credentials, adjourned till the afternoon.

Afternoon Session.—The Committee on Permanent Organization reported the following names for officers:—President, Ephraim Marsh of New Jersey, with twenty-two Vice Presidents, including J. W. Emery of N. H., J. C. Knight of Rhode Island, Thomas Spooner of Ohio, W. W. Danenhower of Illinois, Thomas H. Clay of Kentucky, C. W. Bell of Missouri, Erastus Brooks of New York.

The report of the Committee on Organization was accepted, but no vote taken on its adoption in consequence of the Committee on on Credentials not being ready to report. After much time spent in debate the Convention adjourned.

Evening Session.—The Convention reassembled in Sansom street hall, and the permanent officers reported at the afternoon session were elected and took their seats.

The Committee on Credentials made a majority and minority report, the former favoring the admission of Mr Eddie Pennsylvania as a delegate, and the latter signed by the Southern members of the Committee, refusing to recognise delegations from any council repudiating the 12th section of the platform of 1855. A debate ensued.

It was a debate, indeed:—stormy, excited, bitter—showing the root of bitterness, slavery, in a strong light.

Feb. 23—10 A. M.—There was great confusion in the Convention yesterday afternoon when the list of officers was reported.

The evening session continued until 2 A.M. Majority and minority reports were presented from the Committee on Credentials. The majority report, in favor of the Edie delegates was adopted by a vote of 34 to 45.

The South has bolted in effect. Brownlow says that the South will have nothing more to do with the Convention, or any person it may nominate; and if any Southern man, a slaveholder, stoops to accept a nomination, they would ride him on a rail.

Mr Brooks of New York, amid much confusion, made an ineffectual attempt to procure a reconsideration of the vote on the Pennsylvania delegation, and the Convention adjourned until tomorrow at 10 o'clock.

Offers have been made to Gen. Houston to stand as Vice President on the same ticket with Fillmore, but he declines. In reply he says he is too old, and that he never would go second to any man since Jackson.

Artificial Teeth,
ON
GUTTA PERCHA PLATES.

I have purchased of the inventor instructions in the manufacture and application of "COLONEL GUTTA PERCHA" to the insertion of Artificial Teeth, and am now prepared to supply all who may desire, with this improvement. I have put up a few specimens of this kind of work, which may be examined by all interested, at the Drug Stores of Messrs J. H. Thacher and William R. Preston, and at my Establishment, No. 60 Congress street. The absolute purity of the material employed, and the low price at which artificial teeth can be furnished upon this method, will doubtless bring it at once into very general use.

Elocutionary Entertainment.

WILLIAM HAWES,
Member of Phillips Exeter Academy,

WILL RECITE the following Popular Pieces, AT THE TEMPLE,

ON FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 29,

they having been presented with success at Exeter, New Market, Portsmouth and Concord, N. H., and Andover and Newburyport, Mass.

Antony's Oration over Cæsar's Body.. Shakespeare.
Eulogy on Hamilton..... Pres. Nott.
Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua.. E. Kellogg.
Dagger Scene in Macbeth..... Shakspeare.
Thanatopsis..... Wm. C. Bryant.
Catiline's Defiance..... Rev. Geo. Croly.

The scene in Croly's tragedy of "Catiline" from which the above is taken, represents the Roman Senate in session, Lictors present, a Consul in the chair, and Cicero on the floor as the prosecutor of Catiline and his fellow conspirators. Catiline enters, and takes his seat on the Senatorial bench, whereupon the Senators go over to the other side. Cicero repeats his charges in Catiline's presence; and the latter rises and replies, "Conscript Fathers, I do not rise," &c. Cicero, in his rejoinder, produces proofs, and exclaims:—

"Tried and convicted traitor! Go from Rome!"

Catiline haughtily tells the Senate to make the murder as they make the law Cicero directs an officer to give up the record of Catiline's banishment. Catiline then utters those words:—"Banished from Rome," &c.; but when he tells the Consul,

"He dare not touch a hair of Catiline,"

the Consul reads the decree of his banishment, and orders the Lictors to drive the 'traitor' from the temple. Catiline, furious at being thus baffled, catches at the word "traitor," and terminates the scene with his audacious denunciation.—"Here I devote your Senate," &c. At the close, he rushes through the portal, as the Lictors and Senators crowd upon him.

Hamlet's Soliliquy on Death..... Shakspeare.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

HALIFAX, Feb. 26.

The steamer Etna, from Havre, Feb. 4, for New York, put in here short of coal at six o'clock this evening. She encountered a very rough passage, and brings Paris and Havre dates to the 5th inst., but no English papers. She brings no news of the Pacific.

The French papers at hand contain very little news. The Presse publishes the names of the negotiators about to assemble at the Paris Conference.

They are—for France, Walewski and Bourqueney; England, Clarendon and Cowley; Austria, Buel and Habners; Turkey, Ali Pasha and Mehemid d'Gemiel Bey; Sardinia, Dazeglio; Russia, Orloff and Brunow.

It is still current at Paris that Prussia will not be permitted to participate in the conference.

Prince Gortschakoff, when signing the protocol at Vienna, formally accepting the Austrian propositions, demanded that Prussia should be invited to take part in the declarations of the conferences. Count Buel supported that demand, but M. Bourqueney and Lord Seymour had asked to refer it to their governments.

The acceptation by Russia of peace propositions had caused the greatest astonishment in Turkey. On the 19th the report had not yet reached the allied generals, owing to the submarine cable in the Black Sea having been broken.

It was reported that a serious military conspiracy had been concocted at Madrid, with ramifications throughout the north of Spain. Particulars not given.

We have not a particle (of any kind) of English news.

Nothing definite as to the Havre markets; but breadstuffs declining.

Confidence in the favorable result of the peace conference is daily increasing.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—From Hayti.—The Evening Post has a letter from Port au Prince, dated Jan. 27. The writer says political matters stand about the same as on the 15th. No one seems to know what to expect. The Emperor is still on the lines with the remains of his army, say 6000 men. We know but little of them, but fear he will attempt to renew the expedition. Should he do so, we do not know what would become of it. The Emperor is the only man in the empire who is in favor of this expedition, and if he can succeed in it against all this dead weight of opposition, he must be a very able man. It is very sickly here; I never saw it worse. It has now, the last spell, lasted fifteen months, and it seems as if it would never cease. Vessels are loosing nearly half of their crews.—Hardly a man escapes the fever who has not already had it.

The Kentucky Senate, 30 to 2, have passed a bill which prohibits the selling, giving or loaning of any spirituous or vinous liquors to any slave, unless upon the written order of the owner or the person having the control of the services of the slave. A memorial is to be presented to the legislature of Virginia forbidding the seperation of parents and children, recognizing the marriage of slaves, and allowing persons of color to be taught to read and write, "so as to assist their moral and mental elevation."

DEATH OF THE WARDEN OF MASSACHUSETTS STATE PRISON.—David S. Jones, the Warden of the State Prison, died at his residence at the Prison on Wednesday afternoon at ten minutes before two o'clock. He had been sick but thirteen days, and was first taken with a cold, which turned to a fever and caused his death. He was about 54 years of age, and leaves a wife and daughter to mourn his loss. He had held the office of Warden a little over a year.—Boston Courier.

A theft of money and jewelry took place at Willard's Hotel, Washington, 21st. The rooms of Mrs Wood, wife of Col. Wood, member of Congress from Portland, Me., were entered while she was out riding, and one thousand dollars in gold and about thirteen hundred dollars worth of jewelry were stolen.

TWINS AND TRIPLETS.—A few days since the wife of Rev. Horace James, of this city, gave birth to two children at one time, and since then the wife of Rev. George Bushnell, also of this city, has given birth to three children, all at one time.—Worcester Spy.

THE SHARKS FROZEN.—The Tampa Peninsular says that it is stated by the oldest settlers, that so severely cold weather has never been experienced in Florida until this winter. Captain Bontes De Oca states that sharks have been frozen to death during the late cold spell, in Charlotte harbor. Such an event has not transpired, to his knowledge, for the last thirty five years.

A SAILOR WITH THREE WIVES.—The Journal of Commerce states that Samuel Nash, an English sailor, was arrested in New York on Wednesday, charged with being the husband of three wives, all of whom are now living. It is alleged that in June, 1852, he was married to Miss Mary Daly, in Boston, who is the complainant in this case. In November last, he married Catharine Lucy, Mr Pease, of the Five Points Mission, being the officiating clergyman. He has, also, as is stated, a third wife lying sick at the Brooklyn Hospital.

PENALTY FOR RUNNING AWAY.—Anthony Burns, the fugitive slave, whose return to his master caused so much excitement, trouble and Government expense in Boston, has since been purchased by a subscription made up at the North, and set free. He was, it seems, a religious man, and a member of a Church at a place called Union, Fauquier County, Va. On becoming free, he went to Oberlin College, Ohio, to educate himself for the ministry, and wrote back to Virginia to his old pastor for a letter of dismission from the Church. In answer to this, he received a preamble and resolution, unanimously adopted by the congregation, excommunicating him from the communion and fellowship of the Church, for having "absconded from the service of his master, and refused to return voluntarily, thereby disobeying both the laws of God and man."—Phœnix.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that
Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

WHEELING, VA., Feb. 21.—Railroad Disaster.—At eleven o'clock yesterday, while the train was on its way from Baltimore to this place, 100 miles east of here, the forward engine went down an embankment a hundred feet, killing the firemen, Christian Ziegher, and seriously injuring the engineer, Thomas McKinley, of Baltimore.

FITCHBURG, Feb. 21.—Death by Suffocation.—Last night a leakage occurred in the gas works in this town, by which John Goggin and Palmer Fenton, watchmen of the premises, were suffocated. Mrs Fenton and her only child, who entered the room to find the missing watchmen, became insensible from the gas, but are now considered out of danger.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 21.—The work of blasting the ice in our harbor was commenced yesterday, and will be continued until the river opposite the city is cleared.

There is no movement of the ice in the upper rivers yet. The weather is mild, but it is not expected that navigation will be resumed before March.

THE WEATHER AT THE CAPE.—Capt. Henry Atkins, keeper of the Humane House at Provincetown, reports that the ice had made upon the ocean side of the Cape one hundred yards from the shore—what he never before witnessed—and he regards it impossible to save the crew of a vessel, if one should come ashore there.

It is reported that Mr Washburne, chairman of the Committee on Elections, will shortly submit a majority report in favor of Reeder, and Mr Stephens of Georgia the minority report in favor of Whitfield. The worst decision Congress can come to will be to declare the seat vacant, in which case a new election would give cause of great excitement and perhaps bloodshed in Kansas. The Kansas ball is now fully in motion at Washington, and will be the principal topic of the session. Newburyport Herald.

FIRE IN NEW YORK.—New York, Feb. 20.—The steam saw mill with several adjoining buildings in Forsyth street, was burned last night; estimated loss $80,000, and occupied by Henry A. James, M. Sigler, picture frame manufacturer, and numerous others. Siglers' loss $20,000; James' loss $20,000; loss in building $20,000, owned by George A. Hoyt. Estimated loss of others $20,000.

A gentleman visiting the distillery in Newburyport, last week, accidentally fell some eight or nine feet into one of the vats, but was pulled out after being well soaked with the vile contents.

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite pleasant to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, in a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels: Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is near at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

NEW CLEAR AND MESS PORK—for sale by A. A. PAYNE. jy22

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and it has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD., Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD., Prof. Surgery, N. Y. University. W. P. Dewees, MD., Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD., Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD., Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Lourenco de Lua, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c. &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA."

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

A FEW WORDS ON THE RATIONAL TREATMENT, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Debility, Impotency, and Impediments to Marriage generally.

BY DR. LANEY, M. D.

The important fact that many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed WITHOUT MEDICINE, is, in this small treatise, clearly demonstrated; and the new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to CURE HIMSELF PERFECTLY, AND AT THE LEAST POSSIBLE COST, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis, and post free in a sealed envelope by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to DR. B. DE LANEY, No. 17 Lispenard Street, New York City. s12 d&w6m

THE GRUMBUG CORRESPONDENCE.

No. 3. ANTI-GRUMBUG'S SECOND LETTER.

Dear Uncle Toby:—

Hear how Anti-Humbug makes the music hum.

A writer in support of the liquor law, assigns, among other shallow reasons why he thinks the law will be sustained, that it "has the warm support of nearly the entire clergymen of New England," who, he avows, "have no political aims!" (1.)

Such a declaration is eminently worthy of the supporter of a law which is so abominable and absurd that juries acquit under it when guilt is so clearly proved that no defence can be made, as in the Goodrich trial at Exeter last week. (2.)

The clergymen of New England have no political aims! What other aims did they ever have generally, except mainly fat salaries? Trace their history down, from the formation of the government, and what does it reveal?—a meek, reverent body of men, as a class, upholding, by precept and example the lawfully constituted authorities, &c., &c.!?. (3.)

Who that is acquainted with the history of the New England clergy does not know that precisely the opposite of this is true, and that instead of having no political aims, they are generally influenced by precisely these aims? And who believes that they generally have any higher or other aims in their present agitation of the temperance and slavery questions? (4.)

To be sure there have been, and are many noble exceptions to this dishonorable, hypocritical and mercenary career of the clergy, but these only stand out as monuments to the dishonesty and degradation of the mass. (5.)

But, thanks to Providence, and the general diffusion of intelligence, their influence is not so potent now as it was wont to be in past times. It has been dwindling for a hal a century; and God grant, as I believe he will, that it may continue to grow less, until the pulpit shall be filled with honest, devout, sincere Christian men. (6.)

Please to defend yourself and your cloth if you can. ANTI-GRUMBUG.

No. 4.—UNCLE TOBY'S REPLY.

Mr. Anti-Grumbug:—

The notes here offered, refer to the figures in Anti-Humbug.

1. The writer here doubtless uses the word political, in the sense of partisan. This is made quite certain by the following extract from his article:

The strength and influence of the clergy of all denominations in New England are on the side of the law. Men differing most widely in religious faith are seen standing side by side, shoulder to shoulder, in this cause.—What we have seen for successive weeks in this city is but an illustration of what is seen in nearly all the cities nd towns of New England where the subject is agitated, the pastors of nearly all the churches sitting upon the same platform and uttering essentially the same convictions. They have no political aims—probably would differ widely in their political, as they do in their theological preferences. But they have seen and felt the ruin of intemperance. The offices of their profession have made them familiar with it. They have stood by the death-bed of the drunkard, they have prayed over his blosted body—they have followed it to the grave.

That is, most clearly,—they unite as temperance men, and ministers, not as partisans, nor sectarians, to counsel obedience to a wholesome law. He does not mean that they have no political opinions, and don't vote any way—any more than he means that they have no theological opinions, or sectarian aims,—for he says they probably differ in their political views, as they certainly do differ widely in their theology. But in their present effort for temperance, and in support of the law, they unite heartily, not for the promotion of sect or party—but to promote a very plain and important object in morals, viz., Temperance.

2. Rather a left handed compliment to the jury.

3. Yes, indeed:—the clergymen of whom Anti-Humbug complains, including the writer at whom he grumbles, are upholding by precept and example, the lawfully constituted authorities, who obey and try to enforce the law!

4. One cannot answer for the rest—but the "distinguished divine who rejoices in the second hand title of Uncle Toby," would state that he has not the least objection to a "fat salary" or even to a political ism or a post office. But in advocating temperance and liberty as he has done for the last twenty-five years, unless he was uncommonly stupid he must have seen that he was apparently turning his back on office and wealth. Does not Anti-Humbug think so?

If he cannot answer, we can. For his services as editor of the Washingtonian, he received three votes of thanks. For his ever open advocacy of liberty, he has generally been in a minority;—and if he had sought office, any one can judge how much these items would have helped him. His aim is to promote temperance and freedom! If in so doing, he runs against parties, or parties run against him—why let the hardest fend off!—He fears neither parties, nor parishes, nor papers. He would have their good will, the good will of each and of all, if he could conveniently:—but if they grumble and scold, he cannot help it. He may not always be quite radical enough for some, nor quite smooth enough to please others,—but he does his best to promote each good cause, and does it after his own fashion.

5. A very fair answer to this sentence, is given by Veritas, a writer of another cast, in the Gazette of the 21st, who says:

Mr. Editor:—I read with some displeasure a communication in yesterday's Gazette, signed "Anti-Humbug," which contains a very sweeping and unfair denunciation of the clergy of New England. I know very well, that the sentiments of that writer do not tally with your own?!! * * * * * *

But extended observation has induced me to believe, that the great body of the order are indeed "a meek, reverent class of men, upholding by precept and example the lawfully constituted authorities, and devoted to their spiritual calling, seeking to lead the people by manifestations of love and gentleness in the ways of holiness."

6. It makes all the difference in the world, whether a minister belongs to our party or some other.

For example,

The Patriot of this week, contains a lengthy letter from the notorious Rev. J. C. Lovejoy, giving in his adhesion to the Democratic party, and advises his friends to do the same.—The Patriot highly applauds this letter, and styles the author a man of "learning, candor, intelligence and disinterestedness!" The same paper complains of Rev. Dr. Stone for interfering with politics. It makes a great difference whose foot the shoe pinches.—Phœnix.

The Dover Gazette of Feb. 23, says:

We wish to call attention particularly to a letter in this week's issue from the pen of Rev. J. C. Lovejoy. It is one of the most admirable and patriotic that we have seen for a long time. Mr. Lovejoy takes just such a view of the state of parties as every other honest, patriotic and upright man must take.

Veritas, in the Gazette, says:—

But surely the recollection of the venerable McClintock, the patriot of the Revolution and preacher of Jeffersonian Democracy; of Brodhead, the friend and supporter of Jackson,—add of the many excellent clergymen who stand and have stood as they stand, should have exempted the body of the ministry from the sweeping denunciation of your correspondent.

This is rich, decidedly. The Reverend Mr. Lovejoy may preach his politics,—and any other reverends may preach on our side, and be first-rate men and Christians—but if any of the cloth dare to speak against rum and slavery, they are all at once denounced by the Grumbugs, as traitors, conspiring at once to debase the church and dissolve the Union.

But it is beautiful to see how one of the Grumbugs eats up another, and how some of them eat up their own words.

UNCLE TOBY.

CRIMINAL CASES.—In the Court of Common Pleas, sitting in Salem last week, among others, verdicts were rendered against Jacob L. Dennett of Portsmouth, alias Horace D. Bennett of Ipswich, for obtaining goods on false pretences; (this is the man that announced a wedding, had the church lighted for the occasion, and all the academy girls invited;) and a number of persons for liquor selling—viz: of Salem, James L Sherman, Perley A Davis, Lawrence Brown, Mary Donahue and Philander R. Bass; of Lynn, Julius C Gale and Patrick Cunningham; and of Marblehead, George W. Wilson. All the liquor cases but one were appealed cases.—Patrick Cunningham of Lynn, who was convicted at the last term as a common seller, was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs, and to be imprisoned four months in the House of Correction. On another appeal case, he was fined ten dollars, and a further term of 25 days in the House of Correction was added. This, (says the Newburyport Herald, whence we derive the account) is the first case under the new liquor law, which has reached final judgment in this county.

It is said that verdicts and judgments have now been obtained in every county of the State, except Suffolk.

☞ The Military Ball, at the city hall in Newburyport on the 22d inst., was well attended, and passed off most pleasantly. The Hall was tastefully decorated, upon the walls hung portraits of our most distinguished statesmen—the large painting of Washington by Swain, was over the rostrum. Among the flags displayed, was one "all tattered and torn," that was carried in the battle of Lexington, by Joshua Hills, of what is now West Newbury.

In the company—the two hundred couples on the floor, the fashion and beauty of Newburyport were well represented.

The Herald says, the anniversary of Washington's birth, was more generally observed in the cities and large towns, both in and out of this commonwealth, than ever before.—The suspension of newspaper publication was not so general as we expected; but another year will show improvement in that particular. The Twenty-second is among the holidays, and must be regarded as much as Thanksgiving, Christmas and Independence.

The Herald itself has kept the day as a holiday, for several years.

HEAVY FAILURE.—New York, Feb. 23.—The Messrs. Richardson's, cordage manufacturers of this city, have suspended payment. Liabilities about $200,000.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION AT PITTSBURG.—On Saturday morning the Convention met at 9 o'clock, and the Committee on Resolutions then reported, giving a history of the slavery question from the commencement of the government up to the present time, with the legislative action upon it. A large portion of the report was devoted to Kansas, and the conduct of the present administration severely denounced. The resolutions are as follows:—

We do therefore declare to the people of the United States, as objects for which we united political action:—First, we demand and shall attempt to secure the repeal of all laws which allow the introduction of slavery into territories once consecrated to freedom, and will resist by every constitutional means the extension of slavery in any of the territories of the United States.

Second, We will support by every lawful means our brethren in Kansas in their constitutional and manly resistance to the usurped authority of their lawless invaders, and will give the full weight of our political power in favor of the immediate admission of Kansas into the Union, as a free, sovereign, and independent State.

Third, Feeling that the present national administration has shown itself to be weak and faithless, and that its continuance in power is identified with the progress of the slave power to national supremacy, with the exclusion of freedom from the territories and with increasing civil discord, it is a leading purpose of our organization to oppose and overthrow it.

After a vote of thanks to the officers, the Convention adjourned sine die.

NATIONAL AMERICAN CONVENTION.—The session on Saturday was a scene of excitement. The Southern delegates are very much dissatisfied. The Convention spent nearly the whole day in taking a vote upon a motion to lay on the table a proposition to postpone the nomination of a President to another Convention, to meet on the 30th of July next. Many of the delegates talked against time to prevent the Convention going into a nomination. At 6 o'clock the vote on the motion to lay the proposition on the table was as follows: Yeas 128, nays 83. Amid much confusion the Convention adjourned until Monday morning.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb 25.—The American National Convention reassembled this morning. A resolution was offered declaring that the National Council had no authority to prescribe a platform of principles for this Convention, and that no candidates for President and Vice President who are not in favor of interdicting the introduction of slavery north of 36 30, shall be nominated by the Convention.

The resolution was laid on the table, 141 to 59.

Mr Brownlow moved that the Convention proceed to the nomination of candidates for President and Vice President.

MURDER TRIAL.—In the trial of McNulty, at Boston, for the murder of Smith by stabbing, a year or two ago,—the jury went out on Saturday at noon.

In the evening, the jury came in at 8 1-2 o'clock, and stated that they were unable to agree. The papers were then taken from them, and they were discharged. It is understood that the jury stood six for acquittal, three for murder, and three for manslaughter. The prisoner was remanded to jail. It is doubtful, says the Boston Chronicle, if the case will be tried again.

He and Smith were both sellers and drinkers of rum—and the plea whereby McNulty is expected to escape the gallows, is, that he was in a fit of delirium tremens when he did the the deed. From the testimony, it seems very clear that he was drunk. It would seem best, if the right kind of verdict could be found, to put him to labor for life in a penitentiary.

Mr Carter, Collector of Portland, has seized sixty-five thousand cigars on board brig Z ne, for alleged violation of the revenue. This is the largest seizure of cigars ever made in that district.

What an unjust, oppressive, unconstitutional act it was, to seize a man's property because he did not regard a sumptuary law enacted by the crazy fanatics who made the tariff.

Why won't somebody down east get up a mob, or indignation meeting! Why won't somebody take the stump, and call out all the old smokers to put down this dreadful law, and throw the Collector overboard!

☞ The Great Falls Advertiser, an Independent Family Paper, is just commenced at Great Falls, by Messrs G. H. & S. E. Twombly. It is to be published every Saturday. It very much resembles the late Great Falls Journal in appearance. The Messrs Twombly are industrious young printers, and will diligently apply themselves to their business—in which we wish them the best success.

A DANGEROUS MISTAKE.—A short time ago an old lady in the back part of Newburyport who had seen more than three score and ten years' after retiring at night without the precaution of fastening her bedroom door, was startled by the appearance of a man, who had probably mistaken the house for his own or was in a condition not to tell what was his own, who without ceremony undressed and jumped into bed. The old lady not fancying the uninvited guest, made the hair fly by a violent scratching of his head, but as he was an Irishman and might not have been unaccustomed to such greetings, even that did not at first start him; but when her cries would have alarmed the neighborhood, he departed quicker than he entered, and as yet his name has not been ascertained. This should be a caution to both young and old to fasten their doors befor their lights are extinguished.—Herald.

LOCAL.

☞ Rev Elbridge G. Brooks, a native of this city, is announced as the next lecturer before the Young Men's Christian Association. The lecture is to be delivered on Sunday evening next, at the Temple.

☞ A farmer in Newington has a Ewe, which yeaned a triplet of lambs one day last week. They weighed 19 3-4 lbs. on the day of birth—and are all doing well.

LYCEUMS.—There are no lyceum lectures announced for this week. The Mercantile Society are in expectation of a lecture from Hon Rufus Choate, who is to appear before the M. L. A. of Boston, upon some evening this season, not yet decided upon. Mr C. has engaged to deliver the same lecture before the M. L. A. of this city, and we hope soon to have the pleasure of informing our readers definitely as to the time of his appearance.—Gazette.

☞ The following communication appeared in the Newburyport Herald of Feb. 19th:

Messrs. Editors:—Having a personal acquaintance with Mr. Hawes, who is to appear at the City Hall this evening, I feel interested enough in the success of a friend who, although commencing an education late in life, and under difficulties which have deterred many from pursuing a like course, yet gives evidence of sufficient talent to encourage the support of the public in his entertainments. He is a native and resident of Boston, and the present week completes his twenty-first year. Many have supposed the speaker to be very young, and thereby drawn an unfavorable opinion of the proposed entertainment. Mr. Hawes has been highly commended by the press in those places where he has already appeared, and gives great promise of future excellence as an Elocutionist. His performance was so satisfactory to the citizens of Portsmouth that, we understand, they have started a subscription for a repetition of the entertainment.

In view of the success which the speaker has already achieved, the high commendations of all who have heard him, and the honorable end for which he is exerting himself, we think this an unusual opportunity for our citizens to encourage real merit, and at the same time to enjoy an intellectual entertainment of no ordinary character. *

Artificial Teeth,
OR
GUTTA PERCHA PLATES.

I have purchased of the inventor instructions in the manufacture and application of "COLORED GUTTA PERCHA" to the insertion of Artificial Teeth, and am now prepared to supply all who may desire, with this improvement. I have put up a few specimens of this kind of work, which may be examined by all interested, at the Drug Stores of Messrs. J. H. Thacher and William R. Preston, and at my Establishment, No. 60 Congress street. The absolute purity of the material employed, and the low price at which artificial teeth can be furnished upon this method, will doubtless bring it at once into very general use.

Antony's Oration over Cæsar's body.....Shakspeare.
Eulogy on Hamilton.....Pres. Nott,
Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua.....E. Kellogg.
Dagger Scene in Macbeth.....Shakspeare.
Thanatopsis, (by request).....Wm. C. Bryant.
Catiline's Defiance.....Rev. Geo. Croly.

The scene in Croly's tragedy of "Catiline" from which the above is taken, represents the Roman Senate in session, Lictors present, a Consul in the chair, and Cicero on the floor as the prosecutor of Catiline and his fellow conspirators. Catiline enters, and takes his seat on the Senatorial bench, whereupon the Senators go over to the other side. Cicero repeats his charges in Catiline's presence; and the latter rises and replies, "Conscript Fathers, I do not rise, &c. Cicero, in his rejoinder, produces proofs, and exclaims:—

"Tried and convicted traitor! Go from Rome!"

Catiline haughty tells the Senate to make the murder as they make the law. Cicero directs an officer to give up the record of Catiline's banishment. Catiline then utters those words:—"Banished from Rome," &c.; but when he tells the Consul,

"He dare not touch a head of Catiline,"

the Consul reads the decree of his banishment, and orders the Lictors to drive the "traitor" from the temple. Catiline, furious at being thus baffled, catches at the word "traitor," and terminates the scene with his audacious denunciation,—"Here I devote your Senate," &c. At the close, he rushes through the portal, as the Lictors and Senators crowd upon him.

Portsmouth, Feb 26, 1856.

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE

The steamship Atlantic arrived at New York Sunday morning, and the steamship Asia in the afternoon, bringing conjointly seven days later intelligence from Europe.—The following is the summary of the News, from the Boston Courier.

The English papers report a new misunderstanding as having arisen between Lord Clarendon and the American Ambassador, arising out of the diplomatic controversy now pending between the governments of the United States and Great Britain in regard to Crampton's violation of the neutrality laws and the Central American dispute. The American minister left the official chamber of the English lord in self-respect, or in anger at the assumptions of the representative of the British cabinet. But the Asia's news embraces a statement that Mr. Bulwer, formerly minister to this country, had attempted to heal the difficulties which had arisen between the two high functionaries.

The tone of a portion of the English press is abusive towards this country; but the Chambers of Commerce of Liverpool and Manchester have held meetings and expressed regrets that any misunderstanding should have arisen between the two countries.

A large part of the despatch by the Atlantic is made up of reports, rumors and comments taken from the British papers. They are not to be taken either as substance or truth, with regard to the true condition of affairs which intere t our people in their relations with Great Britain.

It is not time to expect any definite information with respect to the peace negotiations between Russia and the Western powers; but the naturally slow proceedings which look for the convocation of the great Peace Congress in Paris are passing on without interruption. The congress was to assemble on the 17th. The list of delegates as negotiators has been mentioned.

There is no intelligence from the seat of war in the Crimea.

In the commercial and monetary markets, the reports show a decline in breadstuffs, an advance in cotton in the beginning of the week and a partial falling off at the close.

The money market in England had not been relieved from its stringency, and the demand continued. Consols at London left off on Friday, the 8th inst., at 91 1-8 a 91 3 8.—These rates are about one per cent. higher than they stood a week before, and indicate not only a belief upon the stock exchange that there is to be peace in Europe, but that no alarm was felt with regard to a disruption with this country.

The steamers bring the unfortunate intelligence that the ship Great Duke, belonging to Boston, Capt. Sampson, bound from New New Orleans for Liverpool, was wrecked Feb 6, and that Capt. Sampson and twenty-nine of the crew were drowned. Where she was wrecked, and other particulars, are not stated. The Great Duke was a fine ship of about 1500 tons, less than two years old, and was owned by Mr. William Bramhall of Boston. She cleared at New Orleans Jan. 2, with a cargo of 5000 bales cotton and 2000 staves.

MORE FINANCIAL DEBAUCHERY.—The Teller of the Washington Bank, Boston, Caleb B. Atkins—unmarried, and aged about 23 years—was arrested on Saturday, on a charge of stealing the funds of the bank to the amount of fourteen thousand dollars. It will be recollected that early in January last a package of seven thousand dollars, said to have been sent from Washington to the Suffolk Bank, was never accounted for. The directors since that time have been on the alert, and on Saturday discovered that a further sum of seven thousand dollars was missing. Atkins was taken into custody, and upon examining his pockets, spurious checks to the amount of $7,298 10 were found. He probably intended to place these checks in the drawer as equivalants for the money. He denies all knowledge of the first seven thousand dollars, but, we believe admits having purloined the bank funds in the second instance. He was locked up for examination.

Since writing the above, we understand that Atkins loaned the money—that is $7000—to his brother, who resides in Chelsea, with the expectation of getting it back and returning it to the bank before the April examination of accouts.

Another brother of the prisoner, while Teller of the Traders' Bank of Chelsea, some time since, was arrested on a charge of stealing $1,300 from that corporation. He was in the custody of our police a fortnight; the affair was compromised and hushed, and the alleged offender was sent to sea.

Caleb B. Atkins, the prisoner, has hitherto borne an unexceptionable character. His bondsmen are equal to any loss which the Washington Bank may sustain.—Courier.

NEW YORK, Feb 25.—The telegraphic news by the Atlantic made no impression in high quarters here.

The steamship Asia brings presents consisting of plate, medals, &c, for the officers and crews of the Kane Arctic Expedition.

The bark Sam Slick has been chartered by the Government to convey about 100 troops to Tampa Bay, Fla. These soldiers are probably destined to operate against the Indians.

WASHINGTON, Feb 26.—The Committee on Territories will report a bill tomorrow annulling certain laws passed by the Kansas Legislature.

ST. LOUIS, Feb 25.—Advices from Lawrence, Kansas, under date of 15th, say the Kickapoo Rangers again threaten hostilities at Easton, having avowed a determination to avenge the death of Cook by killing the friends of the murdered Brown. The Free State men are preparing for the conflict; two mounted companies had already left Lawrence for Easton.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Try it! Try it! Try it!

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over Cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, invigorates the action of the liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT—it needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 7½ State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby all applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unexpressed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immoral practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of English and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessary expenses of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

"August 17, 1856.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

NEW CLEAR AND MESS PORK—for sale by A. A. PAYNE. jy22

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parrish, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Ecarenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Fermoni, Maj Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, flated longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.
SIR JAMES CLARKE'S
Celebrated Female Pills.
PROTECTED BY ROYAL LETTERS PATENT

PREPARED from a prescription of Sir James Clarke, M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen. This invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases incident to the female constitution.
It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and brings on the monthly period with regularity. These Pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; they fortify the constitution, and lessen the suffering during labor, enabling the mother to perform her duties with safety to herself and child.
These Pills should not be taken by females during the FIRST THREE MONTHS of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.
In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight Exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick-Headache, Whites and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will affect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony or any other mineral.
Full directions accompanying each package.—Price in the United States and Canada, One Dollar.
Sole Agents for the United States and Canada, I. C. BALDWIN & CO, Rochester, N.Y.
TUTTLE & MOSES, Auburn, N.Y., General Agents.
N. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle of the Pills by return mail.
For sale, wholesale and retail, by W. R. PRESTON, Portsmouth, and Druggists generally.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1856.

NOTES FROM A WHALEMAN.

LAHINA, MAUI, SANDWICH ISLANDS,
On board ship Hillman, Capt Cook,
November 21st, 1855.

Dear Uncle;—I am in port once more, and in good health and spirits. I am seated on one "donkey," writing on another; a shipmate is sitting on the bread-barge, talking tenderly to a bad pen, and looking dubiously at a hideous blot on his letter; two runaway sailors from other ships are smoking on the steps — a boat-load of "liberty men." Our watch, (the larboard one,) are lying on deck, in their banks—one in the locker, another under it—some snoring, some "singing"—all drunk, excepting the 'Doctor,' Mosher, and your humble servant. This state of things is my apology for this penmanship.

We made land (Owhyhee) on the day that made me 20 years old, and after getting our provision on board, arrived here on the 17th; and have been going on "liberty," watch and watch, ever since. I am well tired of land, and shall be heartily thankful when we are out of port once more. I could launch out into the praise of sea life at a great rate, but as you was a sailor once, I can tell you nothing about sunrise and sunset at sea, storms and calms, or anything like them.

Did you ever lose a man overboard? We have! The cry of "Fire," has rung through the old ship once since the land of liberty faded from our eyes, and many a time have all hands been called, to clew up and clew down. One night all hands were kept for twelve hours at the braces, as we were carrying sail to claw off a lee-shore, in the last September gale; and once the watch tacked ship within six ship's lengths of Bear Island, in half a gale of wind, and a dense fog at that. But I never heard, at sea or on shore, so startling a cry, as that of "A Man Overboard!" I have often read of its effects, and once I have seen it, for the first and I hope the last time.

The starboard watch sprang on deck in their sleeping-dress,—many of them with neither pants, shoes, or hat; and assisted to haul up the courses and lay-aback the main-topsail; while the boat was being cleared away and lowered down. The captain picked a crew, and as I was one of the number I was lowered away with them. As soon as the boat touched the water, the oars were got out, and we commenced the pull for life. Our third mate steered the boat, and hove on the after oar with all his strength. I had seen quick work on the whaling-grounds, and at races; but I never saw men pull before. The oars bent like reeds, and the boat sprung from sea to sea, or plunged through the crests, at almost lightning-speed. The captain stood on the taffrail, urging us on and directing our course. As we left the ship, one man spoke, "Spring, for the boy's life; he can't swim"—the only words spoken in the boat 'till we reached his hat, when we all stood up to look out for him. In less than ten minutes from the first alarm, the boat was there; all that men could do, was done; but in vain—we never saw him again. Once the cry was given, "There he is!"—it was only his clothes.

We hung round the spot till the ship was two miles off, and then pulled aboard, squared away, and left our lost shipmate forever. All work was suspended for the day, and gloomy indeed looked the Hillman's company; few dry eyes could be seen. He may not have been mourned quite so politely, but I'm sure he was as sincerely, as if he had been a landsman. His name was John O. Potter—a native of Dartmouth, Mass., and the youngest man in the ship. He was engaged in taking in clothes from the end of the spritsail-yard, when a sudden roll, accompanied by a tremendous plunge, threw him into the deep. —Poor fellow! he found a mariner's grave, far from his home and friends. Peace be to his soul!

As to whaling, our success has been fair—we have taken about 1550 barrels of whale oil, and from fifteen to eighteen thousand pounds of whalebone. When whales are in sight, we have good sport, and when one is "fast," excitement runs high enough. I like whaling, much; but confound staying out here in this uncivilized region, entirely removed from all respectable female society, for three or four years at a time. When "fast," hours are but seconds; and as to thinking of danger, there's no time for it.

I've been well frightened a few times, but it didn't last long. Our boat fastened to one whale, as he was going under the boat; the rascal "turned flukes," and turned us too; up we went, and a queer mess we made of it—irons, lances, oars, lines, spades, men and water-kegs, all flying about together; no one was hurt.

Another one kicked a fancy hole in our boat, and one capsized us; but none of our crew have been killed by them.

Our boat header says he's only one fault to find with me—I'm always singing and whistling in the boat. We have but little music excepting the "Mariner's Song;" but I'm bound to have enough when I get back. It's getting late, and my arm aches, writing this long letter, so I believe I'll belay. I wish you the best of luck, and I hope to see you again in two years more. I'm going to enter the merchant service when I get back; for as to living on shore again—bah! I couldn't think of it. Eight bells, my anchor watch.

Good bye; yours, in haste, I. P. M.

GRAND EXPLOSION.

The Philadelphia National Convention of Americans or Know Nothings, closed their session on the 25th.

Mr Brownlow moved that the Convention proceed to the nomination of candidates for the presidency and vice presidency, and demanded the previous question.

Mr Brownlow's motion was passed, and balloting was about to commence, when Mr Perkins of Connecticut, announced the secession of the delegation from that State. The Massachusetts delegation followed, with that of Rhode Island, Ohio, and portions of those from Illinois, Iowa and Pennsylvania.

One ballot was then had, resulting as follows:—Millard Fillmore 71, George Law 27, Garrett Davis 13, Judge McLean 7, Com. Stockton 6, John Bell 4, Erastus Brooks 2, Kenneth Raynor 2, Campbell of Ohio 1, Ex-Governor Johnson 1, John M. Clayton 1.

The Convention then a journed to 3 o'clock. The Northern secessionists are holding a caucus at the Merchant's Hotel.

Evening Session.—A formal vote was taken for President, as follows:—Fillmore 179, Law 24, Raynor 14, McLean 13.

The Convention then proceeded to vote for a candidate for Vice President, with the following result:—Andrew Jackson Donelson 181, Gardner 12, Raynor 8, Walker 8, Stewart 2.

Both nominations were then declared unanimous amidst lond applause.

Mr Donelson returned thanks for the honor done him. The best feeling and much enthusiasm prevailed after the nominations.

After the transaction of some other business the Convention adjourned sine die.

Eight of the Massachusetts delegates staid in, after the secession, and voted for President, on the informal ballot, as follows:—Richmond and Trask, for Johnston; Allen and Sawin, for McLean; Ely for Stockton; Brewster, Arnold and Robinson, for John Bell. No other New England delegates remained in the convention, except Knight of Rhode Island who voted for Fillmore.

Gov Johnston peremptorily declined being a candidate for President.

NORTHERN K. N. CONVENTION.—The seceding Northern delegates to the K. N. Convention in Philadelphia, convened by themselves at 5 P. M. on the 25th,—present delegates from 14 States. They held an evening session also, from 8 to half-past 11, at which 67 delegates were present.

They protested against the nomination of Mr Fillmore—because, among other things, he was not a member of the order, and because he was forced on them by a State vote cast in some cases by a single man, who had before seceded.

They appointed the 15th day of June as the time, and New York City as the place of a new Convention; appointed an Executive Committee of which Ex-Gov. Colby of N. H. is a member, and

Resolved, That the Executive Committee are authorized at their discretion to alter the date for the assembling of the National Convention, and that the convention designate the time and manner of electing the delegates.

At half past 11 the Convention adjourned in high glee.

We learn from a well-informed quarter in Washington, that there being no doubt that the demand for the recall of Mr. Crampton was formally made by our government, and refused by Lord Clarendon, and the prospects of peace in Europe leaving England at liberty to turn her arms against us,—the administration finds itself in an unexpected predicament, never having seriously intended war; but the President is nevertheless believed to have resolved to go to the very verge of it.—Should this policy be persevered in, in the present temper of the British ministry, it is difficult to say where the matter will end.—Boston Advertiser.

We think it will end in smoke—unless the two nations are two vast assemblages of fools. The interest of the English merchant, manufacturer, and tax payer—of our northern ship builder, ship carpenter, and ship owner—of all commercial men in the Union—and above all, the cotton interest at the south,—call for peace—not for war.

SHARP SHOOTING.—The Boston Atlas says the Republican party is a "new entity." It will soon be a non entity.—Dover Gazette.

The foxes and Hindoos have holes, the birds of the air and black republicans have nests, however nasty, but Burke has not where to lay his poor sore head.

When Burke published that valedictory, he must have forgotten that he had left the Patriot in the hands of Butterfield.—Haverhill Republican.

Satan's kingdom's tumbling down.—Patriot.

Wm. H. Fisk, convicted of manslaughter in causing the death of Wiggin at the Insane Asylum at Concord, N. H., has been sentenced to pay a fine of $50. The Patriot says the jury earnestly recommended him to the mercy of the court.

MORMON IMMIGRANTS.—Five hundred and twenty-eight Mormons arrived in New York on Sunday last, from England—all of whom, with "kits, cats, sacks and wives," are on their way to the "promised land"—beyond the Great Salt Lake.

LOCAL.

THE HIGH SCHOOLS.

The examinations of these schools in this city took place last week and were certainly of a character deserving a brief public notice. The Boys' High School was examined on Thursday. This school has been taught by Mr. Payson assisted by Miss Morgan. The whole unoccupied space of the school room was crowded on the day of examination by parents and friends, evincing how deep and general is the interest in the education of the young among us. There was but one feeling and one expression at the close of the exercises, which was that the school that could thus exhibit itself was of a very high order. All the recitations were prompt and gave evidence of most thorough drilling. Perhaps the recitations in Latin and Greek were as deserving of praise as any part of the exercises. One thoroughly qualified to judge, said that he had never witnessed an examination in which the pronunciation of these languages was so exact. At the close of the regular recitations we were entertained for an hour by some very spirited declamations, and by the reading of several original compositions.

We deem it worthy of remark that during the seven hours in which this school was under examination, we did not hear a word nor see a look of reproof from either of the teachers—nor did we see any thing which called for reproof. We regard this as the very highest testimony that could be furnished to the excellence of the discipline.

On Friday the Girls' High School was examined. The attendance here was larger, because there was more room to be filled. In both cases, however, it was limited by the capacity of the room. This school has for the latter portion of the year been taught by Mr. Nichols, assisted by Miss Gray and Miss Vennard. It would perhaps be sufficient to say, to those who have been acquainted with the school for the last few years, that it fully sustained its well earned reputation. Yet more than this we think could with truth be said. There was abundant evidence of progress. In no previous year have the exercises of the annual examination been so entirely satisfactory. The recitations in Mathematics—Arithmetic, Algebra and Geometry—were such as we have never seen surpassed in any school. At the close of the regular recitations an hour was passed in listening to the reading of the compositions of several of the young ladies. These were in every respect, of a very high order. We were especially pleased with the closing one, which was anonymous, and which was entitled— "A Farewell to the old School Room."

At the close of these exercises the school was addressed by Dr. Peabody, the Rev. Mr. Whiting, Mayor Walker, and by the chairman of the Committee; and Rev. Mr. Fenton offered prayer. W.

☞ The Temperance Meeting, (5th of the series,) held on Monday evening in the Temple, was as fully a tended, and as interesting as any of them, Rev. Mr Fernald offered the opening prayer: and Rev. Messrs. Whiting and Lamson addressed the meeting; the former with arguments, drawn from the old province and state laws; and the latter with an earnest appeal for temperance effort aided by law.

A similar meeting was notified for next Monday evening.

☞ Rev. Dr. Burroughs' Lecture on the Prophecies, comes in course this evening, at St. Johns' Chapel, State street.

☞ On Thursday evening next, at the Temple, there will be addresses by Hon. Joseph E. Dawley of Fall River, a member of the Senate of Massachusetts, and by Henry P. Shed, Esq. of Roxbury, Mass.

☞ Harper's New Monthly for March, 1856, contains a very lively description of Commodore Perry's Visit to Loo Choo, with a portrait of the Commodore and many illustrations—a story about Whaling, with engravings;—a leaf of miniature cuts, representing Windy Adventures, of which Punch need not be ashamed;—and varieties beside, too numerous to mention here.

Agent in Boston, Fetridge & Co.—in this city, J. F. Shores, jr.

☞ Frank Leslie's New York Journal, for March, 1856, contains another instalment of Masks and Faces, a capital novel,—portraits of the poet Longfellow and wife,—a picture of Cuba,—and a host of other valuable novelties.

Great credit (says the Dover Gazette) is due to our postmaster Mr Vittum, for the energy which he exhibited in obtaining the mails during the late storm. Learning by telegraph that the Boston mail for Monday had reached Exeter with no prospect of proceeding farther, he immediately hired a horse and sleigh, went to that place, obtained the mails, and presented their matter to our citizens some time in advance of the train of cars.

BIDDEFORD.—The anti-administration party in Biddeford have nominated Daniel E. Somes, Esq., the present Mayor, for re-election. The Biddeford Association have nominated Jabez Smith, Esq, a straight whig, as an opposing candidate. The election takes place on the 10th of March.

THE CINCINNATI SLAVE CASE.—The grand jury has found a bill for murder against the slave mother in Cincinnati, as principal, and the rest of the adult slaves as accessories.

DEATH OF A CATHOLIC PRIEST.—The Rev. J. O. Reiley, the Catholic Priest of Concord, died at his residence on Pleasant street, on Friday evening, the 15th inst. He had been sick sometime. His age was 28 yrs. —Phœnix.

The Brooklyn city authorities have appropriated $50,000 for the construction of a powerful iron ferry boat, such as shall be able to force a passage across the East river, irrespective of obstructions from the ice.

Artificial Teeth,
ON
GUTTA PERCHA PLATES.

I have purchased of the inventor instructions in the manufacture and application of "COLORED GUTTA PERCHA" to the insertion of Artificial Teeth, and am now prepared to supply all who may desire, with this improvement. I have put up a few specimens of this kind of work, which may be examined by all interested, at the Drug Stores of Messrs J. H. Thacher and William R. Preston, and at my Establishment, No. 60 Congress street. The absolute purity of the material employed, and the low price at which artificial teeth can be furnished upon this method, will doubtless bring it at once into very general use.

Thanatopsis, (by request.).....Wm. C. Bryant.
Catiline's Defiance.....Rev. Geo. Croly.

The scene in Croly's tragedy of "Catiline" from which the above is taken, represents the Roman Senate in session, Lictors present, a Consul in the chair, and Cicero on the floor as the prosecutor of Catiline and his fellow conspirators. Catiline enters, and takes his seat on the Senatorial bench, whereupon the Senators go over to the other side. Cicero repeats his charges in Catiline's presence; and the latter rises and replies, "Conscript Fathers, I do not rise," &c. Cicero, in his rejoinder, produces proofs, and exclaims:—

"Tried and convicted traitor! Go from Rome!"

Catiline haughtily tells the Senate to make the murder as they make the law. Cicero directs an officer to give up the record of Catiline's banishment. Catiline then utters those words:—"Banished from Rome," &c.; but when he tells the Consul,

"He dares not touch a hair of Catiline,"

the Consul reads the decree of his banishment, and orders the Lictors to drive the "traitor" from the temple. Catiline, furious at being thus baffled, catches at the word "traitor," and terminates the scene with his audacious denunciation,—"Here I devote your Senate," &c. At the close, he rushes through the portal, as the Lictors and Senators crowd upon him.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Feb. 25.

SENATE.—The Chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of the Navy, in answer to a resolution, transmitting a copy of the report of the Naval Board, and stating that it was not accompanied by any journal, record or other papers, and that the causes of action in the several cases of retirement were not made known to the Department.

Mr Mallory, from the Naval Committee, reported a bill to amend the act to promote the inefficiency of the Navy.

Mr Mason introduced a resolution calling upon the President for all correspondence which had taken place between this government and Great Britain, relative to the enlistment of soldiers for the Foreign Legion. Considerable discussion ensued. Mr Mason's resolution was adopted. The consideration of the President's special Kansas message was resumed.

Mr Jones of Tennessee, made a peppery speech, and said,

All the trouble in Kansas had grown out of the morbid and unpatriotic opposition to what gentlemen are pleased to call the extension of slavery. Mr Jones said, alluding to Senators whom he opposed, "the devil takes care of his own, and this accounts for their prosperity." [Laughter.]

Mr Hale, "If it had not been for the Kansas bill, I should not now be here. I owe my election to the President, who must be the only devil who brought me to Congress," [renewed laughter.]

Mr Jones, "If that is true the Senator is the most ungrateful wretch that ever lived, as he continually attacks the President," [laughter and applause in the galleries.]—Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Military Committee was instructed to enquire into the expediency of establishing a military academy in the valley of the Mississippi.

Mr Orr made an ineffectual effort to introduce a resolution instructing the committee on Naval affairs to enquire into the expediency of constructing fifteen additional frigates. No quorum being present, the House adjourned.

FROM WASHINGTON.—The Naval Committee in the Senate have conferred fully with the President and Secretary of the Navy Yard, and will unanimously report a bill tomorrow, embodying the following provisions, intended to correct errors attributed to the late Board, and preserve at the same time its benefits:

The bill provides that the President shall be authorized to organize as many boards of enquiry as may be necessary to examine the professional, moral, mental and physical qualifications of any dropped officer making application for restoration, and upon a report of the facts, with the opinion of the board of enquiry, may at his discretion restore such officer to the rank formerly occupied before the action of the late board. As many of the dropped officers cannot be restored within six months, according to the foregoing provisions, they shall be allowed one year full pay. The present grades of the active list authorized to be so increased as to replace officers upon the favorable action of boards of inquiry, but vacancies subsequently occurring by death, resignation or other causes, not to be filled, so as to keep the aggregate of service within its present limits.

The President may restore from the furlough to the leave pay list, it being also understood that he may restore from both these to the active list to enable him to repair injustice springing in his opinion from error. Promotions are to proceed on the reserved list without increase of pay. The grade of Admiral is to be revived, and the President authorized to confer it on any officer of eminent merit, but without increased pay—this is intended for Stuart.

A scientific corps of the navy is created, to be presided over by one Captain, with five Commanders and ten Lieutenants, five masters: promotions to take place as on the active list, though independent of it. This provision is intendedd for Maury as Captain.

FROM CALIFORNIA.—New Orleans Feb. 24. The steamer Daniel Webster arrived here today from San Juan, with 80 passengers. The Star of the West sailed from San Juan for New York the 18th with 500 passengers and $500,000 in treasure.

All the Central American States, except Nicaragua, have formed an alliance, and Col. Kinney has gone to Grenada to effect an alliance with Walker.

From California the mining accounts are excellent, and the agricultural prospects good. There has been considerable rain.

The San Francisco markets had a downward tendency.

The California Legislature had not elected a Senator, and there was little probability of a choice. Mr. Foote is the American candidate.

Sanders and Hammond, both formerly Collectors at San Francisco, have been indicted for embezzling funds.

There had been no fighting in Oregon since the last accounts.

THREATENING ASPECT OF AFFAIRS IN KANSAS.—Chicago, Feb. 26.—The Saturday's Missouri Democrat has three letters from Kansas, dated 14th, 15th, and 18th, indicating the probable renewal of hostilities on the 4th of March, which is the time fixed for the inauguration of the new State officers.

Judge Elmore has advised the officers elect not to take the oath of office, as to do so will be treason.

Robinson declares that he will take the oath if he is hanged the same hour.

The merchants of Kansas publish an appeal to the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce, to use their influence to prevent further incursions into the Territory, as they will be obliged to open avenues of trade with the East through other States, if their trade through Missouri continues to be interrupted.

LATER FROM MEXICO.—We have Vera Cruz dates to the 22d.

The troops in the Castle of San Juan de Ulloa pronounced for Pamarz on the night of the 12th inst. There was some firing on both sides, but the loss was slight until the 20th, when the castle was surrendered to the city.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Try it! Try it! Try it!

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste.' It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels; Dysentery, Diarrhœa and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence. Again we repeat, TRY IT!—it needs only other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand. Are you suffering with scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles. In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

No. 76 State st. oppo. Kilby st. Boston,

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, he makes arrangements whereby on applications prepaid and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL; AT THE PATENT OFFICE, thus the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.

The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in securing inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. University. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Lourenco de Lima, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIMS—PANACEA—PHILADA."

and having the name Jas. Swaim stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines mape in imstation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

FREMONT AND BANKS.

The Boston Chronicle, (Independent) in an editorial of Monday morning, nominates Fremont and Burke, for President and Vice President of the United States. It says:

Three fifths of the people are at this time as much opposed to the Pierce administration as a large majority were friendly to it at the commencement of its existence. Yet against this numerical superiority the democrats may yet be successful, owing to their superior tact, and their knowledge of a deference to the principle of union in action. The democrats have now many of their victories over divided parties, and it may be that the year 1856 is destined to see them again triumphant.

* * * * *

But if it should please the fates so to order matters as that Americans, Republicans, and other opositionists shall be brought together, then will the Democrats be taught that they cannot violate the solemnly-plighted faith of the nation with impunity. It is a lesson that they need to be taught, and the receiving of which will be most beneficial to themselves, and useful to the country.

* * * * *

The opposition is composed of two new parties, and of portions of the two old parties —Whigs and Democrats. On the supposition that these parties, and fragments of parties, can be brought together for the purpose of effecting a change of administration, the question, "Who shall be their candidates?" is one of the highest importance. If we except this other question, "Who are to be the Democratic candidates?" we know of no question that can be compared with it. To us, it seems that the men who ought to be nominated by the combined opposition are Col. FREMONT and Mr Speaker BANKS, the former for President, and the latter for Vice President, the talent of the former gentleman is well known to the people, as well as his modesty and firmness. On the score of knowledge and ability, no better selection of a candidate could be made. That he is a Southerner, we consider as making decidedly in his favor. His nomination by a party, or rather political combination, which has its chief strength in the North, but which has many well wishers in the South, would go far to convince the Southern people that no hostility to them is felt among Northern people. Our best Presidents have always been from the South, and the fair inference is, that we should do well to select a candidate from that quarter in 1856, under whose lead to effect the prostration of a Government which has injured the one section of the Union as deeply as it has insulted the other.

The following account of two "old fashioned snow storms," which occurred in 1717, is taken from Alonzo Lewis' History of Lynn, Mass.

Two great storms, on the twentieth and twenty-fourth of February, covered the ground so deep with snow, that people for some days could not pass from one house to another.—Old Indians of an hundred years said their fathers had never told them of such a snow. It was from ten to twenty feet deep, and generally covered the lower story of the houses. Cottages of one story were entirely buried, so that the people dug paths from one house to another under the snow. Soon after a slight rain fell, and the frost crusted the snow, and then the people went out of their chamber windows, and walked over it. Many of the farmers lost their sheep; and most of the sheep and swine that were saved, lived from one to two weeks without food. One man had some hens buried near his farm, which were dug out alive eleven days after. During the snow, a great number of deer came from the woods for food, and were followed by the wolves, who killed many of them. Others were killed by the people with guns. Some of the deer fled to Nahant, and being chased by the wolves, leaped into the sea and were drowned. Great damage was done to the orchards, by the snow freezing to the branches and splitting trees as it fell. This snow formed a remarkable era in New England; and old people in relating an event, would say it happened so many years before or after the great snow storm."

A MODEL PRIME MINISTER.—It is related of the Duke of Newcastle, who was Secretary of State for the Southern provinces (including the American Colonies) during the French and Indian war, that he was profoundly ignorant of geography. Indeed he was a regular ignoramus. When one of his Secretaries hinted the necessity of some defense of Annapolis, he replied with his evasive, lisping hum—"Annapolis, Annapolis! Oh yes, Annapolis must be defended; where is Annapolis?" On another occasion at the beginning of the war he was thrown into a great fright by the story that 30,000 French had marched from Arcadia to Cape Breton. "Where did they find transports?" "Transports!" cried he, "I tell you they marched by land." "By land to the island of Cape Breton!" "What is Cape Breton an island? Are you sure of that?" And away he posted, with an "Egad, I'll go directly and tell the King that Cape Breton is an island."

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1856.

RAILROAD MORTGAGES.—Much interest is naturally felt by our business circles in all legal decisions which affect the security afforded by these mortgages for advances. When a first mortgage is made, the object usually is to procure means to complete the enterprise, and the whole road, not only as it exists, but as it shall be completed, is conveyed for the assurance of the debt, and frequently all the rolling stock then existing, or thereafter to be acquired. In connection with railroads whose financial health has become delicate, the struggle between judgement creditors and the first mortgage creditors, as to who has the better right to the rolling stock, has provoked much controversy. The general policy of settling such disputes by compromises has prevented many judicial decisions on this question.

The following extract from the New York Evening Post of last June, contains the report of a case of this nature, tried in the Chancery Court of Ohio, and the decision of the Court sustaining the right of first mortgages in the premises:—

Legal Record. Rights of bondholders under railroad mortgages to property acquired subsequent to the execution of the mortgages.

In the case of the Springfield, Mount Vernon, and Pittsburg Railroad Company, alluded to in this paper yesterday, some important points were in issue for the first time, we believe, in the state of Ohio. The bonds had been issued under the usual railroad mortgage, containing a covenant that the company should give to the trustees a conveyance, of any property acquired subsequently to the execution of their first mortgage. This conveyance, however, had never been actually given; the road became embarrassed, and the rolling stocks and fixtures of the road, amounting to some $120,000, were levied on to satisfy executions issued by sundry of the judgement creditors. A chattel mortgage had likewise been made on this same rolling stock by the board of directors to themselves, to secure advances made by them. A motion was thereupon made on behalf of the bondholders for an injunction restraining the sheriff from making the sale under executions, and to compel a specific performance on the part of the company of the covenant for the conveyance of the subsequently acquired property.

The points made by the plaintiffs were: That the covenant contained in the mortgage was notice to all subsequent incumbrances of the equitable interest of the bondholders, and that the company could do no act legally or execute any valid instrument which would interfere with such equitable interest: That if a sale under the execution should take place the property would become so scattered that the bondholders would have no remedy:—That the court should decree a specific performance of the covenant for further conveyance, as against any subsequent incumbrance, with notice of the equitable title of the bondholders, and that the record of the mortgage was notice to everybody: That the property, even though acquired subsequently to the execution of the first mortgage, was actually purchased with the money paid on the bonds, and that thereby the company became the holders of the property in trust for the bondholders, and had no possible right of interest in it except as such trustees, and therefore executions against the company issued by subsequent judgement creditors could not hold the rolling stock or fixtures.

The court held that sufficient grounds had been shown for the injunction, which was granted and the sale stayed.

MAINE LEGISLATURE.—In the House, on the 22d, Mr Levansaler introduced an order authorizing the Committee on the State Prison to visit the institution during the session.

Mr Morrow remarked that the order was indefinite—it provided only for the committee visiting the prison, but not for their reporting.

Mr Foster of East Machias, suggested that perhaps the mover intended they should stay there.

The order was amended by the mover, so as to require the Committee to report, and passed as amended.

By the way, there was some talk in the liberal papers down east, of having the 'odious Maine law' repealed in 48 hours after the session commenced. Something like 48 days have passed,—but the law still lives. We presume it will yet be repealed before the session closes—but if the evils complained of by the men who now hold the power there, had been real, and half as great as they pretended when they were trying to get that power—they ought to have redressed them long ago.

NEWSPAPER NOMINATIONS.—We have already mentioned that the Boston Chronicle nominates Col. Fremont for President, and N. P. Banks for Vice President.

The Newburyport Herald says, "the American and Republican conventions had better take the Chronicle's ticket. They will not be likely to improve it if they try till the day of election."

It is well remembered that some newspapers in various parts of the country, nominated Gen. Taylor, and this nomination spread over the nation before a convention took him up. He was elected by a vote altogether beyond the strength of the party which adopted him as an available candidate.

COL. KINNEY.—Some passengers report that Col. Kinney was arrested at Grenada, by order of Walker, and condemned to be shot, but was saved by the interference of Walker's officers. The rumor, however, is not very reliable.

RECANTED.—The monk Leahey, who it will be recollected, figured in this and other cities, in certain lewd disclosures, and who was afterwards imprisoned for life in Wisconsin for murdering the paramour of his wife, has repented and recanted, and confessed his imposture. His conversion and reconversion are of little moment except to himself. But though he 'goes back to Rome' in one sense, he is not to get out of prison, but will remain for his life in his solitary cell—an extrappist re-trapped.—Albany Atlas.

Leahey was, and is, one grand humbug,—ill-tempered, peevish, false, domineering and impudent,—an unmitigated scoundrel. The prison is the place for him—and his professions, of this faith or that, however important to himself they may appear, are of no consequence to the church or the world.

THE PROSPECTS OF THE NEXT HARVEST.—The Alton (Ill.) Courier of the 7th inst., expresses its opinion that we may expect another very fine crop of wheat, and the opinion is based upon the following reasons: The early part of the winter was very mild, so much so that the late sown wheat, of which there is much, continued to grow till a much later date than usual. Then the snow will have protected it from injury by the frost. Lastly, such uninterrupted cold weather for so long a period, and until so late a date, augurs an uninterrupted spring-time when it comes.

It is further said that the number of acres put under wheat in that part of the country last fall, was greater than was ever known before.

The Chicago Journal remarks thus:—

"We must have large crops next fall.—The snow which has fallen during the past sixty days, is equal to five inches of manure. People capable of estimating matters, imagine that the wheat crop of 1856 will be the largest ever harvested in this country. To estimate the value of snow at ten millions of dollars, would be a low figure.

These paragraphs read well, and we hope they may prove true—but it seems to us that a thousand occurences stand between the prospect and the harvest.

Fifty thousand negroes in this State, and not one of them will go to Kansas to fight for the cause of freedom! Who would think it? Come, come, Mr. Frederick Douglas, why don't you raise a company of black guards and start? Rev. Ward Beecher will furnish you with rifles. Where is Dr. Pennington?—N. Y. Day Book.

Could a more stupid paragraph be written in all donkeydom? Neither of the two contending parties there, favor colored immigrants into their territory—and there is no inducement whatever, to favor their going.

The writer might as well ask why the planters of Georgia don't emigrate to Canada.—The question would be about as sensible as the other.

CATHOLIC PRIESTS DECREASING. — The Catholic Herald of Philadelphia, lamenting the decrease of their priests, says,

They cannot hope at present to supply their ranks from this country, as one of the last pursuits Catholic parents, rich or poor, are likely to desire for their children, is the ministry of Roman Catholicism. It also states that, while the main portion of the supply has been of Irish origin, it is now on the decline, as "every year brings less priests from that country, and less young men desirous of becoming priests, than the preceding year did.

THE HAYTIENS.—The Evening Post gives the following extract from a letter dated Cape Haytien, Jan. 28th:

The Haytiens have again been beaten and driven back by the Dominicans, and the Emperor has returned here to-day with all his troops, some five or six thousand men. They have been coming into town since noon, and such a miserable looking set of objects I never beheld. Some hundreds or more of wounded were sent down in barges, and a vast number of dead are left behind in the bushes. This has been the most disastrous campaign the Haytiens ever made.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The distillery of Messrs Joseph Powers & Sons, in East Brooklyn, was burnt last night. Loss $30,000.

The steamer Osprey left yesterday for New Granada, carrying with her some fifty men and their families, for permanent settlement in the province of Carthagena. They go out under the auspices of the Company, who have bought up the canal located in the northerly portion of the province.

The Sound is now nearly clear of ice, and it is probable that the Eastern boats will resume their places to-day or to-morrow.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—The Commercial Advertiser of this city comes out in favor of Millard Fillmore, the American Presidential nominee.

The Old Line Whigs met at Constitution Hall to-night, and resolved, as the friends of Millard Fillmore, to fire one hundred guns in honor of his nomination at Philadelphia,

PORTLAND, Feb. 26.—City Appropriations.—The citizens of Portland confirmed to-day the recent appropriation, by the City Government, of $60,000 for the new mammouth steamer, by a vote of 1415 to 117.

The Goodyear India-rubber Factory at Naugatuc, was burnt on Saturday. The fire was first seen bursting out of the building about ten o'clock. The whole large establishment was consumed.

PROVINCETOWN, Feb. 27.—The schooner Kossuth, from New York for Portsmouth or Newburyport, run into and capsized an unknown schooner twenty miles ESE from Cape Ann. Probably the captain and crew all lost. No boat could get to her assistance. The sch was about 150 tons.

Bayard Taylor is obliged to give up all lecturing on account of ill health.

POLICE COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 27.

Before Justice Odell.—Moses Spinney was charged with impeding the course of justice in a liquor case, by abducting or secreting John H. Stringer, a minor, who was a witness in the case. The Court bound Spinney over in $200,—to appear at the S. J. Court in September.

The testimony in the case, was distinct and positive. The boy Stringer, (a lad of 13, who would have been a witness before the Court at Exeter against a retailer charged with selling liquor to him,) testified that Moses Spinney told him if he would go to Boston, he would pay his fare and board, and told him further that they could not do any thing to his father who signed his recognizance, but that if he, (the boy,) staid here, they would put him in jail! He went to Boston accordingly and staid till the Court set.

The defence attempted to break down the boy's testimony, by introducing two witnesses, who swore that his character, for veracity was bad—and that it had been so for seven years!

Either the justice did not believe them, or else he thought they proved too much,—and therefore held Spinney to answer, as above.

☞ To-day being the last Thursday in February, is the Annual Day of Prayer, for Colleges,—and will be observed by the North Church in this city, who will assemble in their Lecture Room in Fleet street, at 3 o'clock, P. M. And a public meeting of several societies and pastors, will be held at 7 1-2 P. M. in the North Meeting House.

☞ There will be addresses by Hon. Joseph E. Dawley of Fall River, a member of the Senate of Massachusetts, and by Henry P. Shed, Esq. of Roxbury, Mass., at the Temple, this evening.

WHIG VIGILANCE COMMITTEE. — At a meeting of the Whigs of Ward Two on Saturday evening last, Charles W. Brewster, Samuel Adams, Samuel Kingsbury, Samuel Gookin, John T. Dame, William Tucker, Samuel S. Green, Benjamin Carter, Jr., Charles J. Colcord and John Sise, were appointed a Vigilance Committee, with power to fill vacancies.

THE OLD FOLKS AT HAMPTON.—For the information of numerous interested inquirers, at home and abroad, we will state that the Old Folks Concert proposed to be given at Hampton, will take place as soon as circumstances are favorable. It is desirable to have the aid of the moon, on the occasion; and absolutely essential that the roads be passable—as singers and hearers are desirous of coming from all quarters, some from a considerable distance. It was originally designed to give it the 31st of January—and notwithstanding the announcement of postponing (on account of sickness,) several singers and others came in from other towns, to attend, on that evening. The 21st of February was then selected; but the blockade of snow mocked all attempts to get anywhere, till the moon had waned again—much to the disappointment of many, especially those who met for rehearsal at the old church in Hampton, on that afternoon, and those others who went thither to attend the concert in the evening. So completely was the usual means of communication cut off, that notices of the second postponement could hardly be properly circulated—if indeed any such notice was needed.

We will only state now, that it is the design of the committee, to give that concert, this season, if practicable. Should the sleighing continue till the moon is large again, and other circumstances favor, the Old Folks will congregate in the old church at old Hampton, sometime between election and the 21st of March—say about the 13th.

MYSTERIOUS AFFAIR.—On the 7th day of August last, Mr. Ira G. Stearns, formerly keeper of a bowling saloon on Hanover street in this city, having given up business in Portsmouth, and taken a contract to build a wharf in South Boston, started from this place for the purpose of fulfilling the contract, stopping on the way at East Boston, with the family of his wife, residing there. The night of the 8th he passed at the house of his father-in-law, Mr. Pillsbury, and in the morning walked out with the view of returning to dinner.—Nothing more was heard of Mr. Stearns, and all enquiries as to his whereabouts proved unavailing, until the first day of the present month, when his wife, who still resides in this city, chanced to find in an old copy of the Boston Evening Traveller, under date of August 9th, 1855, the following item:

"FATAL ACCIDENT.—This morning, the keeper of ship Chasca, lying at East Boston wharf, found a man of about 35 years, dead in the hold, his neck being broken. From appearances, as his tracks can be distinctly seen, the deceased came on board in the night time and attempted to let himself down through the upper hatchway to the second deck, but fell to the bottom of the hold, striking on the keelson and breaking his neck, causing instant death. He probably never stirred after the accident. The deceased was probably a mechanic, with black hair and whiskers, of medium size, had on a leghorn hat, dark striped tweed coat, silk vest, light woolen pants striped with red. In his pocket was a baggage check on the Eastern Railroad, and at the Depot of that road was found his trunk full of clothing but no papers to identify. He had in his trunk two rather fresh cucumbers, which indicates that he might be from the country. The body, by order of Coroner E. Rice, who was called, was taken to the dead house for identification."

On reading this paragraph the painful truth was forcibly presented to the mind of Mrs. S., that the body thus found was that of her husband; for she at once recalled the fact that previous to leaving home he plucked a couple of very fine cucumbers from his vines and placed them in his trunk to convey to his wife's mother at East Boston.

The trunk was speedily obtained, and its contents fully identified as belonging to the unfortunate man. There are some suspicious circumstances connected with the death of this man. On leaving Portsmouth he is known to have had upon his person about $75, none of which was found upon the body. The night that he passed at the house of Mr. Pillsbury he declined eating anything, saying that he had taken supper at a certain saloon in East Boston, known to be of a suspicious character, and chiefly frequented by a vicious class of customers. Whether his visiting this saloon has anything to do with his very mysterious death, and the disappearance of his money, is wholly a matter of conjecture, yet his friends can scarcely avoid connecting the circumstances. It is a somewhat singular fact, that Coroner Rice is a near neighbor of the Pillsburys, and conversed with the family concerning the circumstance of the finding of the body at the time, without even exciting a thought in their minds that the affair was of such painful importance to them. Mr. Stearns was about 39 years of age, and is doubtless remembered by many of our citizens.—Gazette.

Mr. Stearns was a contractor on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, for the building of bridges, &c., and was well known in this vicinity.

Artificial Teeth,
ON
GUTTA PERCHA PLATES.

I have purchased of the inventor instructions in the manufacture and application of "COLORED GUTTA PERCHA" to the insertion of Artificial Teeth, and am now prepared to supply all who may desire, with this improvement. I have put up a few specimens of this kind of work, which may be examined by all interested, at the Drug Stores of Messrs. J. H. Thacher and William R. Preston, and at my Establishment, No. 60 Congress street. The absolute purity of the material employed, and the low price at which artificial teeth can be furnished upon this method, will doubtless bring it at once into very general use.

Thanatopsis, (by request.).....Wm. C. Bryant.
Catiline's Defiance.....Rev. Geo. Croly.

The scene in Croly's tragedy of "Catiline" from which the above is taken, represents the Roman Senate in session, Lictors present, a Consul in the chair, and Cicero on the floor as the prosecutor of Catiline and his fellow conspirators. Catiline enters, and takes his seat on the Senatorial bench, whereupon the Senators go over to the other side. Cicero repeats his charges in Catiline's presence; and the latter rises and replies, "Conscript Fathers, I do not rise," &c. Cicero, in his rejoinder, produces proofs, and exclaims:—

"Tried and convicted traitor! Go from Rome!"

Catiline haughtily tells the Senate to make the murder as they make the law. Cicero directs an officer to give up the record of Catiline's banishment. Catiline then utters those words:—"Banished from Rome," &c.; but when he tells the Consul, the Consul reads the decree of his banishment, and orders the Lictors to drive the 'traitor' from the temple. Catiline, furious at being thus baffled, catches at the word "traitor," and terminates the scene with his audacious denunciation.—"Here I devote your Senate," &c. At the close, he rushes through the portal, as the Lictors and Senators crowd upon him.

"He dares not touch a hair of Catiline,"

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Feb. 26.

SENATE.—Mr Hunter reported a bill making appropriations for the payment of invalid and other pensions for the year ending June, 1857.

Mr Mallory, from the Naval Committee reported a bill authorizing the construction of ten sloops-of-war, and would ask its consideration on Monday.

Mr Bell, of Tennessee, spoke on Central American affairs, but did not think it expedient at present for this government to take any step which might bring on a conflict, not with England alone, but her allies, including the whole of Western Europe.

Although not sufficiently informed to speak with much definiteness on the British enlistment question, his opinion was, that to suppose any serious controversy was likely to grow out of that subject was to suppose that common sense and reason had taken their departure from those who had the management of affairs. However, he would be found on the side of his country, right or wrong!!!

The following bill was passed:

"The laws relative to pilots on steamboats, and especially the act of 1852, shall not be so construed as to affect, annul, or impair the force or validity of State laws, regulating pilotage in its ports, harbors, or over bars at the mouths of rivers, where such waters are within the territorial jurisdiction of such State."

A bill was also passed, authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to permit the owner of any vessel to change the name of the same, on presentation of sufficient reasons therefor. Adjourned.

HOUSE. — The following gentlemen were appointed the Special Committee on the subject of the Railroad between the Atlantic and the Pacific: Messrs. Denver, of Cal., Houston, of Ala., Woodworth, of Ill., Mott, of Ohio, Wells, of Wis., Kidwell, of Va., Jewett, of Ky., McCarty, of New York, Evans of Texas, Reade, of N. C., Wood of Maine, Lindley, of Mo., Kunkle, of Penn.

The Military Academy, Deficiency, Pension and General Appropriation bills were reported.

Mr Campbell, of Ohio, from the Committee of Ways and Means, reported bills to supply deficiencies in the appropriations for the support of the Military Academy, and for the payment of invalid and other pensions.

The Speaker laid before the House a message from the President, transmitting and recommending to the favorable consideration of Congress, a communication from the Secretary of War, in which he recommends,—

"That we should increase the capacity for producing, and the force in employment at our armories and arsenals; that we should prepare more rapidly armaments and munitions for our fortifications; that we should increase our supplies of improved small arms, by manufacturing new ones, and altering those of an inefficient style of fabrication, including both the United States and State arms; and that we should provide ample supplies of amunition, accoutrements, and implements for immediate and most efficient use.

In order to effect this, it is necessary that more than ordinary means be place at the disposal of the Executive; and I respectfully suggest and recommend that application be made for the early appropriation of three millions of dollars for increasing the efficiency of the country, to be applied at the discretion of the President, towards the objects set forth."

A debate ensued as to whether the communication should go to the Committee of Ways and Means or to the Military Committee.—Without concluding the debate, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—A despatch of the 25th says:

The Government despatches show that many of the speculations and assertions of the British press and statesmen are untrue. Nor is there any ground for the rumor of an angry altercation having taken place between Lord Clarendon and Mr. Buchanan.

It may be confidently asserted that no formal proposition has been made by Great Britain to arbitrate the pending difficulties.—Under present circumstances, he believed our Government would not accept that mode of adjustment.

The response of the Executive to the Senate resolution calling for the documents relative to the British enlistments will probably be sent in to-morrow, and will show that gross inaccuracies have been made by the press and public men, relative to the true state of that question.

Mr. Buchanan probably left England on the 20th for a tour on the continent.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The Tribune says: We understand that a letter was received today in this city, by F. B. Cutting, Esq., from Attorney General Cushing, which states that the Central American question is in a fair train for settlement.

The Clayton-Bulwer treaty has been abrogated, and a new treaty is to be formed. We have also confirmatory intelligence by the Atlantic. It is stated that Mr. Buchanan, in an interview with Captain West just before he left Liverpool, informed him that he looked upon the Central American affair as arranged and that the Crampton matter was now the only obstacle to a perfect understanding with the British Cabinet.

The Washington correspondent of the Journal of Commerce telegraphed last evening as follows: Letters from Mr Buchanan to the 9th inst., received and read this morning, show no unfavorable change in the aspect of our relations with Great Britain. Mr. Buchanan's diplomatic and social intercourse with members of the government has not been interrupted.

The Northern Light sailed on Monday afternoon, having on board about 200 fillibusters for Nicaragua, On arriving at Sandy Hook the tickets were examined, and forty of them were found to be spurious, whereupon the holders of them were put ashore. The parties assert that the tickets were given to them by Major Hall, who holds a commission under Gen. Walker.

The Petersburg (Va.) Express says that some sportsmen in their excursions in that neighborhood, have found many bears starved and frozen to death.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in the world.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d28

Try it! Try it! Try it!

G. W. STONE'S

LIQUID CATHARTIC,

—AND—

Family Physic,

The most important discovery ever made in Medical Science, being a compound of Barks and Roots, which forms the most powerful, safe and agreeable Physic ever offered to the public.

THE necessity of such a Medicine has long been felt both by the heads of families and Physicians. Its advantages over cathartics given in the form of Pills or Powders, must be obvious to every intelligent person. It operates more immediately and effectually upon the system, and at the same time is infinitely less difficult to administer, being quite agreeable to the taste. It not only produces all the effects where physic is required, but completely removes habitual Costiveness, leaving the bowels perfectly free. It expels all humors from the blood, is a certain cure for the Piles, regulates the action of the Liver, frees the Stomach from Bile, invigorates the whole Nervous System, and removes the cause of all local pains, such as

RHEUMATISM, NEURALGIA, TIC DOLOREUX, GOUT, PAIN IN THE HEAD, SIDE, STOMACH, &c.

It may also be relied upon in all diseases of the Bowels, Dysentery, Diarrhea and Cholera Morbus yield at once to its magic influence Again we repeat, TRY IT!—It needs no other recommendation. No family will be without it after they have properly tested its merits. Reader, if you have tried other remedies, without success, despair not—relief is now at hand Are you suffering with Scrofula, six bottles of my Liquid Cathartic will cure you. Would you be relieved from habitual Costiveness?—three bottles will effect all that you desire. If you are afflicted with Rheumatic, Neuralgic, or other local pains, two bottles will free you from them. All humors will be eradicated from the blood by the use of from one to six bottles In short, if you require a physic for any purpose, this is the most reliable, safe and agreeable to the taste that has ever been placed within the reach of the public.

PRICE $1.00.

Great American and Foreign Office

For Securing Patents for Inventions.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State st. oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages to applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procuring of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq. of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

NEW CLEAR AND MESS PORK—for sale by A. A. PAYNE jy22

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, as I has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Philia. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Eourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia in the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuat le Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imstation of them, or by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

VICE PRESIDENT.

The Boston Chronicle says:—

The nomination of Mr. Banks for the Vice Presidency would be well received by the country. Many of his friends now couple his name with the Presidential nomination, recent events having given him a prominence before the people that is unquestionably calculated to breed large ideas and lofty aspirations in the mind of any man. He would fill the Presidential office well, and on some accounts we should prefer his election to that of any other man. But we think that it would be the better plan to place him on the united opposition ticket as the candidate for Vice President, with Col. Fremont for chief. Mr. Banks would strengthen such a ticket, while occupying the second place on it, to a degree that it could be strengthened by no other man. He is as well adapted for the second place as Col. Fremont is for the first. His admirable qualities as a presiding officer,—in which respect there is no living American to be named with him,—would find a proper field of usefulness in the United States Senate. His reputation in that office would steadily increase, and the time would soon arrive when he could step into the highest place of all, through the support of the people. Being but a young man, as politicians reckon years, he has a long career before him, and it rests with himself to say whether it shall be an useful and a brilliant one, or not. The history of American politics abound with examples of men who have been ruined by their too great haste to achieve the first places. A little self denial would have given different terminations to several eminent careers. Clay, Webster, Calhoun and Cass, all stand in the list of disappointed aspirants for the Presidency, because they could not "time" their ambition well.—Their histories, and those of a number of others, whose names are not quite so illustrious, ought to be full of warning to the men who are now rising to the positions of leadership in America. If they shall be duly regarded, we may look for important events this year. If they are not, and if individual ambition is to be more regarded than the general good, we must expect nothing but the continued ascendency of a tyrannical oligarchy. Nothing but the utmost wisdom and the utmost energy can enable the opposition to triumph over the democrats, headed as the latter will be by James Buchanan, they, at least, having no idea of being defeated through an adherence to men who cannot be of any service to them. Wisdom points to the nomination of available men by the opposition, and energy can be displayed only in behalf of candidates who shall bring some strength to their cause.

LATEST FROM HAYTI—DISBANDMENT OF THE HAYTIEN ARMY.—Intelligence to the 1st inst. has just been received from Gonaives, by a vessel arrived at Boston. On the morning of that day a proclamation was published announcing that the troops were on their way to their respective homes, under the order of the Emperor.

It is unquestionably true that the attempt of the Emperor to bring the Spanish part of the Island again into the Union, was induced by a belief that a majority of the Dominicans favored that idea, believing that the best good of the whole Island would be promoted by such a consummation.—Traveller.

Great men are not always wise. The negro emperor, Souloque, seems to have made just such a mistake about St. Domingo, as we made more than forty years ago about Canada. Generals Hull and Smyth issued proclamations, calling on the Canadians to rise and be free, and invited them virtually to join our invading army. They did rise, and rose in arms, but rose against us: and a large portion of the force to which Gen. Hull surrendered his army, was composed of Canadian militia.

We presume the dark emperor is more than satisfied with his experiment,—and will hereafter mind his own business, and let his black republican neighbors live in peace.

Mr. Archer and Mr. Carlton, both of King and Queen county, Virginia, were found near their own houses, frozen, one of them leaning against the draw-bars, which he had evidently attempted in vain to get over. A stout negro man was seen standing erect in a field, not far from a house, so long as to excite curiosity, and it was found on examination, that he, too, was frozen to death. The winter in Virginia has been terrible.

Thirty years ago a man named Plumer living in Maine, burnt the mill of a relative from motives of revenge. He was detected, stabbed the officer who attempted to arrest him and fled to the Isle of Holt, on the coast of Maine, dug a cave and supported himself by hunting and fishing. There he lived for many years, unseen of any human being. In 1850 he left his retreat and went begging, until in September he died at Montville, 80 years old. His appearance was most strange, hairy and bearded. He looked like an old Egyptian monk of the Thebaid.

The late Minister plenipotentiary of Peru to the United States, who returned to this country about six months ago, died lately in Lima in a singular manner. While asleep he swallowed three of his false teeth with the gold band which confined them, and died from the effects shortly after. Efforts were made to extract the teeth, but without success.

Rev. Dan Waldo, who has been chosen chaplain by the national house of representatives, is ninety-four years old, and was a soldier of the revolution. He was taken prisoner and confined in the terrible sugar house prison of New York, where with a thousand others, he languished for some months. He has been half a century in the ministry.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 29, 1856.

DEATH IN JAIL.— Patrick McCaffrey, 30 years of age, died in Boston jail Sunday evening. He was a drunkard, having been convicted of that "crime" in the Police Court, and having no money to pay the fine imposed, was put in jail, to die of delirium tremens. —Courier.

This brings up to our mind again, a thought which was suggested by reading in the Journal, some days ago, an article against the liquor law, purporting to come from a physician. The article professed friendship for temperance,—though its arguments, so far as they had any force, bore as strongly against all temperance efforts as against the new law.

The particular point in the "physician's" article to which we now refer, was his statement that "Drunkenness is not a Crime, but a Vice,"—and his inference was that it was not well to punish this vice as a crime—chiefly because our laws cannot undertake to punish every case of vice!

Now let us say, that the principle, or idea, of punishing drunkenness as a crime or a vice, is by no means new,—but as old as the settlement of this country, and older. Nor is it peculiar, at all, to the new laws—for all the old laws prescribed more or less pains and penalties for the offence.

But we will say, that in strict accuracy, we do not deem drunkenness a crime at all: for drunkenness is not an act, but a consequence. The act, is drinking strong drink—the effect is drunkenness: exactly as the act of a man in taking poison, is the crime, (if it be a crime,) of suicide. If he is saved from dying, in the latter case, by the stomach pump, —or from becoming dead drunk in the former, by an emetic,—still the act remains, in all its guilt and folly—though the consequence is changed by another agency.

In the case of an apothecary, who sells the poison to the suicide, if he does it wittingly, the community always blame him—and on the same ground the community sometimes blame and try to punish the retailer who sells to the drunkard.

But let us change the case a little, and suppose the apothecary knowingly selling a poison to a man who means to poison, not himself, but somebody else!—then the community and the law consider him an accessory before the fact, and a partaker in the guilt of the murder.

Something like this is the case of the retailer, who sells to a man the liquor that beats and murders the wife, and beggars the children. The cases are not exactly similar, but they rest on the same general principle.

But is mere drunkenness commonly punished by the laws, either as a vice or a crime?—We believe not: but the law is against a man's being drunk in the street, or in some public place,—and in some laws for being drunk and disorderly or dangerous at home. It seems after all, that while the law is almost or quite silent, if a man destroys himself by drunkenness, it is compelled to speak out and punish him, when he injures and endangers others.

And why should it not? And also, why should not the sale of a dangerous article be noticed and guarded against in the same manner?

DEATH OF MRS. FRYE.—Died, at her residence in Boston, at one o'clock Wednesday afternoon, of consumption, after an illness of several months, MARGARET ANN CHOATE FRYE, aged 37, daughter of the late Capt. Richard Picket of Newburyport, and wife of ISAAC W. FRYE, of the Boston Courier.—This event, though not unexpected for some week past, will occasion a degree of bereavement uncommon in the loss of a private person,—for few women enjoyed the friendship of so large a circle of acquaintances—friendship intensified by every day of life and interrupted only by death. This sentiment of regard was strongly evinced during her last illness, which was softened by the constant presence and assiduous cares of those most beloved of earth, who, with filial fondness, sustained and cheered her closing days.

Mrs. Frye was the last of her family—one of her brothers having perished in the Lexington in 1840; and the other having died at New Orleans in April last.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.— The Senate made the following appointments:

Louis D Parsons, of Portsmouth, N H, as Consul to Point a' Pitre, in the Island of Guadeloupe; Robert G. Scott, Jr., of Virginia, as Consul to Rio Janeiro; and H. G. S Key as Navy Agent at Baltimore.

☞ We would call the attention of those interested in Stocks, to the advertisement of "Martin's Twenty-one Years in the Boston Stock Market," and is pronounced a highly valuable work.

HOW THE PAPERS TAKE IT.—The Boston Chronicle says "the nomination of Mr Fillmore must be looked upon as the completest specimen of folly that ever illustrated party history. In a contest between Pierce and Fillmore, the former would triumph, and would deserve to triumph. He is the better man of the two, which does not prove his exaltation, but Fillmore's degradation."

The Chronicle gives the following bird's eye view of what the papers say:

The Bee declines to commit itself to the support of the Philadelpia nominations.

The Atlas expresses the opinion that the nomination of Fillmore will not be binding on the American party, and that the contest in the next Presidential election will be between the Democrats and Republicans.

The Courier erroneously states that Fillmore does not belong to the Order of K. Ns.

The Post says—

"The Know Nothings are knocked into a cocked hat by their divisions in grand council and grand convention. Fillmore and Donelson are the candidates for President and Vice President of the Southern section, and the Northern Section will, probably, play bob to Francis P. Blair's kite, and dance to the abolition tune of black republicanism."

The Advertiser is mute.

The Traveller exhibits much zeal for the K. Ns. since they have placed themselves in a pro-slavery position.

The Journal favors Fillmore.

The Lowell Courier thinks the nomination is destined to be favorably received.

The New York Express (American) endorses the nomination of Fillmore with much spirit, as does also the Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Newburyport Herald says:

The nomination of Mr Fillmore, for the Presidency, is highly gratifying to the Whigs and Democrats. The former look upon it in hopes of the restoration of the old regime, and the Democrats prefer their old foe, and are glad to see the course clear for themselves.—The Americans in this section say little; the nomination, and more than that, the way in which it was made, has struck them with surprise. As soon as it was announced in New York, however, it was ratified by the American State Council, and so it was by the old line Whigs, who held a meeting in the city, and fired a hundred guns: and both in New York and Boston, the old whig papers have declared in its favor. In the course of a week, when the Massachusetts delegates shall have returned, the Americans this way will probably speak on the subject, and we can form some estimate of how this State will stand in November. The Atlas thinks that Mr Fillmore will hardly be a prominent candidate in the next canvass.

Ex-Gov. Colby, of New Hampshire, was mentioned among the bolters from the American Convention. The New York Express denies the statement and has no doubt that he will support the nomination of Fillmore.

We think the Express is in error, in both particulars.

STRAWS.—The Newburyport Herald says:

The American nominations appear,—Millard Fillmore and Andrew Jackson Donelson. And to such an end has all this great excitement come at last—to a dead, an eternally dead stop. Mr. Fillmore is a very respectable man, who accidentally had the honor of being President of the United States. It is probable that he will decline the nomination as soon as he hears of it. He is now in Europe. If he does not, it is all the same. He is an extreme fogy in all his views, and if he had not signed the fugitive slave law he could not carry two States, and now he can't carry one. Mr. Donelson was once smiled upon by Gen. Jackson; but if the spirit-rapping theory is true, it is wonderful that old Jackson's spirit has not knocked out his brains before this. Probably it would, if he had any to spare. All that we ever know of his doing was to bankrupt the old hero by his management about the Hermitage estate; but as he is nominated by a party that can never hope to succeed, it is well enough.

Before the nomination of Mr. Fillmore, delegates from New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Iowa, and Illinois, bolted. They held their first caucus on the 25th inst., when they expressed a desire to unite with any party in the country favorable to freedom. Some of the leading and most influential men of that party were with them—Ex-Gov. Colby of New Hampshire, Stanbaugh and Ford of Ohio, Johnston of Pennsylvania, and others.

They afterwards appointed an executive committee, and adjourned in good spirits.—Though they were a minority in the Convention, there is no doubt that a majority of their party are with them.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—The town of Seattle was attacked by Indians, on the 26th January, and successfully defended by the officers and crew of the sloop-of-war Decatur.

LOCAL.

☞ The political meeting at the Temple on Thursday evening, was addressed by Henry P. Shedd, Esq., of Roxbury, Ms., and by Hon. Joseph E. Dawley of Fall River. The meeting was well attended, chiefly by voters who agreed with the speakers in sentiment and political action, with a few gentlemen of other parties, and a few ladies.

The officers of the meeting on the platform were J. W. Emery, Robert Lefavour, Samuel Rowell, and C. C. Whittemore, Esqs.

The speakers maintained the American Republican view of public affairs, and were favorably received.

PRAYER FOR COLLEGES.—Thursday of this week, being the last Thursday in February, was the day usually set apart by many churches in New England and elsewhere, as a day of special prayer for the Divine blessing on the Youth in Colleges and other seminaries of learning. It was observed in this city by the North Church, in their lecture room in the afternoon—and by a united assemblage of members from the orthodox, unitarian, baptist and methodist churches, who convened in the new North Meeting House, in the evening.

The four pastors, Rev. Messrs. Whiting, Peabody, Lamson and Holman, took part in the services, which consisted of prayer, remark and exhortation, enlivened by appropriate music from the organ and choir. There was a good audience in a pleasant house.—And the union of feeling and of expression on such an occasion, imparted a most agreeable interest to the meeting.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Feb. 29th, Doctor Oliver for self and others applied for Gas Light in Warren street. Referred.

The warrant of the County Treasurer was received—$7,282 73. [This is about $2,000 more than last year's tax. The excess is caused by the new Court Room in Exeter.

☞ Mr. Hawes will give an Elocutionary entertainment this evening, at the Temple,—which will be worthy of attention and patronage. See advertisement.

Respecting his entertainment at Concord last week, the Patriot says:—

Mr. Hawes went successfully through his programme, and gave an exhibition of a good deal of merit and interest, and well worthy of public patronage. He has unusual natural advantages and abilities as an elocutionist, and has not neglected them. His object is to obtain means for the completion of his education.

Mr. Meinerth will perform on the Grand Piano.

LAUNCH.—A superior white oak ship, of about 1050 tons, called the "Anna Decacar," will be launched from the yard of Messrs. Tobey & Littlefield, Noble's Island, tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon, at 5 o'clock. The "Anna Decatur" is owned by Messrs. William Jones & Son, Ichabod Goodwin, J. H. Boardman, and Capt. Wm. H. Parsons, who will command her. Her frame and planking are entirely of white oak; she is heavily square-fastened throughout; and for model, material and strength, is pronounced by good judges, rarely if ever to have been surpassed.

LECTURES.—Rev. E. G. Brooks, of Lynn, Mass., is to deliver the next Lecture of the Young Men's Christian Association's Course, on Sunday evening next, at the Temple.—Mr. B. was a native of Portsmouth, and is of the Universalist denomination, and a man of ability and eloquence. They have arranged to have good music on the occasion. (See advertisement.) We believe there are to be two other lectures of this course, after this now announced.

Rev. J. P. Thompson, of New York, is to lecture before the Mechanics' Lyceum, on Tuesday evening next. Rev. T. Starr King will follow, on Thursday evening, the 13th of March; and Hon. John P. Hale is engaged to closed the course.

The Mercantile Association are expecting Hon. Rufus Choate to deliver the concluding lecture of their course, at an early day.

Superfine flour was sold in Zanesville, Ohio, on the 20th inst. for seven dollars a barrel.

WILLIAM HAWES,

Member of Phillips Exeter Academy,
WILL RECITE the following Popular Pieces,
AT THE TEMPLE,
ON FRIDAY EVENING, FEB. 29, 1856,
they having been presented with success at Exeter, New Market, Portsmouth and Concord, N. H., and Andover and Newburyport, Mass.

Antony's Oration over Cæsar's Body.. Shakspeare.
Eulogy on Hamilton..... Pres. Noll.
Spartacus to the Gladiators at Capua.. E. Kellogg.
Dagger Scene in Macbeth..... Shakspeare.
Thanatopsis, (by request.)..... Wm. C. Bryant.
Catiline's Defiance..... Rev. Geo. Croly.

The scene in Croly's tragedy of "Catiline" from which the above is taken, represents the Roman Senate in session, Lictors present, a Consul in the chair, and Cicero on the floor as the prosecutor of Catiline and his fellow conspirators. Catiline enters, and takes his seat on the Senatorial bench, whereupon the Senators go over to the other side. Cicero repeats his charges in Catiline's presence; and the latter rises and replies, "Conscript Fathers, I do not rise," &c. Cicero, in his rejoinder, produces proofs, and exclaims:—

"Tried and convicted traitor! Go from Rome!"

Catiline haughtily tells the Senate to make the murder as they make the law. Cicero directs an officer to give up the record of Catiline's banishment. Catiline then utters those words:—"Banished from Rome," &c.: but when he tells the Consul, the Consul reads the decree of his banishment, and orders the Lictors to drive the "traitor" from the temple. Catiline, furious at being thus baffled, catches at the word "traitor," and terminates the scene with his audacious denunciation,—"Here I devote your Senate," &c. At the close, he rushes through the portal, as the Lictors and Senators crowd upon him.

"He dares not touch a hair of Catiline,"

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 27.

SENATE.—Mr Wheeler, from the Military Committee, reported a bill to increase the efficiency of the army, according to the recommendation of the President in his message to the House yesterday.

The Trumbull case, a disputed seat, came back from the Committee on the Judiciary.—Resolutions for and against his seat, were made the special assignment for Monday next.

The bill regarding fortifications in California, Texas and Florida, was discussed and recommitted to the Military Committee, with instructions to report such new works as may be necessary.

The appropriation bill for the payment of invalid and other pensions was passed.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Campbell of Ohio, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported the Indian appropriation bill.

Mr. Gunn, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill authorizing the people of Oregon to form a State Government.

Mr Grow reported a bill annulling the legislative acts of the Assembly of Kansas which require certain oaths, including one to support the fugitive slave law, to be taken by the public officers of that territory.

The discussion on referring the message of the President, recommending the appropriation of three millions to increase the efficiency of the military, was resumed, and after remarks by Messrs. Quitman, Faulkner and Marshall, the message was referred to the Military Committee. Adjourned.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, Feb. 27.—The steamer Illinois arrived here to-day from Aspinwall, with the California mail of the 5th, and $1,140,000 in treasure. She connected at the Isthmus with the Golden Age, which arrived at Panama on the 19th. The passengers by the Illinois on her outward trip left Panama for San Fransisco on the 15th, in the John L. Stephens.

The business portion of San Andres is burnt. Loss $40,000.

The Senate of California passed a resolution declaring it inexpedient to elect a United States Senator during the present session.

The Limatour claim has been confirmed by the United States Land Commissioner. The claim covers 15,000 acres of land, in and near San Fransisco; it is estimated to be worth six millions. The case will be carried to the Supreme Court.

Oregon dates are to the 26th of Jan.

There had been no more fighting. The Governor had called for five more companies of volunteers.

The Panama Star mentions a report that the French Frigate Ambuscade is on her way to inquire into Walker's treatment of French subjects.

Revolutionary parties are forming in Nicaragua against Walker, and Costa Rica is sending a force against him.

There are no later dates from South America.

An explosion occurred on boatd the steamer Belle, near Sacramento, killing 30 persons and totally destroying the boat; many others were badly injured. The only names given of the missing are Napoleon Hyte, a pilot; Alonzo Taylor, Clerk, and E. Sheets, mate.

General Wool had returned to San Fransisco.

Commercial Suspension.—The Swedenstein German Dry Goods firm at San Fransisco, has suspended—liabilities $600,000.

ARRIVAL OF THE STAR OF THE WEST.—New York, Feb. 28.—The steamer Star of the West arrived this morning from San Juan.—She left the evening of the 19th, and Key West the 23d. She brings $330,000.

On the 10th inst. a decree was promulgated at the city of Grenada, claiming and annexing the whole of the Musquito Territory as an integral portion of Nicaragua.

Shortly afterward a diplomatic corps, headed by Col. Kinney, arrived from San Juan, and had audience with Gen. Walker.

On the following day Col. Kinney was placed under arrest, and subsequently banished from the territory of Nicaragua and sent under charge of Major Martin to the Atlantic seaboard.

OUR RELATIONS WITH ENGLAND.—New York, Feb. 28.—A Tribune correspondent telegraphs from Washington:

The statement is wholly unfounded that the British government ever made any distinct or even qualified apology for violating our neutrality laws.

The developements about to be made in the correspondence called for by the Senate will justify every step which the administration have taken, they will demolish the false statements of the British newspapers, and utterly confound the misrepresentations of the state of affairs which have been made by Lord Clarendon and others.

The complicity of Mr. Crampton and his agents is established from the very outset, and it shows that he was carrying this on while he was professing to repudiate all schemes for enlistment.

The Herald's correspondent telegraphs:—"I an enabled to assert that the President has determined to dismiss Mr Crampton immediately, the letter of dismissal being already written, it will be handed to Mr Crampton probably within the next twenty-four hours.

Neither the President nor Cabinet suppose there will be war in consequence, nor does any well informed man here contemplate such a result as probable; of course Mr Crampton's dismissal will afford no cause for war.

I learn this evening that some rich disclosures shortly will be made, showing up the diplomacy of Mr Marcy and Gen. Pierce on the Central American question. It appears that two years ago Mr Buchenan was pressing a settlement of the Central American difficulty, and was desirous it should be settled immediately.

ARRIVAL OF THE EMPIRE CITY.—New York, Febr 28.—The steamer Empire City, from Havana 23d, arrived this morning.—Passed 22d, U. S. sloop of war Cyane.

WESTERN NAVIGATION.—St. Louis, Feb 27. The Missouri River is now open to Kansas. Boats will commence running next week.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 27.—A large meeting of the merchants and other citizens of Baltimore was held here at noon, to-day. A resolution was adopted, protesting against Mr Blair's professing to represent the citizens of Baltimore at the Republican Convention held at Pittsburg.

A dispatch from Richmond on the 25th, announces the arrival there of the steamship Roanoke, from New York—an event which causes great rejoicing, as it opens water communication once more. The Baltimore Patriot expresses the belief that the port will be speedily opened.

The New York Journal of Commerce says—"The hotels are fast filling up with merchants from the West. The railroad lines leading into the city are now quite free from snow and ice, and the trains are generally running on their time."

The Corset Warerooms of
THIRTY YEARS,
(Established in 1825.)
Also the inventor of ADAMS'S
PATENT ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER,
and the only place where the genuine articles can be obtained

MRS. ADAMS has recently returned from Europe, where, among the looms and weaving rooms of France, she has devoted the best part of a year in re-arranging and symmetrizing the best features of the French WEEK Corset, adapting it to the necessities of the peculiarly delicate structure of the American women, and is happy to say that in these efforts she has been eminently successful; and since presenting her experiments, the increased demand has been continual. Thinking it best to introduce these beautiful and easy fitting articles by some other than the formidable name of Stay or Corset, she calls them BODICES. They are so constructed as to give a sustaining brace to the back, shoulders and abdomen, at the same time inducing an expansion of the chest never before attained in anything of similar purpose. The next consideration is the price, it being as low as as the most ordinary and ill-shaped of other manufacture, whilst the style and texture surpasses other goods hitherto disposed of at most exhorbitant charges.

Mrs. A. would invite the attention of dealers, and would assure them that an investment in these goods, at the fixed low prices, is the same as gold already twice told. All orders promptly and judiciously attended to.

For sale, the WEELEY CORSET, of the Boston Agent, as above.

☞ Mrs. Adams has no store on Washington street, nor are her goods for sale by any agent, or at any other place than the Corset Warerooms, 28 Winter street, Boston.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Room, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and not scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis

ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor would respectfully call the attention of the public to his invaluable Remedy for all Affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given with perfect safety to the most delicate child The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine: let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 Cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the Effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, and it has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among other by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Lourenco de Luz, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parmer, Bart. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being a innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIMS VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines mape in imstation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

STEALING FROM A HUSBAND NO CRIME.—A somewhat novel case was before the Police Court the other day. A young woman residing at Cleveland had taken $600 or $700 of her husband's money, and started on a pleasure tour eastward. On her arrival here, officers placed the lady in custody till her husband should arrive. The parties were before the justice the other day. The money was in the wife's possession, but it did not appear that any law existed to prevent a wife from travelling at her husband's expense, even without his consent, and so the lady was suffered to depart. The twain had quarreled. Whether this will make all right again, and restore mutual confidence, remain to be seen.—Buffalo Courier.

WOMAN SENTENCED TO BE HUNG IN ST. LOUIS.—The sentence of the law was yesterday passed upon Sarah Hayeraft, tried and found guilty of the murder of Thomas Hudson, in this city, two or three months since.—Judge Leckland sentenced her to be hung on the 11th of April next. She received the sentence with apparent unconcern, and was remanded to jail. It is understood that the jury who passed upon her guilt united in recommending her to the clemency of the Executive, so far as to commute the extreme penalty to that of imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term of years, and efforts will, no doubt, be made to give effect to this recommendation in behalf of the wretched woman.—St. Louis Republican, 17th.

GREAT FLOOD IN THE OHIO.—LOSS $200,000!—The Licking River, opposite Cincinnati, commenced rising rapidly on Sunday morning last, throwing immense quantities of ice into the Ohio, breaking up the ice in the latter, and doing great damage. The steamboats Flag, Albertine, Bridge City, Grapeshot, Madonna, Salem and Yorktown, were all sunk, and will prove a total loss. Several other steamboats were more or less injured, and a number of flatboats and barges sunk. The total loss thus far ascertained is upward of $200,000. Further disasters are apprehended. A despatch dated Cincinnat, 25th, says the Ohio River has risen about eight feet within the last twelve hours, and is still rising.

THE IRISH EMIGRATION PROJECT.—A Buffalo paper, (the German Democrat,) says that a land speculation of several Catholic priests in Canada gave the first impulse to the Irish emigration scheme recently proposed by the convention in that city. They sought to turn the Know Nothing excitement to account to promote a project for their private advantage. But the resolute opposition they encountered rendered it advisable, in order to avoid a split, to select a place in the United States also for the settlement of the Catholic Irish. This has not yet been done, but it is believed that a tract in the territory of Minnesota will be proposed.

WEST COAST OF AFRICA.—The Hecate, on the 1st of January, chased a brig of about 200 tons, which was run on shore and deserted by the crew. On examination she proved to be an American built vessel, with the name of Chatsworth, of New York, on her stern, and was fully equipped for a large number of slaves. She was destroyed by her captors.

The new President of Liberia was installed on the 7th of January. This election had caused a total change in the politics of the government. The natives had risen at Sinon and massacred several of the settlers. The Monrovian militia were about to proceed to the spot.

A United States vessel of war was lying at Grand Canary, supposed to be the Jamestown, from the west coast of Africa.

FATAL AFFRAY.—At a ball given in Jerusalem, Southampton Co. Va., on the 14th inst., Capt. George Newson, a highly esteemed citizen, gave some offense to a young lady, which was resented by a relative of the lady, a young medical student named Calhoun Barrett. The next day they met in the road, both armed with guns, and Newson raised his gun as if to fire, but Barrett anticipated him and shot him in the breast, causing him to fall. Barrett advanced and fired another charge into the head of Newson, killing him instantly.

Mr. John Peice, of Salem, took a valuable horse to the Eastern railroad in Salem, to show a purchaser that the animal was not afraid of the cars, when on entering the depot through the tunnel, the beast gave a sudden spring between two cars, breaking both legs and rendering it necessary to kill him.

CURIOUS ERRATUM.—Punch says that the editor of a country paper, says in a beautiful fulminating leader: "When the Provisional Government promised the laboring classes that they should never want either work, or high wages, them asses actually believed it."

We thought this rather strong, and a little ungrammatical, when the next week's contained the following:

Erratum.—For "them asses" in our last read "the masses."

However, there is a deal of coarse truth wrapt up in a bit of bad grammar sometimes. For ourselves we decidedly prefer 'them asses.'

PRINTERS' ROLLERS.—Mr. Wirt Trimble, of Georgetown, D. C., has invented a composition for printers' rollers which will be unaffected by temperature—not made too soft by summer heat nor too hard by winter's cold—besides being more tenacious and durable.—This improvement will obviate a great inconvenience experienced in the present composition used for rollers, and will be a most welcome discovery for all printers.

We would like to see this roller, if it answers the description.

The oldest of all the living French bishops is M. Philibert Bruillard, who has just entered upon his ninetieth year; the youngest is M. Pie, bishop of Poitiers, who is not yet 40 years. Out of eighty-four archbishops, two only date from the restoration, 47 from the government of Louis Phillippe, and 38 from the republic and empire.

SATURDAY, MARCH 1. 1856.

MAINE EXPOSITOR.

This paper, the organ of the liberal or straight out rum party in Maine, contained on the 27th, an editorial of nearly four columns, reproving the legislature for not repealing the "Maine law," right off.

It asks three questions, viz.

What are the Legislature doing?
What will they do?
What do the People expect of them?
—And it gives three answers.

1st. They are doing nothing—or next to nothing. The subject is before the Judiciary Committee; and the last we have heard of it was, that on the 31st of January, "on motion of Mr Irish, of Union, the Judiciary Committee was directed to report on the subject of the sale of intoxicating liquors as soon as practicable.

2nd. What they will do, is not so easy to predict

3d. The people expect the unconditional repeal of the Maine law, and will be satisfied with nothing less.* * * *

The fact is the Maine Law was the only question at issue before the people, as the Argus, time and again avowed, and now that a Legislature has been elected upon that ground why has that sheet become so suddenly dumb. Does it intend to cheat the people again upon this matter? Does it mean to attempt to pull the wool over the eyes of the liberal men of this State, as it has often done, after a victory has been achieved? We hope not. If that sheet wishes to be respected in future it must speak out upon this matter of repeal, and back up what it has so often asserted before election.

Does any one doubt, that the present Legislature were elected on this issue alone. * *

From first to last, we have advocated Repeal. We, as faithful sentinels, have proclaimed to the Democratic party the will of the people, so far as we could ascertain it. * *

The issue was made, the standard-bearer chosen, and the people, true to their principles, rallied around him, and elected him. They have done their part—it remains for you to do yours.

The Portland Advertiser of the 27th Feb. says:

The Legislative proceedings show that the enterprising Mr Irish of Union, has been snubbed again. His bill for the suppression of intemperance has not only been refused a passage, but the motion to reconsider the vote has been laid on the table and the fourth of July assigned for its consideration. It is has the coalitionists mock at every effort to bring this subject before them, about which they were so profuse before the election. In the meantime, the "bill of abominations" is allowed to remain on the statute book.

The Argus of the 28th, does not mention the subject: but we presume its editor supposes there are some other people in Maine besides the rum people, and some higher game to be pursued by the democratic party there, than the opening of five thousand dram shops, and the licensing of ten thousand retailers.

The Expositor, the true rum organ, asserts that the Legislature were elected on that issue alone, and the governor was elected as their standard bearer. Doubtless, its followers voted for rum. But the Argus wing of the coalition voted for power as a party, for future office under the general government. The distiller and his party, voted that they might make money—and the liberal straight whigs played second fiddle for a variety of motives, partly liquor, partly revenge, and partly something else.

All parties in Maine, however, are well aware of the fact, that there are 50,000 temperance men and more temperance women in that State, who form a power not to be despised by any party.

What if some of those men, being deceived deluded, or angry, did vote on the rum side of the rum-issue? Does it follow that they will acquiesce in the supreme and perpetual reign of intemperance, professedly restrained, but really promoted, by a license. We think it does not follow: and such politicians as Wells, and Clifford, and Appleton, think so too. And therefore, keeping an eye on the city elections in the Spring, and on the Presidential election in the Fall,—they think it best to make haste slowly.

At a public meeting, held the other day in Farmington, Me., the following among other resolves were passed.

Resolved, That the inconsistencies and contradictions in the Governor's address, respecting the liquor traffic, show him to be in the fog, and ignorant of the cause. Some of these are as follows—The Gov. says: "Whether a person will or will not use intoxicating liquors as a beverage, is a question for his own determination; but coercion in respect to such action is persecution." Then he says, 'There are some classes of persons to whom sales should be prohibited.' Again he says, 'The public good requires that no intoxicating liquors should be allowed to be drank in the shops where they are sold; such practices lead to breaches of the peace.' And then—'Inn holders furnishing liquors to their guests and travellers alone, would stand in the same relations as the heads of families.'

Resolved, that as friends of a strong prohibitory law, we are bound to hold our opponents to a strict accountability, for what ever course they pursue relative to the Maine Law. If they sustain it, we will hold them accountable for their hostility and hypocritical cant against it before election. If against it and for the old license system as recommended by Gov. Wells, then we meet them, on that false and monopolising system of wrong, until we are protected from legalised licenced groggeries.

THE END OF "SAM."—A friend writes us from Freedom that since Mr. Wells spoke in that town, the Hindoo council there has dissolved. They numbered about twenty, nearly all Democrats. After hearing Mr. Wells, they met, and upon comparing views found themselves all of one opinion as to the deception and iniquity of the concern, and they formally disbanded. They had about $2 50 in the treasury, and after disposing of all other matters, the question arose as to what should be done with it. After long debate, it was decided to try a little of their Maine Law medicine, and so they voted unanimously to lay it out in rum! And thus ended Hindooism in Freedom.

We copy the above, being the whole article, from the Concord Daily Patriot of Feb. 27. We offer no comment thereon, but merely commend to attention the statements of the Patriot's friend,—that after hearing Mr Wells, the Hindoos all turned again into Democrats, and unanimously voted to buy rum!

Observe it is the Patriot's statement, on the letter of a friend!

Another article in the same paper says:

"Democrats falsify no public events; they commit no forgery with papers which form a part of the public history of the nation. They speak, write and print the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth."

KANSAS.—Henry Wilson has made a speech upon Kansas matters, in the Senate, that will not soon be answered by any one. Though we have no sympathy with Mr W., but much for his cause, yet we must say that his arguments in this case were sound and strong and highly creditable to the man. This effort of Mr W. will give many a better opinion of his abilities, though they may differ from him and his politics.—Charlestown Adv.

We have read, carefully, President Pierce's Proclamation on Kansas, and also every word of Wilson's speech. Any man who will do so, can come to a fair conclusion about the matter. They are both able documents—and Wilson's speech seems to have been designed as an answer to the proclamation.

NOVEL PETITION.—A petition was presented in the New York Assembly last week, by Mr. Mehan, from the citizens of Oneida, to make the Lord's Prayer the only legal prayer to be used by clergymen, on account of its brevity.

What can be meant by a legal prayer?

It strikes us that it might be very well for our Legislative bodies to offer this prayer at the opening of their sessions, after the manner of the English and Roman Churches,—excusing, of course, any members who have scruples of conscience. This would be a pleasant and proper exercise in itself, and might take the place of the usual chaplain.

A GOOD ONE.—A friend suggests to Uncle Toby, that he dont know exactly what he means, by saying that

He has not the least objection to a "fat salary" or even to a political ism or a post office.

No wonder the meaning is doubtful: Uncle T. meant to say, and in his manuscript he did say, "he has not the least objection to a fat salary, or even to a political ism, or a fat office. The typographic change made a sense, but not exactly the sense intended.

FOOD NOT SCARCE IN EUROPE.—A correspondent of the New York Evening Post, writing from Italy, gives many facts going to show that the popular idea of the scarcity of food in Europe is unfounded, and adds:—

Having traversed a considerable part of Western and Southern Europe in the last four months, I have observed everywhere the abundance, variety and moderate prices of good food, and general uniformity of prices.

COLONIZATION SOCIETY.—The National Intelligencer announces the proposed gift to the American Colonization Society of a packet ship worth about $35,000, from Mr. John Stevens, of Talbot county, Maryland.

The inhabitants of Maine propose to furnish another ship from their own forests; and thus this society will be furnished with what has long been needed—a regular line of packets.—Boston Chronicle.

We do not so understand it—but rather that the Maryland ship supersedes the proposed ship from Maine.

A JUST ACT.—The Legislature of Maine have passed an act providing that "aliens may take, hold, convey and devise real estate, within this State, and all conveyances and transfers of any interest in such estate heretofore made by or to any alien, are hereby confirmed and made effectual to all intents and purposes, as if made by or to a citizen of this State."—Portland Argus.

Good provisions, these, and just:—and they are nearly all that need to be made about aliens.

BOSTON DENTISTRY.—It is a conceded point, that no city in the world excels Boston in the skill of its Dental Surgeons. The stranger who traverses the city will be struck with the high position they hold, but nowhere will he find this art in higher perfection, than if arrested by a curious anatomical exhibition of the progress of dentition to be seen in an elegant show case at 25 Tremont Row, opposite the Boston Museum, he ascends to the rooms of Drs. CUMMINGS & FLAGG. The Doctors are always ready to give the latest improvements in the best style, with betterments of their own. Their mode of setting teeth, single or in sets, on the principle of atmospheric suction, without hooks or any dependence whatever in remaining teeth or stumps, is essentially their own and eminently successful.

The power of any man to do things in the right way is always discovered by the public sooner or later, and accordingly the public has discovered Drs. Cummings & Flagg to be the first practical dentists of the city of dentists, and are carrying their work to every dinner table in Christendom.—Boston Journal.

LOCAL.

OUR NEW HIGH SCHOOL-HOUSE.

From the Ballot of Feb. 26th.

This new building for the accomodation of the Portsmouth High Schools is now nearly completed, and will be ready for their reception by the first of April next. It is a grand structure, both as regards outward appearance and its adaptation to the purpose for which it has been constructed. The building, which is of brick, with freestone caps, sills and quoins, is 55 feet wide by 71 feet deep, and 37 feet in height to the top of cornice; and is surmounted by a neat and capacious cupola affording we think the best view of our beautiful river, the city and the region round about that can be obtained. The lot on which it stands is large and is elevated, with a hard dry sandy foundation, which frosts can never affect, and the location is a retired one, and the house will be less exposed to dust than in many other places which might have been selected. The building is calculated for the accommodation of both our high schools, the lower story for the boys and the one above for the girls. There are three entrances to the building, one on the west side to the girls' room in the second story, one on the east for the boys, and another in front for visitors to the schools. The dimensions of the main room for the Boys' School is 44 by 51 feet, and 15 1-2 feet high; and opening into this is a commodious recitation room, 16 by 23 feet.—The main room for the Girls' School is of the same dimensions on the floor as that of the Boys, but is four feet higher, being 19 1-2 feet high. Connecting with this are two recitation rooms, one being 16 feet square, and the other 16 by 23 feet. We confidently believe what is asserted by those who have visited nearly all the model schoolhouses in this section of the country, that no school room can be found in New England to equal this in beauty and arrangement. Capacious entries to both rooms afford accommodations for bonnets, hats and outside clothing, and the outhouses are so constructed that the pupils in each room may pass in and out without being observed by those of the other. The window sashes are all hung to rise or fall, the windows are all furnished with inside blinds, and all the rooms are ventilated in the best possible manner, there being four ventilators to each of the main rooms, and one to each of the recitation rooms. The house is warmed by two of Chilson's largest size furnaces, one for each story, registers being placed in each of the rooms. In every respect the house is an honor to our city, and worthy of the excellent schools there to be accommodated.

The cost of the building and lot, we learn from the building committee, who will make a detailed account to the Mayor and Aldermen on Thursday evening, will exceed the appropriation (20,000) about one thousand dollars. The cost of filling up the old cellar and grading the lot, which was not taken into account in the appropriation, and the plan of the building on which the estimate was made had no outhouses connected with it. These have cost $800. Had the work been commenced last Spring and performed during the Summer, about $1000 would have been saved on the labor bills, and the appropriation would have fully covered the cost.

Much objection has been made to the lot selected for the building, and at the time of the selection we were among those who thought a better lot might have been obtained; but we have been satisfied by explanations of members of the committee that in their selection they were governed by a careful regard to the interests of the city, and that the lot they decided upon was as good a one, all things considered, as they could obtain. It is but a minute's walk from Market Square, which is generally regarded as our central position, and but a few rods from the post office, which many of the pupils living at a distance have occasion frequently to visit. To have built it further North or South would have given dissatisfaction to one of these extreme portions of the city, while to have placed it farther West than Mason's Hill would have been unsatisfactory to both. The lot at that place, which was talked of for the purpose, could not be obtained, and of all the sites suggested and visited, the committee were unanimously of the opinion that the one selected was the best.—As they could not have been actuated by selfish motives in coming to this decision, they are deserving of the thanks of the people in whose behalf they have acted.

The want of better rooms for our high schools has long been felt and declared by men of all parties; but now a small faction headed by Alderman Rundlett, who has secured the important alliance of the Gazette, attempts to prejudice the people against the present city government by charging upon it extravagance in the erection of this house. The better portion of the party, however, have no sympathy with this movement, but having long acknowledged the necessity for such a building, rejoice in its completion. In justice to them it must be admitted that without their aid in both boards of the City Council the house could not have been built; but we are confident that in future years the new High School House will be looked upon as a proud memento of our first American municipal administration.

HIGH SCHOOL HOUSE.

In the board of Aldermen on Thursday evening a report was made by the Building Committe, in compliance with a resolution introduced by Alderman Rundlet a week or two since. We are pleased to find that in completing the elegant and commodious structure, they have so little exceeded the sum appropriated.

To the Honorable Board Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Portsmouth.

Gentlemen.—In the board of Aldermen on the 14th inst., the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That the Building Committe of the High School House be instructed to report at the next meeting of this board the progress made in the construction of said building,—stating to whom the principal contracts have been awarded, and the terms—the prices paid for labor of the various grades and kind, and for overseeing—what materials and labor have been procured from abroad, and the reason therefor—whether any, and if any what, deviation has been made from the plan as adopted by the City Council—how near the building is to completion, and whether the appropriation made for it will be sufficient to meet its cost, and if not, how large an additional sum will be required.

In reply to this resolution, the Building Committee of the High School House beg leave to offer the following report:

The first enquiry regards the progress made in the construction of the building. In reply, your committee are happy to say the building is nearly completed, and will in a few days be fully so. They consider themselves fortunate, considering the lateness of the season at which the work was commenced, in having been able to bring it to a completion at so early a day.

The second inquiry embraces the persons with whom the principal contracts have been made. The contract for timber, hard-pine and hemlock boards was awarded to Mr. John Trickey of Dover, the gentleman who executed a similiar contract for the new north church. It happened, fortunately, that the same individual, whose facilities for furnishing these material were most abundant made the lowest offer. His proposals for furnishing these articles was $85 less than that of any other person.

The Bricks were purchased of Mr. George Rogers of this city. The price paid was $7 per M. which was as low as bricks of the same quality could be purchased elsewhere.

The Stones for foundation were furnished by Messrs. Stimpson and Eames of Rockport, Mass. at $1.25 per ton.

The Granite for underpining, &c. was wrought and furnished by Mr. Allen Treat of this city at stipulated prices, as per bill on file.

The contract for Freestone work was closed with Mr. Edward Meany of Boston, for $750.

This was less by $185 than the same could have been contracted for here.

Mr. Herman Stratter of Boston has furnished the copper gutter at $1.37 per ft. This was 13 cts per foot, or $20 on the whole item, less than other offer which was received.

The prices of labor have varied from 50 cts. to $2 75 per day. Mr. Wilson, for labor and for overseeing, has charged $2.50 per day. For further particulars under the head of contracts for labor, we would respectfully refer to bills on file in the hands of the city clerk.

The next inquiry has reference to directions from the plan adopted by the City Council.

The Committee would reply that the original plan has been followed, without alteration, excepting in one instance. The room for the Girls' school has been furnished with single desks and seats instead of double, as laid down upon the plan. The last enquiry refers to the whole cost.

Our financial report, which is herewith submitted, will answer this inquiry.

SKETCH OF FINANCES.

Whole amount paid out,	$15,475 13
Amount to be paid for contracts when fulfilled and other bills unpaid,	2,157 80
Cost of the School House site,	3,500 00
	$21,132 93
Less received for old material,	365 60
	$20,767 33
Appropriation,	20,000 00
Excess of appropriation,	$767 33

It will be seen that there has been an excess in the appropriation of $767 33. To this sum the Committee think that $100 should be added, to cover a few items which may be found unsettled.—This excess has been created by the superior arrangements which the Committee have adopted for the building adjoining the main building, and which were not included in the original appropriation.—The actual cost of these arrangements the Committee judge to have been $850, a sum which we think will quite cover the excess of the expenditure above the appropriation.

It is believed that no public building has been erected here, and seldom has one been erected anywhere, the expense of which has been kept so near the limits of the appropriation.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

ISAIAH WILSON,
A. Q. WENDELL,
JONA. DEARBORN.

STATE REFORM SCHOOL.

We learn that the Trustees held a meeting at Manchester Feb. 27, and permanently organized by the choice of Hon. Horton D. Walker, of Portsmouth, as President, and David Cross, Esq. of Manchester, as Secretary. They visited the location selected, the Stark Farm, consisting of 100 acres about two miles from the compact part of Manchester, and a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Gillis of Nashua, Col. Wm. Kent of Concord and Cross of Manchester, was appointed to make arrangements for carrying on the farm the present year.

Soon as the season will permit, the preliminary preparations will be made towards the erection of the House. The sum of $15,000 was appropriated by the last legislature, of which $10,000 was paid for the farm, leaving $5,000 towards the house. It will be recollected that a donation of about $25,000, was made by an individual for this object. Against this sum there is an unallowed claim of about $10,000; which if allowed will reduce the donation to $15,000.

ATTEMPT TO ASSASSINATE THE ARCHBISHOP OF CUBA.—The Havana Prensa of the 12th inst gives a letter from Holquin, Feb. 1st, which says:

"As the Archbishop left the church, the people flocked around him as usual, and among others several pious women all waiting for an opportunity to kiss the ring on his finger. At this moment a man elbowed his way through the crowd up to the archbishop, expressing by his looks and manner a desire to receive the holy father's benediction.—As he was in the act of stooping to kiss the ring he suddenly drew a clasp-knife, and stabbed the archbishop in the face. The venerable prelate fell senseless to the ground."

The assassin was about to inflict a second stab, when he was seized by a private soldier and carried off to prision. He gave his name as Antonio Torres, a native of the Canary Islands, and about 35 years of age. His motives are unknown.

☞ We are requested to state that Rev. Messrs. Fanton and Holman will address "the people," on the subject of Temperance, at the Temple, on Monday evening next.

Samuel Williams, a colored man, sold his farm near Clearspring, Md., last week, containing near 200 acres, for $7000, to John Pearl. The Hagerstown Mail says:

"Williams was a slave at 40 years of age, bought himself, has raised twenty-five children, four of whom he bought and manumitted. He is now in his 71st year, and is a stout, tall, and intelligent looking old man. He is now in independent circumstances. Most of his children are in the west, and the rest of them desire to go to the same country; so the old man has consented, although fond of his country, 'to pull up stakes' and follow them."

Poor creatures! how will they take care of themselves?

They have, we observe, a bill pending before the Virginia Legislature "to allow Thomas Jones, a free colored man of Culpepper County, to enslave himself." This is all very well if Thomas Jones desires it; but we think the Legislature ought, in fairness, to add another section, allowing all colored persons now held in Culpepper County to free themselves when they desire it.—Charlestown Advertiser.

Navigation is fully opened, and steamers are running regularly. The water in the Channel this afternoon is fully 35 feet in depth.

SEVEN DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.

HALIFAX, Feb. 29,—The America arrived here this morning, with Liverpool dates to the 15th inst. She brings no news of the Pacific.

Cotton active and higher. The market closed steady. Breadstuffs slightly lower.—Provisions unchanged. Consols 90 1-8 a 90 1-4.

Politically, nothing of importance had transpired during the week; but in a commercial sense, the news is important. Some excitement still exists in England respecting the troubles with the United States, but it was not general; and there was but little apprehension that war would ensue.

An important and interesting debate took place in Parliament on the evening prior to the America's departure touching American affairs.

The Peace Congress was to meet in Paris during the following week, and pending that event all was quiet.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, Feb. 28

SENATE.—Mr Toombs offered a resolution, which lies over, calling on the Secretary of the Navy to furnish the causes and charges specifically set forth by the Navy Board for the removal or disrating of naval officers.

Mr Weller reported a bill making appropriations for new fortifications.

A message was received from the President communicating the official documents on the British enlistment cases. Six thousand extra copies were ordered to be printed.

The documents comprise about five hundred foolscap pages.

On motion of Mr Mason a resolution was adopted requesting the President to inform the Senate whether an offer was made by Great Britain to arbitrate, by means of some friendly power, the difference regarding the construction of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty, and to transmit any correspondence attending the proposed arbitration.

Mr Hale denied the truth of the statement of Mr Toucey, that it was impossible for the President to take any other course than he had regarding Kansas affairs without the utter abandonment of his constitutional duty.

Mr Hale insisted that the President had been derelict in his duty, in not protecting the bona fide settlers of Kansas in the exercise of their rights. The condition of things was such as to justify and demand the President's interference. He proceeded to show, by reading quotations from the speeches of Senators that voted for the Kansas-Nebraska bill, that they passed it on the ground that it was a great measure of freedom, and stated that the President's conversation with Jere. Clemens declared a similar sentiment. When resistance was made at Boston to the return of a fugitive slave, the President telegraphed to the federal officers to incur any expense to execute the law; but when white men of Kansas were resisted in the exercise of their constitutional rights, we were told that the President had no authority to interfere. Was not the freedom of suffrage as important as the ownership of a slave? He showed that the Democracy of New Hampshire 1847, '48, and '49 declared themselves unalterably opposed to the extension of slavery over territories now free.

Mr Toombs expressed his concurrence in the policy of the President relative to Kansas affairs, and believed him to be entitled to the support of every friend of order in the country. He defended the Executive earnestly. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Many bills were introduced and referred, and a number of resolutions adopted, including one introduced by Mr Florence, instructing the Committee on Naval Affairs to inquire into the expediency of making an immediate provision for the construction of ten sloops or other vessels of war.

The deficiency in the appropriation bill was being considered, when the House adjourned to Monday.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28th.—Onslow Peters, one of the Circuit Judges of Illinois, died in this city to-day.

Mr. Williams, of the Toledo Blade, who was elected binder of the House documents, has disposed of his interests to Robert Farnham of this city.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The rumor that the President had determined to dismiss Mr Crampton immediately, and that a letter for that purpose had been written, is entirely unfounded. This is not a mere assertion, but from an incontrovertible source.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28.—Crash and Death. The large grain warehouse of Busby & Co. in Master street, fell down this morning. Two men loading a car at the door were buried under the ruins. The wall fell on an adjoining building killing a man in it. An immense amount of flour and grain was stored in the building.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 58th:—Hon. B. F. Wade, whose present term as United States Senator from Ohio expires in March, 1856, was to-day re-elected for a second term of six years, by a vote of 100, against 36 for Todd and 2 scattering.

NORFOLK, Feb. 28.—There is a great demand for coasting vessels to take the heavy supply of corn which is arriving, to northern ports. The storehouses are filled, and a large quantity is afloat.

THE HEN STEALER CAUGHT AT LAST.—The hen stealer who for a long time back has disturbed the sober and respectable roosts of Somerville, and secretly abducted innocent pullets therefrom, has at last been caught.—Our officers had been on the alert for some time, and yesterday officer Blanchard was successful in arresting the rogue in Warren Street. The man gave his name as Ephraim Paul, of Malden, and when arrested was on his way from B. Webster's market house, at the junction of Henley and Chelsea streets, where he had been to sell the last victims of his abduction.

The man was brought before Justice Warren this morning, and the evidence against him being conclusive, he was sent to roost in East Cambridge for six months, a place entirely free from the "hen fever."—Charlestown Advertiser.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry, in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of

FAMILY SEWING,

From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine professes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that

Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of

THOMAS S. NOWELL,

Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

A WINTER EVE.

Oh the joys of a winter eve for me,
When the stars shine bright,
And strive to outvie with their twinkling eyes
The moon's refulgent light.

When the snow lies white on the forest boughs
And cover the dark brown hills,
And the ice king reigns o'er the stately streams,
And over the frozen rills.

When the merry bells ring out in glee,
With the sound of the courser's tread,
And the Northern Lights illume the skies,
With their soft beams rosy red,

And the crisped snow shines in the glow,
And the frost screws diamonds round,
And the skater's steel rings shrill on the air,
With a lively, cheering sound.

Yes, the joys of a winter eve for me,
When the ruddy fire burns bright,
And we gather around a fire-place,
To sit in the cheering light.

I will not weep when summer's gone,
Nor mourn when the autumn leaves
Are whistling past in the wintry blast,
But I'll think of the winter eves.

G. W. STONE'S

Cough, Consumption, and Bronchitis ELIXIR.

THE Proprietor respectfully call the attention of the public to this invaluable Remedy for all affections of the Throat and Lungs and begs of those who are undecided what to select, from the numerous medicines advertised, and recommended for such complaints, to give his ELIXER a trial. Having done so, they will no longer hesitate what to take themselves, or recommend to others A single trial will prove to them that this is the most valuable remedy ever discovered for the various affections of the Throat and Lungs; it will immediately relieve the most violent Cough, and in a few hours completely cure the most severe Cold As a Preventive and Cure for Consumption, it has no equal.—It is purely Vegetable, contains no poisonous ingredients, is quite agreeable to the taste, and may be given to the most delicate infant with perfect safety to the most delicate child. The numerous testimonials received almost daily from those who have been cured by it, fully justify the assertion that no family should be without this Medicine; let Mothers give it to their Children who have the Whooping Cough or Croup, and they will alleviate at once the sufferings of their little ones. Price 50 cts.

Call for G. W. Stone's Cough Elixir, and see that his name, and Cough Elixir, with the words Boston, Mass., are blown upon the Bottle, without which none will be genuine.

NEW CLEAR AND MESS PORK—for sale by A. A. PAYNE. jy22

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practise, as it has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. University. W. F. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Philadelphia. Dr. Del Vallo, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Lourenco de Lus, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Paremore, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIM'S—PANACEA—PHILADA:"

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been turned for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet(which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, bearing a person bottle a somewhat similar name, well calcuiated to deceive.

NOT SECTIONAL.

The Boston Chronicle says:

The common talk about "sectionalism" we care nothing for, but we admit that we should be glad to see things in such a condition as to remove even from the weakest minds all suspicion that any interference with the internal affairs of the slave States was meant. Persons who have given the subject much attention are aware that the opposition have no idea of troubling the slave States, their object being very different from that; but they may be, and are, suspected of such intentions by men who examine only one side of the question. Even such men could not fail to have their prejudices shaken were they to see the majority of the people of the free States supporting a Southern gentleman for President, in full reliance on his honor, and without expecting of him any conduct inconsistent with his obligations to the constitution, implied as well as expressed. It would be in contrast so striking with that intolerance with which the slaveholding interest has for years treated Northern statesmen, such action on the part of the opposition, that there could not fail to be important effects from it in the South, and perhaps even some of the slave States would be found ready to support the American Republican candidates, who should have been nominated on a basis so liberal, and with the intent and the hope to give the lie to the charges of hostility to Southern rights and of disaffection to the Union. The very fact that those candidates were strong in the North would go far to gain not a little support for them in the South. One of the good results from putting up a ticket in support of which all the free States could unite, would be the courage with which such a proceeding would endow the more liberal portion of the South, men who are kept down by the oligarchy of slaveholders, a small band, comparatively speaking, but who are bound together by the obligations of a paramount interest and the sense of a common danger. If there be any other Southern man fit to head the new movement, besides Colonel Fremont, we must confess that he is utterly unknown to us. That gentleman appears to us to stand alone as a public man, to occupy a position which renders him the properest person to lead the united opposition. His nomination would be to "put the right man in the right place" in the most perfect manner, that has been known to American politics since Andrew Jackson's time. Let him be nominated, and the people would complete the work desired in a way calculated to give the utmost satisfaction to all who wish to see the country's welfare promoted and its honor maintained.

LORD LYNDHURST.—The London correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser says:

It is a remarkable fact, and one which will be interesting to American readers, that in the House of Lords last night, Lord Lyndhurst, who is now in his 84th year, delivered a speech which occupies three close columns in the Times of today, and which is characterized by an amount of learning and vigor rarely excelled. It was upon the question of peerages for life, and although of course he took the old story view against any such innovation, his speech as a specimen of oratory was not the less brilliant.

PENALTY OF ADULTERATION IN FRANCE.—A wine dealer, named Dentaud, residing in the Rue St. Louis au Marais, was, on Wednesday, condemned by the tribunal of correctional police, to fifty francs fine and fifteen days imprisonment, for adulterating his wine. The sentence of the Court was also ordered to be printed and posted up at his door as a warning to his customers. Another winedealer named Gruniel, residing in the Rue Montorgueil, was condemned to similar penalties for the same offence.—Galignani.

ARTESIAN FISH.—Fish have been found in a creek proceeding from an artesian well in San Jose, supposed to have come from the subterranean lakes. In shape they are said to resemble the bass. They are very red under the mouth and belly, and have shaded stripes of a dark brown color down their sides. One of the same kind was found in a bucket of water taken from the spout of the artesian well. They are very small.

The story of the elephant that was lost overboard from a Baltimore steamer swimming ashore a great distance, is contradicted by the Charleston Mercury, which says the animal was almost certainly killed by a blow of the propeller of the boat. At any rate it has never been seen or heard of since.

The family of Mr. Matthew Putnam, in Danvers, on Saturday evening last, were poisoned by the use of stramonium leaves, which were mistaken for tea. Mrs. P. died. The stramonium had been used by her for smoking for the asthma.

The Cincinnati Gazette states that forty-seven fugitives have been despatched to Canada by the underground railroad since the commencement of the fugitive slave case now pending in that city.

A man named Hopkins killed his wife, at Battle Creek, Michigan, a few days since.—She had abandoned her family and taken up quarters in an infamous house. Refusing to leave and return home with her husband, he stabbed her, and she died.

The Providence Journal ventures to hope "that the harbor is now open for the season." Two propellers arrived at the wharf on Monday, a passage having been cut for them through the ice.

CONSOLING.—A large stockholder, at the late Stark meeting, having innocently remarked that all he wanted was redress, was cooly told by a legal wag at his elbow that he would be sure to find it—in the Dictionary.—Boston Courier.

CLASSIFICATION OF PAUPERS.

A late petition to the City Government of Boston, from the Provident Association, prays for a Classification of the Paupers, and says:

You are aware that the Alms House is united with a work-house. Honest citizens of Boston, who in their old age have fallen into distress, occupy the same room and sit at the same table with the common drunkard and the common night-walker. Innocent children associate with the daughters of shame, and learn lessons of vice in the home which has been provided for them by the city.

* * * * * * *

Many of the poor who are entitled to such a home are now prevented by shame from entering the place provided for them. They are aided by the Overseers of the Poor and by private charities, thus living at the public charge, but without obtaining much comfort for themselves. The number of paupers in our Poor House is very small when compared with that in other cities and towns, only amounting at present to eighty-three of both sexes; of course it is not desirable to increase the number of the poor, but it is desirable to induce those who are supported by charity to accept the shelter of the city Alms House.

At present, the class for whom we feel most sympathy are crowded out of this refuge by strangers,—by degraded men and more degraded women. It has often happened that a woman, born and bred in Boston, and once living in prosperity, has died in a garret or a cellar, deprived of all the comforts of life, because she dreaded the disgrace of associating with criminals at Deer Island. At a moderate estimate, there must be at least three hundred and fifty poor persons living on charity, out of the Alms House, who ought to be inmates of such an institution. They could be supported there at less expense to the public, and with far more comfort to themselves.

It has been suggested that the class of persons confined in the House of Industry might be sentenced to the House of Correction. But evidently we need a workhouse. It would be wrong to subject all common drunkards and vagrants, especially the aged and infirm, to the rigid discipline of the House of Correction, and to the reproach which attaches to such a sentence. Even the common night-walker upon her first conviction, should have one opportunity to escape that discipline and that reproach. In our opinion, there should be a workhouse, where the less guilty victims of bad habits should be restrained, employed and, if possible, reformed; but it seems to us, that it should be kept entirely distinct from the Alms House.

This indicates a want of three institutions in the whole, viz: an Alms-house for the poor—a work-house for the petty or juvenile offender—and a house of correction for the criminal.

GEORGIA AND VERMONT.—In the Georgia Legislature on the 18th, the Committee on the State of the Republic, to which was referred the resolutions of the State of Vermont, reported the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, by the General Assembly of the State of Georgia, That the State of Georgia will not consider any resolution emanating from the State of Vermont till she has learned to regard her constitutional obligations to the State of Georgia, and the courtesy due her sister States; and that no law, ordinance, act or resolution of this State be communicated to the State of Vermont till further ordered.

The Governor was instructed to communicate this resolution to the Governor of Vermont, with a request that it be laid before the the Legislature of said State.

This is cool and dignified;—and quite harm less too; a great improvement on those "blood and thunder" resolves which were first reported.

☞ The Concord Daily Patriot of the 28th ult., contained a long article against "the Maine Law"—by which it means the N. H. liquor law.

Here is one of its statements:

Drunkenness has been considered as a personal vice and a public crime ever since the world was made. Nearly all nations punish it as a crime. The man who sells to a drunkard, knowing him to be such, ought also to be punished. No one objects to that.

Here is another statement, made in the same place, and in the next paragraph:

The law to regulate the use of alcohol is absurd. Beyond the disposition of the purchaser, and the discretion of the seller, you can never go.

Will the reader please to reconcile the two statements. In the first, the drunkard and the seller are criminals and ought to be punished! In the second, we must rely on he drunkard's appetite and the seller's conscience, to keep everything straight.

SENTENCE.—Benjamin D. Watson, who was recently convicted in Boston, for cheating one John L. Wattles out of a considerable sum of money, by means of the "three card monte" game, and of subsequently robbing him of more money by force, was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction for the cheating,—and the robbery case was put on file for future use.

The friends of Rev. Mr. Brown of Cleveland, decoyed him from home on the 1st ult., and detained him and his wife in a sleigh ride, till eight o'clock in the evening, when driving up to his door he was surprised to find his house full of guests. Long tables loaded with provisions were spread, and valuable presents were showered upon him from all sides. It was indeed a surprise party. Not the least interesting item was the presentation of a purse containing five hundred dollars.

FOREIGN PARAGRAPHS.

CRIMEA.—The allies have exploded the last of the Sebastopol docks. Fort Nicholas is mined. The Russians continue to fire heavily from the North side. Five English regiments are preparing to return home. The French army received the news of peace with much dissatisfaction.

January 29th six boats attempted a surprise, from the North side, but were discovered and repulsed by the French.

The peace news caused much excitement in the Russian army, and preparations making for an attack on Gen. Autemarre's division were countermanded.

THE PRINCIPALITIES.—Vienna letters state that negotiations relative to the Principalities are still unsettled, Austria and France differing from England as to the propriety of according representative institutions. It is said that the point will be resumed for settlement at Paris after the treaty of peace is signed.

TURKEY.—The Sultan appeared at a ball at the British and French embassies. The true believers would not believe it. The English dragomans barracks were accidentally burnt—no lives lost. A fire had also occurred at Varna.

ITALY.—The Sardinian Senate voted a loan of thirty millions, by fifty votes against seven.

AUSTRIA.—The conduct of Italian bishops, in taking undue advantage of the concordat, has given rise to new negotiations with the Pope.

EGYPT.—This year's grain crop will be short, owing to the limited rise in the river Nile.

JAPAN.—The Dutch have concluded an important treaty of commerce with the Emperor of Japan, which gives them privileges and advantages denied to England and the United States. By this treaty Diejma is ceded to the Dutch, whereon to form an entrepot for their trade with Japan, allowing them to land goods and stores duty free.

THE STEAMER PACIFIC.—The following is a despatch making allusion to the Pacific:

Halifax, Feb. 29.—A passenger in the America, intelligent, and with a knowledge of vessels and steamers, says that on Tuesday, after leaving, they saw a paddle steamer, heading up channel, with signal in rigging, which he has no doubt was a Chinese boat. Had no bowsprit. I give you this for what is is worth.

We don't think it is worth much: but it may be better than we think. It would be very pleasant to learn that the Pacific is safe—but we don't think this dispatch adds much to the hope.

MR. GIDDINGS, the father of the House,—the old Soldier of 1812,—the member of the House who resigned his seat and was sent back by his constituents—declines a re-election.

The following is the concluding paragraph of a letter from Mr. Giddings to his constituents. After alluding to the election of Mr. Banks in terms of satisfaction and gratitude, and adverting to the absence from his side of those who, through many years of darkness, had battled with him on the floor of Congress, he says:

"In the long period of my service here, I have sought neither emolument nor distinction. I have labored for the re-establishment of those principles for which our revolutionary fathers contended. I have lived to see them recognized by a majority of the popular branch of Congress. I regard myself among the most fortunate of public men. I have attained the highest point of my ambition.—I am satisfied; and I know that you will appreciate my feelings, when I express the hope, that at the expiration of my present term of office, I may retire from public life—step aside from the public gaze—return to my humble home—and in retirement so congenial to my nature spend the remainder of the life which Heaven has allotted to me; while other and abler statesmen shall carry forward the work so auspiciously commenced, until our government shall be redeemed and regenerated from the corroding sin of oppression, and the blessings of Heaven shall rest upon a free people."

The following resolution was adopted at a "Dorr meeting," held at Concord, N. H., in the year 1842:—

"Resolved—That when the people act in their original sovereign capacity in forming and adopting new systems of government, they are not bound to conform to any rules or forms of proceeding not instituted by themselves."

This resolution, so pointed and emphatic, derives additional importance from the fact that it was written and offered by no less a man than Franklin Pierce, now President of the United States.—Boston Chronicle.

The governor of Louisiana has yielded to the entreaties of the aged parents of Davis, and pardoned him out of the state prison, where he had served out a year and a half of his sentence of twenty years for harboring three runaway negroes, who had been brought from Kentucky, and were trying to escape back from a plantation in Louisiana. They went to Davis' hut and told a piteous story, when he gave them food and money. Being afterwards pursued and retaken, they revealed the name of the man who had befriended them. Davis's parents reside in Wisconsin, and went personally to the governor of Louisiana to plead for the release of their son. As Davis was not a negro thief, but only yielded to the sympathy which finds a home in every human breast, Gov. Hebert, himself a native of Louisiana and a planter, yielded to the same sentiment, and gave to a fellow creature nineteen years of joy and sunshine.

There are thousands of such noble men at the south. No man can deceive himself more than to fancy that every southern planter is a brute, unless it be the other man who fancies that every northern man is a friend of freedom! Neither of these fancies come near the truth. Noble men and vile men are found on both sides of Mason and Dixon's line.

LOCAL.

THE PROPOSED U. S. BUILDINGS.—A meeting of the Committee upon the subject of Public Buildings in this city, for the use of the General Government, was held on Saturday forenoon. The Chairman being absent, Capt Daniel Marcy, Esq. was chosen Chairman, pro tem. Wm. H. Y. Hackett, Esq. was appointed Secretary, pro tem.

Charles W. March, Esq. was appointed a member of the Committee, to fill a vacancy.

A memorial to Congress was reported and adopted, and Messrs. Ichabod Goodwin, Daniel Marcy and Charles W. March appointed a committee to present it to our citizens for signatures, and to cause the same to be presented to the Senate and House of Representatives; and to adopt such other measures as they may judge will promote the object of the Memorial.

☞ On Saturday evening, Rev Wm. C. Clark, of Eliot, (the man who was abused by the border ruffians on board a Missouri steamboat,) gave a lecture in the Temple, on Kansas, Slavery, &c. His audience, to our surprise, amounted to two or three hundred people, though it was collected by a few posters only, not being previously advertised, or even noticed in the papers. He considered Kansas as likely to be the battle ground of a decisive struggle between slavery and free-not merely in that territory, but in the whole country.

☞ The arrangement for speaking at the Temperance Meeting this evening in the Temple, has been altered, so that Rev. C. W. Wallace of Manchester will be the speaker at this time,—and the pastors named will speak at a future meeting.

☞ The annual City Lottery or drawing of lots for the printing of the City Accounts took place on Saturday, under the direction of the joint committee on Printing. Bro. Fuller, of the Gazette, was the lucky one.

☞ Putnam's Monthly for March; and Dickens' Household Words for the same month,—are on our table, from the publishers, Messrs. Dix & Edwards, New York. Household Words this month completes the 12th volume,—and the work is as good as Dickens, with the best of help, can make it.

The contents of Putnam for this month are:

Life and Character of St. Augustine; A story of R form and Reformers; Owlcopse; Chester; Macaulay's History of England; Abu Hamood's Mule, and the Cedars of Lebanon; I and my Chimney On the Pier; Circe, a story of Paris in the Eighteenth Century; My Mission; Living in the Country; Gentleman's Shawl; Snip Snap; Fortifications; Editorial Notices.

Terms:—Three dollars a year, or twenty-five cents a number. Those remitting three dollars will receive the Magazine free of postage. Putnam's Monthly and Household Words, five dollars. Putnam's Monthly and The Schoolfellow, three dollars and fifty cents. All three of the Magazines, five dollars and fifty cents.

I and My Chimney, in Putnam,—and Travellers' Contrivances, in Dickens,—are worth more than the cost of the books.

ARRESTED FOR MAIL ROBBERY.—Oscar S. Swift, postmaster at China, Wyoming Co., N. Y., was arrested on Saturday by a United States marshal, under the direction of Col. North, agent of the department, charged with abstracting money from letters passing through his office. It appears that Swift had been concerned in depredations upon the mails for some time, and in one instance he confessed to having taken $50 from a letter addressed to a party in New Jersey. He settled the matter with the sufferer by returning the money he had abstracted. Suspicions of other thefts rested upon him, and Col. North at length obtained sufficient evidence to warrant his arrest. Swift was taken to Utica to await the sitting of the U. S. Court. He is about 38 years of age.

SANTA FE.—A letter writer thus describes the capital of New Mexico:

It is a small town of about 3000 inhabitants, crowded up against the mountains, at the north end of a little valley through which runs a mountain stream of the same name, tributary to the Rio Grande. It has a public square in the centre, a Palace, several large Roman churches, and an Alameda; as all Spanish Roman Catholic towns have. It is true its Plaza, or public square, is unfenced and uncared for, without trees or grass; the Palace is nothing more than the biggest mud-house in the town, and the churches, too, are unsightly piles of the same material, and the Alameda is on the top of a sand hill. Yet they have in Santa Fe all the parts and parcels of a regal city and a bishopric. Ah! the Bishop has a palace also; the only two-storied, shingle-roofed house in the town.

We have one public house set apart for eating and drinking and gambling; for, be it known, that gambling is here authorized by law. And hence it is as respectable in New Mexico to keep a gambling-house, as it is to sell rum in New Jersey: it is a lawful business. And being lawful, and consequently respectable, and a man's right, why should not men gamble? And gamble they do. The generals and the majors, and the colonels and the captains gamble. The judges, and the lawyers, and the doctors, and the popish priests, gamble—and we have gentlemen gamblers by profession. And you will see squads of poor peons, daily, men and women and boys, sitting on the ground around a packed sands in the public square, gambling for a shilling stake.

The Chicago Journal says of Senator Douglass: "He could not carry his own State if nominated, and if his followers in other States do not believe it, we refer them to the result of our coming election."

REPUDIATION.—The Albany Register, the leading Know Nothing journal at Albany, commences an article upon the Fillmore nomination with "we cannot and we will not do it," blows up the whole affair, and declares that the ex-President does not belong to the "order."

Artificial Teeth,
ON
GUTTA PERCHA PLATES.

I have purchased of the inventor instructions in the manufacture and application of "COLORED GUTTA PERCHA" to the insertion of Artificial Teeth, and am now prepared to supply all who may desire, with this improvement. I have put up a few specimens of this kind of work, which may be examined by all interested, at the Drug Stores of Messrs J. H. Thacher and William R. Preston, and at my Establishment, No. 60 Congress street. The absolute purity of the material employed, and the low price at which artificial teeth can be furnished upon this method, will doubtless bring it at once into very general use.

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Feb. 29.

SENATE.—The President sent in the documents relative to the offer of arbitration on the construction of the Clayton-Bulwer treaty by which it appears no formal proposition was made to Mr Buchanan, who merely reports a conversation had with Lord Clarendon on the subject.

On motion of Mr Mason, 10,000 copies of the arbitration and enlistment documents were ordered to be printed. Adjourned till Monday.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARAGO.

NEW YORK, March 1.—The steamer Arago from Havre and Cowes, from the latter port on the evening of the 14th, arrived this morning; she brings dispatches from the British government to their minister at Washington, from Mr Buchanan, and from Mr Mason at Paris.

Feb 19, exchanged signals with steamer Fulton, hence for Havre.

[This is probably the same steamer which the passenger in the America saw, and supposed might be the Pacific.]

The Arago was greatly impeded on the passage by the ice, she was obliged frequently to put back. Capt. Lines says that the quantity of ice and the difficulty of navigation on the banks exceeded anything he ever saw or heard of before, and he recommends all vessels bound for Europe to go south of the banks.

WARLIKE.—New York, March 1.—Capt. Whitely of the Ordnance Department received an order on Thursday from the War Department, to put Governor's Island, in this harbor, in a state of war defense.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The U. S. Treasurer reports the amount in the Treasury subject to draft upwards of twenty-two millions seven hundred thousand dollars.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 29.—The ship Telegraph, of Boston, previously reported on fire at Tybee, was totally destroyed. She had on board 5000 barrels flour, part of which was burnt, and the remainder badly damaged.

CHARLESTON, March 1.—Acquitted.—Lakeman, late first mate of ship Ariel, on trial here for the murder of Capt. Eayrs, has been acquitted.

ALBANY, Feb. 29.—The Committee on the Prohibitory Liquor Law in the Assembly have just reported a bill in favor of repeal.

The injunction applied for to restrain the Ohio and Mississippi Railroad from laying tracks across the Dyke to Bloody Island, opposite St. Louis, has been refused.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 27.—The fugitive slave case which has been pending before United States Commissioner Pendry was decided by him to-day, in favor of the claimants, and the slaves ordered into their custody. They are still held by the sheriff, however, under an indictment for murder.

CINNATTI, Feb. 28.—Judge Leavitt decided to-day that the Kentucky fugitive slaves were in the custody of the United States Marshall, and they were accordingly delivered over to him, and they have just been escorted by 200 specials across the river. Intense feeling prevails among the citizens.

CHICAGO, Feb. 29.—Assault upon an Editor and its Consequences.—Thomas Hayne, U. S. District Attorney, attacked Charles Wilson, editor of the Chicago Journal, in the street, yesterday, striking him a severe blow in the face. Mr. Wilson returned the blow, knocking Hayne through the window of the State Bank. The difficulty was occasioned by the comments of the Journal on the political course of Hayne.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Supreme Court has adjourned for one month. No decision was given on the case involving the Missouri Compromise, though it was twice the subject of conference. It will be the first case considered on the re-assembling of the Court in April.

HE IS A BROTHER.—From a Canandaigua despatch it appears that Mr. Fillmore is a brother in good standing of Council 177 of New York, and that he has been duly invested in said Council with all the honors of the first, second and third degrees of Know Nothingism.

Some of the newspapers that looked favorably upon the nomination of Mr. Fillmore, at first supposing him only to be a pure hunker whig, are beginning to give back, when they find that he has entered a Know Nothing lodge and passed through three degrees.—The Boston Advertiser says, "that in taking the incident oaths and obligations, he has forfeited the respect of the intelligent and honest people of the United States, to an extent that will make his election impossible."

GREAT SUFFERING AT SEA.—The barque Ward Chipman arrived at Savannah on Sunday last from Malta, after a passage of 111 days. On the 20th of December, Capt. Ferguson died, and the crew supposing they were near land, kept the body to be buried ashore; but no land appearing, it was consigned to the deep. A few weeks after the captain died provisions grew scarce, and the crew killed the two dogs, and used them for food. On the 11th of February they were fallen in with by the ship Evening Star, the captain of which put a man on board to bring the barque into port. For the last two months there was a succession of gales, and but for the fortunate event of being fallen in with the vessel would never have reached her destination.—Boston Transcript.

In the Georgia legislature the bill appropriating $50,000 to aid the emigration of Georgians to Kansas was rejected, 42 to 62. The opposition to the bill was predicated upon the ground that it was not wise policy for Georgia, as a state, by legislative enactment, to aid in populating Kansas.

MR F. H. Bacon, of Chicago, formerly o New London, Conn., was knocked down by a runaway horse on the 21st, and was so badly injured that his recovery is quite doubtful.

ADAMS'
Wholesale and retail
CORSET WAREROOM,
28 Winter Street,
BOSTON.
(Removed from Washington,)
The Corset Warerooms of
THIRTY YEARS.
(Established in 1825.)
Also the inventor of ADAMS'S PATENT ABDOMINAL SUPPORTER, and the only place where the genuine articles can be obtained

MRS. ADAMS has recently returned from Europe, where, among the looms and weaving rooms of France, she has devoted the best part of a year in re-arranging and symmetrizing the best features of the French Woven Corset, adapting it to the necessities of the peculiarly delicate structure of the American women, and is happy to say that in these efforts she has been eminently successful; and since presenting her experiments, the increased demand has been continual. Thinking it best to introduce these beautiful and ever fitting articles by some other than the formidable name of Stay or Corset, she calls them BODICES. They are so constructed as to give a sustaining brace to the back, shoulders and abdomen, at the same time inducing an expansion of the chest never before attained in anything of similar purpose. The next consideration is the price, it being as low as the most ordinary and ill-shaped of other manufacture, whilst the style and texture surpasses other goods hitherto disposed of at most exhorbitant charges.

Mrs. A. would invite the attention of dealers, and would assure them that an investmnt in these goods, at the fixed low prices, is the same as gold already twice told. All orders promptly and judiciously attended to.

For sale, the WERLEY CORSET, of the Boston Agent, as above.

☞ Mrs. Adams has no store on Washington street, nor are her goods for sale by any agent, or at any other place than the Corset Warerooms, 28 Winter street, Boston.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE Machines have long sustained the highest reputation in the United States.

The First Prize—A Gold Medal,

Has recently been awarded to them at the Palace of Industry in Paris, and thus they have the WORLD'S VERDICT OF SUPERIORITY.

The Inventor has just added to these superior Machines an improvement whereby they can work on any kind of
FAMILY SEWING,
From a coarse Cotton fabric to the finest Linen Bosom, in such a perfect manner as no other Machine processes.

They will also Bar and close all kinds of Kid Boots and Shoes, and stitch the finest Gaiter Boots in every part without a skip—making them the most desirable for girls to use at home, or for any who wish to do more than one kind of work.

These Machines are warranted to do all kinds of work in a manner far superior to any other machine in use.

They run without noise, with ease to the Operator, and at double the ordinary speed, so that
Twice as much Work can be done in a Day.

The greatest Shoe Manufacturing and Clothing Establishments in the country use these Machines exclusively, having tried other Machines and found them entirely unfit for their use.

They are simple, and cost scarcely anything to to keep them in repair; and can be operated by a child twelve years old.

Old Sewing Machines of any patent taken in part pay for new Machines.

These Machines may be had at Manufacturers' prices, of
THOMAS S. NOWELL,
Local Agent for New Hampshire, at his Shoe Manufactory, McDonough street, Portsmouth, where they may be seen in operation. d29

Rev. Daniel Waldo, the newly elected Chaplain of the national House of Representatives, was settled about twenty years over the Congregational Church in West Suffield, Conn., and afterwards over the church in Exeter, a parish in Lebanon, in the same State. He is a native of Scotland, Conn., and graduated with high honors at Yale College, in 1788, sixty-eight years ago. During his collegiate course he was elected President of the Linonian Society. Among his classmates at Yale were Hon. Jeremiah Mason, Senator from New Hampshire; Hon. John Woodworth, Chief Justice of New York, now a resident of Albany; Hon. John Lanman, Senator from Connecticut; Rev. Moses Hallock, whose sons are prominent citizens of New York; Rev. Dr. Calvin Chapin, Hon. Wm. Johnson, and others. Of late Mr. Waldo has resided at Syracuse, N. Y. His age is some ninety-two years.

Dr. Channing has just been introduced to continental readers through a French translation of his ethical writings, by Professor Laboulaye, of Paris. These two volumes comprise his essays on Education, on the Elevation of the Working Classes, a Ministry for the Poor, the Duty of Municipalities, and that fond and fruitful topic of gratuitous European comment, Slavery in the United States. These genial fruits of a mild and transparent morality are highly prized by an Italian critic, who appears to have a just perception of their superiority to the philosophical and social subtleties of a specious school of French speculators. He speaks of the author as a liberal and independent thinker, richly endowed with a soul of love, if not with an extraordinary intellect; and ascribes to him the most characteristic virtues of Fenelon and St. Pierre.—Portland Advertiser.

The Judiciary Committee of the Pennsylvania Legislature have negatived the bill for a change of venue from Delaware county to Philadelphia, in the case of Williamson vs. Kane.

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty) paid back by others, will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove this to be true; is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procuring of patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, or infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.—Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through Agents of the highest respectability. R. H. EDDY,

Solicitor of Patents.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

ABOTT 17, 1854.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,

Commissioner of Patents.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.

SIR JAMES CLARKE'S

Celebrated Female Pills.

PROTECTED BY ROYAL LETTERS PATENT

PREPARED from a prescription of Sir James Clarke, M.D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen. This invaluable Medicine is unfailing in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases incident to the female constitution.

It moderates all excess, removes all obstructions, and brings on the monthly period with regularity. These Pills should be used two or three weeks previous to confinement; they fortify the constitution, and lessen the suffering during labor, enabling the mother to perform her duties with safety to herself and child.

These Pills should not be taken by females during the FIRST THREE MONTHS of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they are safe.

In all cases of Nervous and Spinal Affections, pain in the Back and Limbs, Heaviness, Fatigue on slight Exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Lowness of Spirits, Hysterics, Sick Headache, Whites and all the painful diseases occasioned by a disordered system, these Pills will affect a cure when all other means have failed, and although a powerful remedy, do not contain iron, calomel, antimony or any other mineral.

Full directions accompanying each package.—Price in the United States and Canada, One Dollar.

Sole Agents for the United States and Canada, I. C. BALDWIN & CO., Rochester, N.Y.

Swaim's Celebrated Panacea,

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Scrofula, General Debility, White Swelling, Rheumatism, Diseases of the Liver and Skin, and all Diseases arising from Impurities of the Blood, and the effects of Mercury.

SWAIM'S PANACEA has been for more than thirty years celebrated in this country and in Europe for its extraordinary cures, for the certificates of which reference is made to the directions and books (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Panacea.

It has been used in hospitals and private practice, as it has had the singular fortune to be recommended by the most celebrated physicians and other eminent persons. Among others by W. Gibson, MD, Prof. of Surgery, Pa. University. Valentine Mott, MD, Prof. Surgery, N. Y. Univ'ty. W. P. Dewees, MD, Prof. of Mid., Pa. University. N. Chapman, MD, Prof. of Physic, Pa. University. I. Parke, MD, Pres. College Physicians, Phila. Dr. Del Valle, Prof. of Medicine, Havana. Jose Ecarenco de Lua, Prof. of Surgery, Lisbon. G. W. Irving, late Minister to Spain. J. Chipman, Member Royal Col. Surg., London. Sir Thomas Parsons, Maj. Gen. British Army. Gilbert Robertson, British Consul, &c., &c.

And, also, the wonderful cures effected by Swaim's Panacea, have for many years made it an invaluable remedy. The Panacea does not contain Mercury in any form, and being an innocent preparation, it may be given to the most tender infant.

The retail price has been reduced to $1.50 per bottle (containing three half pints,) or three bottles for $4.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Swaim's Panacea is in round bottles, fluted longitudinally, with the following letters blown on the glass:

"SWAIMS—PANACEA—PHILADA."

and having the name JAS. SWAIM stamped on the sealing wax, and written on the label covering the cork; and a splendid engraving for the side of the bottle, composed of a geometric lathe work, comprising nine different dies, which have been in use for the exclusive use of the proprietor, by Draper & Co., bank note engravers, Philadelphia. In the centre is a portrait of the late Wm. Swaim, copyright secured.

ALSO, SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE.

A valuable Family Medicine, being a highly approved remedy for all diseases arising from debility of the digestive organs, such as Worms, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, Fever and Ague, Bleeding Piles, Sick Headache, &c. See the Pamphlet (which may be had gratis) accompanying the Vermifuge.

Prepared only at SWAIM'S LABORATORY, OLD STAND, Seventh St., below Chestnut, Philadelphia, and sold by all the respectable Druggists in the United States.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.—Persons wishing to obtain the genuine SWAIM'S PANACEA and SWAIM'S VERMIFUGE, should be careful to observe that the name SWAIM is spelled correctly on the bottles and labels; or they may be imposed on by medicines made in imitation of them, by a person bearing a somewhat similar name, well calculated to deceive.

In House of Representatives, Tuesday, July 10th, 1855.

Upon the consideration of the bill entitled, "An Act to establish the County of Amoskeag—"

Resolved, That the bill be postponed to the next session of the Legislature, and that notice be given of the proposed bill in the usual manner.

A true copy, attest JOHN H. GOODALE, Clerk of the House.

AN ACT to constitute the County of Amoskeag.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:—

SECTION 1. That there be, and hereby is, constituted and established within this State, a County by the name of Amoskeag, which is hereby vested with all similar powers, privileges and immunities, and made subject to the like liabilities as other Counties in this State.

SEC. 2. The said County of Amoskeag shall contain all the land and waters, included within the City of Manchester, and the towns of Bedford, Goffstown, New Boston, Weare, Deering, Hillsborough, which now constitute a part of the County of Hillsborough; and Auburn, Derry, Londonderry, Salem and Windham, which now constitute a part of the County of Rockingham; and the said city and towns be, and the same hereby are, severed and disandexed from said County of Hillsborough, and said County of Rockingham.

SEC. 3. Two terms of the Supreme Judicial Court shall be holden at Manchester, in and for said County of Amoskeag,

Two terms of the Court of Common Pleas shall be holden at said Manchester, in and for said county of Amoskeag, on the Tuesday of and Tuesday of in each and every year.

And a Probate Court shal be holden within and for said county of Amoskeag at the times and places following, to wit:—At the city of Manchester on the first Tuesday of each and every month of the year; at Hillsborough on the Wednesday following the first Tuesday of January, May, July and November, in each and every year; and at Weare on the Wednesday following the first Tuesday of March and September in each and every year; and at Derry on the Wednesday following the first Tuesday of February, April, August and December, in each and every year.

And the said Supreme Judicial Court, Court of Common Pleas, and Probate Court, respectively, shall and may have and exercise, similar jurisdiction within and for said county of Amoskeag, and possess and enjoy like powers and privileges as by the constitution and laws may be exercised and enjoyed by the Supreme Judicial Court, Court of Common Pleas, and Probate Courts, respectively, in other counties in this State.

SEC. 4. That the Representatives of the city and towns composing said county of Amoskeag be, and they hereby are, authorized and empowered to form themselves into a convention for the purpose of granting and appropriating taxes for defraying the expenses of said county, in the same way and manner as the representatives of towns composing other counties are authorized and empowered to do,—said taxes to be assessed and collected in the same way and manner as county taxes are assessed and collected in other counties; and said convention shall have all the powers of conventions of the other counties in this State.

SEC. 5. That a Judge of Probate, Register of Probate, Sheriff, Register of Deeds, County Treasurer and County Commissioner, and all other officers shall be appointed and chosen for and within said county of Amoskeag in the same way and manner as by the constitution and laws of this State they are required to be made and chosen in and for the other counties thereof.

SEC. 6. All civil actions, suits, petitions, processes, matters and things, which shall be pending in or made returnable to the Superior Court of Judicature or Court of Common Pleas, respectively, in said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, at the time when this act shall take effect, in which the plaintiff, petitioner or prosecutor shall reside, in any town or city in said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, the same shall, when this act takes effect, remain, have day, be returned, heard and determined in the respective Courts to be holden in and for said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, as the same shall be after this act takes effect in the same way and manner as if this act had not been passed; and all civil actions, suits, petitions, processes, matters and things, which shall be pending in or made returnable to the Superior Court or Court of Common Pleas, in said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, at the time when this act shall take effect, in which the plaintiff, petitioner or prosecutor shall reside, in any town or city in said county of Amoskeag, shall be removed to, have day, be heard and determined in said Courts respectively, in and for said county of Amoskeag, in the same way and manner as if the same had been commenced and instituted in said Courts after this act shall take effect; and all other actions, suits, petitions, processes, matters and things, except as specified in the nineteenth section of this act, which shall be pending in or made returnable to said Superior Court or Court of Common Pleas in said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, at the time when this act shall take effect, shall remain, have day, be heard and determined in said Courts respectively, in said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, as the same shall be after this act takes effect, in the same way and manner as if this act had not been passed, unless the Justices of said Courts respectively, shall order and direct the same or any of them to be removed to said county of Amoskeag; and in case said Justices shall so order and direct, the said actions, suits, petitions, processes, matters and things, so ordered and directed to be removed, shall have day, be heard and determined in the respective Courts in said county, to which the same may be so ordered and directed to be removed, in the same way and manner as if the same had been commenced therein.

SEC. 7. All matters pending in the Probate Court in said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, at the time when this act takes effect, and all business necessary to be transacted in the Probate Court relative to the settlement of the estate of any person who shall have deceased prior to the time when this act takes effect shall be done and transacted, at the Probate Court within and for said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, and under the order, direction and adjustment of the Judge of Probate for the time being, of said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham and in the same way and manner as if this act had not been passed.

SEC. 8. All the records, public files and documents belonging to the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham at the time when this act takes effect, shall remain the property of said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, and shall be delivered over to the proper officers within and for said counties.

SEC. 9. All the estate, property and public buildings belonging to the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham at the time when this act takes effect, other than the records, public files and documents aforesaid, shall be the property of the counties within which the same may be located, except all real estate which has been set off to the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, in other towns in part, or in whole of any execution in favor of said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, which said real estate, so set off, shall be sold and converted into money by the Court of Common Pleas for the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, as it may be at the time this act takes effect, and be disposed of as is prescribed in the tenth section of this act.

SEC. 10. The balance of all the moneys which may be in the treasury of said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, when this act takes effect, after paying all the debts which may then be due from said counties, shall be divided, under the direction of the Court of Common Pleas for said counties of Hillsborough, Rockingham and Amoskeag, in proportion to the amount of public taxes to be paid by the several cities and towns in said counties respectively, agreeable to the last apportionment thereof by the Legislature.—And all the taxes voted to be raised and assessed by the convention of the Representatives for said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham at the present session of the Legislature, which are to be paid by the towns and cities composing the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, after this act shall take effect, shall be assessed and collected under the authority of the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham and paid into the treasury thereof in the same way and manner, as if this act had not been passed. And all taxes to be raised and assessed as aforesaid which are to be paid by the towns and city composing said county of Amoskeag shall be assessed and collected, under the authority of said county of Amoskeag and paid into the treasury thereof, in the same way and manner as if the same had been voted to be raised and assessed by a convention of said county of Amskeag. And any collector of taxes in any city or town in said county of Amoskeag, to whom any list of taxes shall have been committed prior to the time when this act takes effect and who has not completed the collection thereof, shall be and is hereby authorized to proceed in the collection of said taxes in the same way and manner as if this act had not been passed, excepthat in case any such collector shall proceed to commit to gaol any person for the non-payment of any tax, such commitment shall be to the gaol of the county of Amoskeag. Provided however, That until a gaol be erected and made ready for the commitment of the prisoners in said county of Amoskeag, it shall be lawful for such commitment to be to the gaol in said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham.

SEC. 11. Every sheriff within and for the county of Amoskeag, whose duty it shall be to commit to gaol any person in his custody, shall have authority to commit such person to the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham until a gaol shall have been erected and made ready for the confinement of prisoners in said county of Amoskeag, and all expenses incurred in the support and custody of such prisoners shall be paid out of the treasury of the county of Amoskeag.

SEC. 12. The Governor and Council shall appoint some suitable person to perform the duties of Treasurer and Register of Deeds for said county of Amoskeag, both of whom shall be freeholders and residents in said county, and who shall be sworn and give bonds for the faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices, in the same manner as is now prescribed by law for persons elected to said offices. And the persons so appointed, shall be invested in their respective offices with all the powers and shall be subject to all the liabilities, incident thereto, in the same manner as if they had been chosen thereto at an annual election, and they shall hold their respective offices until persons shall be elected thereto at the next annual election, and qualified to enter upon the duties thereof.

Provided however, That until such Treasurer and Register of Deeds for said county of Amoskeag shall be appointed and qualified as aforesaid, all deeds and other instruments, that may be necessary to be recorded in the Registry of Deeds in the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham as is now provided, shall be recorded therein in the same way and manner as if this act had not been passed, and all business necessary to be transacted, relating to the treasurer of said county of Amoskeag, shall be done and transacted by the treasurer, for the following time of said counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham in the same way and manner as if this act had not been passed.

SEC. 13. A term of the Supreme Judical Court shall be holden at in and for said county of Hillsborough on the which terms of said Court shall be instead of those now established by law for said county.

And the Court of Common Pleas for said county of Hillsborough shall be holden at the following times and places, viz:

SEC. 14. The Judges of Probate and Registers of Probate for said counties of Hillsborough, Rockingham and Amoskeag, shall receive annually out of the treasury of the State, the following sums, their respective salaries for their services, to be paid quarterly payments, that is to say: the Judge of probate for said county of Hillsborough dollars; the Register of Probate for said county shall receive dollars; and the Judge of Probate for said county of Rockingham shall receive dollars; the Register of Probate for said county shall receive dollars; the Judge of Probate for the county of Amoskeag dollars; the register of Probate for said county dollars. The Sheriff of the county of Hillsborough shall retain out of the moneys received by him by virtue of his said office, for his own use, if he all have received so much, the sum of dollars; and the Sheriff of Rockingham shall retain dollars if he shall have received so much; and the Sheriff of said county of Amoskeag, the sum of dollars, if he shall have received much, which sums shall be in full for their respective salaries as Sheriffs. And the Treasurer for the county of Hillsborough shall have and receive the sum dollars; and the Treasurer of the county of Rockingham shall receive the sum of dollars; and Treasurer of the county of Amoskeag shall have and receive the sum of dollars annually, out of the Treasury of their respective counties, which several sums shall be allowed to them on their annual statement of the condition of the several treasuries to the Court of Common Pleas for their respective counties.

SEC. 15. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 16. This act shall take effect on the day of A. 185 .

Provided however, It shall so far take effect the passage thereof that all officers to be appointed in and for said counties of Hillsborough, Rockingham and Amoskeag, agreeably to the provisions of this act, shall and may be appointed, commissioned and qualified at any time after the passage of this act.

SEC. 17. It shall be the duty of the Supreme Judicial Court and Court of Common Pleas, on or before the day when this act shall take effect, to appoint a clerk of their respective Courts, for said county of Amoskeag, who shall give bonds and immediately thereafter enter upon the duties of his office in the same way and manner as Clerks in other counties to tbiate are required by law to do.

SEC. 18. All claims existing against the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, for bills of costs and damages, incurred by lying out of any new highway, shall be paid from the balance of moneys that may be in said Treasury after paying all other debts, if the balance of said moneys shall not be sufficient to pay said claims, the same shall be paid by their respective counties in which said new highways are so laid out.

SEC. 19. All indictments, informations and complaints, where the offence is therein alleged to have been committed, in any city or town situate in said county of Amoskeag, and all subpoenas, scire facias es and recognizances of parties and witnesses, relating thereto, which, at the time this act takes effect, are commenced, pending in or made returnable to the Court of Common Pleas or Supreme Judicial Court for the counties of Hillsborough and Rockingham, shall be transferred and made returnable to, and be heard, tried, have day and be prosecuted to final judgment and execution in the Court of Common Pleas, and Supreme Judicial Court, respectively, next to be held within and for said county of Amoskeag.

TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 1856.

A NEW PLATFORM.

The Dover Gazette of March 1, in an editorial article headed "Clerical Politicians," says:—

There is quite an outcry among the abolitionist Hindoos in relation to the admirable letter of Rev. J. C. Lovejoy, published in our last. Nothing else could be expected from the loud mouthed demagogues of that class.—They are thrown into a state of feverish excitement, because Mr. Lovejoy tells them some stunning home truths. They are now taunting the Democrats with following clerical politicians, and seeking to convict them of inconsistency in approving one class and condemning another. On this, however, they exhibit their usual meanness and misrepresentation. They are fully aware, what every intelligent man understands, that democrats do not object to Ministers expressing their opinions on all proper occasions, and yet they falsely charge them with a contrary course. The following from the Union Democrat expresses our own opinion so fully that we give it for the benefit of our readers:

"The American assumes to retort the complaint sometimes made by Democratic papers that clergymen interfere with politics. For one, we reply, that we never have objected to any action a clergyman might deem proper to take in regard to politics, out of the pulpit.—He may, if he likes, devote six days of the week to that matter, talking and acting and voting like other men. But we have objected, and do object, to any attempt on his part, to exert the influence he ought to have over his Sabbath congregation, to promote the interests of a particular party, or prejudice those of another. Here would seem to be as much latitude as any minister should desire, and we are not aware that Mr. Lovejoy has gone beyond it.

This is the democratic clerical platform, at this time, as we learn it from the Union Democrat and Dover Gazette united. It amounts to this,—Ministers may speak, act, and vote, politically, without offence, provided they will not preach partisan politics in the pulpit, nor on Sunday. This is mostly very well, and might be altogether so, if they would just say what such politics are!

Some ministers have preached temperance, as a moral and social duty, in the pulpit and on Sunday, as well as at other times and places, for many years. Shall these men cease to preach because any man or set of men have forced that subject into politics, and suppose it will benefit or damage their party? We trow not.

The Reverend J. C. Lovejoy is introduced, most unfortunately, as a model minister in this respect, one who kept strictly within the bounds here prescribed by the Union Democrat, and ratified by the Dover Gazette. But it happens that this same Mr. Lovejoy, while he was the pastor of an orthodox church in Cambridge, did preach a sermon, in his own pulpit, against the liquor law, which sermon was published, and of which we were favored with a copy. We (Uncle T.) reviewed that sermon in a religious periodical—but we never questioned his right to preach or print it.—We only allude to it now, for the purpose of laughing at the idea of ranking him a mode of clerical modesty and propriety in this regard!

But the richest part of the document is,—that according to the Dover Gazette, democrats do not object, and have not objected, to Ministers expressing their opinions on all proper occasions!—and the Union Democrat tells us what occasions are proper, viz., all but the pulpit and Sunday. On other days, (all the six if they please,) they may talk, act, and vote, like other men.

To all this, the Dover Gazette says, Yes sir—you express our opinion fully! Democrats allow all this, and it the abolitionist Hindoos make an outcry to the contrary, they exhibit their usual meanness and misrepresentation.

Now the Gazette and Democrat have probably heard of one Stephen A. Douglas, said to be the author of the Nebraska bill, and claiming, we think, to be a Democrat. When that bill came out, new, before any party had adopted it, three thousand ministers, of various sects, not in the pulpit nor on Sunday, but in their solemn protest against the bill, spoke, and acted, and wrote against it, exactly as we are now told they had a right to do, and as no democrat objects to their doing.

But the said Stephen was wroth, and sent out his objection in the form of a mighty yell, which rang throughout the land, calling them hypocrites, telling them they should not meddle with politics, and warning them that the people would do something dreadful if they did.

This great yell was caught up by the great and little echoes, all over the country—and we and many others, laughed at it, as it deserved.

And now, forsooth, because a political ex-parson or two take the stamp, we are told as above, there is no objection—and never was! but that all good Democrats have allowed and do allow ministers not only to meddle with politics, but to do it like other men!

Verily the earth moves!

PROSPECTS IN NEW HAMPSHIRE.

We will hazard no guesses of our own, as to the result of the State Election—but we copy from the Gazette of Saturday evening, the first two paragraphs, and also the closing paragraph, of an article headed "Democrats! to the Rescue!"

Boys, compelled to pass by grave-yards in dark nights, are wont to whistle to keep their courage up; and the Hindoos going through the Valley and Shadow of political death, are endeavoring by loud vaunting and simulated confidence to get rid of the terrors that oppress them. The intelligent among them know full well that their cause in this State is ruined past redemption, and that the spasmodic efforts they are making are but a feint to cover their defeat.

Their blowing of trumpets and clashing of symbols, their shoutings and empty clamor are intended to produce an exaggerated impression of their strength and thus to secure for themselves more favorable terms. * * *

We deny not, that the prospect before us is threatening. We are not blind to the darkness of the tempest which seems to gather around us—but we see above the clouds the STAR of the CONSTITUTION, shining in near and clear serenity. We hail its auspicious brilliancy, and are inspired with a hope that through its saving guidance, we shall be enabled to weather the storm and ride triumphantly through the gale!

THE PROSPECTS OF PEACE appear to be acceptable to all parties in England, and the Liverpool Journal sums up the general feeling thus:—

No rational man can doubt that hostilities, for the present, at least, are at an end. The belligerent London press, that is, all the daily papers, at length, confess that Russia is sincere in her proposals, and that peace is acceptable to all the peoples of Europe. The Russians are delighted with it; France is in an ecstasy; and Great Britain is only apprehensive that there may be a hitch in the negotiations. Numerous persons wish that it were otherwise, for their occupations are in danger, but the masses everywhere are adverse to the continuance of the war, and its—cost.

If people would pause to turn circumstances to account, the war would be doubly profitable in the way of teaching. We have all along contended that the great bulk of our public were indifferent, or somewhat dubious as to, the object of the war. They rejoiced at the achievements of the troops, detested the enemy, and sympathized with national glory; but their heart was not in the East, and they rather disliked the Turk. Those who had the opportunity of making a noise, imputed their own feelings to others; but the very chance of peace has demonstrated how very erroneous were their conclusions.—The press did not speak the real or modified opinions of the country.

No doubt, the peace feeling has been greatly increased by a perfect knowledge of the incompetency of the men to whom the direction of the war was committed. Never was a brave army given in command to generals so incapable of taking care of it, either in the field or in the camp. The Duke of Newcastle, it is now proved by the report of the Crimean Commissioners, left nothing undone in the way of provisioning the troops. There was a superabundance of everything at the seat of war, but military routine was the bulkhead between the starving soldier and a lavish or necessary supply. Poor fellow!—obedience was his duty, and he perished of cold or hunger; he could not break through the horrible orders.

The returns of the poor for 1855, show Newburyport as heretofore, to have the largest number of persons in any town in the county, needing help for support—671. Salem is second with 436; Lawrence third with 235; and no other place came up to 150. The whole number in the County relieved by the authorities, was 2417—of which, as will be seen, we have more than one quarter. Of the 671 about one-half, 337, had a legal settlement in the Commonwealth; and 500 were assisted out of the house. It is the out-door support that swells our numbers; Salem relieved but 288 out of the house. In the house our average number was 65; and Danvers with 70, and Salem with 72, were before us. The Overseers have returned that we had last year 540 paupers that were made so by intemperance in themselves or others.

The number of paupers in and out of the Alms-houses, in the following towns, were, Amesbury 53, Georgetown 20, Groveland 7, Ipswich 55, Newbury 52, Salisbury 35, West Newbury, 41. The pauper tax in Essex County is not less than fifty cents a head on the entire population. It is returned as $65,535; but as Newburyport is several thousand dollars understated in the figures, it is fair to presume that the whole amount is $75,000 at least.—Newburyport Herald.
